22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, "Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, 'Set it by thee.'"

24 And the cook took up the shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, "Behold that which is left! set it before thee, and eat: for unto this time hath it been kept for thee since I said, 'I have invited the People.'" So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

25 And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel communed with Saul upon the top of the house.

26 And they arose early: and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, "Up, that I may send thee away." And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Bid the servant pass on before us," (and he passed on,) "but stand thou still a while, that I may shew thee the word of God."

A 10 Then Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, "Is it not because the LORD hath anointed thee to be captain over His inheritance?"

2 When thou art departed from me to day, then thou shalt find two men by Rachel's sepulchre in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee, 'The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, 'What shall I do for my son?''

3 Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the plain of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God to Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine:

4 And they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread; which thou shalt receive of their hands.

5 After that thou shalt come to the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall come to pass, when thou art come thither to the city, that thou shalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they shall prophesy:

6 And the Spirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man.

x 7 And let it be, when these signs are come unto thee, that thou do as occasion serve thee; for God is with thee.

x 8 And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice

9 And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, 3 God gave him ° another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day.

10 And when they came thither to the hill, 8 behold, a company of prophets met him; and 6 the Spirit of 3 God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, 8 behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the People said one to another, ° "What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"

12 And one ° of the same place answered and said, "But who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb, ° "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

(p. 376) 14 And Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, "Whither went ye?" And he said, "To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel."

15 And Saul's uncle said, "Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you."

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, "He told us plainly that the asses were found." But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

(p. 379) 17 And Samuel called the People together unto 1 the LORD to Mizpeh; z1 18 And said unto the ° children of Israel, ° "Thus saith 1 the LORD 3 God of Israel, ° 3 brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

19 And ye have this day rejected your 3 God, Who Himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations; and ye have said unto Him, ° "Nay, but set a king over us."

y2 Now therefore present yourselves ° before 1 the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands."

z2 20 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin ° was taken.

21 When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, ° and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they ° enquired of 1 the LORD further, if the ° man should yet come thither. And 1 the LORD answered, ° "Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff."

23 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the People, he was higher than any of the People from his shoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the People, ° "See ye him whom 1 the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the People?"

y3 And all the People shouted, and said, ° "God save the king."

z3 25 Then Samuel told the People the manner of the kingdom, and ° wrote it in a book, and laid it up before 1 the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD. This rehearsal is to show that they had sinned, although He was giving a king. Their sin was not in asking, but in forestalling Jehovah's already expressed purpose to give them a king (see Deut. 17. 15 and cp. Gen. 49. 10).

And Samuel sent all the people away, every 22 man to his house.

26 And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts 3 God had ° touched.

27 But the 18 children of Belial said, ° "How shall this man save us?" And they despised him, and brought him no presents. But ° he held his peace.

³ the LORD.

(p. 384) Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them." And they said, "Do whatsoever seem-q Then said the priest, "Let us draw near hither unto ¹⁸ God."

37 And Saul asked counsel of ¹⁸ God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt Thou deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But He answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, "Draw ye near hither, all the chief of the People: and know and see

Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the People escaped.

42 And Saul said, "Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son." And Jonathan was taken.

him, and said, "I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, went forward to the word "Israel" a line or two farther in two ancient versions, older than any Heb. MS.

extant. These omitted words are enclosed within brackets below, in the translation given of the Sept.

974 anointed thee king over Israel?

18 And ¹the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, 'Go and utterly destroy the ^osinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until ^othey be consumed.'

19 Wherefore then didst thou not ^oobey the voice of ¹the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst ^oevil in the sight of ¹the LORD?"

R² i² 20 And Saul said unto Samuel, "Yea, I have (p. 386) ^oobeyed the voice of ¹the LORD, and have gone the way which ¹the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the People took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto ¹the LORD thy ¹⁵God in Gilgal."

k² 22 And Samuel said, "Hath ¹the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of ¹the LORD? ¹²Behold, ^oto obey is better than sacrifice, and ^oto hearken than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the ^osin of ^owitchcraft, and stubbornness is as ^oiniquity and idolatry.
Because thou hast rejected the word of ¹the LORD, He hath also rejected thee from being king."

i² 24 And Saul said unto Samuel, "I have ²³sinned: for I have ^otransgressed the ^ocom-mandment of ¹the LORD, and thy ^owords: because I feared the People, and ²⁰obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my ²³sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship ¹the LORD."

S² 26 And Samuel said unto Saul, "I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of ¹the LORD, and ¹the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel."

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, ^ohe laid hold upon the skirt of ^ohis mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, ¹"The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also ^othe ^oStrength of Israel will not lie nor ^orepent: for ^oHe is not ^oa man, that He should ^orepent."

R³ i³ 30 Then he said, "I have ²³sinned: yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my People, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship ¹the LORD thy ¹⁵God."

k³ 31 So Samuel turned again after Saul;

i³ and Saul worshipped ¹the LORD.

Q² 32 Then said Samuel, "Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites." And Agag came unto him ^odelicately. And Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

33 And Samuel said, ^o"As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women." And Samuel 974 2 And Samuel said, "How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me." And ¹the LORD said, "Take an heifer ^owith thee, and say, 'I am come to sacrifice to ¹the LORD.'

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and ³will shew thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto Me him whom I name unto thee."

m (p. 387) 4 And Samuel did that which ¹the LORD spake, and came to ^oBeth-lehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and ^osaid, "Comest thou peaceably?"

5 And he said, "Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto ¹the LORD: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." And he sanctified ^oJesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

l 6 And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said, "Surely ¹the LORD'S anointed is before Him."

7 But ¹the LORD said unto Samuel, "Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for ^othe LORD seeth not as ^oman ^oseeth; for ^oman ^olooketh on the outward appearance, but ¹the LORD ^olooketh on the ^oheart."

8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, "Neither hath ¹the LORD chosen this."

9 ^oThen Jesse made ^oShammah to pass by. And he said, "Neither hath ¹the LORD chosen this."

10 ^oAgain, Jesse made ^oseven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, "¹"The LORD hath not chosen these."

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, "^o"Are here all thy ^ochildren?" And he said, "There remaineth yet the ^oyoungest, and, ^obehold, ^ohe keepeth the sheep." And Samuel said unto Jesse, "Send and fetch him: for we will not sit ^odown till he come hither."

12 And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, ^oand withal of a beautiful countenance, and ^ogoodly to look to. And ¹the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him: for this is he."

37 David said moreover, "The LORD That delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, He will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said unto David, "Go, and the LORD be with thee."

s (p. 389) 38 And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, "I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them." And David put them off him.

40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand:

44 And the Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field."

50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith.

And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent.

Y (p. 389) 55 And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, "Abner, whose son is this youth?" And Abner said, "As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell."

56 And the king said, "Inquire thou whose son the stripling is."

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, "Whose son art thou, thou young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

18 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the People, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

X 6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of musick.

7 And the women answered one another as they played, and said, "Saul hath slain his thousands, And David his ten thousands."

Y 8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom?"

9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

V 10 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, "I will smite David even to the wall with it." And David avoided out of his presence twice.

18 And David said unto Saul, "Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?"

19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto Adriel the Meholathite to wife.

m² 20 And Michal Saul's daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul said, "I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Wherefore Saul said to David, "Thou shalt this day be my son in law in the one of the twain."

22 And Saul commanded his servants, saying, "Commune with David secretly, and say, 'Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son in law.'"

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, "Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?"

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, "On this manner spake David."

25 And Saul said, "Thus shall ye say to David, 'The king desireth not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies.'" But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law: and the days were not expired.

27 Wherefore David arose and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

E (p. 392) 28 And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal Saul's daughter loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy continually.

4 And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, "Let not the king sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good:

5 For he did put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?"

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, "As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain."

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things.

And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past.

8 And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, "Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to day?"

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, 'Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren.' Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table."

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, "Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?"

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die."

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, "Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?"

33 And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, "Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot." And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, "Is not the arrow beyond thee?"

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, "Make speed, haste, stay not." And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 And Jonathan gave his artillery unto his lad, and said unto him, "Go, carry them to the city."

41 And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded.

42 And Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, 'The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever.'" And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

2 And David said unto Ahimelech the priest, "The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, 'Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee:' and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place.

3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is present."

4 And the priest answered David, and said, "There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from women."

5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, "Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel."

6 So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the shewbread, that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, "And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son in law, and ^ogoeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?"

15 ^oDid I then begin to enquire of ³God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, ^onor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more."

Jeshimon?"

20 Now therefore, O king, come down accord-

2 And there was a °man in Maon, whose °possessions were in Carmel; and the °man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 Now the name of °the 2man was °Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the 2man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was °of the house of Caleb.

4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did shear his sheep.

b e 5 And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, "Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name:

6 And thus shall ye say to °him that liveth in prosperity, 'Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy °servants, and to thy son David.'

f 9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

e 10 And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, "Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days that break away every 2man from his master.

11 Shall I then take my bread, and my °water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto °men, whom I know not whence they be?"

38 And it came to pass about ten days after, that ° the LORD smote Nabal, that he died.

39 And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be ° the LORD, That hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept His servant from ° evil: for ° the LORD hath returned the ° wickedness of Nabal upon his own head." And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, "David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife."

41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, ° Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to ° wash the feet of the servants of my lord."

42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that ° went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives.

44 But Saul had given ° Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, which was of Gallim.

26 And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, "Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon?"

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

h (p. 402)

5 And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the People pitched round about him.

6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp?" And Abishai said, "I will go down with thee."

7 So David and Abishai came to the People by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster: but Abner and the People lay round about him.

8 Then said Abishai to David, "God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time."

9 And David said to Abishai, "Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD'S anointed, and be guiltless?"

10 David said furthermore, "As the LORD liveth, the LORD shall smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle, and perish.

11 The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORD'S anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go."

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off; a great space being between them:

16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the LORD'S anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster."

14 We made an invasion upon the south of the ° Cherethites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."

18 children=sons. the use of. The Ellipsis is wrongly supplied. The word "Lamentation" should be repeated from v. 17; "The Bow" being the subject of the Lamentation (v. 22).

the bow. This is the name of the Lamentation, because it is mentioned in v. 22; and it is what the tribe of Saul and Jonathan (Benjamin) was noted for (cp. 1 Chron. 8. 40; 12. 2. 2 Chron. 14. 8; 17. 17). For a similar reason the scripture (Ex. 3) about "The Bush" is so called in Mark 12. 26. Luke 20. 37.

For there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away,
The shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil.

From the fat of the mighty,
The bow of Jonathan turned not back,
And the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives,
And in their death they were not divided:
They were swifter than eagles,
They were stronger than lions.

Who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights,
Who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

960 26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan:
Very pleasant hast thou been unto me:
Thy love to me was wonderful,

b⁴ (p. 409) 27 ° How are the mighty fallen,
And the weapons of war perished!

A c (p. 410) 2 And it came to pass after this, that David °enquired of °the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?" And °the LORD said unto him, "Go up." And David said, "Whither shall I go up?" And He said, "Unto Hebron."

2 So David went up thither, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail °Nabal's wife the Carmelite.

3 And his °men that were with him did David bring up, every °man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

d e 4 And the °men of Judah came, and there they °anointed David king over the house of Judah.

f And they told David, saying, That "the °men of Jabesh-gilead were they that buried Saul."

5 And David sent messengers unto the °men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, "Blessed be ye of °the LORD, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him."

6 And now °the LORD shew kindness and truth unto you: and °J also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye °valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them."

d e 8 But Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took °Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim;

9 And made him king over Gilead, °and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

960 to 958 10 Ish-bosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years.

f But the house of Judah followed David.

c 11 And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

B g 12 And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met together by the pool of °Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Joab, "Let the °young men now arise, and °play before us." And Joab said, "Let them arise."

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day; and Abner was beaten, and the °men of Israel, before the servants of David.

18 And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foot °as a wild roe.

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, "Art thou Asahel?" And he answered, "Y am."

21 And Abner said to him, "Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, "Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother?"

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still.

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

g (p. 410) 26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, "Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the People return from following their brethren?"

27 And Joab said, "As God liveth, unless thou hadst spoken, surely then in the morning the People had gone up every one from following his brother."

h 28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

i 29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the People together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and threescore men died.

32 And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, "Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's concubine?"

When the Philistines did it in ignorance (1 Sam. 6. 7) no judgment fell on them, because the Law of Moses was not delivered to them. But David should have known: hence judgment came. The solemn lesson is that anything introduced into the worship of God contrary to His requirements is deserving of His judgments. This includes all that is contrary to John 4. 24, and all that is of the flesh, which "profiteth nothing" (John 6. 63). All this is like David's "new cart" and is sin in God's sight. word of ¹the LORD came unto Nathan, saying, s 6 Whereas I have not dwelt in any house since the time that I brought up the ^ochildren of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have ^owalked in a tent ^oand in a ^otabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I have walked with all the ^ochildren of Israel spake I a word with any of the ^otribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed My People Israel, saying, 'Why build ye not Me an house of cedar?'"

9 And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and ^ohave made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

11 And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over My People Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also ¹the LORD telleth thee that ^oHe will make thee an ^ohouse.

12 And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt ^osleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.

1 subdued. While David was victorious over enemies without, he was defeated by enemies within. See chs. 11 and 12.

Metheg-ammah. 1 Chron. 18. 1 gives us the meaning, and shows that Metheg = bridle or reins, is put by Fig. Metonymy (of Cause), Ap. 6, for power or government, and Ammah = mother-city: i. e. "Gath and her daughters (i. e. towns)" (1 Chron. 18. 1).

2 smote Moab. Thus fulfilling Num. 24. 17. measured = allotted, or divided by lot. See note on "line", below: i. e. David divided into two companies those who were to be spared and those who were not. them = the territory. Put by Fig. Metonymy (of Subject), Ap. 6, for their territory.

to put to death. These were soldiers in arms, not inhabitants.

3 Hadadezer. Some codices, with four early printed editions, Sept., Syr., and Vulg., read "Hadarezer" (cp. 1 Chron. 18. 3, 5). Some divide and make it two words. Zobah. See Ps. 60 (title), and cp. 1 Sam. 14. 47.

recover. Heb. cause his hand to cover: "hand" put by Fig. Metonymy (of Cause), Ap. 6, for possessing. border = boundary. 1 Chron. 18. 2, "establish his dominion there".

Euphrates. Cp. 1 Chron. 18. 3 and Gen. 15. 18.

9 When ^oToi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of ³Hadadezer,

10 Then ^oToi sent ^oJoram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against ³Hadadezer, and smitten him: for ³Hadadezer ^ohad wars with ^oToi. And ^oJoram brought ^owith him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass:

11 Which also king David did dedicate unto ⁶the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued;

12 Of ^oSyria, ^oand of Moab, and of the ^ochildren of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of ^oAmalek, and of the spoil of ³Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of ³Zobah.

13 And David ^ogat him a name when he returned from ^osmiting of the Syrians in the valley of salt, being ^oeighteen thousand men.

(p. 418) 14 And he put ^ogarrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and all they of Edom became David's servants.

And ⁶the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

(p. 419) 15 And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed judgment and justice unto all his People.

16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host;

17 And ^oZadok the son of Ahitub, and ^oAhimelech the son of ^oAbiathar, were the priests; and Seraiah was ^othe scribe;

and David's sons were chief rulers.

L M¹ N¹ i 9 And David said, "Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him ^okindness for Jonathan's sake?"

2 And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba. And when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, "Art thou Ziba?" And he said, "Thy servant is he."

3 And the king said, "Is there not yet ^oany of the house of Saul, that I may shew the ¹kindness of ^oGod unto him?"

And Ziba said unto the king, "Jonathan hath yet a son, which is ^olame on his feet."

4 And the king said unto him, "Where is he?"

And Ziba said unto the king, ^o"Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in ^oLo-debar."

the scribe. The first occurrence of this title. Heb. gōphār, a counter. Individual scribes held high positions as associates of the High Priests, and of the commander-in-chief. They were amanuenses, registrars, accountants (2 Kings 12. 10); adjutants (2 Kings 25. 19); secretaries of state (2 Sam. 8. 17. Isa. 33. 18). First occurrence as a class or caste (1 Chron. 2. 55); a branch of the Levites (2 Chron. 34. 13). When Priests, who should have been teachers of the Law (Deut. 17. 11; 33. 10), became absorbed in ritual, the Scribes became custodians. Ezra was an ideal priest and scribe.

948 6 Now when °Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, "Mephibosheth." And he answered, "Behold thy servant!"

m (p. 420) 7 And David said unto him, "Fear not: for I will surely shew thee ¹kindness for Jonathan °thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of °Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually."

8 And he bowed himself, and said, "What is thy servant, that thou shouldst look upon such °a dead dog as °am?"

m 9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, "I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread always at my table." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, "According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do." "As for Mephibosheth," said the king, "he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons."

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and °Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the People he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the ¹children of Ammon.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew the men of ° seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host,
who died there.

r 19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the ¹ chil-

2 And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon

3 And David sent and enquired after the 9 But Uriah slept at the ° door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying, "Uriah went not down unto his house," David said unto Uriah, "Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?"

11 And Uriah said unto David, "The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as ° thy

12 And David said to Uriah, "Tarry here to 942 day also, and to morrow I will let thee depart." So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

Y (p. 421) 14 And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, "Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire ye from him, that he may be smitten, and die."

W s¹ (p. 422) 16 And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant ° men were.

17 And the ° men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the People of the servants of David; t¹ and Uriah the Hittite died also.

s² 18 Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;

24 And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon: and the LORD loved him.

25 And He sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and He called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

26 And Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, "I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the People together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and it be called after my name."

29 And David gathered all the People together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.

quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, which had a well in his court; whither they went down.

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, "Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" And the woman said unto them, "They be gone over the brook of water." And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, "Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you."

22 Then David arose, and all the People that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

(p. 430) 23 And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city, and put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

J O¹ y (p. 432) 24 Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son, whose name was Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruah, Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

y 27 And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,

28 Brought beds, and basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse,

29 And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the People that were with him, to eat: for they said, "The People is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness."

z 18 And David numbered the People that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 And David sent forth a third part of the People under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the People, "I will surely go forth with you myself also."

3 But the People answered, "Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou succour us out of the city."

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom." And all the People heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the People went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the wood of Ephraim;

b (p. 432) 9 And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was °taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain °man saw it, and told Joab, and said, °Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak."

11 And Joab said unto the 10 man that told him, "And, 10 behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten shekels of silver, and a °girdle."

12 And the 10 man said unto Joab, "Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: for in °our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, °Beware that none touch the young man Absalom."

13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own °life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me."

14 Then said Joab, "I may not tarry thus with thee." And he took three °darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

933 15 And ten young men that bare Joab's °armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and °slew him.

N s (p. 436) 31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great ° man.

33 And the king said unto Barzillai, "Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem."

38 And the king answered, "Chimham shall go over with me, and ¶ will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee."

t 39 And all the people went over Jordan.

s And when the king was come over, the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place.

20 And there happened to be there a ° man of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the ° son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew a trumpet, and said, "¶e have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every ° man to his ° tents, O Israel."

2 So every ° man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the ° men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 Then said the king to Amasa, "Assemble me the ° men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present."

933 5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

a¹ (p. 436) 6 And David said to Abishai, "Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take ° thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us."

7 And there went out after him Joab's ° men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

z² 8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and ° as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, ° "Art thou in health, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died.

a² 11 So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Joab's ° men stood by him, and said, "He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab."

z³ 12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the ° man saw that all the People stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

13 When ° he was removed out of the highway, a³ all the ° People went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

c 15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maachah, and they cast up a ° bank against the city, and it stood in the ° trench: and all the People that were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.

b 16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, "Hear, ° hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, 'Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.'"

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, "Art thou Joab?" And he answered, "I am he." Then she said unto him, "Hear the words of thine handmaid." And he answered, "I do hear."

18 Then she spake, saying, "They were wont to speak in old time, saying, ° 'They shall surely ask counsel at Abel:' and so they ended the matter."

19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy ° a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of ° the LORD?"

21 Then there was a °famine in the days of David three years, °year after year; and David enquired of °the LORD. And °the LORD answered, "It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites."

2 And the king called the °Gibeonites, and said unto them; °(now the Gibeonites °were not of the °children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the °children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the °children of Israel and Judah.)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of °the LORD?"

4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, "We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill °any man in Israel." And he said, "What ye shall say, that will I do for you."

5 And they answered the king, "The °man that consumed us, and that devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the °coasts of Israel,

6 Let seven °men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto °the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom °the LORD did choose." And the king said, "I will give them."

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of °the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of °Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite:

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before °the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and °were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the °men of Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the °street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, °when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa:

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul °and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed °all that the king commanded.

u 18 And Bath-sheba said, °"Well; I will speak for thee unto the king."

s 19 Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a °seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand.

20 Then she said, "I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, °say me not nay." And the king said unto her, "Ask on, my mother: for I will not °say thee nay."

t 21 And she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite °be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife."

u 22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, "And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruah."

