Mat. 11. 21. 13 *Wo be to thee, Chorazin: wo be to thee, Beth-saida: for if the miracles had bene done in Tyrus & Sidon, which haue bene done in you, they had a great while agoe repented, sitting ^k in sacke clothe and aslhes.

14 Therefore it shalbe easier for Tyrus, & Sidon, at the iudgement, then for you.

15 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heauē, shalt be thrust downe to hel.

16 ¶ He that heareth you, heareth me: & he that despiseth you, despiseth me: and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seuentie turned againe with ioye, saying, Lord, euen the deuils are subdued to vs through thy Name.

18 And he said vnto them, I sawe ^m Satan, like lightening, fall downe from heauen.

19 Beholde, I giue vnto you power to treade on serpents, and scorpions, and ouer all the power of the enemye, & nothing shal hurt you.

20 Neuertheles, in this reioyce not, that ^y spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are written in heauen.

21 ¶ That same houre reioyced Iesus in "the spirit, and said, I confesse vnto thee, Father, Lord of heauen & earth, that thou hast hid these things from the ⁿ wise and learned, and hast reueiled them to babes: cuen so, Father, because it so pleased thee.

22 Then he turned to his disciples, and said, All things are ^o giuen me of my Father: and ^p no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: nether who the Father is, saue the ^q Sonne, and he to whome the Sonne wil reueile him.

23 ¶ And he returned to his disciples, and said secretly, * Blessed are the eyes, which se that ye se.

24 For I tell you that manie Prophetes & Kings haue desired to se those things, which ye se, and haue not sene them: and to heare those things, which ye heare, & haue not heard them.

25 ¶ Then beholde, a certeine expounder of the Law stode vp, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shal I do, to inherite eternal life?

26 And he said vnto him, What is written in the Law? how readest thou?

Leu. 19. 18. 28 Then he said vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, & thou shalt liue.

29 But he willing to " iustifie him self, said vnto Iesus, Who ^r is then my neighbour?

30 And Iesus answered, and said, A certeine man went downe from Ierusalem to Iericho, and fell among theues, and they robbed him of his rayment, and wounded him, & departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by ^t chance there came downe a certeine ^t Priest that same way, and when he sawe him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise also a Leuite, when he was come nere to the place, went and looked on ^u him, and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certeine ^u Samaritan, as he iourneyed, came nere vnto him, and when he sawe him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, & bounde vp his woundes, and powred in oyle and wine, and put him on his owne beast, and brogth him to an ynne, and made prouision for him.

35 And on the morowe when he departed, he toke out ^x two pence, and gaue them to the hoste, and said vnto him, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come againe, I wil recompense thee.

36 Which now of these thre, thinkest thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the theues?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercie on him. Then said Iesus vnto him, Go, ^y and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to passe as they wēt, that he entred into a certeine towne, and a certeine woman named Martha, receiued him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Marie, which also sat at Iesus fete, and heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was combied about muche seruing, and came to him, & said, Master, doest thou not care that my suster hathe left me to serue alone? bid her therefore, that she helpe me.

41 And Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou carest, & art ^z troubled about manie things.

42 But one thing is nedeful, Marie hathe chosen the good parte, ^a which shal not be taken away from her.

17 Therefore he thought with him self, saying, What shal I do, because I haue no roume, where I may lay vp my frutes?
 18 And he said, This wil I do, I wil pul downe my baines, and buylde greater, & therein wil I gather all my frutes, and my goods.
 19 And I wil say to my soule, Soule, thou hast muche goods laid vp for many yeres: liue at ease, eat, drinke, and take thy pastime.
 20 But God said vnto him, O foole, this night wil they fetch away thy soule from thee: the whose shal those things be which thou hast prouided?
 21 So is he that gathereth riches to him self, and is not riche in God.
 22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, * Take no thought for your life, what ye shal eat: nether for your bodie, what ye shal put on.
 23 The life is more then meat: and the bodie more then the raiment.
 24 Consider the rauens: for they nether sowe nor reape: which nether haue store house nor barn, & yet God fedeth them: how muche more are ye better then foules?
 25 And which of you with taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubit?
 26 If ye then be not able to do the least thing, why take ye thought for the remnant?
 27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they labour not, nether spin they: yet I say vnto you, y^e Solomon him self in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.
 28 If then God so clothe the grasse which is to day in the field, & to morow is cast into the ouē, how muche more wil he clothe you, o ye of litle faith?
 29 Therefore aske not what ye shal eat, or what ye shal drinke, nether stand in doute.
 30 For all suche things the people of the worlde seke for: and your Father knoweth that ye haue nede of these things.
 31 But rather seke ye after the kingdome of God, & all these things shal be ministred vnto you.
 32 Feare not, litle flocke: for it is your Fathers pleasure, to giue you the kingdome.
 33 ¶ Sel that ye haue, and giue almes: make you bagges, which waxe not olde, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no these commeth, nether moth corrupteth.
 34 For where your treasure is, there wil your hearts be also.

 37 Blessed are those seruants, whome the Lord when he cometh shal finde waking: verely I say vnto you, he wil ^m girde him self about, and make them to sit downe at table, and wil come forthe, & serue them.
 38 And if he come in the seconde watche, or come in the thirde watche, & shal finde them so, blessed are those seruants.
 39 * Now vnderstande this, that if the good man of y^e house had knowen at what houre the these wolde haue come, he w^lde haue watched, and wolde not haue suffered his house to be digged through.
 40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man wil come at an houre when ye thinke not.
 41 Then Peter said vnto him, Master, telst thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?
 42 And the Lord said, Who is a faithful stewarde, & wise, whome the matter shal make ruler ouer his housholde, to giue them their ^a portion of meat in season?
 43 Blessed is that seruant, whome his master when he cometh, shal finde so doing.
 44 Of a truth I say vnto you, that he wil make him ruler ouer all that he hathe.
 45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My master doeth deferte his comming, and shal beginne to smite the seruants, and maidens, and to eat, and drinke, and to be drunken, 46 The master of that seruāt wil come in a day whē he thinketh not, & at an houre whē he is not ware of, and wil cut him of, & giue him his portion with the vnbeleuers.
 47 ¶ And that seruant that knewe his masters wil, and prepared not him self, nether did according to his wil, shal be beatē with manie stripes.
 48 But he that knewe it not, and yet did commit things ^o worthie of stripes, shal be beaten with fewe stripes: for vnto whome soeuer ^p muche is giuē, of him shal be muche required, and to whome men muche commit, the more of him wil they aske.
 49 ¶ I am come to put a fyre on the earth, & what is my desire, if it be already kindled?

CHAP. XIII.

1 The crueltie of Pilate. 2 We ought not to condemne all to be wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 11 He healeth the crooked woman. 15 Answereth to the master of the Synagogue 18 By diuers similitudes he declareth what the kingdom of God is. 23 Also that the number of them which shall be saued, is small. 33 Finally he sheweth that no worldlie policie or force can let the worke and counsell of God.

1 THere were certeine men present at the same season, that shewed him of y^e Galileas, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifices.

a He murthered them as they were sacrificing: & so their blood was mingled with y^e blood of the beastes which were sacrificed b For y^e Iewes took occasion hereby to condemne them as moste wicked men.
c He warneth the rather to consider their owne estate, the to reprove other mens.
d Which towre Rode by the riuer Siloe or fishpoole in Ierusalem.
e Or, deserts.
f By this similitude is declared the great patience that God vseth toward sinners in looking for their amendment: but this delay auaieth them nothing, when they still remaine in their corruption.
g We see our state, if we bring not forth the frute
h For bothe it is vnfruitful it self, and doeth hurt to the ground where it groweth i That spirit, that maketh a man conserous.

2 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Suppose ye, y^e these Galileans were greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered suche things?

3 I tell you, nay: but except ye amende your liues, ye shal all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eightene, vpon whome the towre in^d Siloam fel, & slewe them, were sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except ye amede your liues, ye all shal likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable, A certeine mā had a figge tre planted in his vineyarde: and he came and soght frute thereon, and founde none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyarde, Beholde, this thre yeres haue I come and soght frute of this figge tre, and finde none: cut it downe: why kepeth it also the ground barren?

8 And he answered, & said vnto him, Lord, let it alone this yere also, til I digge round about it, and dongue it.

9 And if it beare frute, well: if not, the after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmitie eightene yeres, 12 Whome Satan had stroken with a disease, as the spirit of conserousnes is that spirit, that maketh a man conserous.

& was bowed together, and colde not lift vp her self in anie wise.

12 When Iesus sawe her, he called her to him, and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy disease.

Or, set at liberty one of SAs sans bande

13 And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, & said vnto the people, There are six dayes in which men ought to worke: in the therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lord, and said, Hypocrite, doeth not eithe one of you on the Sabbath day lose his ox or his asse frō the stall, & lead him away to y^e water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whome Satā had bounde, lo, eightene yeres, be loosed from this bonde on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things, that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, What is the kingdom of God like? or whereto shal I compare it?

1 Iesus eateth with the Pharise. 2 Mealeth the droppe upon the Sabbath 3 Teacheth to be lowlie & to bid the poore to our table. 15 He telleth of the great supper. 22 He warneth them that wil followe him, to lay their accountes before, what it wil cost them. 34 The sale of the earth.

Or, care his refectiō.

1 And it came to passe that whē he was entred into the house of one of the chief Pharises on the Sabbath day, to eat bread, they watched him.
 2 And beholde, there was a certeine mā before him, which had the droppe.
 3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the ex-pōunders of the Law, and Pharises, saying, Is it lawful to heale on the Sabbath day?
 4 And they held their peace. Then he toke him, and healed him, and let him go, 5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shal haue an asse, or an ox fallen into a pit, and wil not straightway pul him out on the Sabbath day?
 6 And they colde not answer him againe to those things.
 7 ¶ He spake also a parable to the ghests, when he marked how they chose out the chief roumes, and said vnto them, 8 ¶ When thou shalt be bidden of anie mā to a weddig, set not thy self downe in the chiefest place, lest a more honorable man then thou, be bidden of him, a He repro- ueth their ambi- tion, which desire to sit in the chief pla- ces.