23 Then king Solomon swore by °the LORD, saying, °"God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own °life.

24 Now therefore, as °the LORD liveth, Which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and Who hath made me an house, °as He °promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day."

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died.

W Y¹ (p. 450) 26 And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, "Get thee to °Anathoth, unto thine own °fields; for thou art °worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the °Lord GOD before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted."

27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto °the LORD; that he might °fulfil the word of °the LORD, which He spake concerning the house of Eli in °Shiloh.

X² 28 Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after °Absalom. And Joab fled unto the °tabernacle of °the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the °tabernacle of °the LORD; and, °behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, fall upon him."

30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of °the LORD, and said unto him, "Thus saith the king, 'Come forth.'" And he said, °"Nay; but I will die here." And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me."

37 on the day. Same as Gen. 2. 17. Here several days must have elapsed.

31 And the king said unto him, "Do °as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And °the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two °men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from °the LORD."

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.

36 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, "Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence °any whither.

37 For it shall be, that °on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head."

38 And Shimei said unto the king, "The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do." And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, "Behold, thy servants be in Gath."

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, "Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, 'Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die?' and thou saidst unto me, 'The word that I have heard is good.'"

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?"

44 The king said moreover to Shimei, "Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head;

45 And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever."

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died.

26 And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And those officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.

28 Barley also and straw for the horses and dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

and all the wisdom of Egypt.

31 For he was wiser than ° all ° men; than ° Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his ° fame was in all nations round about.

e 32 And he spake three thousand ° proverbs:
and his ° songs were a thousand and five.

33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

f 34 And there came of all ° people to hear the

E h 5 And ° Hiram king of Tyre sent his serv-i k 2 And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, 3 ° "Thou knowest how that David my father ° could not build an house unto the name of ° the LORD his ° God for the wars which were about him on every side, until ° the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

4 But now ° the LORD my ° God hath given

5 And, behold, I purpose to build an house unto the name of ° the LORD my ° God, ° as ° the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, 'Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house unto My name.'

6 Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants:

1 and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us ° any that can skill to hew timber like unto the Sidonians."

i k 7 And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, "Blessed be ° the LORD this day, Which hath given unto David a wise son over this great People."

8 And Hiram ° sent to Solomon, saying, "I have considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of ° fir.

9 My servants shall ° bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea: and I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them:
and thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household."

10 So Hiram ° gave Solomon cedar trees and ° fir trees according to all his desire.

1 four hundred and eightieth year. Note that the number is Ordinal (not Cardinal) = the 480th year of some longer and larger period, viz. the 490 years from the Exodus to the Dedication of the Temple; the difference of ten years being made up of seven years in building (v. 38) and three years in furnishing. Dedicated not in seventh year, for Completion took place in the eighth month of one year (v. 38), and the Dedication in the seventh month of another (8. 2). The chronological period was 40 years in wilderness + 450 years under judges + 40 years of Saul + 40 years of David + 3 years of Solomon (v. 1) = 573 (from 1490-917). The mystical period of 480 years is obtained by deducting the period of 93 years, when Israel's national position was in abeyance. Thus: 8 (Judg. 3. 8) + 18 (Judg. 3. 14) + 20 (Judg. 4. 3) + 7 (Judg. 6. 1) + 40 (Judg. 13. 1) = 93. (N.B. The eighteen years of Judg. 10. 7, 9, was local and beyond Jordan. It did not affect the national position). Hence 573 - 93 = 480 (from 873-93). See Ap., pp. 41, 56. children = sons.

15 For ° it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and ° Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten ° every male in Edom;

16 (For ° six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:)

17 That Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran: and they took ° men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.

19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David ° slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country."

22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, "But what hast thou lacked with me, that, ° behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country?" And he answered, "Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise."

w 23 And ° God stirred him up another ¹⁴ adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah:

24 And he gathered ¹⁸ men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David slew ¹⁸ Hiram of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus.

25 And he was ¹⁴ an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and ° reigned over Syria.

y 27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built ° Millo, and repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.

28 And the ° man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he ° made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph.

Israel, ° Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ° ten tribes to thee:

35 But ° I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.

36 And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David My servant may have a ° light always before Me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen Me to put My name there.

My servant did; that I will be with thee, and build thee ° a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee.

39 And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but ° not for ever."

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam.
And Jeroboam arose, and fled into ° Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and B³ z (p. 469) 12 And Rehoboam went to ° Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

son of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (° for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt;)

3 That they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the ° congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying,

4 "Thy father ° made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee."

d 5 And he said unto them, "Depart yet for three days, then come again to me." And the People departed.

b 6 And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, "How do ye advise that I may answer this People?"

7 And they spake unto him, saying, "If thou wilt be a servant unto this People this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants ° for ever."

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him:

9 And he said unto them, "What counsel give ye that we may answer this People, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?'"

10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, "Thus shalt thou speak unto this People that spake unto thee, saying, 'Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us;': thus shalt thou say unto them, ° My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

17 But as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

E¹ K (p. 470) 20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

L 21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

23 "Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the People, saying,

24 'Thus saith the LORD, "Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is from Me.'" They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

The two words are used interchangeably, except where otherwise stated. See note on "all the house of Israel", Ex. 16. 31. 15 Then he said unto him, “Come home with me, and eat bread.”

19 So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

12 (p. 471) 20 And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of °the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back:

21 And he cried unto the °man of °God that came from Judah, saying, "Thus saith °the LORD, 'Forasmuch as thou hast °disobeyed the mouth of °the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which °the LORD thy °God commanded thee,

23 And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, °to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, °a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcase.

25 And, °behold, °men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, "It is the °man of °God, who was °disobedient unto the word of °the LORD: therefore °the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him, according to the word of °the LORD, °which He spake unto him."

27 And he spake to his sons, saying, "Saddle me the ass." And they saddled him.

28 And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass.

29 And the prophet took up the carcase of the °man of °God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him.

30 And he laid his carcase in his own °grave; and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother!"

31 And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, "When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the °man of °God is buried; °lay my bones beside his bones:

32 For the saying which °he cried by the word of °the LORD against the altar in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass."

21 And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite ° had a vineyard, which was in ° Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, ° "Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money."

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, ° "The LORD forbid it me, that I should give ° the inheritance of my fathers unto thee."

4 And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, "I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers." And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

5 But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, "Why is thy ° spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?"

6 And he said unto her, "Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, 'Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it:' and he answered, 'I will not give thee my vineyard.'"

7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, ° "Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, ° and ° sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth ° on high among the People:

10 And set ° two ° men, ° sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, 'Thou didst ° blaspheme ° God and the king.' And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die."

11 And the ¹⁰ men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did ° as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth ° on high among the People.

13 And there came in two ¹⁰ men, ¹⁰ children of Belial, and sat before him: and the ¹⁰ men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the People, saying, "Naboth did ¹⁰ blaspheme ¹⁰ God and the king." Then they carried him forth out of the city, and ° stoned him with stones, that he died.

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth is stoned, and is dead."

15 And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, ° "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

In 2 Chron. 20. 35 he had joined himself with Ahaziah to make (ordinary) ships to go to Tharshish, which was quite a different thing.

[THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS,

COMMONLY CALLED,

THE FOURTH BOOK OF THE KINGS.]

1 Then °Moab rebelled against Israel °after the death of Ahab.

2 And Ahaziah fell down through a °lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, "Go, enquire of °Baal-zebub the god of °Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease."

3 But the °Angel of °the LORD said to °Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, 'Is it not because there is not a °God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of °Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?'"

4 Now therefore thus saith °the LORD, 'Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but °shalt surely die.''" And Elijah departed.

5 And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, "Why are ye now turned back?"

6 And they said unto him, "There came a °man up to meet us, and said unto us, 'Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, 'Thus saith °the LORD, 'Is it not because there is not a °God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but °shalt surely die.''"

7 And he said unto them, "What manner of °man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words?"

8 And they answered him, "He was an °hairy °man, and girt with a °girdle of leather about his loins." And he said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."

9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, °behold, he sat on the top of an hill. And he spake unto him, "Thou °man of °God, the king hath said, 'Come down.'"

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, "If I be a °man of °God, then °LET FIRE COME DOWN FROM HEAVEN, AND CONSUME thee AND THY FIFTY." And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, "O °man of °God, thus hath the king said, 'Come down quickly.'"

1. 1 Moab rebelled. Moab had been subdued by David (2 Sam. 8. 2; 23. 20); and when the kingdom was divided it passed to Israel. It was greatly oppressed by Omri and Ahab, and, on the death of the latter (cp. 3. 5), Mesha, king of Moab, rebelled. See the record of the event on "the Moabite stone". Ap. 54.

The verse is introduced here to complete the symmetry of the introversion. See "G" in the Structure above. after. The inscription on the Moabite stone leaves the exact date indefinite. Line five, "Israel perished", may refer to the death of Ahab.

Baal-zebub = Lord of flies. Later Jews polluted it by changing it to Beel-zebub (Lord of dung or dunghills). In Matt. 12. 24 it is in Greek Baal-zebub = lord of abominable idols; the prince of idols and idolatry; the worst and chief of all wickedness. Imagine the blasphemy.

13 And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, "O ° man of ° God, I pray thee, let my ° life, and the ° life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.

14 ° Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and ° burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let ° my life now be precious in thy sight."

17 So he died according to the word of ° the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram reigned in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

8 And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground.

9 And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, "Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee." And Elisha said, "I pray thee, let a ° double portion of thy ° spirit be upon me."

10 And he said, "Thou hast asked a hard thing: ° nevertheless, if thou ° see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so."

11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by ° a whirlwind into ° heaven.

12 And Elisha ¹¹ saw it, ° and he cried, ° “My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof.” And he ¹¹ saw him no more; and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan;

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, ¹² and smote the waters, and said, ° “Where is ° the LORD God of Elijah?” and when he also had smitten the waters, ° they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.

15 And when the sons of the prophets which were to view at Jericho saw him, they said, “The ° spirit of Elijah ° doth rest on Elisha.” And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

16 And they said unto him, “Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong ° men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the ° Spirit of ° the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley.” And he said, “Ye shall not send.”

17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, “Send.” They sent therefore fifty ° men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, “Did I not say unto you, ‘Go not’?”

19 And the ¹⁶ men of the city said unto Elisha, “Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground barren.”

20 And he said, “Bring me a new ° cruse, and put salt therein.” And they brought it to him.

21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and ° cast the salt in there, and said, “Thus saith ° the LORD, ‘I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land.’”

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

23 And he went up from thence unto ° Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth ° little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, ° “Go up, thou ° bald head; ° go up, thou bald head.”

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of ° the LORD. And there came forth two she ° bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two ° children of them.

25 And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood:

23 And they said, "This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil."

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.

25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it.

4 Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, "Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen."

2 And Elisha said unto her, "What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house?" And she said, "Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil."

3 Then he said, "Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few."

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full."

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, "Bring me yet a vessel." And he said unto her, "There is not a vessel more." And the oil stayed.

7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest."

9 And she said unto her husband, "Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which passeth by us continually."

10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, to ° and a table, and a stool, and a ° candlestick: 788 and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither."

a 11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

b 12 And he said to Gehazi his ° servant, "Call this Shunammite." And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, "Say now unto her, ° Behold, thou hast been ° careful for us with all this ° care; what is to be done for thee?
wouldest thou be ° spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host?" And she answered,
"I dwell among mine own people."

14 And he said, "What then is to be done for her?" And Gehazi answered, "Verily she hath no ° child, and her ° husband is old."

15 And he said, "Call her." And when he had called her, she stood in the ° door.

16 And he said, "About this season, accord-of ° God, do not lie unto thine handmaid."

17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time ° of life.

V 18 And when the ° child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, "My head, ° my head." And he said to a lad, "Carry him to his mother."

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

W 21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the ° man of ° God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

X 22 And she called unto her ° husband, and said,
"Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, 23 And he said, "Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither new moon, nor sabbath." And she said, "It shall be well."

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, "Drive, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee."

Y 25 So she went and came unto the ° man of ° God to mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the ° man of ° God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his ° servant, "Behold, yonder laid the staff upon the face of the ° child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Where-saying, "The ° child is not awaked."

32 And when Elisha was come into the house,

35 Then he returned, and walked in the house

36 And he called Gehazi, and said, "Call this bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

43 And his °servitor said, "What, should I set this before °an hundred °men?" He said again, "Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith °the LORD, 'They shall eat, and shall leave thereof.'"

44 So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of °the LORD.

4 And one went in, and told his lord, saying, "Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel."

7 And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, "Am I °God, to kill and to make alive, that this °man doth send unto me to recover a °man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me."

7 God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, "Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."

9 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the °door of the house of Elisha. g

10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, "Go and °wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean." h

(p. 495) i 11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, "Behold, °I thought, he will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of °the LORD his °God, and °strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper.

12 °Are not °Abana and Pharpar, °rivers of °Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean?" So he turned and went away °in a rage.

i 13 And his °servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, "My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldst thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, 'Wash, and be clean?'"

h 14 Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the °man of °God: and his flesh °came again like unto the flesh of a little °child, and he was clean.

g 15 And he °returned to the °man of °God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him:

f and he said, "Behold, °now I know that there is no °God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, °take a °blessing of thy servant."

16 But he said, "As °the LORD liveth, °before Whom I stand, I will receive none." And he urged him to take it; but he refused.

17 And Naaman said, "Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of °earth? for thy servant will henceforth °offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto °the LORD.

18 In this thing °the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of °Rimmon to °worship there, and he °leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of °Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, °the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing."

19 And he said unto him, "Go in peace." So he departed from him °a little way.

20 But Gehazi, the °servant of Elisha the °man of °God, said, "Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, as °the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take °somewhat of him."

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?"

22 And he said, "All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, 'Behold, even now there be come to me from °mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a °talent of silver, and two changes of garments.'"

23 And Naaman said, "Be content, °take two °talents." And he urged him, and bound two °talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him.

6 And the sons of the prophets said unto Elisha, "Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too °strait for us.

3 And °one said, "Be content, I pray thee, and go with thy servants." And he answered, "I will go."

4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they °cut down °wood.

5 But as °one was felling a beam, the °axe head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, "Alas, master! for it was borrowed."

6 And the °man of °God said, "Where fell it?" And he shewed him the place. And he °cut down °a stick, and cast it in thither; and the °iron did swim.

7 Therefore said he, "Take it up to thee." And he put out his hand, and took it.

8 Then the °king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, "In such and such a place shall be my camp."

9 And the °man of °God sent unto the °king of Israel, saying, "Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down."

10 And the king of Israel sent to the place which the °man of °God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice.

11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, "Will ye not shew me which of us is for the king of Israel?"

12 And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king: °but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bedchamber."

13 And he said, "Go and spy where he is, that I may send and fetch him." And it was told him, saying, "Behold, he is in Dothan."

14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about.

788 of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the LORD* had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, "Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us."

7 Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

s² t 9 Then they said one to another, "We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household."

u 10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, "We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were."

11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

r² 12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, "I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.'"

13 And one of his servants answered and said,
"Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed;) and let us send and see."

14 They took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, "Go and see."

15 And they went after them unto Jordan:
and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

B 16 And the People went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

17 And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the People trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down to him.

(Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.

15 But king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.

a And Jehu said, "If it be your minds, then let none go forth nor escape out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel."

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.

17 And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "See a company." And Joram said, "Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, "Thus saith the king, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu said, "What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me." And the watchman told, saying, "The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again."

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, "Thus saith the king, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu answered, "What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me."

20 And the watchman told, saying, "He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth furiously."

21 And Joram said, "Make ready." And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" And he answered, "What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many?"

23 And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "There is treachery, O Ahaziah."

24 And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, "Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him;

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, "Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand?"

5 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes."

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, "If ye be mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time." There were two chronological mistakes on the Duke of Cambridge's monument erected in Whitehall, London, which were the subject of a correspondence in the London newspapers of that date. (The Duke died in March, 1904.) On the coffin-plate of King Edward VII, his death is put as occurring in the "ninth" instead of in the "tenth" year of his reign. In the inscription of DARIUS HYSTASPIS on the Behistun Rock (see Ap. 57), no less than fourteen "mistakes" made by the graver (one of them actually corrected by himself) are noted as such by the authors of the exhaustive work on that subject issued by the Trustees of the British Museum.

1 Ahaz. One of the four kings in whose reign Isaiah prophesied. Cp. 2 Chron. 28. 1. Isa. 1. 1.

2 Twenty years old . . . sixteen. There is no reason for concluding that "there must be an error in one of the passages" (viz. 16. 2 and 18. 2), for Ahaz begins in 629 and reigns till 616. As he was twenty when he began, he was born in 652, and died when thirty-six. Hezekiah begins in 617, and reigns twenty-nine years, till 588. As he was twenty-five when he began he was therefore born in 642, and died when he was fifty-four. From this it is clear that Ahaz was between ten and eleven when his son Hezekiah was born. This sounds improbable only to Western ears. But, to Eastern ears and physiological phenomena, there is nothing unusual, and nothing to justify a conclusion that the text is corrupt—the usual excuse for ignorance of the facts.

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom °the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke °the LORD to anger:

12 For they served °idols, whereof °the LORD had said unto them, "Ye °shall not do this thing."

y¹ 13 Yet °the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by °all the seers, saying, "Turn ye from your °evil ways, °and keep My commandments °and My statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you °by My servants °the prophets."

x² 14 Notwithstanding they would not hear, but hardened their necks, °like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in °the LORD their °God.

15 And they rejected His statutes, °and His covenant that He made with their fathers, and His testimonies which He testified against them; and they followed °vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom °the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them.

16 And they left all the commandments of °the LORD their °God, °and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a °grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

17 And they caused their sons °and their daughters to °pass through the fire, and used °divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do °evil in the sight of °the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

y² 18 Therefore °the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of °Judah only.

x³ 19 Also Judah kept not the commandments of °the LORD their °God, °but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

y³ 20 And °the LORD rejected °all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until He had cast them out of His sight.

y¹ z¹ (p. 515) So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

611 24 And the king of Assyria ^obrought men to 603 from Babylon, ^oand from Cuthah, and from ^oAva, and from ^oHamath, and from ^oSepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the ⁷children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

a¹ 25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not ²the LORD: therefore ²the LORD sent ^olions among them, which ^oslew some of them.

z² 26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the ⁷God of the land: therefore He hath sent lions among them, and, ^obehold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the ⁷God of the land."

28 Then ²⁷one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear ²the LORD.

30 ^oAnd the ^omen of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, ^oand the ^omen of Cuth made Nergal, and the ^omen of Hamath made Ashima, 31 ³⁰And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, ³⁰and the Sepharvites ^oburnt their ⁷children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared ²the LORD, and made unto themselves of the ^olowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They ^ofeared ²the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations ^oin whom they carried away from thence.

Some codices; with four early printed editions, Syr. and Vulg., read "Riphath", others "Diphath", owing to Heb. ר ("D") and ר ("R"). 7 Dodanim, or Rodanim. See above note. 8 Cush. Recent discoveries at Pterium, in Cappadocia, show that the Babylonians called Cappadocia Kus. The great king of the Hittites had his palace there, and was called "king of Kus". The river Gihon (classic, Pijramus) flows into the Mediterranean. Cp. Gen. 10. 6, 7. Isa. 11. 11. 10 Nimrod. Cp. Gen. 10. 8. 17 Uz . . . Meshech were sons of Aram (Shem's youngest son). No error, for grandsons are often reckoned, by descent, as sons. See Laban (Gen. 29. 5), Mephibosheth (2 Sam. 19. 24). Of the "sons of Judah" (4. 1-4) only the first-named was his son. It is assumed that we are acquainted with Genesis, and shall supply the links dealt with here with such brevity. 19 Peleg = disruption. See note on Gen. 10. 25. 20 Joktan. Cp. Gen. 10. 26. 24 Shem. Direct descent taken up here, from v. 4. See Structure, B².

TITLE, First. See note on p. 530.

Chronicles. Heb. name, Dibrāi hayyāmim = words of the days. Greek name, Paraleipomena = things omitted. Latin name, Chronicon, from whence comes English title, Chronicles. These books belong to quite another part of the O.T., and do not follow in sequence on the books of Kings. See Ap. 1. They are, according to the Heb. Canon, the conclusion of the O.T.; and the genealogies here lead up to that of Matt. 1. 1, and the commencement of the N.T. They end with the ending of the kingdom; and the question of Cyrus, "Who is there?" (2 Chron. 36. 23) is followed by the answer, "Where is He?" (Matt. 2. 2), and the proclamation of the kingdom by the rightful King and His forerunner. It begins with the first Adam and leads on to the "last Adam".

For the relation of Chronicles to Kings see notes on title "Kings" (p. 447); and for the parallel passages in Samuel and Kings see Ap. 56.

It deals with the kingdom of Judah, because Christ was proclaimed as the successor of David.

It refers to other books:—Kings (2 Chron. 16. 11; 27. 7; 33. 18); Prophets (1 Chron. 29. 29. 2 Chron. 9. 29; 12. 15; 13. 22; 20. 34; 26. 22; 32. 32). It gives the histories from the Divine standpoint, pointing the moral, and giving the reason of both the judgments and the mercies (cp. 1 Chron. 10. 13. 2 Chron. 12. 12; 25. 20; 27. 6, &c.).

36 Zephi. Some codices, with one early printed edition, read "Zepho" (cp. Gen. 36. 11), owing to the slight difference between the Heb. י ("O") and י ("I"). Timna. There was a Timna a daughter of Seir. The Timna here is a son of Eliphaz.
38 sons of Seir. Horites dwelling in Seir before the descendants of Esau (Gen. 36. 20).
40 Alian. Some codices, with two early printed editions, read "Alvan" (Gen. 36. 23).
41 sons. A special various reading called Sevir reads "son". See Ap. 34. Gen. 36. 25 tells of a daughter. This shows that bānīm may include daughters.
Amram. Some codices read "Hemdan" (cp. Gen. 36. 26). These names are more alike in Hebrew than in English.
42 Jakan. Some codices, with Sept., read "and Akan", with the "and" in the text.

23 And he took °Geshur, and Aran, with the towns of Jair, from °them, with Kenath, and the towns thereof, even °threescore cities. All these °belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.

26 Jerahmeel had also another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

27 And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were, Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker.

8 Ethan. Not the same person as "Ethan the Ezrahite" (1 Kings 4. 31), who was probably a Levite (see 1 Chron. 6. 27-29; 15. 17-19), and not of Judah, as the Heman and Ethan here.

9 Ram. Christ's genealogy traced through Jerahmeel. Called Aram in Matt. 1. 3, 4.

C⁴ e¹ 13-17. Jesse's posterity.

e² 18-20. Caleb, the son of Hezron.

e³ 21-24. Hezron by daughter of Machir.

e⁴ 25-33. Jerahmeel's posterity.

e⁵ 34-41. Sheshan's posterity.

e⁶ 42-49. Caleb's posterity.

e⁷ 50-55. Caleb, the son of Hur.

15 David. The different spelling of many of these names in the Heb. is due to certain vowels being written out in full ("plene"). Where not written they are called "defective". The fact of this difference in Chronicles shows an independent origin.

the seventh. Jesse begat eight sons (1 Sam. 16. 5-11 and 17. 12-14). Here seven are numbered and named, and David is the seventh and the youngest; the eighth may have died young and left no issue. While it was proper to mention the eight in the history, it is unnecessary to do so in the genealogy.

16 Zeruiah. Sister of David. Nahash (2 Sam. 17. 25) may have been the father of Jesse's wife. Otherwise, she and Abigail were half-sisters.

17 Jether. Cp. 2 Sam. 17. 25 (marg.). Another name was Ithra.

18 Caleb the son of Hezron. The ancestor of "Caleb the son of Jephunneh" (Num. 13. 6, 30; 14. 6, 24; 32. 12; 34. 19. Josh. 14. 6, 14), who is distinguished from this Caleb in 4. 15. This shows the present genealogy to be independent.

19 Ephrath. Called Ephratah, v. 50. Cp. 4. 4.

20 Bezaleel. Gifted for the construction of the Tabernacle (Ex. 31. 2; 35. 30; 36. 1, 2; 37. 1). This proves those to be wrong who assume that the Caleb of v. 18 is the same as Caleb the son of Jephunneh (Bezaleel's great-grandfather), thus creating their own difficulty.

21 Machir. Cp. Num. 32. 40. Dent. 3. 15.

22 three and twenty. Increased afterward to thirty (Judg. 10. 4).

24 dead in Caleb-ephratah. Some wrongly affirm that this grandson of Judah must have died in Egypt. True, Hezron lived in Egypt, but did no one ever leave Egypt? Had he not heard of Abraham's sepulchre and Jacob's funeral? Had he no faith and no thoughts of God's promises? The difficulty is created gratuitously. His death there gave the name to the place, afterward called Beth-lehem.

25 Jerahmeel. See 1 Sam. 27. 10; 30. 29.

32 And the sons of Jada the brother of Shammai; Jether, and Jonathan: and Jether died without °children.

33 And the sons of Jonathan; Peleth, and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

^e 34 Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. And Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha.

35 And Sheshan gave his daughter ° to Jarha his servant to wife; and she bare him Attai.

36 And Attai begat Nathan, and Nathan begat Zabad,

37 And Zabad begat Ephlal, and Ephlal begat Obed,

38 And Obed begat Jehu, and Jehu begat Azariah,

39 And Azariah begat Helez, and Helez begat Eleasah,

40 And Eleasah begat Sisamai, and Sisamai begat Shallum, 41 And Shallum begat Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begat Elishama.

^e 42 Now the sons of ° Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were, Mesha his firstborn, which was the ° father of Ziph; and the sons of ° Mareshah the ° father of ° Hebron.

43 And the sons of Hebron; Korah, and ° Tappuah, and ° Rekem, and Shema.

44 And Shema begat Raham, the father of Jorkoam: and Rekem begat Shammai.

45 And the son of Shammai was ° Maon: and Maon was the ° father of Beth-zur.

46 And Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bare Haran, and Moza, and Gazez: and Haran begat Gazez.

47 And the sons of Jahdai; Regem, and Jotham, and Gesham, and Pelet, and Ephah, and Shaaph.

48 Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bare Sheber, and Tirhanah.

49 She bare also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah, and the father of Gibeaz: and ° the daughter of Caleb was Achsa.

^e 50 These were the ° sons of ° Caleb the son of Hur, the firstborn of Ephratah; Shobal the ° father of ° Kirjath-jearim, 51 ° Salma the father of Beth-lehem, Hareph the ° father of ° Beth-gader.

52 And Shobal the ° father of ° Kirjath-jearim had sons; Haroeh, and ° half of the Manahethites.

53 And the families of ° Kirjath-jearim; the Ithrites, and the Puhites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites; of them came the ° Zareathites, and the ° Eshtaulites.

54 The sons of Salma; Beth-lehem, and the Netophathites, Ataroth, the house of Joab, and half of the Manahethites, the Zorites.

55 And the families of the scribes which dwelt at ° Jabez; the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and Suchathites. These are the ° Kenites that came of Hemath, the father of the house of ° Rechab.

990-509
^{B⁵ f¹} (p. 534) 3 Now these were the sons of David, which were ° born unto him ° in Hebron; the first-born Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second ° Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess: 2 The third, Absalom the son of Maachah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur: the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith:

father. Here used in the sense of ruler. Cp. v. 54; 4. 4. Mareshah. The name of a city, also in Judah (Josh. 15. 44. 2 Chron. 11. 8).

Hebron. The name of a city, also in Judah. (Gen. 13. 18; 23. 2, 19). See note on Num. 13. 22. Given to Caleb by Joshua (14. 13).

43 Tappuah. Also the name of a city (Josh. 15. 34). Rekem. Also a city, of Benjamin (Josh. 18. 27).

45 Maon. Also the name of a city (Josh. 15. 55). Mentioned in connection with David (1 Sam. 23. 24).

49 the daughter of Caleb was Achsa. "Caleb the son of Jephunneh" had a daughter named Achsa, who married Othniel (Josh. 15. 16, 17). Judg. 1. 12, 13). Hence the "discrepancy" assumed by some. See note on v. 18.

50 Caleb the son of Hur. The son of the Caleb in v. 19, Hur giving him the name of his own father. It is possible that this Caleb (v. 50) may have been the son of Jephunneh (Num. 13. 6), Jephunneh being the surname of the Hur of Ex. 17. 10; 24. 14; 31. 2; 35. 30.

Kirjath-jearim. An old Gibeonite city (Josh. 9. 17; 15. 60), where the Ark tarried long, and whence it was brought to Zion by David (1 Sam. 6. 21; 7. 2. 2 Sam. 6. 2. 1 Chron. 13. 5, 6).

51 Salma. A family name, repeated in Ruth 4. 20 and v. 11 above.

Beth-gader. Probably the same as Geder in 12. 4; 27. 28. Cp. Josh. 12. 13.

52 half. For the other half see v. 54.

53 Zareathites . . . Eshtaulites = of Zerach . . . of Eshtaul, two cities of Judah (Josh. 15. 33. Judg. 13. 25; 16. 31).

55 Jabez. Supposed to have been founded by Jabez. See below on 4. 9.

Kenites. These were the posterity of Jethro and Hobab. See Judg. 1. 16; and cp. 1 Sam. 15. 6; 27. 10. They became an ascetic people, and, by being mentioned here in connection with "scribes," may have been teachers. This perhaps accounts for Jehu's action in 2 Kings 10. 15, 16. Rechab. Cp. Jer. 35.

5 born . . . Jerusalem. Cp. 2 Sam. 5. 13-16.

8. 1 Benjamin. This tribe is now dealt with, and brought down to Saul and Jonathan.

The date of writing is Post-Exilic. See v. 28; 9. 3, 27, and compare with Ezra 2 and Neh. 10, which show that Benjamin was brought back to the Land after being nearly extinguished in Judg. 20. Loyalty to Judah and the house of God had been rewarded. Note the passages which connect Benjamin with Judah and with the blessings of the return from Babylon: Ezra 1. 5; 2; 4. 1. they (the Gebaites) removed = were carried away, (same word as in 5. 26). The occasion is not known, but probably after they returned from captivity, as Geba is mentioned in Ezra 2. 26. Lod and Ono in v. 12 are named in Ezra 2. 33, and "the sons of Gibeon" in Neh. 7. 25. Cp. Ezra 2. 20.

Other names found here are mentioned in Neh. 10. 14, 20, 22, 24, 26, 27: e. g. Meshullam (v. 17), Hanan (v. 23), Elam and Hananiah (v. 24).

31 Zacher. Supply Ellipsis thus: "and Zacher [and Mikloth]. And Mikloth", &c.

33 Ner begat Kish. There are three genealogies of the house of Saul. We place the facts, (1) that persons often had two names (v. 34. Judg. 6. 32, &c.), and (2) that the same name recurs in the same family, against the assumption that the opposite is the case. It is this assumption which creates the difficulties in "reconciling" 1 Sam. 9. 1; 14. 51; and 1 Chron. 9. 38.

The following makes all the lists agree:

Esh-baal. Another name for Ish-bosheth (2 Sam. 2. 8).

34 Merib-baal. Another name by which Mephishosheth was known. Cp. 2 Sam. 2. 8; 4. 4. See note on v. 33 above.

The addition "bosheth" (=shame) came to be substituted for "Baal" as the latter word became associated with idolatry. Cp. Judg. 6. 32 with 2 Sam. 11. 21.

38 Bocheru. Some codices, with Sept. and Syr., read "his firstborn" (b^ochorō).

40 were = became. mighty men. Heb. gibbōr. Ap. 14. IV. archers. Cp. 2 Chron. 14. 8.

952 5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "Thou shalt not come hither." Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

O (p. 546) 6 And David said, "Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain." So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief.

M N 7 And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called it the city of David.

8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

9 So David waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

O P¹ m 10 These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had;

n ° Jashobeam, an Hachmonite, the chief of the °captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighties.

13 He was with David at Pas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the People fled from before the Philistines.

14 And they set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.

o 15 Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed, and said, "Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!"

18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD,

19 And said, "My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest.

n 20 And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name among the three.

21 Of the three, he was more honourable than the two; for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not to the first three.

10 Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for ^oZadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, ^o“Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up ¹the ark of ²the LORD ¹God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first, ²the LORD our ¹God made a breach upon us, for that we sought Him not after ^othe due order.”

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up ¹the ark of ²the LORD ¹God of Israel.

15 And the ⁴children of the Levites bare ¹the ark of ¹God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, ^oas Moses commanded according to the word of ²the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their ^obrethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed ^oHeman the son of Joel; and of his ¹⁶brethren, ^oAsaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their ¹⁶brethren, ^oEthan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their ¹⁶brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, ¹⁷Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and ^oAziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries ^oon ^oAlamoth;

Asaph. A Gershonite. Cp. 6. 39, and 1 Kings 4. 31. Ethan, or Jeduthun, a Merarite. See the three Psalms connected with him (Pss. 38, 61, 76).

Alamoth. The maidens' choir (see Ap. 65. ii). One of three special choirs, the other two being Sheminith (a men's choir, see Ap. 65. xix); and Jeduthun's choir. "Alamoth" found only once as the subscript of Ps. 45. See note there. This choir was processional, not ecclesiastical. Cp. Ps. 68. 11, 25, which refers to this event, not to the Exodus.

21 Sheminith = the eighth. (See Ap. 65. xix.) to excel = to lead.

25 the elders. As representing "all Israel" (2 Sam. 6. 15).

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azariah, with harps ²⁰on the ^oSheminith ^oto excel.

22 And Chenaniah, ^ochief of the Levites, ^owas for song: he instructed ^oabout the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for ¹the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehosbaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before ¹the ark of ¹God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for ¹the ark.

25 So David, and ^othe elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up

¹the ark of the covenant of ²the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when ¹God ^ohelped the Levites that bare ¹the ark of the covenant of ²the LORD, that ^othey offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare ¹the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him ^oan ephod of linen.

28 Thus all Israel brought up ¹the ark of the covenant of ²the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

^w 29 And it came to pass, as ¹the ark of the covenant of ²the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she ^odespised him in her heart.

^x 16 So they ^obrought ^othe ark of ^oGod, and set it in the midst of ^othe tent that David had pitched for it: and they ^ooffered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before ^oGod.

^y 2 And when ^oDavid had made an end of ^ooffering the burnt offerings ^oand the peace offerings, he blessed the People in the name of ^othe LORD.

^{to} 3 And he dealt to ^oevery one of Israel, both ^oman and woman, to ^oevery one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

^Z 4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ¹ark of ²the LORD, and ^oto record, and to thank and praise ²the LORD ¹God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Matithiah, and Eliab, and Benalah, and Obed-edom: and Jeiel with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets ^ocontinually before ¹the ark of the covenant of ¹God.

^A 7 Then on that day David delivered first ^othis psalm to thank ²the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

Let the heart of them rejoice that seek ²the LORD.

11 Seek ²the LORD and ^oHis strength, Seek His face continually.

12 Remember His marvellous works that He hath done,

Thus ° the LORD preserved David whitherso-ever he went. P

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. m

8 Likewise from ° Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of ³ Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith Solomon made the brasen sea, and ° the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 Now when ° Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah;

10 He sent ° Hadoram his son to king David, to enquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against ° Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for ³ Hadarezer ° had war with Tou;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

948 11 ^{Them} also king David dedicated unto ^o the to LORD, with the silver and the gold that he 942 brought from all these nations; ^o from Edom, and from Moab, and from the ^o children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt ^o eighteen thousand.

(p. 555) 13 And he put garrisons in Edom;
^o and all the Edomites became David's servants.

14 Thus ^o the LORD preserved David whitherso-ever he went.

E q (p. 556) 14 So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice among all his People.

r 15 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host;

s and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, ^o recorder.

t 16 And ^o Zadok the son of Ahitub, and ^o Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests;

s and ^o Shavsha was scribe;

r 17 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites, and ^o the Pelethites;

q and the sons of David were ^o chief ^o about the king.

D K¹ u 19 Now ^o it came to pass after this, that Nabash the king of the ^o children of Ammon died, ^o and his son reigned in his stead.
2 And David said, "I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nabash, because his father shewed kindness to me."

v And David sent ^o messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the ¹ children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

w 3 But the princes of the ¹ children of Ammon said to Hanun, ^o "Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?"

v 4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

u 5 Then there went certain, and told David how the ^o men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the ^o men were greatly ashamed.
And the king said, "Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return."

K² L¹ x 6 And when the ¹ children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the ¹ children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of ^o Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand ^o chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba.
And the ¹ children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

pendent and separate exploits. Abishai's number was 18,000. We do not know how long Abishai's took him.
Joab's (which took him six months longer) was 10,000.

hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto My name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in My sight.

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who 922 shall be a °man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be °Solomon, and I will give °peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

10 He shall build an house for My name; and he shall be My son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, °the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of °the LORD thy °God, °as He hath said of thee.

12 Only °the LORD °give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep °the law of °the LORD thy °God.

13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil °the statutes and °judgments which °the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: °be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.

n (p. 560) 14 Now, behold, °in my trouble I have °prepared for the house of °the LORD an hundred thousand °talents of gold, and a thousand thousand °talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

k 15 Moreover there are °workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of °cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and °the LORD be with thee."

j 17 David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, 18 "Is not °the LORD your °God with you? and hath He not given you rest on every side? for He hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before °the LORD, and before His People.

19 Now set your heart and °your soul to seek °the LORD your °God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of °the LORD °God, to bring °the ark of the covenant of °the LORD, and the °holy vessels of °God, into the house that °is to be built to the name of °the LORD."

J V (p. 559) 921 T 23 So when David was °old and °full of days, he °made Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

T W¹ X (p. 560) 3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of °thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, °man by °man, was thirty and eight thousand.

4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were to °set forward the work of the house of °the LORD; and six thousand were officers and judges:

5 Moreover °four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised °the LORD with the instruments "which I made," said David, "to praise therewith."

2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no °children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.

3 And David °distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

4 And there were more °chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen °chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers.

24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir.

4 Giddalti. The fact that the meanings of these six names form a complete sentence in Hebrew is no more proof that this is a mistaken "obscure and ancient prayer", than that the chronicler has strung together a list of six names in order to form a sentence. What it shows is that Heman, in naming his sons, did so with this set purpose, as parents have often done since his day. The supposed prayer would read:

"I have magnified, and I have raised up help;

Sitting in trouble, I have spoken many oracles."

(p. 570) 11 Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in 17 And Solomon numbered all °the strangers

0 4 Moreover he made an altar of brass,

3 And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten ° in a 4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking

5 And the thickness of it was an handbreadth,

10 And he set the sea on the right side of

And Hiram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of ° God;

12 To wit, the two pillars, and the ° pommels, and the chapters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two ° wreaths to cover were on the top of the pillars;

13 And four hundred pomegranates on the 14 He made also bases, and lavers made he upon the bases;

15 One sea, and twelve oxen under it.

16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did Hiram his father make to king Solomon for the house of ° the LORD of bright brass.

17 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.

18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be ° found out.

19 And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of ° God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the shewbread was set;

lamps, that they should burn ° after the manner before ° the oracle, of pure gold;

to spoons, and the censers, of ° pure gold: and 910 the entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most ° holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

910 5 Thus all the work that ° Solomon made for the house of ° the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the ° things that David his father had ° dedicated; ° and the silver, and the gold, and ° all the instruments, put he ° among the treasures of the house of ° God.

J P j (p. 573) 2 ° Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the ° children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up ° the ark of the covenant of ° the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 Wherefore all the ° men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in ° the feast which was in the seventh month.

4 And all the elders of Israel came; and ° the Levites took up ° the ark.

5 And they brought up ° the ark, and the ° tabernacle of the congregation, and all the ° holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, thrust did ° the priests and the Levites bring up.

k 6 Also king Solomon, and all the ° congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before ° the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

j 7 And ° the priests brought in ° the ark of the covenant of ° the LORD unto his place, to ° the oracle of the house, into ° the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered ° the ark and the staves thereof above.

9 And they ° drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from ° the ark before ° the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there it is ° unto this day.

10 There was ° nothing in ° the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, when ° the LORD made a covenant with the ° children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

k 11 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the ° holy place: (for ° all the priests that were present ° were sanctified, and did not then wait by course:

12 Also the Levites which were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of ° Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood ° at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets:)

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking ° the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised ° the LORD, saying, ° "For He is good; for His ° mercy en-

^{t1} (p. 579) ^{s2} 5 And he said unto them, "Come again unto me after three days." And the People departed.

6 And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel give ye me to return answer to this People?"

7 And they spake unto him, saying, "If thou be kind to this People, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever."

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, "What advice give ye that we may return answer to this People, which have spoken to me, saying, 'Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?'"

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, "Thus shalt thou answer the People that spake unto thee, saying, 'Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, 'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.'"

^{t2} 12 So Jeroboam and all the People came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, "Come again to me on the third day."

14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

^{s3} 15 So the king hearkened not unto the People: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform His word, which He spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

^{t3} 16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the People answered the king, saying, "What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his own tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house." So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them °some deliverance; and My wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know °My service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up °against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of °the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon °had made.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made

11 And when the king entered into the house of °the LORD, the °guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the °guard chamber.

(p. 581) 12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of °the LORD turned from him, that He would not destroy him altogether: and also in Judah °things went well.

A³ (p. 579) 13 So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which °the LORD °had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah °an Ammonitess.

G⁴ A (p. 582) 13 Now in the °eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

863 to 860 2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was °Michaiah the daughter of °Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

B 3 And Abijah set the battle in array with an army of vallant °men of war, even °four hundred thousand chosen °men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with °eight hundred thousand chosen °men, being °mighty men of valour.