9 And he that bade bothe him and thee, come, and say to thee, Giue this man roume, and thou then beginne with shame to take the lowest roume.
 10 * But whē y art bidden, go & sit downe in the lowest roume, that when he that bade thee, cometh, he may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp hier: the shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.
 11 * For whosoever exalteth him self, shalbe broght low, and he that humbleth him self, shalbe exalted.
 12 ¶ The said he also to him that had bid den him, * When thou makest a dyner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nether thy kinsmen, nor the riche neighbours, lest they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.
 13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, & the blind, 14 And thou shalt be blessed, because they cā not recōpense thee: for thou shalt be recōpensed at the resurrection of the iuste.
 15 ¶ Now whē one of them that sate at table, heard these things, he said vnto him, Blessed is he that eateth bread in the kingdome of God.
 16 Then said he to him, * A certeine man made a great supper, and bade manie, 17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.
 18 But they all with one minde begā to make excuse: The first said vnto him, I haue boght a ferme, and I must nedes go out & see it: I pray thee haue me excused.
 19 And another said, I haue boght fiue yoke of oxen, and I go to proue them: I pray thee, haue me excused.
 20 And another said, I haue married a wife, and therefore I can not come.
 21 So y seruant returned, & shewed his master these things. The was the good mā of the house angrie, & said to his seruāt, ¶ Go out quickly into y places & stretes of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, & the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.
 22 And the seruant said, Lord, it is done as thou halt cōmāded, & yet there is roume.
 23 Then the master said to the seruant, Go out into the ebie wayes, and hedges, and fcompel them to come in, that mine house may be filled.
 24 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shal taste of my supper.
 25 Now there went great multitudes with him, and he turned and said vnto them, 26 If anie man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, & wife, & children, and brethren, and sisters: yea, and his owne life also, he can not be my disciple.

CHAP. XV.

2 The Phariseis murmure because Christ receiuet sinners 4 The losing mercie of God is openly set forth in the parable of the hundred shepe. 7 Ioye in heauen for one sinner. 12 Of the prodigal sonne.

1 Then resorted vnto him all the Publicanes, and sinners, to heare him.
2 Therefore the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, He receiuet sinners, & eateth with them.
3 Then spake he this parable to them, saying,
4 *What man of you hauing an hundred shepe, if he loose one of them, doeth not leave ninetie and nine in the wildernes, & go after that which is lost, vntill he finde it?
5 And when he hath founde it, he laieth it on his shulders with ioye.
6 And whē he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue founde my shepe, which was lost.
7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioye shal be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine iuste men, which nede none amendement of life.
8 Either what woman hauing ten pieces of siluer, if she loose one piece, doeth not light a candel, & sweepe the house, and seke diligently till she finde it?
9 And when she hath founde it, she calleth her friends, and neighbours, saying, Reioyce with me: for I haue founde the piece which I had lost.
10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioye in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

11 ¶ He said moreover, A certaine man had two sonnes.
12 And the yonger of the said to his father, Father, giue me the portion of the goods that falleth to me. So he deuicid vnto them his substance.
13 So not long after, when the yonger sonne had gathered all together, he toke his iorney into a faire country, and there he wasted his goods with riotous liuing.
14 Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.
15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that country, and he sent him to his farme, to feede swine.
16 And he wolde faine haue filled his belly with huskes, that the swine ate: but no man gaue them him.
17 Then he came to him self, and said, How manie hired seruants at my fathers haue bread ynough, and I dye for hunger?
18 I wil rise and go to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthie to be called thy sone: make me as one of thy hired seruants.
20 So he arose and came to his father, and whē he was yet a great way of, his father sawe him, and had compassion, and ran & fel on his necke, and kissed him.
21 And the sonne said vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthie to be called thy sonne.
22 Then the father said to his seruants, Bring forthe the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feete, 23 And bring the fat calf, and kil him, and let vs eat, and be merie.
24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is founde. And they began to be merie.
25 Now the Elder brother was in the field, and when he came and drewe nere to the house, he heard melodie, and dancing, 26 And called one of his seruants, & asked what those things ment.
27 And he said vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and sounde.
28 Thē he was angrie, & wolde not go in: therefore came his father out and entreated him.
29 But he answered & said to his father, Lo these manie yeres haue I done thee seruice, nether brake I at any time thy commandment, & yet thou neuer gauest me a kid that I might make merie with my friends.

30 But whē this thy sonne was come, which hathe deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fat calfe.

31 And he said vnto him, Sonne, thou art euer with me, and all that I haue, is thine. It was mete that we shulde make mery, & be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliuē againe: and he was lost, but he is founde.