C a 4 And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in °mount Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel;

5 °Ought ye not to know that °the LORD °God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, °even to him and to his sons by °a covenant of salt?

b 6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath °rebelled against his °lord.

c 7 And there are gathered unto him vain °men, the °children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam °was °young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him?"

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say so."

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, "Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla."

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, "Thus saith the LORD, 'With these thou shalt push Syria until they be consumed.'"

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king."

12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, "Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good."

13 And Micaiah said, "As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak."

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, "Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel."

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "It is the king of Israel." Therefore they compassed about him to fight; but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot man, "Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded."

20 And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in ³the LORD your ⁶God, so shall ye be established; believe His prophets, so shall ye prosper."

21 And when he had consulted with the People, he appointed singers unto ³the LORD, and that should praise ^othe beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, ^o"Praise ³the LORD; for His ^omercy endureth for ever."

22 And when they began to sing and to praise, ^othe LORD set ^oambushments against the ¹children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

23 For the ¹children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, ²behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his People came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with ^othe dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they ^ostripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of ^oBerachah; for there they blessed ³the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned, ^oevery man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for ³the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of ³the LORD.

29 And the ^ofear of ⁶God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that ³the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his ⁶God gave him rest round about.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the way of ^oAsa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of ³the LORD.

33 Howbeit the high places were ^onot taken away: for as yet the People had not prepared their hearts unto the ⁶God of their fathers.

Ahaziah again sought to implicate Jehoshaphat. But he failed in the attempt, for we there read "Jehoshaphat would not" (v. 49). And the ships "did not go", for they were "broken" (v. 48). -1 Jehoram. He was designated to be king in the seventeenth year of his father, but crowned in his father's twenty-third year. He reigned eight years in Jerusalem: two with his father, and six after his father's death (cp. 2 Kings 1. 17; 8. 16).

35 And ^oafter this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah ^ojoin himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, ^owho did very ^owickedly:

36 And he ³⁵joined himself with him ^oto make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber.

37 Then ^oEliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because thou hast ³⁵joined thyself with Ahaziah, ³the LORD hath ^obroken thy works." And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

21 Now Jehoshaphat ^oslept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David.

And ^oJehoram his son reigned in his stead.

2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of °Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram; because he was the first-born.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and °slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

8 In his days °the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram °went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So °the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah °unto this day. The same time also °did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken °the LORD °God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the °mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit °fornication, and °compelled Judah thereto.

12 And °there came a writing to him from °Elijah the prophet, saying, "Thus saith °the LORD °God of David thy father, °Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

2 Israel. This word was originally represented by the abbreviation ° (i or y), which was read for "Israel" as well as Judah. The reading in the Severus Codex (see Ap. 34) is "Judah", and this is supported by the first edition of the Hagiographa (Naples, 1486-1487), the Complutensian Polyglot, Sept., Syr., and Vulg. The enemy's design in breaking into the royal line so as to destroy the promises of Gen. 3. 15 and 2 Sam. 7. 16 is seen. See Ap. 23, 25. Jehoshaphat made the beginning (18. 1); Jehoram follows it up (21. 4); the Arabians continue the assault (21. 17; 22. 1); Athaliah nearly succeeds in accomplishing the design of Satan (22. 10).

^q 5 He walked also after their counsel, and went ^o with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote ^o Joram.

6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And ^o Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because ^{he} was sick.

7 And the ^o destruction of Ahaziah was of ^o God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Ninshi, ^o whom ⁴ the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and ^omade obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of ²the LORD ⁵God of their fathers, and served ^ogroves and ^oidols: and ^owrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their ^otrespass.

19 Yet He sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto ²the LORD; and ^othey testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And the ^oSpirit of ⁵God ^ocame upon ^oZechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the People, and said unto them, "Thus ^osaith ⁵God, 'Why transgress ye the commandments of ²the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken ²the LORD, He hath also forsaken you.'"

N

21 And they conspired against him, and ^ostoned him with stones ^oat the commandment of the king in the court of the house of ²the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when ^ohe died, he said, ²"The LORD look upon it, ^oand require it."

23 And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the ^ohost of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and ^odestroyed all the princes of the People from among the People, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of ^omen, and ²the LORD delivered a very great ²³host into their hand, because they had forsaken ²the LORD ⁵God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the ^osons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him ^onot in the sepulchres of the kings.

sight of °the LORD, °but not with a perfect heart.

3 Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was °established to him, that he slew his servants that had °killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did ° as it is written ° in the law in the book of Moses, where °the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not die for the °children, neither shall the °children die for the fathers, but °every man shall die for his own °sin."

5 Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin; and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred °talents of silver.

7 But there came °a °man of °God to him, saying, "O king, °let not the °army of °Israel go with thee; for °the LORD is °not with Israel, to wit, with °all the °children of °Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, ° be strong for the battle: °God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for °God hath power to help, and to cast down."

9 And Amaziah said to the °man of °God, "But what shall we do for the hundred °talents which I have given to the °army of Israel?" And the °man of °God answered, "The LORD is able to give thee much more than this."

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the °army that was come to him out of °Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his People, and went to the °valley of salt, and smote of °the °children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the °children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of °them, and took much spoil.

14 Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the °children of Seir, and °set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of °the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and He °sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, "Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not °deliver their own people out of thine hand?"

5 Wherefore ° the LORD ° his ° God delivered him into the hand of ° the king of Syria; and ° they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For ° Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all ° valiant men; because they had forsaken ° the LORD ° God of their fathers.

thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof:

strengthened him not.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the D 22 And in the time of his distress did he

23 And they brought forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the People, that God had prepared the People: for the thing was done suddenly.

30 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.

10 So the °posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

24 In those days. While Sennacherib's host was still surrounding Jerusalem. This is a brief summary of what is described in 2 Kings 20 and Isaiah 38.

22 Thus ° the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many ° brought gifts unto ° the LORD to Jerusalem, and ° presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

25 But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much.

30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

^m 7 And he set a carved image, the ° idol which
(p. 608) he had made, in the house of ° God, of which 588 ° God had said to David ° and to Solomon his to son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which 533 I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put My ° name for ever:

8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for ° your fathers; ° so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses."

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the ° heathen, whom ° the LORD had destroyed before the ° children of Israel.

10 And ° the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his People:

but they would not hearken.

11 Wherefore ° the LORD brought upon them the ° captains of the host of ° the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh ° among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought
° the LORD his ° God, and humbled himself greatly before the ° God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto Him:

and He was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that ° the LORD ° was ° God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of ° Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about ° Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the strange gods, and the ° idol out of the house of ° the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of ° the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of ° the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve ° the LORD ° God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless the People did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto ° the LORD their ° God only.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his ° God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of ° the LORD ° God of Israel, ° behold, they are written in the book of the kings of ° Israel.

19 ° His prayer also, and how God was in-treated of him, and all his ° sins, and his ° trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up ° groves and graven ° images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of ° the seers.

20 So Manasseh ° slept with his fathers, and they buried him ° in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 ° Amon was two and twenty years old

3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, ° he began to seek after the ° God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the ° groves, and the ° carved images, and the molten images.

4 And they ° brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; ° and the images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the ° groves, and the ° carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the ° graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he ° burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphthali, ° with their mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the ° groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, ° he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, ° to repair the house of ° the LORD his ° God.

9 And when they came to ° Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of ° God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of ° the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of ° the LORD, to repair and amend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And ° the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, ° all that could skill of instruments of musick.

13 ° Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of ° the LORD, Hilkiah the priest ° found a book of the law of ° the LORD given ° by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have ° found the book of the law in ° the house of ° the LORD." And Hilkiah delivered the ° book to Shaphan.

and encouraged them to the service of the house of ¹the LORD,

3 And said unto the Levites ° that taught ° all Israel, which were ° holy unto ¹the LORD, ° "Put ° the ° holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now ¹the LORD your ° God, and His People Israel,

4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to ° the writing of David king of Israel, and according to ° the writing of Solomon his son.

5 And stand in the ° holy place according to the ° divisions of ° the families of the fathers of your brethren ° the People, and after the division of the families of the Levites.

6 So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of ¹the LORD ° by the hand of Moses."

w

7 And Josiah gave to ° the People, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

w

8 And his princes gave willingly unto the People, to the priests, and to the Levites: ° Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of ° God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and ° Shemaiah and Nathaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and ° Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.

11 And ° they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.

12 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of ° the families of ° the People, to ° offer unto ¹the LORD, as it is written in ° the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.

13 And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other ° holy offerings ° sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all ° the People.

14 And ° afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in ° offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of ° David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's ° seer; and the porters waited at every gate; ° they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of ¹the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of ¹the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the ° children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

18 And there was ° no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover ° kept.

3 that taught all Israel. This was the great and special duty of the priests and Levites. But they neglected it for their ritual, as too many priests have done from that day to this. See notes on Deut. 33. 10; 17. 11, &c. all Israel. Not Judah only.

19 kept. The Septuagint Version adds here [with a colon after kept]: "after all these things that Josiah did in the house, who also burnt those who had familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and the sodomites, which were in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might confirm the words of the law that were written in the book which Hilkiah the priest had found in the house of the LORD. There was no one like him before him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, and all his soul, and all his strength, according to all the law of Moses, and after him there rose up none like him. Nevertheless the LORD turned not from the anger of His great wrath, wherewith the LORD was greatly angry against Judah, for all the provocations wherewith Manasseh provoked Him. And the LORD said: 'I shall even remove Judah also from My presence, as I have removed Israel; and I have rejected the city which I chose, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, 'My Name shall be there.'"

C x¹ (p. 613) 500 20 °After all this, when Josiah had prepared the ° temple, ° Necho king of Egypt came up to fight ° against ° Charchemish by Euphrates :

y¹ and Josiah went out against him.

x² 21 But ° he sent ambassadors to him, saying, "What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war : for ° God commanded me to make haste : forbear thee from meddling with ° God, Who is with me, that He destroy thee not."

y² 22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but ° disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of ° Necho from the mouth of ° God, and came to fight in the valley of ° Megiddo.

x³ 23 And the archers shot at king Josiah ; and the king said to his servants, "Have me away ; for I am sore wounded."

y³ 24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had ; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the ° sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 And ° Jeremiah lamented for Josiah : and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel : and, ° behold, they are written in the lamentations.

B (p. 609) 26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his ° goodness, according to that which was written in the law of ° the LORD, 27 And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

b 4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim.

a And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to ° Egypt.

SPECIAL NOTE ON 2 Chron. 36. 21.

THE "SERVITUDE", THE "CAPTIVITY", AND THE "DESOLATIONS".

Three Periods of seventy years are assigned to these three respectively, and it is necessary that they should be differentiated.

i. The "SERVITUDE" began in the fourth year of JEHOIAKIM, and the first of NEBUCHADNEZZAR, when the "KINGDOM" passed under CHALDEAN rule for seventy years (Jer. 25. 1). This period closed with the capture of BABYLON by DARIUS the MEDIAN (ASTYAGES), and the "Decree" of CYRUS to rebuild the Temple. It lasted from 496-426 B. C.

ii. The "CAPTIVITY" commenced, and is dated by EZEKIEL from the carrying away to BABYLON of JECHONIAH, in the eighth year of NEBUCHADNEZZAR (2 Kings 24. 8-16). This was in 489 B. C. Consequently, when the "Servitude" ended in 426 B. C., the "Captivity" had lasted for sixty-three (9 x 7) years.

Seven years later CYRUS died, in 419 B. C. That year (419) is further notable for:

1. The appointment of Nehemiah as Governor of Jerusalem by Cambyses (Neh. 5. 14).
2. The completion of "the wall" in fifty-two days (Neh. 6. 15); and
3. The fact it marks the end of the fifth of the "seven sevens" of Dan. 9. 25. (See Appendix 50. VI, p. 60; and 50. VII (5), p. 67. The "Captivity" lasting from 489 to 419 B. C.

iii. The "DESOLATIONS" commenced with the beginning of the third and last siege of JERUSALEM by NEBUCHADNEZZAR in 479 B. C., and cover a period of "seventy years", ending in the second year of DARIUS HYSTASPIS: i. e. in 409 B. C.

This "threescore and ten years" which is referred to here (2 Chron. 36. 21), is the fulfilment of Lev. 26. 32-35, and has reference to "the LAND".

It is this period of which DANIEL says he "understood by books", as being the number of the years that Jehovah "would accomplish in the Desolations of Jerusalem" (Dan. 9. 2).

The DARIUS here (Dan. 9. 1) is evidently CYRUS, the son of ASTYAGES (see notes on p. 618, and Ap. 57); and as the first year of his reign was 426 B. C., it follows that seventeen years had, then, yet to run before the "Desolations" of the LAND were ended, in 409 B. C.

Hence, DANIEL's prayer, that follows, resulted in the giving to him the famous prophecy of the "seventy sevens" of years contained in Dan. 9. 20-27.

* In Hebrew manuscripts of the Bible, and the early printed editions of the Hebrew text, these two books are always treated and reckoned as one book: the 685 verses being numbered from the first verse of Ezra to the last verse of Nehemiah; the middle verse of the one book being given by the Massorites as Neh. 3. 32; while of the ten Sedarim (or Cycles for public reading), the fourth begins at Ezra 8. 35 and ends with Neh. 2. 10. See note at foot of p. 632. Moreover, the notes which the Massorites place at the end of each book are placed at the end of Nehemiah, and not at the end of Ezra. Cp. note on the books of SAMUEL, KINGS, and CHRONICLES, p. 366.

The Structure of the one book is set forth as above, the two Divisions being given in their CANONICAL ORDER.

EZRA confines himself mainly to the events connected with the TEMPLE.

NEHEMIAH confines himself mainly to the events connected with the WALL and the CITY.

Ezra comes first in the Canonical Order, because the TEMPLE is more important than the WALL, morally and spiritually.

Nehemiah follows, because the WALL is of secondary importance.

When the whole of the events are looked at in their CHRONOLOGICAL and HISTORICAL order, a different Structure is necessarily observed: this Structure is determined by certain fixed points, common to both Orders. These fixed points determine the place of the remaining events recorded in the two parts respectively. See Table of Events and CHRONOLOGICAL Structure on p. 618, and the Harmony of Events in Ap. 58.

† The letters of this fount (in brackets) correspond with the same letters in the CHRONOLOGICAL Structure on page 617.

CERTAIN FIXED POINTS IN THE TWO DIVISIONS OF THE JOINT BOOKS

May be exhibited as follows, in brief: a complete list of all the events will be found in Appendix 58.

NOTES TO THE CHRONOLOGICAL STRUCTURE (p. 617).

The CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER of EVENTS, and the STRUCTURE based thereon, revolutionises the traditional view, which treats this one book as two books; places Ezra historically as preceding Nehemiah; and inserts the book of ESTHER between Ezra, chapters 6 and 7, instead of before Ezra-Nehemiah. (See date, Est. 1. 3.)

Those who thus dislocate the two divisions of this book proceed to speak of certain portions as being "misplaced", and "not original", and as having "false connections". These so-called "discrepancies", after having thus been first made by the commentators, are charged home on the inspired writers themselves.

That the "difficulties" exist only in the minds of the critics will be seen if we note the following facts:—

1. The fixed points, common to the two parts of the book, determine for us the true position of all the other parts, and result in giving us the Chronological Structure of the whole on page 617.

2. The traditional view places the building of the temple by Ezra as coming many years before Nehemiah 1. But this is inconceivable in view of the report brought by Hanani to Nehemiah concerning the desolations (Neh. 1. 3) and repeated to the king (Neh. 2. 3).

3. Nehemiah would surely have inquired about the welfare of the 42,360 exiles who are supposed to have returned to Jerusalem, and not about "the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity" (Neh. 1. 2).

4. When the wall was finished, "the houses were not yet builded" (Neh. 7. 1-4).

5. When the Feast of the seventh month was kept (Neh. 8), "the foundation of the temple of the Lord was not yet laid" (Ezra 3. 1-6).

6. When the people dwelt in their "cieled houses", the house of the Lord still lay waste (Hag. 1. 1-4). These facts are more certain than all chronology, and are more important and conclusive than all reasoning.

7. The names of some of the kings mentioned have been hitherto regarded as proper names; whereas, according to Sir Henry Rawlinson, Professor Sayce, The Encyclopædia Britannica, and The Century Encyclopædia of Names, three at least are appellatives (like Pharaoh, Abimelech, Czar, Shah, Sultan); viz. AHASUERUS, which means "The venerable king", ARTAXERXES, which means "The great king", and DARIUS, which means "The maintainer". See the Genealogy of the Persian kings (Ap. 57). If these appellatives denote separate and different individual kings, no place can be found for them all on the page of history.

8. See the longer notes on special passages at the end of Nehemiah, page 658.

1 NOW in the first year of °Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of °the LORD by the °mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, °the LORD stirred up the °spirit of °Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 "Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, ¹ The LORD °God of heaven °hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and ² he hath °charged me to build Him °an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 °Who is there among you of all His People? his ² God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and °build the house of ¹ the LORD °God of Israel, (³ he is the °God,) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And °whosoever °remaineth in any place where ⁴ he sojourneth, let °the °men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, °and with goods, and with beasts, beside the free-will offering for the °house of °God that is in Jerusalem."

5 Then rose up °the °chief of the fathers of °Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose ¹ spirit °God had raised, b 6 And all they that were about them strengthened °their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered.

7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of ¹ the LORD, °which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto °Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty °chargers of gold, a thousand °chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives,

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did °Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

TITLE, Ezra. For the Structure of the two books (Ezra-Nehemiah) as a whole, in their canonical order, see p. 616. For the Structure of the chronological order, see p. 617 and the reasons for it, on p. 618.

The book of Esther precedes (chronologically) the book of Ezra-Nehemiah.

1 Cyrus. The son of Astyages and Esther. See Ap. 57, 58, on the genealogy of the Persian kings. So named nearly 200 years before he was born (Isa. 44. 28).

The book of Esther precedes the book of Ezra-Nehemiah, and Neh. 1. 1-7. 4 precedes Ezra 1. 1-14. See note on Neh. 1. 2. Est. 3. 8; 10. 3, and Ap. 57, 58.

of Judah". 9 chargers=basons or bowls. Heb. agartāl. In Numbers ke'ārāh, plate or dish. Eng. "charger", from French charger, to load. Hence used of both a dish and a horse.

63 Tirshatha = governor (Persian title). Here refers to Nehemiah, as in Neh. 8. 9; 10. 1; 12. 26. The Heb. title is Pechah (Neh. 5. 14, 18; 12. 26). Whence the Turkish Pashah. See note on 5. 3.

64 congregation = assembly, or muster. forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore. This number (42,360) agrees with Neh. 7. 66. The two lists of names are not alike; but there is no "discrepancy". The two lists, while they agree in the numbers, and vary in names, yet have the totals identical. This shows the independence of the two accounts.

f 5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of 3 the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-will offering unto 3 the LORD.

D 6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto 3 the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of 3 the LORD was not yet laid.

15 And I gathered them ° together to the river that runneth to ° Ahava; and there ° abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the People, and the priests, and found there ° none of the sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I ° for Eliezer, for Ariel, for She-maiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, ° chief men; also for ° Joiarib, and for Elnathan, ° men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place ° Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the ° Nethinims, at the place ° Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our ° God.

18 And by the good hand of our ° God upon us they brought us ° a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the ° Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty ° Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

B b 21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river ° of ° Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our ° God, to seek of Him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, "The hand of our ° God is upon all them for good that seek Him; but His power and His wrath is against all them that forsake Him."

23 So we fasted and besought our ° God for this: and He was intreated of us.

c 24 Then I separated twelve of the ° chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the ° offering of the house of our ° God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and ° all Israel there present, had offered:

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty ° talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred ° talents, and of gold an hundred ° talents;

27 Also twenty ° basons of gold, ° of a thousand ° drams; and two vessels of ° fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, "Ye are ° holy unto ° the LORD; the vessels are ° holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto ° the LORD ° God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them; until ye weigh them before the ° chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of ° Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of ° the LORD."

30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our ° God.

°evil deeds, and for our great °trespass, seeing that Thou our God hast punished us less than our °iniquities deserve, and hast given us °such deliverance as this;

of these abominations? wouldst not Thou be angry with us till Thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

^f 15 O °LORD °God of Israel, Thou art right-this day: °behold, we are before Thee in our

°the sons of Elam, °answered and said unto Ezra, "We have °trespassed against our °God, of the land: yet now there is hope °in °Israel concerning this thing.

our °God to put away all the wives, and °such of °my LORD*, and of those that °tremble at the commandment of our °God; and let it be done °according to the law.

thee: we also will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it."

^E ^d 5 Then arose Ezra, and made °the chief priests, °the Levites, and all °Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word.
And they sware.

6 °Then Ezra rose up from before the house of °God, and went into the chamber of °Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he °came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he °mourned because of the °transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the °children of the °captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should °congregation of those that had been °carried away.

Nehemiah = comforter of (=appointed by) Jehovah. From 10. 1 he was one of the “princes” (9. 38) who signed the Solemn Covenant: a prince of Judah, for the “king's seed” and “princes” were taken to Babylon (Dan. 1. 3), according to the prophecy in 2 Kings 20. 17, 18. The next who signed was Zidkijah, a son of king Jehoiakim (1 Chron. 3. 16). Hanani (v. 2), his brother or near kinsman (a shortened form of Hananiah, cp. v. 2, and 7. 2), was another “prince”, renamed Shadrach (Dan. 1. 3—6), Nehemiah was the Sheshbazzar of Ezra 1. 8.

Artaxerxes = the great king. An appellative (like Pharaoh, Czar, &c.) used of several kings of Persia. Synonymous with Artachshast (Arta = great, and Kshatza = king, preserved in the modern "Shah"). See Ap. 57 and 58. This Artaxerxes was the great king ASTYAGES (of Herodotus), and ARSAMES (of Darius Hystaspis' Inscription), the husband of Esther, and father of Cyrus. He was also the Ahasuerus of Est. 1. 1, which means "the venerable king"; and he was also the "Darius the Mede" of Ezra 6. 14 and Dan. 5. 31. See Ap. 57 and 58.

6 the queen. Heb. ha-shēgal = wife. Occurs only here and in Ps. 45. 9. Dan. 5. 2, 3, 23. Not a Heb. word, but borrowed from the Akkadian sha = a bride, and gal = great. Used of a foreign queen. Here it would exactly suit "the great bride" or "foreign (Jewish) queen", Esther. (See notes on the Chronological Structure of Ezra-Nehemiah, p. 618.) Esther is introduced here (parenthetically) because of her sympathy and interest, which Nehemiah so greatly needed at this juncture, as Mordecai had needed it before (Est. 4. 14).

° Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, ° heard of it, ° it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a ° man to seek the welfare of the ° children of ° Israel.

0 11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 And I arose in the night, ¶ and some few ° men with me; neither told I any 10 man what my ° God had put in my heart to do ° at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that ¶ rode upon.

13 And I went out ° by night by ° the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung ° port, and ° viewed the walls of Jerusalem, ° which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to 13 the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by ° the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the ° rulers knew not whither ¶ went, or what ¶ did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, ° nor to the priests, ° nor to the nobles, ° nor to the rulers, ° nor to ° the rest that did the work.

17 Then said I unto them, "Ye see ° the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem 3 lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach."

18 Then I told them of the ° hand of my ° God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me.

2 And they said, "Let us rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for this ° good work.

9 19 But when Sanballat the 10 Horonite, and 10 Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and ° Geshem the ° Arabian, heard it, ° they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?"

0 20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, "The ° God of heaven, He will prosper us; therefore we His servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem."

H² P R (p. 635) 3 Then ° Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded ° the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the ° doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah, they sanctified it, unto the tower of ° Hananeel.

2 And ° next unto him builded ° the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

r¹ (p. 635) 3 But the ° fish gate did the sons of Has-senaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the ° doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

This portion corresponds with Ezra 1. 5-2. 70. Therefore all that precedes (1. 1-7. 4) must come, chronologically, before Ezra 1. 5. 72 And ^{that} which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand ⁷⁰ drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

73 So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the People, and ^o the Nethinims, and all ⁷ Israel, dwelt in their cities;

2 And ^o Ezra the priest brought the law before the ^o congregation both of ¹ men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, ^o upon the first day of the seventh month.

X h 3 And he read therein before the ¹ street that was before ¹ the water gate from the ^o morning until midday, before the ^o men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the People were attentive unto the book of the law.

i 4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a ^o pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and ^o beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiyah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiyah, ^o and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

g 5 And Ezra ^o opened the book ^o in the sight of all the People;

X i (for he was above all the People;) and when he opened it, all the People ^o stood up:

6 And Ezra blessed ¹ the LORD, the great ^o God. And all the people answered, ^o "Amen, Amen," with ^o lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped ¹ the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the People to understand the law: and the People stood in their place.

h 8 So they ^o read in ¹ the book in the law of ⁶ God ^o distinctly, ^o and ^o gave the sense, ^o and ^o caused them to understand the reading.

W² j 9 And ^o Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the People, said unto all the People, "This day is ^o holy unto ¹ the LORD your ⁶ God; mourn not, nor weep." For all the People wept, when they heard the words of the law.

1 those that sealed. These are stated by the Talmudical writings, and the unanimous voice of tradition, to have formed "The Great Synagogue". It consisted at first of 120 members, but was afterward reduced to seventy. It represented the five divisions of the nation: (1) the chiefs of the priests; (2) the chief Levites; (3) the chiefs of the people; (4) the representatives of the cities; (5) the doctors of the law. Its work was (by solemn oath): (1) not to intermarry with the heathen; (2) to keep the sabbath; (3) to keep the sabbatical year; (4) to pay annually $\frac{1}{4}$ of a shekel to the temple; (5) to supply wood for the altar; (6) to pay the priestly dues; (7) to collect and preserve the canonical scriptures. The Great Synagogue lasted 110 years: from Nehemiah to Simon the Just, when, having completed its work, it became known as the Sanhedrin of the N.T., the supreme council of the Jewish nation; which rejected the kingdom, and crucified the King (Messiah). them: howbeit our ° God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard Y the law, that they separated from Israel all the ° mixed multitude.

4 ° And before this, Eliashib the priest, having Z the oversight of the chamber of the house of our 2 God, was allied unto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the ° meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the ° new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the ° offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this time was ° not I at Jerusalem: for in ° the two and thirtieth year of 403 ° Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days ° obtained I leave of the king:

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the ° evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of ° God.

y (p. 651) 8 And it grieved me sore: therefore ° I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of ° God, with the ° meat offering and the frankincense.

T z (p. 652) 10 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every ° one to his field.

a 11 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, "Why is the house of ° God forsaken?" And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new ° wine and the oil unto the treasuries.

13 And ° I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiiah: and ° next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of ° Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

b 14 Remember me, O my ° God, concerning this, and wipe not out my ° good deeds that I have done for the house of my ° God, and for the ° offices thereof.

T z 15 In those days saw I in Judah some treading ° wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the ° children of Judah, ° and in Jerusalem.

a 17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, "What ° evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?"

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our ° God bring all this ° evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by ° profaning the ° sabbath."

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, "Why ° lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

LONGER NOTES ON SPECIAL PASSAGES IN NEHEMIAH.

2. 1 the twentieth year. The "seventy sevens" of Dan. 9. 24-27 begin here (454 B.C.).

The "seven sevens" (Dan. 9. 25), or forty-nine years begin here, and end in 405 B.C.; marked by the completion and dedication of the second Temple.

The "threescore and two sevens" (Dan. 9. 26), or 434 years begin (or rather, follow on) in 405 B.C., and end in A.D. 29, the year of the Cross.

The last "seven" is therefore, still future.

The first four of the "seven sevens" ended in 426 B.C., marked by the Decree of Cyrus, which ended the Babylonian Servitude of seventy years. See Ap. 50, 57, and 58.

5. 14-19 Moreover from the time that I was appointed, &c. Verses 14-19 are put within brackets for the following reasons:

As Nehemiah's record must have been written many years later, after the dedication both of the Temple (405 B.C.) and the Wall (403 B.C.), the reference to his policy during the twelve years of his governorship, from the twentieth to the thirty-second year of ARTAXERXES (DARIUS HYSTASPIS, 419-407 B.C.), is introduced here, in order to emphasise the contrast between the rapacity of "the nobles and rulers" (5. 7), and his own conduct. For he says that, not only at that time (454 B.C.) did he not exploit the people for his own advantage, but that during his governorship (which ended in 407 B.C., some four or five years at least before the time of his writing the final record, more than forty years later than 454), when, according to Eastern views, he would have been justified in getting as much as he could out of his office, he not only lived entirely at his own charges but supported others also. See note below on 13. 4-9.

7. 4 the houses were not builded = no sign of houses being built. This statement refers to the permanent stable habitations of the city proper which Haggai speaks of as being in existence forty-four years later (Hag. 1. 4, 9). The word bayith, house, means a dwelling, and in 2. 3 and 3. 31 is rendered "place", which clearly indicates its meaning in these passages. Among the ruined houses left by Nebuchadnezzar many might easily have been made habitable sufficiently to fulfil the conditions of 8. 16.

7. 5 I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first. It must be borne in mind that Nehemiah wrote long after this date (426 B.C.); probably between 403 and 400 B.C. It is quite natural therefore that he should write of finding such a book as this. When he says, "I found a book", &c., it does not mean that Nehemiah found or discovered the register at that time; but, writing long after, he says, "I find that the list of names was, so and so", &c.

13. 4-9 And before this . . . the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon (13. 6). The ARTAXERXES (= great king) here is DARIUS HYSTASPIS. The record here must have been written after the dedication of both Temple (405 B.C.) and Wall (403 B.C.). The thirty-second year is that of the king's age, not of his reign, for he only succeeded CAMBYSES in 411 B.C. His twentieth year (5. 14) was 419 B.C., when, on the death of Cyrus, NEHEMIAH WAS "appointed" to be "governor in the land of Judah".

Consequently Nehemiah's twelve years of governorship end in 407 B.C., two years before the completion and dedication of the Temple, and when DARIUS HYSTASPIS had been reigning three years.

In that year (407) NEHEMIAH evidently receives a report from his deputy (probably HANANI still) as to the Temple progress, and doubtless of the ELIASHIB-TOBIAH scandal. He determines to go himself, obtains leave of absence (with difficulty, apparently, 13. 6), and comes to Jerusalem. Arriving there, he "understands" the evil concerning Eliashib, casts forth TOBIAH and his "stuff", and hurries on the Temple work towards completion.

Dan. 6. 1 says 120 princes. The number continually altered to suit the requirements of government. Only in Dan. 6. 1 do we find 120. Plato says that "when Darius (i.e. 'the Maintainer' = Astyages) came to the throne, being one of the seven, he divided the country into seven portions" (De Legibus iii). These are the seven named in vv. 13, 14. When Babylon afterward fell into his hands, he divided his newly acquired kingdom into 120 parts (Dan. 9. 1. Cp. 6. 1). Why should he not have added these to the seven he already possessed, and thus have made the 127 of Est. 1. 1; 9. 30? In the later days of Darius (Hystaspis) these had reduced to twenty-three, as stated and named on the Behistun inscription.

5 Now in Shushan the palace there was ° a certain Jew, whose name was ° Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, ° a Benjamite;

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with ° Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had ° carried away.

7 And he brought up ° Hadassah, that is, ° Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither ° father nor mother, and the ° maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her 467 father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

B² 8 So it came to pass, when the king's ° commandment and his ° decree was heard, and when (p. 656) many 4 maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the 3 custody of Hegai, C² f² that 7 Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the 4 maiden pleased him, and she ° obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven 4 maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he ° preferred her and her 4 maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

e² 10 Esther had ° not shewed her People nor her kindred: for 5 Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.

11 And 6 Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, ° to know how 7 Esther did, and what should become of her.

B³ 12 Now when every 4 maid's turn was come to go in to king 1 Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, ° (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;)

13 Then thus came every 4 maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the 3 custody of Shaashgaz, the king's 3 chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

C³ f³ 15 Now when the turn of 7 Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's 3 chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And 7 Esther ° obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So 7 Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month ° Tebeth, in the ° seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved 7 Esther above all the women, and she ° obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the 1 virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of 1 Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even 7 Esther's feast; and he made a ° release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

e³ 19 And ° when the 1 virgins were gathered together the second time, then 5 Mordecai ° sat in the king's gate.

467 2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him.

k (p. 658) But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, "Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?"

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

E 1 5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the People of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the People of Mordecai.

m 1st Nisan 462 7 In the first month, (that is, the month Nisan,) in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

D i 8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, "There is a certain People scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries."

k 10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, "The silver is given to thee, the People also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee."

E m 12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

13th Adar 461

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was

2 And it was found written, that ° Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the ° door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

3 And the king said, "What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this?" Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, "There is nothing done for him."

4 And the king said, "Who is in the court?" ° (Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the ° gallows that he had prepared for him.)

5 And the king's servants said unto him, ° "Behold, Haman ° standeth in the court." And the king said, "Let him ° come in."

6 So Haman °came in. And the king said unto him, "What shall be done unto the °man whom the king delighteth to honour?" Now Haman °thought in his heart, "To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?"

7 And Haman answered the king, "For the °man whom the king delighteth to honour,

8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, °and the horse that the king rideth upon, °and the crown royal which is set upon his head:

9 °And let this apparel °and horse be delivered to the hand of °one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, °and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, °and proclaim before him, 'Thus shall it be done to the °man whom the king delighteth to honour.'"

H (p. 654) 10 Then the king said to Haman, ° "Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, °as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken."

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, "Thus shall it be done unto the °man whom the king delighteth to honour."

12 And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman °hasted to his house mourning, °and having his head covered.

13 °And Haman told °Zeresh his wife °and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and °Zeresh his wife unto him, "If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him."

C' 7 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.

B' D' 2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine,

E' K "What is thy °petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy °request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the °kingdom."

L 3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, "If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let °my life be given me at my petition, and my People at my request:

4 For we °are °sold, 3 and my People, to be °destroyed, to be °slain, and to °perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not °countervail the king's damage."

K 5 Then the king Ahasuerus °answered and said unto Esther the queen, ° "WHO IS °HE, AND WHERE IS HE, that durst presume in his heart to do so?"

6 And Esther said, "The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman." Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

7 And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his °life to Esther the queen; for he saw ° THAT THERE WAS °EVIL DETERMINED AGAINST HIM by °the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the ° palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the ° bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, ° "Will he force the queen also before me in the house?" As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, ° "Behold also, the °gallows fifty ° cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman." Then the king said, "Hang him thereon."

10 So ° they hanged Haman on the °gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

3 And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the ° mischief of ° Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

5 And said, ° "If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and ° be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy ° the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no ^o man could ^o withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all ^o people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For ^o Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this ² man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

d¹ 5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the ^o sword, ^o and ^o slaughter, ^o and ^o destruction, ^o and did what they would unto those that hated them.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred ² men at Shushan ; but on the prey they ¹⁰ laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, but they ¹⁰ laid not their hands on the prey,

17 On the ¹ thirteenth day of the month Adar ; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the ¹ thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof, and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

NOTE ON THE DATE AND AUTHORSHIP OF THE BOOK OF JOB.

A lengthened account of the discussion of these questions would be without profit.

But, if JOB was the son of ISSACHAR (Gen. 46. 13), then we have a clue that may help us to a decision of both.

It is better to keep within the Bible itself for the settlement of its problems; and to treat the whole Book as the context of all its parts.

There is no reason why JOB should not be the son of ISSACHAR, and no better evidence is forthcoming for a different view.

The three friends of Job were descendants of ESAU; they would therefore be contemporaries.

ELIPHAZ, of TEMAN, in Idumea, was a son of ESAU, and had a son called TEMAN, from whom his country took its name (Gen. 36. 10, 11). It was noted for its "wise men" (Jer. 49. 7); and is mentioned with EDMON (Amos 1. 11, 12). Compare Jer. 25. 23, where both are connected with BUZ, the brother of UZ (Gen. 22. 21).

BILDAD the Shuhite. SHUAH was the sixth son of ABRAHAM by KETURAH (Gen. 25. 2); and is mentioned in connection with ESAU, EDMON, and TEMAN (Jer. 49. 8).

ZOPHAR the Naamathite. NAAMAH (now Nā'aneh, six miles south of Lod, in the lowlands of Judah).

If JOB was the son of ISSACHAR (Gen. 46. 13), he would have gone down to Egypt with his father.

ISSACHAR was forty at "the going down to Egypt". (See Ap. 50. III, p. 52.)

If JOB was the third son (Gen. 46. 13), he would have been about twenty at that time (1706 B. C.).

We are told that he lived 140 years after his "double" blessing (42. 10). If that "double" blessing included length of years, then his age would have been $70 + 140 = 210$ (i. e. three seventies of years). His lifetime would be from 1726-1516 B. C.

According to this, he was born the year after JOSEPH was sold, and died 119 years after the death of JOSEPH (in 1635 B. C.). When JOSEPH died, JOB was ninety-one. If his "double" blessing did include length of years, then his affliction took place twenty-one years previously, when he was seventy. His removal from Egypt to Uz must therefore have taken place earlier still.

When JOB died (1516 B. C.) MOSES was fifty-five, and had been in MIDIAN fifteen years (twenty-five years before the Exodus).

This would account for JOB being a worshipper of the God of ABRAHAM, and explains how MOSES could have been the author of the book, and perhaps an eye- and ear-witness of the events it records in Midian. If so, the time has come (as Dr. Stier foretold and hoped¹) when this book would be regarded as "the Porch of the Sanctuary"; and when this "fundamental wisdom of original revelation will cease to be ascribed, as it now is by some of the best, to a later poet in Israel".

TITLE, The Book of Job has always formed an integral part of the Hebrew Canon; and some fifty-seven passages in it are quoted or referred to in the other books of the Bible. See Ap. 61.

The object of the book is to show "the end of the Lord" (Jas. 5. 11): the end to which Job was brought in 40. 4, 5; 42. 5, 6; viz. the confession of human impot- tence in attaining righteousness, and thankfully casting himself on Divine omnipotence for salvation. All tends to this "end". The three friends show the impotence of human experience (Eliphaz), human tradition (Bil-dad), and human merit (Zophar). Elihu points to God as the giver of a Divine righteousness for helpless guilty sinners. See note on p. 666.

b (p. 667) 7 And ⁶the LORD said unto ⁶Satan, "Whence comest thou?" Then ⁶Satan answered ⁶the LORD, and said, "From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

c 8 And ⁶the LORD said unto ⁶Satan, "Hast thou considered My servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a ¹perfect and an upright ¹man, one that feareth ¹God, and escheweth ⁶evil?"

d 9 Then ⁶Satan answered ⁶the LORD, and said, "Doth Job fear ¹God for nought?"

10 ⁶Hast not ³Thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

11 But put forth Thine ⁶hand now, and ⁶touch all that he hath, and He will ⁶curse Thee to Thy face."

e 12 And ⁶the LORD said unto ⁶Satan, "Behold, all that he hath is in thy ⁶power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand."

f So ⁶Satan went forth from the presence of ⁶the LORD.

g 13 And ⁶there ¹was ⁶a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking ⁶wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, ⁶and said, "The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And ⁶the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the ⁶servants with the edge of the sword; and ³I only am escaped alone to tell thee."

16 ⁶While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, "The fire of ¹God is fallen from heaven, ¹⁴and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and ³I only am escaped alone to tell thee."

17 ¹⁶While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, "The Chaldeans made out three bands, ¹⁴and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and ³I only am escaped alone to tell thee."

18 ¹⁶While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, "Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking ¹³wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, ⁶behold, there came a great ⁶wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and ³I only am escaped alone to tell thee."

h 20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and ⁶shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,

21 And said, "Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: ⁶the LORD gave, and ⁶the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of ⁶the LORD."

i 22 In all ⁶this Job ⁶sinned not, nor charged ¹God ⁶foolishly.

Da 2 Again there ⁶was ⁶a day when ⁶the sons of ⁶God came to present themselves before ⁶the LORD, and ⁶Satan came also among them to present himself before ⁶the LORD.

6 And ¹the LORD said unto ¹Satan, "Behold, he is in thine hand; but ⁶save his life."

7 So went ¹Satan forth from the presence of ¹the LORD,

10 But he said unto her, "Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?"

i In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

C E j 11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite:
(p. 669)

k for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.

F 12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept;

F and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

M² 13 For then, in silence had I been laid down;

I should have sunk to sleep and been at rest

14 With monarchs and with counsellors of Earth;

(The men who build their mouldering monuments),

15 With princes who [in life] possessed much gold,

(And who, with silver, had their houses filled).

16 Would I had been hut an untimely birth,

Like stillborn babes which never see the light.

17 For there the wicked cause no more annoy.

And there the wearied ones [at last] find rest:

18 Together with them captives find repose,

And hear no more the harsh taskmasters' voice.

19 The small and great alike are gathered there;

The servant from his masters is set free.

20 Wherefore unto the toilworn gives He light?

Or life [prolongs] to the embittered soul?

21 (To those who look for death that cometh not,

And seek for it as those who treasure seek,

22 Who would rejoice with exultation—yea!

Be glad indeed, if they could find the grave).

23 The grave—"Tis for the man whose way is hid,

For him whom ⊙⊙⊙ hath hedged round about.

24 For sighing cometh in, in place of food,

My groanings are like water poured forth.

25 For, that which I so feared hath come on me,

And what I dreaded, that hath come to me.

26 I was not careless: nor did feel secure;

Nor rested without thought: yet, trouble came.

O (p. 671) 3 Behold, how many others thou hast taught;
 And hast been wont to nerve enfeebled hands.
 4 The faltering step thy words have lifted up;
 And thou hast strengthened oft the feeble knees.
 5 But now, to thee [misfortune] comes, what grief!
 Because it toucheth thee, thou art dismayed!
 P Q 6 [Ought] not thy fear [of God to be] thy trust?
 And the uprightness of thy ways thy hope?
 R n 7 Reflect; when has the guiltless been destroyed?