CHAP. XVI.

Christ exhorteth vs to wisdome and liberalitie by the example of the steward 13 None can serue two masters: 14 He reproveth the couetousnes and hypocrisie of the Pharises 16 Of the end and force of the Law. 18 Of the bolie state of marriage. 19 Of the riche and Lazarus.

1 And he said also vnto his disciples, There was a certeine riche man, which had a steward, and he was accused vnto him, that he wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said vnto him, How is it that I heare this of thee? Giue an accounts of thy stewardship: for thou maiest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within him self, What shal I do: for my master wil take away from me the stewardship: I can not digge, & to begge I am ashamed.

4 I knowe what I wil do, that when I am put out of the stewardship they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called he euerie one of his masters detters, & said vnto the first, How muche owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he said, An hūdreth measures of oyle. And he said to him, Take thy writing, and sit downe quickly, and write fiftie.

7 Then said he to another, How muche owest thou? And he said, An hūdreth measures of wheat. Then he said to him, Take thy writing, and write foure score.

8 And the Lord commended the vniust steward, because he had done wisely. Wherefore the children of this worlde are in their generacion wiser thē the children of light.

9 And I saye vnto you, Make you friends with the riches of iniquitie, that when ye shal want, they may receiue you into euerlasting habitacions.

10 He that is faithful in the least, he is also faithful in muche: and he that is vniust in the least, is vniust also in muche.

11 If thē ye haue not bene faithful in the wicked riches, who wil trust you in the true treasure?

12 And if ye haue not bene faithful in another mans goods, who shal giue you that which is yours?

13 No seruant can serue two masters: for ether he shal hate the one, and loue the other: or els he shal leane to the one, & despise the other. Ye can not serue God and riches.

14 All these things heard the Pharises also which were couetous, and they mocked him.

15 Then he said vnto them, Ye are they, which iustifie your selues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The Law and the Prophetes endured vntil Iohn: and since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and euerie man i preaseth into it.

17 Now it is more easie that heauen and earth shulde passe away, then that one tittle of the Law shulde fall.

18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, & marieth another, committeth adulterie: & whosoever marieth her that is put away from her housband, committeth adulterie.

19 There was a certeine riche mā, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and sared wel and delicately euerie day.

20 Also there was a certeine begger named Lazarus, which was laied at his gate full of sores, 21 And desired to be refreshed with the crommes that fell from the riche mans table: yea, and the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so that the begger dyed, and was caryed by the Angels into Abrahams bosome. The riche man also dyed and was buried.

23 And being in hel in torment, he lift vp his eyes, and sawe Abraham a farre of, & Lazarus in his bosome.

24 Then he cryed, and said, Father Abraham, haue mercie on me, and send Lazarus that he may dippe the tip of his finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuedst thy pleasures, and likewise Lazarus paines: now therefore is he comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betwene you and vs there is a great gulfe set, so that they which wolde go from hence to you, can not, neither can they come from thence to vs.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore father, that thou woldest send him to my fathers house,

And he spake also a parable vnto the, to this end, that they ought alwayes to pray, and not to waxe fainte,

2 Saying, There was a iudge in a certeine citie, which feared not God, nether reuerenced man.

3 And there was a widow in y citie, which came vnto him, saying, " Do me iustice against mine aduersarie.

4 And he wolde not for a time: but afterwarde he said with him self, Though I feare not God, not reuerence man,

5 Yet because this widowe troubleth me, I wil do her right, lest at the last she come and make me wearie.

6 And the Lord said, Heare what the vnrighteous iudge saith.

7 Now shal not God aduenge his elect, w crye day and night vnto him, yea, though he suffer long for them?

8 I tel you he wil aduenge the quickly: but when the Sonne of man cometh, shal he finde faith on the earth?

9 ¶ He spake also this parable vnto certeine which trusted in them selues that they were iuste, and despised other,

10 Two men wet vp into y Tēple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicā.

11 The Pharise stode & prayed thus with him self, O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other mē, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or euen as this Publican.

12 I fast twise in the weke: I giue tithe of all that euer I possesse.

13 But the Publicane standing a farre of, wolde not lift vp so muche as his eyes to heauē, but smote his brest, saying, O God, be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tel you, this man departed to his house iustified, rather then the other: * foreuerie man that exaleth him self, shalbe brought low, & he that humbleth him self, shalbe exalted.

15 ¶ They brought vnto him also babes, that he shulde touche them. And when his disciples sawe it, they rebuked them.

16 But Iesus called s them vnto him and said, Suffie the babes to come vnto me, & forbid them not: for of h suche is the kingdome of God.

17 Verely I say vnto you, whofoeuer receiuet not the kingdome of God as a babe, he shal not enter therein.

18 * Thē a certeine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to do, to inherite eternal life?

19 And Iesus said vnto him, Why callest thou me k good? none is good, saue one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements,

* Thou shalt not commit a adulterie: Thou shalt not kil: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witness: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Now whē Iesus heard that, he said vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing. Sel all y euer thou hast, & distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, folowe me.