12 Now, unto me a thing was brought by stealth;
 Mine ear did catch a whispering thereof.
 13 When thoughts arise, in visions of the night,
 When falls on mortals vision-seeing sleep.
 14 Great fear did come on me, and trembling [dread];
 It made my very bones to stand in awe!
 15 And o'er my face there then did pass a breath,
 Which made my very hair to stand on end.
 16 It stopped: but nothing could I then discern;
 I looked: and lo, an image without form.
 Silence: and then I heard a voice—[which said]— 17 "CAN MORTAL MAN MORE RIGHTEOUS BE THAN GDD ?
 OR ROASTFUL MAN BEFORE HIS MAKER PURE?
 18 IN HIS OWN SERVANTS HE WILL PUT NO TRUST, HIS ANGELS HE WILL CHARGE WITH IGNORANCE.

7 Ah no! Man's trouble from his birth begins, Thence rises it, as rise the sparks from fire.

8 But I--'tis unto GOD that I would seek; Yea, before God would I set forth my cause;

9 Who doeth great things and unsearchable, And wondrous things till they are numberless:

10 Who giveth rain upon the thirsty earth, And sendeth water on the open fields:

11 Who setteth up the lowly ones on high, And mourning ones He doth in safety set:

13 Who takes the wise in their own subtilty, So that their shifty plans are all forestalled.

14 [Such men] do meet with darkness in the day, And at the noonday grope, as in the night.

15 But from the sword's devouring mouth He saves A needy one, and plucks him from their hand.

16 Thus for the poor there comes a ground for hope; [And so] iniquity doth shut her mouth.

2 Oh, that my woe could be exactly weighed,
And my bemoaning set in scale therewith!

3 The woe more heavy than the sand would weigh:
'Tis this that makes my utterances wild.

4 For Shaddai's arrows now [stick fast] in me,
The heat whereof my spirit drinketh up:

G^oD'S terrors now against me are arrayed.

That He would loose His hand, and cut me off.

Or what mine end, though I be patient still?

12 My strength; has it become the strength of stones?
Or has my flesh become like flesh of brass?

All that is stable hath been driv'n from me.

14 E'en to th' afflicted, love is due from friends;
E'en though the fear of Shaddai he forsake.

Or, "Ransom me from the oppressor's hand?"

And make me understand where I have erred.

But wherein doth your arguing convince?

26 Do ye reprove by fast'ning on my words,

When one in sheer despair [at random] speaks

27 Like to the wind? Orphans ye might as well

Assail; and on your friend's disasters feast.

28 Be satisfied then. Do but look on me.

And 'twill be plain to you if I speak false.

29 Return, I pray you; let not wrong prevail;

Yea, turn again; my cause is truly just.

30 Is there, I ask, perverseness in my tongue?

And can I not discern iniquity?

7 Is not a mortal's life a warfare here
On earth? and as a hireling's day, his days?

2 As [weary] labourer panteth for the shade,
And as the hireling longeth for his wage,

3 So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say, 'When shall I arise, and the night be gone?' and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the °dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is °wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: Thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to °the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place °know him any more.

S (p. 673) 11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my °spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my °soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a °whale, that Thou settest a °watch °over me?

13 When I say, 'My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my °complaint;'

14 Then Thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:

15 So that my °soul chooseth strangling, and death °rather than my °life.

(16 I °loathe it; I would not live alway): let me alone; for my days are vanity.

17 °What is °man, that Thou shouldest magnify him? and that Thou shouldest set Thine heart upon him?

18 And that Thou shouldest visit him °every morning, and try him every moment?

19 How long wilt Thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto Thee, O Thou Preserver of °men? why hast Thou set me as a mark against Thee, so that I am a burden °to myself?

3 So I inherit months of vanity;
And nights of weariness have been my lot.

4 As soon as I lie down to sleep, I say:
'How long till I arise, and night be gone?'
And I am full of tossings till the dawn.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms, and clods of earth;
My broken skin heals up; then runs afresh.

6 Swifter than weaver's shuttle are my days,
And they are spent without a gleam of hope.

7 Remember that my life is but a breath,
Mine eye shall not again enjoyment see.

8 The eyes that see me now, will see no more,
But Thine will see me, though I shall not be.

So he that goes to Sheöl comes not back;

10 No more doth he return unto his house.
The place that knew him knoweth him no more.

In anguish of my spirit I must speak,
And utterance find for bitterness of soul.

The deep, that Thou about me sett'st a bound?

13 Should I have said, "My bed shall comfort me;
My couch shall yield a respite from my moans."

14 Anon Thou terrifiest me with dreams,
And with alarming visions fillest me,

15 So that my soul e'en strangling would prefer—
Death [self-inflicted, wrought]—by mine own hands.

16 I loathe my life: I would not thus live on.
Let me alone; my days are vanity.

17 What is frail man that Thou shouldst lift him up?
Or that Thou shouldst set Thy heart on him?

18 That every morning Thou shouldst visit him,
And ev'ry moment put him to the test?

19 How long e'er Thou wilt turn away from me?
Wilt Thou not for one instant let me be?

20 Watcher of men, what shall I do to Thee,
If I have sinned? why set me as Thy butt,
As if I were a burden unto Thee?

21 Why, rather, dost Thou not forgive my sin,
And take all mine iniquity away?

For in the dust I soon shall lay me down;
And thou shalt seek me, but I shall not be.

20 But upright men GOD never casts away;

Nor takes He evil doers by the hand.

ZOPHAR'S FIRST ADDRESS.

11. 1-20 (J³, p. 669).

2 Will not a mass of words admit reply?

And must a man, verbose, perforce be right?

3 Thy talk may put to silence mortal men: Thou may'st mock THEM, none putting thee to shame.

4 For thou hast said, 'My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in Thine eyes.'

5 But on that °GDD would speak, and open His °lips against thee;

6 And that He would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are °double to °that which is! Know therefore that °GDD °exacteth of thee less than thine °iniquity deserveth.

8 It is as high as heaven; °what canst thou do? deeper than °hell; °what canst thou know?

Z

9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

10 If He °cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then °who can hinder Him?

11 For He knoweth vain °men: He seeth °wickedness also; °will He not then consider it?

F y

12 For °vain °man would be wise, though °man be born like a wild ass's colt.

13 °If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward Him;

14 If °iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not °wickedness dwell in thy °tabernacles.

Z

15 For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:

16 °Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

17 And thine °age shall be clearer than the noonday; thou shalt °shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

18 And thou shalt °be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt °dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall °make suit unto thee.

18 'tis He Who breaks [confed'rate] bonds of kings,
And girds their loins with cords [as prisoners led] ;
19 He leadeth priests [of their pretensions] stripped,
And overthroweth the long-established [thrones].
20 The trusted [speaker] He deprives of speech ;
And takes away discernment from the old.
21 'tis He Who doth on princes pour contempt ;
And strippeth of their strength [the stout] and

Yea, bringeth things to light from out death's

14 [Frail son of] man that is of woman born,
How few his days; and these, of trouble full!
2 He springeth like a flow'r, and is cut down:
He fleeth as a shadow; makes no stay.
3 Yet, op'nest Thou Thine eyes on such an one?
And bring'st him into judgment with Thyself?
4 Oh that a clean thing could come forth from out
A thing unclean! But there is no such one.
5 If now his days are all [by Thee] decreed,
And fixed the number of his months with Thee,
If Thou hast made him bounds he may not pass,
6 Then look away from him, that he may rest,
And, like a hireling, may fulfil his day.
7 For of a tree, indeed, there still is hope
That, if it be cut down, 'twill sprout again;
And that its suckers will not cease [to grow].

8 Though, in the earth, the root thereof wax old,
Though in the dust[of earth] its stump should die;
9 [Yet] will the scent of water make it bud,
And put forth shoots like newly-planted tree.
10 But man—he dies; and, fallèn, he departs:
Yea, man—when he expireth—Where [is he]?
11 As waters fail, and vanish from the sea,
And as a river wasteth and dries up;
12 So man lies down and rises not again:
Until the heavens are no more, they ne'er
Awake; nor are aroused from their sleep.

13 Oh! that in Sheol Thou wouldest cover me;
Conceal me, till Thine anger turn away;
Fix me a time; and then remember me.

14 If a man dieth, will he live again?
Then—all my days of service I will wait,
Until the time of my reviving come;
15 Then shalt Thou call, and I will answer Thee;
For Thou wilt yearn toward Thy handiwork.

16 But now—Thou numberest my ev'ry step:
And Thou wilt not pass over [all] my sin.

K¹ a (p. 684)

2 A wise man, should he give vain knowledge forth, Or fill himself with words like blustering wind? 3 Should he contend with words of no avail, Or speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 But thou—thou wouldst make void the fear of GOD, And weaken [all] devotion [due] to Him. 5 Thy mouth declares thine own iniquity; And thou thyself dost choose the crafty tongue. 6 Thine own mouth and not \int doth thee condemn; Yea, thine own lips against thee testify.

7 Art thou the first man who was [ever] born? Wast thou brought forth before the hills [were made]?

8 Eloah's secret counsel didst thou hear? And to [His] wisdom canst thou e'pr attain?

9 What knowest thou, that is not known to us? What understandest thou, that we do not?

10 (The grey-haired and the aged is with us, More full of days than thine own father was).

11 GOD'S comfortings, are they too small for thee? Or is there any secret [sin] with thee?

12 Why let thy feelings carry thee away? What meaneth, then, this quiv'ring of thine eyes?

13 That thou shouldst turn thy rage against [thy] GOD, And cause such words to issue from thy mouth.

In houses where none other deigns to live ;

In places destined to be ruined heaps.

29 He will not long be rich, nor will his wealth

Endure, nor will his shadow lengthen out.

30 From darkness he will nevermore escape ;

His tender branch the flame shall wither up ;

In God's hot anger he will pass away.

31 Let no one put his faith in vain deceit :

For vanity will be his recompense ;

32 [And] he will be cut off before his time,
So that his palm will not be always green.

N² O¹ e (p. 688)

5 Yes ! True ! the sinner's light shall be put out ; And from his fire shall no bright flame ascend.

Yea, Death's Firstborn his members shall devour,

14 Uproot him from his tent (in which he trusts),

And to the King of Terrors hurry him.

15 These terrors in his tent shall dwell,—yet not

His own. Brimstone upon it shall descend ;

16 [While] from beneath his roots shall be dried up,

And from above his branch shall be cut off.

17 His memory has perish'd from the Earth,

No name is left to him in all the land.

18 From light to darkness do they thrust him forth,

And from the world they drive him far away :

19 Childless among his people he is left :

In all his habitation none survives.

2 How long will ye [thus grieve and] vex my soul,
And break me all to pieces with your words?
3 Already ten times have ye taunted me;
And still are not ashamed to wrong me thus.
4 Be it that I have sinned, [as ye say],
My sense of sin abideth with myself.
5 If 'gainst me still ye magnify yourselves,
And plead against me that I [must have] sinned:
Q 6 Then know ye that Eloah hath o'erthrown
My cause; and made His net to close me round.
7 Behold, I cry out ["Wrong!"] but am not heard:
I cry out "Help!" but there is no redress:
8 My path He hedgeth up; I cannot pass;
And on my way He maketh darkness rest:
9 From me my glory He hath stripped off,
And from my head hath He removed the crown.
10 On all sides I am crush'd, where'er I go:
He hath my hope uprooted like a tree:
11 Against me He hath made His anger burn,
And counts me toward Him as His enemy.

12 Together [gainst me] do His troops come on;
Against me they their earthworks have cast up,
And round about my tent have they encamped.
13 My brethren hath He put far off from me,
And mine acquaintance from me are estranged.
14 My near-of-kin have ceased [and failed] me,
And my familiar friends forgotten me.
15 The dwellers in my house, the very maids,
Account [and treat] me as a stranger now:
I am become an alien in their eyes.
16 I called my servant,—but he answered not,
[Though] I entreated him with mine own mouth.
17 My breath is grown offensive to my wife,
So would my fondling to my sons appear.
18 Yea—e'en the very boys despise me now;
They jeer at me when I attempt to rise.
19 My confidential friends from me recoil:
And those I loved turn right away from me.
20 My bone cleaves fast unto my skin and flesh,
All shrunk away the cov'ring of my teeth.
21 Have pity; oh, have pity, ye, my friends;
Eloah's hand [alas!] hath stricken me.
22 Wherefore pursue me as if ye were GOD?
Will not my body's [ills] suffice for you?

And therefore is my haste within me [roused].

But zeal, with knowledge, gives me a reply.

Since Adam first was placed upon the earth:

And momentary is the sinner's joy?

5 Turn now, and look on me, and stand amazed, And lay ye now your hand upon your mouth.
6 For, when I think of it, I am dismayed, And trembling taketh hold upon my flesh.
7 Why [suffers God] ungodly men to live, And to grow old; yea, to wax strong in power?
8 With them their seed is 'stablished; yea, with them Their offspring [live and] grow before their eyes.
9 Their houses are in peace; they know no fear; No scourge descends upon them from °GOD'S hand.
10 Their bull engendereth, and doth not fail; Their cow doth calve, and casteth not her calf.
11 Their little children skip about like lambs; Their elder children mingle in the dance.
12 With timbrel and with harp they lift their voice; And merry make with cheerful sound of pipe.
13 They in prosperity complete their days, And in a moment to the grave go down.
14 Yet, unto GOD they say: "Depart from us; No knowledge of Thy ways do we desire.
15 [Pray] Who is Shaddai that we Him should serve? And what the profit if to Him we pray?"
* * * * *

16 But lo! their good comes not from their own hand. Far be the way of wicked men from me.
17 [But yet, ye say] "How oft goes out the lamp of evil men! [How oft] calamity doth on them come! [How oft] are pangs apportioned them in wrath!
18 [How oft] are they as straw before the blast, Like chaff the storm and tempest drive away!"
19 [Ye say]; "Eloah lays up for the sons The father's evil life, in recompense, 20 That his own eyes may [all] the trouble see. When from the wrath of Shaddai he shall drink.
21 What pleasure hath he in prosperity, When cut off is the number of his months?"
22 Is it to GOD that one can knowledge teach? Seeing 'tis He Who judgeth things on high!
23 [For, lo]; one dieth in the very height Of his prosperity, calm, and at ease:
24 His breasts are full of nourishment; his bones With marrow are well moistened [and fresh].
25 Another dies in bitterness of soul, And never has he tasted any good.
26 Together in the dust they both lie down: Alike, o'er both, the worm its covering spreads.

J⁷ V¹ (p. 693) 22 2 Will mighty man advantage bring to GOD? Nay, he, though wise, can profit but himself.

3 To Shaddai is it gain if thou be just?

Or any profit if thy ways be pure?

4 From awe of thee will He debate with thee?

Or into judgment with thee will He come?

5 It may be that thy wickedness is great,

And without number thine iniquities:

6 That thou didst take thy brother's pledge for naught;

Or didst strip off the garments of the poor;

7 Or, that thou didst not give the weary drink,

Or from the hungry thou withholdest bread.

8 [Thou may'st have said]—

"The land is for the strong";

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet His eyes are upon their ways.

4 [While others] turn the needy from their way; And all the poor [and wretched] hide themselves.

5 Behold them! As wild-asses they go forth, And, on the plains, they early seek their prey; The barren steppe doth yield their children food.

6 They reap [down corn] in fields which are not theirs;

The vineyard of the wicked they do dress.

7 Ill-clad, they lodge without a covering, And without shelter are they from the cold.

8 With sweeping-rain from mountain-storm they're wet;

For want of refuge they embrace the rock.

9 These [tyrants] tear the orphan from the breast; That which is on the poor they take to pledge.

10 Stripped of their [scanty] clothing they go forth, And, hungry, carry [their task-masters'] sheaves:

11 Within their walls these poor press out their oil; Their wine-presses they tread, yet suffer thirst.

12 From city and from houses groans ascend; With shrieks those being murdered cry for help; Yet GD regards not this enormity!

* * * * *

13 [Others again] rebel against the light; They have no knowledge of its [blessed] ways, Neither abide they in the paths thereof.

14 The murderer at day-break riseth up, That he may slay the poor and destitute; And [then again] at night he plays the thief.

15 Th' adulterer for [midnight's] darkness waits, "No eye [saith he] shall see the path I take," And so he puts a covering on his face.

16 [Burglars] break into houses in the dark, Which they had set a mark-on in the day;

For such as these the daylight do not love.

17 To such, the light is as the shade of death;

For [in the light] death's terrors they discern.

18 Swift as the [rushing] waters' face, [so will]

His cursed portion vanish from the earth:

Nor will he to his vineyard e'er return.

19 As drought and heat to water turn the snows,

[E'en so] will Sheōl deal with those who sin.

20 The womb which bore him doth forget him there;

The worm doth [feed on him and] find him sweet:

He will not be remembered any more:

The wicked man lies, shivered, like a tree.

21 [Again, the wicked] wrongs the barren [wife];

And to the widow no compassion shows.

22 And by his might he drags the strong away:

He riseth up, no one is sure of life.

23 [God] lets them rest secure, and confident:

Though still His eyes are ever on their ways.

1656 24 They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

25 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?"

K^d D 26 But Job °answered and said, 2 °"How hast thou helped him that is without power? °how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

3 °How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and °how hast thou plentifully declared the thing °as it is?

4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose °spirit came from thee?

E 5 °Dead things °are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.

6 °Hell is naked before Him, and °destruction hath no covering.

7 He stretcheth out the °north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth °upon nothing.

8 He bindeth up the waters in His thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them.

9 He holdeth back the face of His throne, and spreadeth His cloud upon it.

10 He hath compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end.

11 The pillars of heaven °tremble and are °astonished at His reproof.

12 He divideth the sea with His power, and by His understanding He smiteth through the proud.

separates 29. 1—31. 40 from Job's ordinary replies. Instead of replying to Zophar, Job utters his "self-justification" (in 29. 1—31. 40), which corresponds with his lamentation in 3. 1-26, and forms the conclusion (G²) as that had been the introduction (G¹), and prepares us for "the words of Job are ended" in 31. 40. 11 I will teach you. This is Zophar's third and last address. (1) It is required by the Structure on p. 669 to complete the symmetry of the book. (2) The sentiments of 27. 11—28. 28 demand it, for they are the very opposite of Job's and the same as Zophar's in 27. 13; 20. 29. (3) If these are Job's words, then his friends had convinced him, which Elihu declares they had not done (32. 12). 27 Moreover Job did add these words, and say:

2 As GOD doth live Who takes away my right,
E'en Shaddai, Who hath so embittered me;

3 So long as breath remaineth in [my mouth],
And in my nostrils is Eloah's breath,

4 These lips of mine shall not perverseness speak,—
My tongue shall never utter what is false.

5 No; never will I grant that you are right,
Nor, while I live, my innocence let go;

E

6 My right I hold; I will not give it up!

My heart shall not reproach me all my days,
7 E'en were the Evil One mine enemy,
And he—th' Unjust—should my accuser be.

8 What hope is left the godless man, what gain,
When once Eloah doth his life demand?

9 Will GOD [indeed] give ear unto his cry
When [trouble or] distress on him shall come?

10 He is not one who doth in Shaddai joy!
Or on Eloah calls, at any time!

ZOPHAR'S THIRD ADDRESS

27. 11—28. 28 (J°, p. 669).

11 I now would speak about the ways of GOD,
And Shaddai's dealings [with you] not conceal.

12 Ye, surely, must have seen them for yourselves;
Or are ye, then, so altogether vain?

13 This is the lot of wicked men from GOD;
Th' oppressor's heritage from Shaddai's hand:

14 If sons do multiply, 'tis for the sword:
Of bread his offspring will not have enough:

15 Their issue buried, killed by pestilence,
Their widows will not lamentation make.

J° F (p. 698)

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a °booth that the °keeper maketh.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but °he shall not be °gathered: he openeth his eyes, and °he is not.

20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.

21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.

22 For °God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he °would fain flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

19 he = it: i. e. his wealth which is out at interest.

gathered = gathered in, or collected.

he = it: i. e. his wealth is gone. Not he, the rich man, for if he opens his eyes, he "is", not "is not".

22 God is wrongly supplied. It means "he who was wont in times past to flee from the rich man will now come down on him".

would fain flee. Heb. a fleeing would flee. Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6) = would hastily flee.

28. 1 Surely. This is the continuation of Zophar's last address. Not Job's words. Cp. 35. 16; 38. 2. They are opposed to his own words, and confirm those of his friends. Cp. his second address, 20. 1-29.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?

13 'Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.'

14 The depth saith, 'It is not in me: ' and the sea saith, 'It is not with me.'

15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.