23 But when he heard those things, he was verie heauie: for he was marueilous riche.

24 And when Iesus sawe him sorowful, he said, With what difficultie shal they that haue riches, entre into the kingdome of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a camel to go through a nedles eye, then for a riche man to entre into the kingdome of God.

26 Then said they that heard it, And who then can be saued?

27 And he said, The things which are vnpossible with mē, are lpossible with God.

28 ¶ Then Peter said, Lo, we haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And he said vnto the, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or childre for the kingdome of Gods sake, 30 Which shal not receiue m muche more in this worlde, and in the worlde to come life euerlasting.

31 ¶ Then Iesus toke vnto him the twelue, and said vnto them, Beholde, we go vp to Ierusalem, and all things shalbe fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophetes.

32 For he shalbe deliuered vnto the Gētiles and shalbe mocked, and shalbe spitefully entreated, and shalbe spitted on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they wil put him to death: but the third day he shal rise againe.

3 And he sought to se Iesus, who he shulde be, and colde not for the presse, because he was of a lowe stature.

4 Wherefore he ran before, and climed vp into a wilde figge tre, that he might se him: for he shulde come that way.

5 And when Iesus came to the place, he looked vp, and sawe him, and said vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then he came downe hastily, and receiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they sawe it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to lodge with a sinneful man.

8 And Zaccheus stode forthe, & said vnto the Lord, Beholde, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken fro anie man by forged cauillation, I restore him foure folde.

9 Then Iesus said to him, This day is saluation come vnto this house, forasmuche as he is also become the sonne of Abraham.

10 * For the Sonne of man is come to seke, and to saue that which was lost.

11 And whiles they heard these things, he continued and spake a parable, because he was nere to Ierusalem, and because also they thought that the kingdome of God shulde shortly appeare.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a strait man: thou takest vp, that thou laidest not downe, and reapest that thou diddest not sowe.

22 Then he said vnto him, Of thine owne smouth wil I iudge thee, o euil seruāt. Thou knewest that I am a strait man, taking vp that I laid not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore the gauest not thou my money into the bāke, that at my comming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And he said to them that stode by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hathe ten pieces.

Deu. 25.1

28 Saying, Master, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If anie mans brother dye hauing a wife, and he dye without children, that his brother shulde take his wife, and raise vp sede vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first toke a wife, & he dyed without children.

k In this place he calleth all them children of this worlde which remaine in the same: or els marriage shulde not seme to apperteine to children of God, as that wicked monie pope Cyriacus taught agāst the manifest Scriptures.

30 And the seconde toke the wife, and he dyed childeles.

31 Then the third toke her: and so likewise the seuen dyed, and left no children.

32 And last of all, the woman dyed also.

33 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shal she be? for seuen had her to wife.

34 Thē Iesus answered, & said vnto them, The children of this worlde marie wiues and are married.

35 But they which shalbe counted worthe to enioye that worlde, and the resurrection from the dead, nether marie wiues, nether are married.

m Since marriage is ordeined to mainteine & increase mā kinde, whē we shal be immortal; it shal not be in anie vse. For although the wicked rise againe, yet that life is but death and an eternal desolation.

36 For they can dye no more, forasmuche as they are equal vnto the Angels, and are the Sonnes of God, since they are the children of the resurrection.

 3 * And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou saist it.
 4 Then said Pilate to the hie Priests, and to the people, I finde no faute in this man.
 5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching through out all Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

 6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.
 7 And when he knewe that he was of Herodes iurisdiction, he b sent him to Herode, which was also at Ierusalem in those daies.

38 And a superscription was also written ouer him, in Greke letters, and in Latin, & in Hebrewé, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

39 ¶ And one of the euil doers, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy self and vs.

40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, Fearest thou not God, seig thou art in the same condemnacion?

41 We are in dede righteously here: for we receiue things worthie of that we haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And he said vnto Iesus, Lord, remember me, when thou comest into thy kingdome.

43 Then Iesus said vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

44 ¶ And it was about the sixt houre: and there was a daikenes ouer all the land, vntil the ninth houre.

45 And the sunnè was darkened, and the vaile of the Temple rent through the middes.

46 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and said, * Father, into thine hands I commēd my spirit. And when he thus had said, He gaue vp the gost.

47 ¶ Now whē the Cēturion sawe what was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a suretie this man was iuste.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things, which were done, smote their brefts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stode a farre of, & the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these things.

50 ¶ * And beholde, there was a mā named Ioseph, which was a counsellor, a good mā and a iust.

51 He did not consent to the counsel and dede of them, which was of Arimathea, a citie of y Iewes: who also him self waited for the kingdome of God.

52 He went vnto Pilate, and asked the bodie of Iesus, 53 And toke it downe, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, & laid it in a tomb hewen out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet laid.

54 And that day was the Preparacion, & the Sabbath drewe on.

55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him frō Galile, behelde the sepulchre, & how his bodie was laid.