16 Though silver, like the dust, he heapeth up,

And garments, made in number like the sand,

17 Though he prepare, the just will put them on;
His silver will the innocent divide.

18 The house he builds, 'tis frail as is the moth's,
Or as the booth which vineyard watcher makes.

19 He lies down rich, [his wealth] not gathered in:
He openeth his eyes, and it is gone!

20 Terrors will overtake him as a flood:
A whirlwind in the night will sweep him off.

21 The east wind catcheth him, and he is gone;
Yea, as a storm, it hurls him from his place.

22 He who, before, was wont to flee from him,
Will now come down on him, and will not spare.

23 In triumph he will clap his hands at him;
And hiss him forth from out his dwelling-place.

* * * * *

(p. 698)

28 Yes, for the silver there exists a vein;
A place withal for gold which they refine.

2 From out the earth iron may be brought up;
And copper may be smelted from the ore.

3 To darkness ['neath the earth] man sets a bound;
In all directions he explores [beneath];
Yea, e'en the ores of earth in darkness [hid].

4 A shaft he sinks, 'neath where the settler dwells:
And there, forgotten by the well-worn way,
The miners bore, and pass away [from sight].

5 As for the earth, bread cometh forth from it:
Yet underneath it fire is stirréd up.

6 Among its stones are glowing sapphires found;
And in its dust are nuggets of pure gold.

7 There is a path no bird of prey hath known;
Nor hath the eagle's eye discovered it.

8 [A path] which no proud beast hath ever trod:
Not e'en the lion ever passed that way.

9 Man lays his hand upon the flinty rock;
The hills he overturneth by their roots.

10 He cutteth water-channels in the rocks:
His eye detecteth every precious thing.

11 The overflowing floods he doth restrain:
The hidden things he bringeth forth to light.

12 But wisdom—whence can wisdom be obtained?
And understanding: where is found its place?

13 No mortal man doth know the way thereto;
Among the living it can not be found.

14 Th' abyss exclaims "[Wisdom] is not in me."
And ocean roars—"Nor dwelleth it with me."

15 Fine gold cannot be given in its stead, Neither can silver for its price be weighed.

16 With Ophir's gold it never can be bought;
Nor with the onyx, or the sapphire gem.

17 Crystal and gold cannot compare with it;
Nor vessels of pure gold be its exchange.

18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

F (p. 698)

20 °Whence then cometh wisdom? and °where is the place of understanding?

21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.

22 °Destruction and death °say, 'We have °heard the fame thereof with our ears.'

23 °God understandeth the way thereof, and He knoweth the place thereof.

24 For He looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;

H¹ J p (p. 700)

29 °Moreover Job °continued his parable, and said, that is wisdom. This was a libel on Job, for Job had this "fear" or reverence; yet he was suffering. That was the very point in question, and leads up to the answer. This was Zophar's philosophy. The fear of the LORD is not true wisdom; it is only "the beginning of wisdom" (Ps. 111. 10. Prov. 1. 7; 9. 10). True wisdom is to take the place of the sinner before God, and Job takes this place (42. 5, 6). This is "the end of the LORD" (Jas. 5. 11), and it is "the end" of this book. This wisdom "justifies God" (Ps. 51. 3, 4, 6. Matt. 11. 19. Luke 7. 35). True wisdom is "given", and we have to be "made" to know it (Prov. 30. 24. 2 Tim. 3. 15. Job 38. 36). Cp. 33. 27, 28; 34. 31; 35. 11; 39. 17. Zophar's was human wisdom founded on human merit. To depart from evil is what every prudent man would do from good policy.

1656 8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.
 9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.
 10 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.
 11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:
 K r 12 Because I delivered the poor that cried, (p. 700) and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.
 s 13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
 t 14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me:
 K t my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.
 s 15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.
 s 16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.

8 The young men saw me, and withdrew themselves; Yea, all the elders would rise up, and stand.
 9 The rulers, too, from talking would refrain, And lay their hand, for silence, on their mouth.
 10 The nobles' voice was hush'd; they held their peace; Their tongue, in silence, to their palate clave:
 11 The ear that heard me blessed me as it heard; The eye that saw me witness bore to me,
 K r 12 That I did save the poor when he cried out: (p. 700) The fatherless, and him who had no help.

 K t 15 I was instead of eyes unto the blind, And to the lame I was instead of feet.
 s 16 A father was I to the needy ones; The cause I did not know I searched out.

 J p 18 I said, "I shall grow old as doth the palm; Yea, multiplied like sand my days shall be:
 19 My root unto the waters shall spread out, And all night long the dew be on my branch,

20 My glory shall remain with me still fresh; My bow, within my hand, renew its strength."

21 To me men hearkened, waited, and gave ear, And at my counsel silence they did keep.

22 When I had spoken, none replied again, So that on them my wisdom still might fall.

23 Yea, they would wait, as men for showers wait, And open wide their mouths as for the rain.

24 That I should mock them they would ne'er believe, Nor would they cause a shadow on my face;

25 'Twas mine to choose their way, and sit as chief; As king among his subjects so I dwelt; And among mourners as a comforter.

30 But, now, my juniors hold me up to scorn, Whose fathers I would have disdained to put On level with the dogs that watched my flock.

2 What profit would their strength have been to me When they had lost their ripened manhood's powers?

3 Through hunger they were like the barren rock, These vagrants, driven from the land of drought, For ages past a desolation wild;

11 Since He hath loosed my bow, and humbled me, They too, before me, cast off all restraint.

My throbbing nerves [within me] never rest.

18 By great exertion is my garment changed; It girds me as my tunic girds my neck.

7 For those of many days should speak, I thought; A multitude of years should wisdom teach.

y 8 Howe'er, a spirit dwells in mortal man, And Shaddai's breath makes them to understand:

9 The greatest men are not at all times wise; Nor do the aged [always] rightly judge.

10 Therefore I said, "O hearken unto me; I too will show my knowledge, even I."

11 Lo! I have listened unto your discourse; To all your reasonings I have given ear, Waiting till ye have searched out what to say.

12 But, though to you I carefully gave heed, There was not one of you convicted Job; Not one who really answered what he said.

13 I pray you, say not "We have wisdom found; 'tis GOD alone Who thrusts him down, not man."

ELIHU. FIRST ADDRESS TO JOB. 33. 1-33.

Q¹ R¹ a¹ (p. 706)

33 And now, O Job, I pray thee hear me speak, And be attentive to my every word.

2 Behold now that I have begun to speak; My tongue shall utterance give, distinct and clear:

b¹ 3 For all that I shall say comes from my heart, My lips shall speak what is sincere and true.

4 GOD'S Spirit made me [at the first], and [still] 'tis the Almighty's breath must quicken me.

5 If thou be able, answer me, I pray: Array thy words in order; take thy stand.

6 Lo, I am here—thou wishedst—in GOD'S stead. And of the clay I have been formed, [like thee].

7 Behold, my terror will not make thee fear; Nor heavy will my hand upon thee press.

8 But, surely, thou hast spoken in mine ears, And I have heard a voice of words like these:

9 "A man without transgression, pure, am I: Yea, I am clean; without iniquity.

10 He is against me; seeking grounds of strife, That He may count me as His enemy;

11 My feet He setteth fast within the stocks, And taketh observation of my ways."

12 Behold, thou art not just: I answer thee: HOW GREAT IS GOD COMPARED WITH MORTAL MAN?

S c (p. 706) 1656 d e¹ (p. 707) 13 Why dost thou strive against Him? for He giveth not account of any of His matters.

14 For 'GOD speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon ¹² men, in slumberings upon the bed;

f¹ 16 Then He openeth the ears of ¹² men, and sealeth their instruction, 18 He keepeth back his ° soul from the ° pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

e³ 19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

20 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his ¹⁸ soul dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

22 ° Yea, his ¹⁸ soul draweth near unto the ° grave, and his life to the destroyers.

f² 23 ° If there be a messenger with Him, an ° interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto ¹⁷ man ° His uprightness:

26 He shall pray unto ¹² GOD, and He will be favourable unto him: and he shall see His face with ° joy: for He will render unto ¹² man ²³ His righteousness.

27 He looketh upon ¹² men, and if any say, ° 'I have ° sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;'

32 If thou hast anything to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, ° hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom."

S c (p. 706) 13 Why, then, 'gainst Him didst thou dare make complaint, That by no word of His He ans'w'reth thee?

d e¹ (p. 707) 14 For GOD doth speak. He speaks in sundry ways: Again, again, though man regard it not.

15 He speaks in dreams, and visions of the night, When, deep in slumber, lying on their bed, There falls on men an overwhelming sleep.

f¹ 16 Then opens He their ear, that they may hear, Pressing; as with a seal, the warning given, 17 To make a man withdraw himself from sin, Or keep him from the [dangerous] way of pride.

18 Back from the pit 'tis thus He keeps a man, And saves his life from falling by the sword.

e³ 19 He speaks again, when, chastened, on his bed Another lies, his bones all rack'd with pain;

20 So that his daily food he doth abhor, And turns against his choicest dainty meat.

21 His flesh, it wastes away and is not seen: His bones, before concealed, show through his skin.

22 Unto destruction he is drawing nigh, And death's dark angel waits to end his life.

f² 23 Then, then, He speaks with him by Messenger Who can interpret;—One, 'mong thousands chief, Who will reveal to man HIS righteousness.

24 Then He doth show him grace [Divine, and saith]:— 'Deliver him from going down to death; A Ransom I have found—Redemption's price.'

25 Young as a child's becomes his flesh again, And to his youthful days he doth return.

26 He, supplication to Eloah makes, Who grace and kindly favour showeth him, So that he looketh up to God with joy.

Thus, doth [He] give to man HIS righteousness.

27 This, then, becomes the burden of his song:— 'I sinned! and I perverted what was right!

Although no profit from it came to me.'

28 His soul HE hath redeemed from the pit: His life will yet again behold the light.

29 Thus doth GOD speak, in all these sundry ways: Time after time; and yet again He speaks:

30 That from destruction He may save a soul, And make him joy in light—the light of life.

31 Mark this, O Job, and hearken unto me. I will now speak: and, as for thee, hold thou Thy peace, while I with words of wisdom teach.

32 If there be any answer, answer me. Speak: for I long to see thee justified.

33 If not; do thou then hearken unto me: Hold thou thy peace, while wisdom I impart.

ELIHU. ADDRESS TO JOB'S FRIENDS.

34. 1-37 (Q², p. 705).

34 Elihu then addressed [Job's friends] and said:

2 Hear now my words, ye wise [and clever] men; And ye who knowledge have, give ear to me.

3 For 'tis the ear that [proves and] trieth speech, E'en as the palate shows what food is good.

4 Then, let us, what is right, choose for ourselves: Let us decide among us, what is good.

h 5 Now Job hath said—

"I am and have been just: But GOD my righteous cause hath turned away.

6 Shall I against my right speak what is false? Sore is my wound; though through no sin of mine."

i 7 Where is the worthy man [who] like to Job, Drinks up as water all your scornful words?

8 And keepeth company with those who sin, And doth associate with wicked men?

9 For he hath said—

"It profiteth not man That he should take delight in Elohim,"

10 To this, ye wise men, list to my reply:

Far be such evil from the mighty GOD, And far from Shaddai such iniquity.

11 For, sure, man's work He will repay to him, And will requite according to his ways.

12 Nay, surely, GOD will not do wickedly, And Shaddai never will pervert the right.

13 Who e'er to Him did delegate the charge Of earth? or trusted Him with all the world?

14 Should He think only of Himself, [and all] His breath, the breath of life withdraw; [what then?]

15 All flesh together would [at once] expire, And man would straight to dust return again.

16 Now, if thou understanding hast, hear this; Give heed unto the teaching of my words.

17 Can one who hateth justice rule [the world]? Wilt thou condemn the Just, the Mighty One?

18 Shall one say to a King—"Thou worthless man"? Or, unto nobles, "Ye ungodly men"?

19 °How much less to Him That °accepteth not the persons of 18 princes, nor °regardeth the rich more than the °poor? for they all are °the work of His hands.

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away °without hand.

21 For His eyes are upon the ways of °man, and He seeth all his goings.

22 There is no °darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of 8 iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For He will not lay upon 21 man more than right; that he should enter into judgment with 5 GOD.

24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore He knoweth their works, and He overturneth them in the night, so that they are °destroyed.

26 He striketh them as 8 wicked men in the open sight of others;

27 Because they turned back °from Him, and would not consider any of His ways:

28 So that they cause the cry of the 19 poor to come unto Him, and He heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 °When He giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and °when He hideth His face, who then can behold Him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a 11 man only:

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto 5 GOD, 'I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

2 GOD'S. Heb. El. Ap. 4. IV.

34 Let 8 men of understanding tell me, and let a wise 7 man hearken unto me.

35 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were °without wisdom.

36 My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because of his answers for °wicked 8 men.

37 For he addeth °rebellion unto his °sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against 5 GOD."

35 Elihu spake moreover, and said, 2 "Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, 'My righteousness is more than °GOD'S?'

19 How much less wilt thou say it then to Him? Who [neither] doth accept the face of kings, Nor doth regard the rich above the poor, For they are all the work of His own hands.

20 They in a moment die, e'en in a night; The people tremble when they pass away: The mighty fall, but by no [human] hand.

21 For on the ways of men His eyes are set, And all their footsteps He doth see [and note].

22 There is no darkness, and no shade of death, Where workers of iniquity may hide.

23 Man doth not need repeated scrutiny, When he to GOD for [final] judgment comes.

24 He breaks the strong in ways we cannot trace; And others, in their stead, He setteth up.

25 To this end takes He knowledge of their works; And, in a night He overthroweth them, [In such a way] that they are [all] destroyed.

26 [Sometimes] He smites the wicked where they stand,

In open sight of all men who behold;

27 Because they turned back from after Him, Nor any of His ways would they regard;

28 But, [by oppression,] brought the poor man's cry To Him Who hears the plaint of the oppressed.

29 When He gives quiet, who can e'er disturb? Or who can see Him when He hides His face?

(Whether it be a nation or a man,

30 Whether because the godless may not reign, Or those who of the people make a prey.)

31 If Job had [spoken] unto GOD, [and] said:

"I have borne chastisement: and never more 32 Will I transgress; that which I do not see Teach me Thyself: if in the past I wrought Iniquity, I will not work it more:"

33 Should He requite on thine own terms, [and say]: "As thou wilt choose [so be it], not as I?"

Say therefore, now, O Job, if thou dost know.

34 For ME would men of understanding speak; Yea, every wise man listening now [will say]:

35 "Job, without knowledge, spoke in ignorance; And void of understanding were his words."

36 Oh would that Job were proved unto the end, For his replies are those of evil men.

37 Rebellion he doth add unto his sin: Defiant in our midst he claps his hands; And, against GOD he multiplies his words.

ELIHU. SECOND ADDRESS TO JOB.

35. 1-16 (Q3, p. 705).

1 Elihu further spake to Job and said:—

2 Dost thou count this sound judgment? Thou didst say,

"My righteousness surpasseth that of GOD:"

P3

(p. 705)

Q3 V1 11

(p. 709)

1656 3 For thou saidst, ° ‘What advantage will it be unto thee?’ and, ° ‘What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my ° sin?’

m¹ (p. 709) 4 ¶ will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

5 ° Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

6 If thou ° sinnest, what doest thou against Him? or if thy ° transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto Him?

7 If thou be righteous, what givest thou Him? or what receiveth He of thine hand?

8 Thy ° wickedness may hurt ° a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son ° of man.

V² I² 9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

m² 10 But none saith, ‘Where is ° GOD my Maker, Who giveth songs in the night; 11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?’

12 There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of ° evil men.

13 Surely ° GOD will not hear vanity, neither will ° THE ALMIGHTY regard it.

V³ I³ 14 Although thou sayest thou shalt not see Him, m³ yet judgment is before Him; therefore ° trust thou in Him.

15 But now, because it is not so, ° He hath visited in His anger; yet He knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.”

P¹ (p. 705) 36 Elihu also proceeded, and said,

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: He That is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 ° Behold, ° GOD ° is mighty, and despiseth not any: He is mighty in strength and wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the ° wicked: but giveth right to the ° poor.

7 He withdraweth not His eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, He doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

3 Yea—thou dost ask “What is the gain to thee?” And, “Shall I profit more than by my sin?”

m¹ (p. 709) 4 I—even I, will make reply to thee, And, with thee, to these friends of thine as well.

5 Look up unto the heav’ns; consider them; Survey the skies, so high above thy head.

6 If thou hast sinned, what doest thou to Him? Be thy sins many, what dost thou to Him?

7 If thou art just, what dost thou give to Him? Or from thy hand what [gift] will He receive?

8 Thy sin may hurt a mortal like thyself; Thy righteousness may profit one like thee.

V² I² 9 Men make an outcry when they are oppressed: They cry for help when ’neath the tyrant’s pow’r.

m² 10 But no one saith, “Where is my Maker, GOD, Who giveth songs to us in sorrow’s night; 11 And teacheth us beyond the beasts of earth, And makes us wiser than the fowl of heav’n?”

12 But the true reason why He answereth not, Although they cry, is—evil doers’ pride, 13 For vanity GOD will in no wise hear, Nor will th’ Almighty hold it in regard.

V³ I³ 14 How much less, then, when thou dost say to Him— “I see Him not: [He doth not hear my cry].”

Yet judgment is before Him: therefore wait.

16 Thus Job doth fill his mouth with vanity; And, without knowledge, multiplieth words.

ELIHU. WORDS ON GOD’S BEHALF. 36. 2—37. 24 (Q⁴, p. 705).

2 Bear with me, while I, briefly, make thee see There yet are words to say on GOD’S behalf.

3 My knowledge I shall gather from afar; And to my Maker righteousness ascribe.

4 For truly, nothing false is in my words: Th’ Omniscient One it is Who deals with thee.

5 Lo! GOD IS GREAT,—but naught doth He despise: In power great, in wisdom great, is He.

6 He will not let the wicked ever live: But He will right the cause of the oppressed,

7 And not take from a righteous man His eyes. He seateth them with kings upon the throne; He makes them sit in glory; raised on high.

8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then He sheweth them their work, and their °transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from °iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve Him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when He bindeth them.

14 °They die in youth, and their life is among the °unclean.

15 He delivereth the °poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

p (p. 710) 16 Even so would He have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the °wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest He take thee away with His stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.

19 °Will He esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not °iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 °Behold, °GOD exalteth by His power: °who teacheth like Him?

23 °Who hath enjoined Him His way? or °who can say, 'Thou hast wrought °iniquity?'

24 Remember that thou magnify His work, which °men behold.

30 bottom = roots or offspring, i.e. clouds.

25 °Every man may see it; °man may °behold it afar off.

26 Behold, °GOD °is great, and we know Him not, neither can the number of °His years be searched out.

27 For He maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof:

28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon °man abundantly.

29 Also °can any understand the °spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of His °tabernacle?

30 °Behold, He spreadeth His light upon it, and covereth the °bottom of the sea.

31 For by them judgeth He the °people; He giveth meat in abundance.

32 With clouds He covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33 The noise thereof °sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour.

8 And, if they be in [iron] fetters bound,
Or, [if] they be held fast in sorrow's bonds,
9 [It is] that He may show to them their deeds
And their transgressions which have sprung from pride.

10 Thus openeth He their ear, and doth instruct
And warn them from iniquity to turn.

11 Then, if they hearken and obey [His voice],
They in prosperity shall spend their days,
[And end] their years in peace and pleasantness.

12 Should they not heed, they perish by the sword;
And die, not knowing [how it is, or why].

13 But hypocrites in heart will heap up wrath, [Because] they cry not when He bindeth them.

14 [Wherefore] they die while they are yet in youth,
Their life is spent among polluted ones.

15 Yet He doth save the poor in all his woes, And openeth their ear in their distress.

p (p. 710) 16 Thus, in like manner, He would THEE allure,
And from the mouth of trouble draw thee out
Into a pleasant place:—no trouble there;
Thy table well prepared with richest food.

17 But [if] with sinners' pleadings thou be filled, Judgment and justice will lay hold on thee.

18 For, there is wrath; [beware, then,] of its stroke;
For, then, a ransom great will not suffice,

19 Nor treasure turn the threatened stroke aside,
Nor precious ore avail, nor all thy strength.

20 Oh, long not for the night [of death], in which [Whole] nations get upheaved from out their place!

21 Take heed! regard not thou iniquity;
For this thou didst prefer to all thy woes.

22 Lo, GOD will be exalted in His pow'r:
Who can convey instruction like to Him?

23 Who is it that assigns to Him His way?
Or who can say to Him—"Thou hast done wrong"?"

24 Remember that thou should'st extol His work,
Which men have contemplated, [and have sung]:

25 Yea, all have gazed in wonder thereupon;
And mortal man beholds it from afar.

26 Lo! GOD IS GREAT,—[greater] than we can know;

The number of His years past finding out.

27 'Tis He Who draweth up the vapour-clouds;
And they distil [from heaven] in rain and mist:

28 E'en that which from the [low'ring] skies doth fall,
And poureth down on man abundantly.

29 Can any man explain the rain-clouds' balancings,
The rumbling thunders of His canopy?

30 Behold, He spreadeth out His light thereon,
While making dark the bottom of the sea.

31 (Yet He His judgment executes by these:
By these He giveth food abundantly.)

32 He [graspeth] in His hand the lightning flash,
And giveth it commandment where to strike.

33 Of this the noise thereof quick notice gives,
The [frightened] cattle warn of coming storm.

37 At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 Hear attentively the noise of °His voice, and the sound that goeth out of °His mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and His lightning unto the ends of the earth.

4 After it a voice roareth: He thundereth with the voice of His excellency; and He will not stay them when His voice is heard.

5 °GOD thundereth marvellously with His voice; great things doeth He, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For He saith to the snow, 'Be thou on the earth;' likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of His strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every °man; that all °men may know His work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their °places.

9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the north.

10 By the °breath of °GOD frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering He wearieth the thick cloud: He scattereth His bright cloud:

12 And it is turned round about by His counsels: that they may do whatsoever He commandeth them upon the face of the °world in the earth.

13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for His land, or for mercy.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of °GOD.

15 °Dost thou know when °GOD disposed them, and caused the light of His cloud to shine?

16 °Dost thou know the balancings of the °clouds, the wondrous works of Him Which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warm, when He quieteth the earth by the south wind?

18 Hast thou with Him spread out the °sky, which is strong, and as a molten °looking glass?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto Him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told Him that I speak? if a °man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the °wind passeth, and cleanseth them.

22 Fair weather cometh out of the north:

with ¹⁵ ⊙⊙⊙ is terrible majesty.

23 Touching °THE ALMIGHTY, we cannot find Him out: He is excellent in °power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: He will not afflict.

(p. 710)

37 [The rumbling thunder] makes my heart to quake, And [startled] it leaps up from out its place.

2 Hear ye, O hear, the roaring of His voice, The loud reverberations from His mouth,

3 As under heaven's expanse the sound goes forth. His lightning to the Earth's extremities

4 [He sends], and after it the thunder roars:

He thund'reth with His voice of majesty:

One cannot trace Him, though His voice be heard.

5 GOD'S voice is wondrous when He thundereth.

Great things He doth: we comprehend them not.

6 For to the snow He saith—"Fall thou on Earth:"

And to the show'r, yea, to the flooding rains

7 Which stop the work of man and make it cease,

That all men of His doing may take note;

8 Then must the beasts each to his covert go,

And in their lairs must they [perforce] remain.

9 Out from the south proceedeth the hot blast;

And from Mezarim comes the biting cold.

10 The wind of GOD produces the hoar-frost;

The waters wide are all congealed by it.

11 With rain He ladeneth the thick dark cloud,

And dissipates the filmy cumulus:

12 It turneth round about as He doth guide,

That His commandment it may execute

Upon the [vast] expanse of all the earth,

13 Whether in chastisement, or for His land,

Or else in mercy cause He it to come.

14 O Job! [I pray thee] hearken unto this:

Stand still and contemplate GOD'S wondrous works.

15 Know'st thou how Eloah gives charge to them,

And how He makes His light on them to shine?

16 Or dost thou know the thick-clouds' balancings,

His wondrous works, Whose knowledge hath no bound?

17 How [is it that] thy garments [feel so] warm,

When He makes still the Earth with southern heat?

18 Wast thou with Him [when] He spread out the sky;

And made it like a molten mirror [firm]?

19 Oh, tell me that which we should say to Him:

We know not what to say; so dark we are!

20 Must He be told that I would speak to Him!

And if I speak, can man see Him and live.

21 But now, [though] men see not the light [of God],

Yet He is bright [in splendour] in the skies:

But when the wind has passed and cleared the clouds,

22 Then from the north there comes a golden light.

Ah! but with ⊙⊙⊙ there is a majesty

23 Divine. And Shaddai's paths we cannot find;

So great, so great is He in pow'r; so full

Of righteousness and truth: He will not crush.

24 Therefore can men but stand in awe of Him:

For none can know Him, be they e'er so wise.

16 Behold, his massive strength is in his loins: His force doth in his belly's muscles lie;
17 Shakes he his tail? 'tis like a cedar tree. The sinews of his thighs are firm entwined.
18 His bones are strong, like unto tubes of brass; His ribs with bars of iron may compare.
19 A masterpiece of all GOD'S ways is he: Only his Maker can bring nigh His sword.
20 The mountains will bring produce forth for him, While all the beasts do, fearless, round him play.
21 Beneath the shady trees he lieth down, And rests in covert of the reed and fen:
22 The shady trees weave o'er him each its shade; While willows of the brook encompass him.
23 Suppose the stream should swell; he will not blench:
For he believes that Jordan he can drink.
24 Shall any take him while he lies on watch? Or with a hook shall any pierce his nose?
41 Canst thou draw up Leviathan with hook? Or catch, as with [an angler's] line, his tongue?

7 Wilt thou with darts essay to fill his skin? Or [pierce] his head with spears for catching fish?

—10 BEFORE ME, THEN, [HIS MAKER], WHO CAN STAND?

JEHOVAH'S THIRD APPEAL TO JOB.

12 Silence I shall not keep about his parts: His wondrous strength: his well-proportioned frame;
13 His coat of mail: who hath e'er stripped this off? His double row of teeth: who enters there?
14 The doors which close his mouth: who opens them? His teeth's surroundings are a scare to see.
15 The scales which form his armour are his pride: Each one shut up and closed as with a seal.

17 So close unto each other do they cleave, And cling so fast, that none can sunder them.

3 Who is he . . . ? Supply the obvious Ellipsis (Ap. 6) thus: "[Thou askedst] 'Who is this?'" &c.; which Jehovah did ask in 38. 1-3.

4 Hear=Hear, now. I will demand of thee. Supply the Ellipsis (Ap. 6): "[Thou saidst]: 'Let him answer Me'" (see 40. 2).

6 I abhor myself, and repent. "The end of the Lord" (i. e. what Jehovah designed as the great lesson of this book) is at length reached. Cp. Jas. 5. 11.

knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 °Hear, I beseech Thee, and I will speak: °I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have heard of Thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth Thee.

6 Wherefore °I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

7 And it was so, that after °the LORD had spoken °these words unto Job,

°the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite,

31 Like boiling pot he makes the deep to foam; And, like a well-stirr'd ointment pot, the Nile.

32 His wake he makes a sparkling, shiny path, So that the deep will look like hoary hair.

33 His equal is not found on all the earth: He hath been made insensible of fear:

34 On all things high he looketh [dauntlessly]; And over all proud beasts he is a king.

JOB'S SECOND REPLY TO JEHOVAH. 42. 1-6 (Z, p. 713).

1 Then answered Job, and to Jehovah said:—

2 "I know, I know, that Thou canst all things do: No purposes of THINE can be withholden.

3 [Thou askedst (38. 3; 40. 2)]— 'Who is this that counsel hides, And darkens all, because of knowledge void?'

'tis I! I uttered things I could not know; Things far too wonderful, beyond my ken.

4 Hear now, I pray thee: let me speak this once. [Thou saidst (40. 2)]:—

'tis I who ask thee: Answer Me.'

5 I heard of Thee by hearing of the ear, But now mine eye hath seen Thee, I abhor [Myself]. In dust and ashes I repent."

18 His sneezings are a flashing forth of light. His eyes are like the eyelids of the Dawn.

19 Out of his mouth vapours like torches go, And sparks like fire therefrom make their escape.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth forth a smoke, As from a boiling pot on reed-fire set.

21 His breath,—as if it would set coals aflame; And from his mouth a flame seems issuing forth:

22 His strength abideth ever in his neck; Before his face grim terror dancing goes.

23 His softer folds of flesh, though hanging, cleave So close on him that moved they cannot be.

24 His heart is hard, hard as a stone is hard; Yea, like a nether millstone, firm and hard.

26 Whene'er he riseth up, the mighty cow'r; And, at the waves he makes, their fright is great.

26 Let one encounter him—no sword will stand: No spear, nor dart, nor iron coat of mail.

27 Iron he counts no better than a straw, And brass no better is than rotten wood.

28 The arrow will not make him flee away: Slingstones to him are stubble, and no more;

29 Like harmless chaff he counts the pond'rous club, And at the whizzing of a spear will laugh.

30 His under-parts are sharply pointed spikes: He spreads like threshing-drag upon the mire.

O s (p. 718) "My wrath is kindled against thee, and ing; and My servant Job shall pray for you:

t for °him will I accept: lest I deal with you

Me the thing which is right, like My servant Job."

N 9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as °the LORD commanded them:

M °the LORD also accepted °Job.

B P (p. 719) 10 And °the LORD °turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also °the LORD gave Job °twice as much as he had before.

Q 11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the °evil that °the LORD had brought upon him: °every man also gave him a °piece of money, and °every one an earring of gold.

P 12 So °the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, °and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand

THE PSALMS.

THE STRUCTURE OF THE BOOK AS A WHOLE*.

1—150. THE FIVE BOOKS†.

- A¹ | 1—41. THE GENESIS BOOK‡: CONCERNING MAN. The counsels of God|| concerning him. All blessing bound up in obedience (cp. 1. 1 with Gen. 1. 28). Obedience is man's "tree of life" (cp. 1. 3 with Gen. 2. 16). Disobedience brought ruin (cp. Ps. 2 with Gen. 3). The ruin repaired only by the SON OF MAN in His atoning work as the seed of the woman (cp. Ps. 8 with Gen. 3. 15). The book concludes with a Benediction and double Amen.
- B¹ | 42—72. THE EXODUS BOOK‡: CONCERNING ISRAEL AS A NATION. The counsels of God|| concerning ISRAEL'S RUIN, ISRAEL'S REDEEMER, and ISRAEL'S REDEMPTION (Ex. 15. 13). Cp. Ps. 68. 4 with Ex. 15. 3, "JAH". It begins with Israel's cry for deliverance, and ends with Israel's king reigning over the redeemed nation. The book concludes with a Benediction and a double Amen.
- C¹ | 73—89. THE LEVITICUS BOOK‡: CONCERNING THE SANCTUARY. The counsels of God|| concerning the Sanctuary in its relation to man, and the Sanctuary in relation to Jehovah. The Sanctuary, Congregation, Assembly, or Zion, &c., referred to in nearly every Psalm. The book concludes with a Benediction and a double Amen.
- B² | 90—106. THE NUMBERS BOOK‡: CONCERNING ISRAEL AND THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH. The counsels of God|| concerning the EARTH, showing that there is no hope or rest for the Earth apart from Jehovah. Its figures and similes are from this world as a wilderness (cp. the references to mountains, hills, floods, grass, trees, pestilence, &c.). It begins with the prayer of Moses (the Man of the Wilderness), Ps. 90, and closes with a rehearsal of ISRAEL'S rebellions in the wilderness (Ps. 106). Note "the New Song" for "all the earth" in Ps. 96. 11, where the theme is contained in one sentence which gives an Acrostic, spelling the word "Jehovah": "Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad" (see note on 96. 11). The book concludes with a Benediction and Amen, Hallelujah.
- A² | 107—150. THE DEUTERONOMY BOOK‡: CONCERNING GOD AND HIS WORD. The counsels of God|| concerning His Word, showing that all blessings for MAN (Book I), all blessings for ISRAEL (Book II), all blessings for the EARTH and the NATIONS (Book IV), are bound up with living on the words of God (Deut. 8. 3). Disobedience to Jehovah's words was the source of MAN'S sorrows, ISRAEL'S dispersion, the SANCTUARY'S ruin, and EARTH'S miseries. Blessing is to come from that Word written on the heart (cp. Jer. 31. 33, 34. Heb. 8. 10-12; 10. 16, 17). Ps. 119 is in this book. The Living Word (John 1. 1) began His ministry by quoting Deut. 6. 13, 16; 8. 3; 19. 20 in Matt. 4. 4, 7, 10. The book begins with Ps. 107, and in v. 20 we read, "He sent His Word and healed them", and it concludes with five Psalms (one for each of the five books), each Psalm beginning and ending with "Hallelujah".

* Manuscript and Massoretic authorities, the Talmud (Kiddushin 38a) as well as the ancient versions, divide the Psalms into five books. The Midrash on Ps. 1. 1 says, "Moses gave to the Israelites the five books of the Law; and corresponding with these David gave them the five books of the Psalms."

The Structure of each Psalm being perfect in itself, we may well expect to find the same perfection in the arrangement of the five books respectively as well as of the one hundred and fifty Psalms as a whole.

Many attempts have been made from ancient times to discover the reason for the classification of the Psalms under these five books; but none of them is so satisfactory as to preclude this further attempt.

It is certain that the present order in which we have the Psalms is the same as it was when they were in the hands of our Lord, and were quoted repeatedly by Him, and by the Holy Spirit through the Evangelists and Apostles. Indeed, in Acts 13. 33, the Holy Spirit by Paul expressly mentions "the second Psalm". This puts us upon sure ground.

There must be a reason therefore why "the second Psalm" is not (for example) the seventy-second; and why the ninetieth (which is the most ancient of all the Psalms, being a prayer of Moses) is not the first.

The similar endings to each book are noted above. There are in all seven "Amens", and twenty-four Hallelujahs. All the latter (except the four in Book IV) are in Book V.

NOTES ON THE STRUCTURE, PAGE 721.

* In the first Book of the Psalms the leading thought corresponds with that of the first Book of the Pentateuch. The counsels of God are shown from the beginning to the end in relation to MAN.

As Genesis begins with the Divine blessing on Man (1. 28), so Psalm 1 opens with "Blessed is the man". All blessedness for man is shown to consist in subjection to, and occupation with, God's Law. It is the Tree of Life to him; and, meditating on this, he becomes like a well-watered tree in the Paradise of God.

But, in Gen. 3, Man rebelled against that Law: and Ps. 2 describes the consequences of that rebellion; while Ps. 3 takes its title from one who rebelled against God's King. The ruin can be repaired only by "THE MAN Christ Jesus" (the Seed of the woman, Gen. 3. 15): and in the Psalms of this first Book (the third section) we see Him in His atoning work, which alone sets man again in the blessedness which he had lost.

The first Book consists of forty-one Psalms. The central Psalm is 21, which sets forth the eternal life and blessedness of God's King. All that have titles (37) are David's—the man of God's choice.

Of the Divine Titles, Jehovah occurs 279 times, and Elohim only 48 times, 9 of which are joined with Jehovah. (See Ap. 4.) Note also the references to the events, &c., of Genesis in this first Book. (See Ap. 63. V.)

† Pss. 1 and 2 are linked together by having no Titles; and by Ps. 1 opening, and Ps. 2 closing with "Blessed".

The first or GENESIS book is divided into three sections, which (on p. 721) are stated thus:—

1. The First (Pss. 1-8) concerning "MAN".
2. The Second (Pss. 9-15) concerning "THE MAN OF THE EARTH" (the Antichrist).
3. The Third (Pss. 16-41) concerning "THE MAN CHRIST JESUS" (the Messiah).

‡ Pss. 9 and 10 are linked together by having an irregular alphabet running acrostically through the two. The alphabet is broken and irregular, like the "times of trouble", "the great tribulation", of which they speak.

|| Ps. 16 is the first Michtam Psalm. The others are Pss. 56-60. See Ap. 65. xii.

shows that it corresponds with "S", Ps. 29, with its Jehovah.

The verbs in the first part (1-6) are literary, and in the second part astronomical, thus interlacing and uniting the two parts in one whole.

9 make = cause.
hope = trust, or confide. Heb. bāṭah. Ap. 69. I

11 none to help. Cp. 69. 20. He was alone in this wondrous work.

14 in the midst of my bowels = within me.
15 dried up. Cp. John 19. 28.

16 dogs. Fig. Hypocastasis. Ap. 6. "Enemies" being implied (not expressed).

assembly = congregation: in civic aspect.
wicked = breakers up. Heb. rā'a'. Ap. 44. viii.

They pierced, &c. = "As a lion [they break up] my hands and my feet". The Heb. text reads kā'āri = as a lion (the "k" = as). The A.V. and R.V., with Sept., Syr., and Vulg., take the "k" as part of the verb k'āru, and alter the vowel points, making it read "they pierced". It is better to translate the Heb. text literally, and supply the Ellipsis of the verb from Isa. 38. 13, "they break up". The meaning is exactly the same, and agrees with John 19. 37.

17 tell = count. The whole description applies to death by crucifixion only.

look and stare = look for and see. In this idiom the former verb includes the feeling implied by the context. Cp. 1 Sam. 17. 42.

18 part, &c. Quoted in Matt. 27. 35. Mark 15. 24.
20 soul. Heb. nephesh. Ap. 18.

21 lion's. See note on "They pierced" (v. 16). For = Yea. heard me = answered me. Cp. v. 2. Supply Ellipsis, "[and delivered me]".

from the horns, &c. This clause may be joined on to the end of the preceding line. "Thou hast heard me" may be read on to v. 22: "I will declare".

Luke 23. 34. John 19. 24. 19 LORD*. One of the 134 emendations of the Sopherim (Ap. 32) by which "Jehovah" of the primitive text was changed to "Adonai". 20 soul. Heb. nephesh. Ap. 18. darling = only one. Heb. yāhid. See note on Deut. 6. 4. = my one own priceless possession; put by Fig. Metonymy (of Subject), Ap. 6, for "my life", answering to "my soul" in the preceding line. Cp. pouchē (John 12. 27). power. Heb. hand, or paw. Put by Fig. Metonymy (of Cause), Ap. 6, for the power exercised by it. 21 lion's. See note on "They pierced" (v. 16). For = Yea. heard me = answered me. Cp. v. 2. Supply Ellipsis, "[and delivered me]". from the horns, &c. This clause may be joined on to the end of the preceding line. "Thou hast heard me" may be read on to v. 22: "I will declare". unicorns = the bulls of v. 12.

A Psalm ° of David.

M P F¹ (p. 743) 958

(N) 1 Unto Thee, (2) O ° LORD, do I ° lift up my ° soul.

Cp. 22. 30.

O Jacob. Sept. and Syr. read "O God of Jacob".

Jacob. See notes on Gen. 32. 28;

43. 6; 45. 26, 28.

Selah. Connecting the first triad with the Ark of Jehovah: transferring our thoughts from the general claim to the particular making of the claim by this event. See note on v. 10, and Ap. 66. II.

7 everlasting doors = age-abiding entrances. The tabernacle (or tent) of David, on Mount Zion, was not ancient. This looks forward to the fulfilment of prophecy in times yet to come. King of glory = Glorious king. The repeated question points us both to 22. 6 ("a worm, and no man") and to 23. 1 (The Shepherd).

10 Who = Who then, is He, this glorious King? The LORD of hosts. See note on first occurrence (1 Sam. 1. 3), and Structure above.

Selah. Connecting Ps. 25 with Ps. 24. Ps. 24 referring to Zion, the new place of worship, and Ps. 25 referring to the worship itself, which was to be and could henceforward be offered there. Ps. 24 corresponds with 1 Chron. 15, and Ps. 25 with 1 Chron. 16, which together give a full description of the worship. Ps. 25 is further emphasised by being an Acrostic Psalm, in which the worthiness of Jehovah and the unworthiness of His worshippers stand out in vivid contrast.

The second Acrostic Psalm (see Ap. 63. vii). The omission of 7 (Koph) makes twenty-one letters (7x3) instead of twenty-two, and marks off one verse (v. 11) as central, which is the first confession of sin in the Psalms; thus linking on Repentance to Suffering and Resurrection (Pss. 16, 22), as in Luke 24. 44-47. The double N (A = Aleph) in vv. 1, 2 connects the looking up of the worshipper with the double R (R = Resh) of vv. 18, 19, which speaks of the looking down of Jehovah. These two are linked on to Ps. 25 by the Selah of 24. 10 and 24. 4. See note on Selah (24. 10).

1 LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. II.

Title. of David = by David, or pertaining to the true lift up. Verses 1 and 2 are connected with vv. 18, 19:

the double Aleph (N), with the double Resh (7), connecting David's looking up with Jehovah's looking down. soul. Heb. nephesh. Ap. 13.

5 preparest = settest in order. table. Put by Fig. Metonymy (of Subject), Ap. 6, for what is on it. So that I may feast while He fights. JEHOVAH-NISSI. Ap. 4. II. The figure of the sheep is continued: for the "table" of v. 5 answers to the "pastures" of v. 2, enemies = adversaries.

anointest. JEHOVAH-MEKADDISHKEM. Ap. 4. II. Still referring to the sheep and the Shepherd's care: for the figure of the "sheep" is carried right through the Psalm.

cup: i. e. the Shepherd's cup of water for the sheep. runneth over. See note on 73. 10.

6 mercy = lovingkindness, or grace. [for future. follow = follow after, or closely. In Heb. present put for ever = evermore. Heb. "to length of days".