56 And they returned and prepared odores, and ointments, and rested the Sabbath day according to the commandement.

8 And they remembered his wordes,
 9 And returned from the sepulchre, & tolde all these things vnto the eleuen, and to all the remnant.
 10 Now it was Marie Magdalene & Iocanna, & Marie the mother of Iames, & other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.
 11 But their wordes semed vnto them, as a fained thing, nether beleued they them.
 12 Then arose Peter, and ran vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linnen clothes laid by themselves, & departed wondering in him self at that which was come to passe.
Mat. 16, 12. 13 ¶ And beholde, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about c thre score furiongcs, called Emmaus.
 14 And they ^d talked together of all these things that were done.
 15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus him self drewe nere, and went with them.
 16 But their eyes ^e were holden, that they colde not knowe him.
 17 And he said vnto them, What maner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?
 18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered and said vnto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Ierusalem, & hast not knowen the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?
 19 And he said vnto them, What things?
 And they said vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet, mightie in dede and in worde before God, and all the people, 20 And how the hie Priests, and our rulers deliuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him.
 21 But we trusted that it had bene he that shulde haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day, that they were done.
 22 Yea, and certeine women among vs made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre.
 23 And whē they founde not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also sene a visiō of Angels, which said that he was aliue.
 24 Therefore certeine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and founde it euen so as the women had said, but him they sawe not.
 25 Then he said vnto them, ^h O fooles and slowe of heart to beleue all that the Prophetes haue spoken, 26 Oght not Christ to haue suffred these things, and to enter into his glorie?
 27 And he began at ⁱ Moses, & at all the Prophetes, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

 28 And they drewe nere vnto the towne, which they went to, but he ^k made as though he wolde haue gone further.
 29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs. for it is towards night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tarry with them.
 30 And it came to passe, as he sat at table with them, he toke the bread, ^l and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.
 31 Thē their eyes were opened, & they knewe him: but he was taken out of their sight.
 32 And they said betwene them selues, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?
 33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and founde the Eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Which said, The Lord is risen in dede, and hath appeared to Simon.
 35 Then they tolde what things were done in the way, and how he was knowen of thē in ^m breaking of bread.
 36 ¶ And as they spake these things, Iesus him self stode in the middes of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to you.
 37 But they were abashed & afraid, supposing that they had sene a spirit.
 38 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do doutes arise in your hearts?
 39 Beholde mine hands and my fete: for it is I my self: handle me, and se: for a spirit hath not flesh & bones, as ye se me haue.
 40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and fete.
 41 And while they yet beleued not for roye, and wondered, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meat?
 42 And they gaue him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honye combe, 43 And he toke it, & did eat before them.
 44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, that all must be fulfilled which are written of me in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophetes, and in the Psalmes.
 45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the Scriptures, 46 And said vnto them, Thus is it written, and thus it behoued Christ to suffice, & to rise againe from the dead the thirde day, 47 And that repentance, and remission of finnes shulde be preached in his Name among all nacions, beginning at Ierusalem.

THE HOLY GOSPEL of Iesus Christ, according to Iohn.

CHAP. I.

14 17 The diuinitie, humanitie, & office of Iesus Christ 15 The testimone of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

^a 7, before the beginning
^a Christ is God before all time.

IN the beginning was the Worde, and the Worde was with^a God and that Worde was God.

The same was ^b in the beginning w^c God.

16 All things were made by it, & ^c without it was made nothing that was made.

17 In it was ^d life, and the life was the ^e light of men.

18 And the light shineth in ^f y^g darkenes, & the darkenes comprehended it not.

19 ¶ There was a man sent frō God, whose name was Iohn.

20 The same came for a witnes, to beare witness of the light, that all mē through him might beleue.

21 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witness of the light.

22 That was the true light, which lighteth euerie man that cometh into the worlde.

23 He was in the worlde, and the worlde was ^h made by him: & the worlde ⁱ knewe him not.

24 He came vnto ^j his owne, and his owne receiued him not.

25 But as many as receiued him, to them he gaue ^k power to be the sonnes of God, ^l euen to them that beleue in his Name, 26 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the wil of the flesh, nor of the wil of man, but of God.

27 ¶ And the Worde was made ^m flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and we ⁿ sawe the glorie thereof, as the glorie of the onely begotten Sonne^o of the Father) ^p ful of grace and trueth.

28 ¶ Iohn bare witness of him, & cryed, saying, This was he of whome I said, He that cometh after me, is preferred before me: for he was ^q before me.

29 And of his fulnes haue all we receiued, and ^r grace for grace.

30 For the Lawe was giuen by Moses, but grace and trueth came by Iesus Christ.

18 ¶ No man hath sene God at any time: the onely begotten Sonne, which is in the bosome of the Father, he hath ^s declared him.

19 ¶ Then this is the recorde of Iohn, whē the Iewes sent Priests and Leuites from Ierusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed and denyed not, and said plainely, I ^t am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What thē? Art thou Elias? And he said, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou that we may giue an answer to them that sent vs? what saist thou of thy self?

23 He said, I ^u am the voyce of him that cryeth in the wildernes, Make straight the way of ^v Lord, as said the Prophet Esaias.

24 Now they which were sent, were of the Pharises.

25 And they asked him, and said vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, nether Elias, nor the Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whome ye knowe not.

27 ¶ He it is that commeth after me, which is preferred before me, whose shoe latchet I am not worthie to vnloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyonde Iordan, where Iohn did baptize.

29 ¶ The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming vnto him, and saith, Beholde the lambe of God, which taketh away the ^w sinne of the worlde.

30 This is he of whome I said, After me cometh a mā, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knewe ^x him not: but because he shulde be declared to Irael, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.

32 So Iohn bare recorde, saying, I sawe ^y the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a doue, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knewe him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, he said vnto me, Vpō whome thou shalt se the Spirit come downe, & tary stil on him, that is he which baptizeth with the ^z holie Gost.

35 ¶ The next day, Iohn stode againe, and two of his disciples:

36 And he behelde Iesus walking by, and said, Beholde the lambe of God.

17 And the two disciples heard him speake, and followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned about, and sawe them followe, & said vnto them, What seke ye? And they said vnto him, Rabbi (which is to say by interpretation, Master) where dwellest thou?

39 He said vnto them, Come, and se. They came and sawe where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth houre.

40 Andrew, Simō Peters brother, was one of the two which had heard of Iohn, & that followed him.

41 The same founde his brother Simon first, and said vnto him, We haue founde the Messias, which is by interpretation, the Christ.

42 And he broght him to Iesus. And Iesus behelde him, & said, Thou art Simon the sonne of Iona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, a stone.

43 ¶ The day following, Iesus wolde go into Galile, and founde Philippe, and said vnto him, Followe me.

44 Now Philippe was of Bethsaida, the citie of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philippe founde Nathanael, and said vnto him, We haue founde him, of whome * Moses did write in the Law, and the * Prophetes, Iesus of Nazaret the sonne of Ioseph.

46 Then Nathanael said vnto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazaret? Philippe said to him, Come, and se.

47 Iesus sawe Nathanael coming to him, & said of him, Beholde, in dede an Israhelite, in whome is no guile.

48 Nathanael said vnto him, Whence knewest thou me? Iesus answered, & said vnto him, Before that Philippe called thee, whē thou wast vnder the figge tre, I sawe thee.

49 Nathanael answered, & said vnto him, Rabbi, thou art the Sonne of God: thou art the King of Israel.

50 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Because I said vnto thee, I sawe thee vnder the figge tre, beleuest thou? thou shalt see greater things then these.

51 And he said vnto him, Verely, verely, I say vnto you, hereafter shal ye see heauen open, & the Angels of God ascending, and descending vpon the Sonne of man.

52 Christ turneth the water into wine: 14 He driueth the byers, and sellers out of the Temple 19 He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 He conuerteth mary, and disprueth man.

And the thirde day, was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galile, & the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus said vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, what haue I to do with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother said vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he saith vnto you, do it.

6 And there were set there, six waterpottes of stone, after the maner of the purifying of the Iewes, conteyning two or thre firkins a peece.

7 And Iesus said vnto them, Fil the waterpottes with water. Then they filled them vp to the brim.

8 Then he said vnto them, Drawe out now & beare vnto the gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now whē the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for he knewe not whence it was: but the seruants, which drew the water, knewe) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegrome,

10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning set forthe good wine, and when men haue wel drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntil now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Iesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed forthe his glorie: & his disciples beleued on him.

12 After he went downe into Capernaū, he and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not manie dayes there.

13 For the Iewes Passeouer was at hand. Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 * And he founde in the Temple those that solde oxen, and shepe, and doves, and changes of money, sitting there.

15 Thē he made a scourge of smale cordes, & draue them all out of the Temple with the shepe, and oxen & powred out the chāgers money, and ouertrew the tables,

16 And said vnto them that solde doves, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house, an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred, that it was written, * The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, What signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered and said vnto them, * Destroye this temple, and in thre dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Fortie and six yeeres was this Temple a buylding, and wilt thou reare it vp in thre dayes?

CHAP. III.

3 Christ instructeth Nicodemus in the regeneration 15 Of faith 16 Of the loue of God towards the worlde. 23 The doctrine and baptisme of Iohn, 28 And the witness that he beareth of Christ.

1 There was now a mā of y Pharises named Nicodemus, a ruler of y Iewes. 2 He came to Iesus by night, and said vnto him, Rabbi, we knowe that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man colde do these miracles that thou doest, except God were with him.

3 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, he can not ascende into the kingdome of God.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, How can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Iesus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of water and of the Spirit, he can not enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: & that that is borne of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 Maruile not that I said to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, & thou hearest the sounde thereof, but canst not tel whence it cometh, and whether it goeth: so is euerie man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, we speake that we knowe, & testifie, that we haue sene: but ye receiue not our witness.

12 If when I tel you heathlic things, ye beleue not, how shulde ye beleue, if I shal tel you of heauenlie things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in heauen.

14 *And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wildernes, so must the Sonne of man be lift vp,

15 That whosoever beleueth in him, shulde not perishe, but haue ete:rnal life.

16 *For God so loued the worlde, that he hath giuen his onely begotten Sone, that whosoever beleueth in him, shulde not perish, but haue euerlasting life.

17 *For God sent not his Sonne into the worlde, that he shulde condemne the worlde, but that the worlde through him might be saued.

18 He that beleueth in him, shal not be condemned: but he that beleueth not, is condemned already, because he beleueth not in y Name of the onely begottē Sone of God.

19 *And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the worlde, & mē loued darkenes rather then light, because their dedes were euil.

20 For euerie man that euil doeth, hateth the light, nether commeth to light, lest his dedes shulde be reproued.

21 But he that doeth trueth, commeth to the light, that his dedes might be made manifest, that they are wrought according to God.

22 After these things, came Iesus and his disciples into the land of Iudea, and there taried with them, and baptized.

23 And Iohn also baptized in Enon besides Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.

25 Thé there arose a questiō betwene Iohns disciples & the Iewes, about purifying.

26 And they came vnto Iohn, and said vnto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyonde Iordan, to whome thou barest witness, beholde, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Iohn answered; & said, A mā can receiue nothing, except it be giuē him frō heauē.

28 Ye your selues are my witnesses, that I said, I am not the Christ, but y I am sent before him.

29 He that hathe the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friend of the bridegrome which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of y bridegromes voice. This my ioye therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that is come from on high, is aboue all: he that is of the earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: he that is come from heauen, is aboue all.

32 And what he hathe sene and heard, that he testifieth: but no man receiueth his testimony.

33 He that hathe receiued his testimonie, hathe sealed that God is true.

7 There came a woman of Samaria to drawe water. Iesus said vnto her, Giue me drinke.

8 For his disciples were gone away into the citie, to bye meat.

9 Then said the woman of Samaria vnto him, How is it, that thou being a Iewe, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of Samaria? For the Iewes medle not with the Samaritans.

12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, & he him self drinke thereof, & his children, and his cattel?

13 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water, shal thirst againe:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shal giue him, shal neuer be more thirsty: but the water that I shal giue him, shal be in him a well of water, springing vp into euerlasting life.

15 The woman said vnto him, Syr, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, nether come hither to drawe.

16 Iesus said vnto her, Go, call thine housband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and said I haue no housband. Iesus said to her, Thou hast wel said, I haue no housband.

18 For thou hast had siue housbands, and he whome thou now hast, is not thine housband: that saidest thou truely.

19 The woman said vnto him, Syr, I see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshiped in this mountaine, and ye say, that in Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, beleue me, the houre cometh, when ye shal nether in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship that which ye knowe not: we worship that which we knowe: for saluation is of the Iewes.

23 But the houre cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shal worship the Father in spirit, & trueth: for the Father requireth euen such to worship him.

24 *God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit & trueth.

25 The woman said vnto him, I know wel that Messias shal come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he wil tell vs all things.

26 Iesus said vnto her, I am he, that speake vnto thee.

27 ¶ And vpon that came his disciples, and marueiled that he talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What askest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and wet her way into the citie, & said to her self,

29 Come, se a man which hath tolde me all things that euer I did: is not he the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the citie, & came vnto him.

31 ¶ In the meane while, the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said vnto them, I haue meat to eat, that ye knowe not of.

33 Then said the disciples betwene themselves, Hathe anie man broght him meat?

34 Iesus said vnto them, My meat is that I may do the wil of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not ye, There are yet foure moneths, & then cometh haruest? Beholde, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and loke on the regions: for they are white already vnto haruest.

1 After that, there was a feast of the Iewes, & Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

2 And there is at Ierusalem by the place of the shepe, a poole called in Ebrewes Bethesda, hauing fise porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blinde, halte, & withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blinde, halte, & withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an Angel went downe at a certeine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.

5 And a certeine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeres.

6 When Iesus sawe him lie, and knewe that he now long time had bene diseased, he said vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the poole: but while I am coming, another steppeth downe before me.

8 Iesus said vnto him, Rise: take vp thy bed, and walke.

c This was, to the end that the miracle might be so euident, that no man coulde speake against it.

9 And immediatly the man was made whole, and toke vp his bed, and walked: & the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carie thy bed.

1er. 17. 22.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he said vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, & walke?

13 And he that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed him self away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus founde him in the Temple, and said vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

d The afflictions that we endure, are chastisements for our finnes.

15 ¶ The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, & sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered thei, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

e That is, proper & peculiar to him alouge. f It was lawful for all Israel to call God their Father, Exod 4. 22, but because Christ did attribute to himself, y he had power ouer all things, and wrought as his Father did, thei gathered y Christ did not onely make him self y Sonne of God, but also equal with him g That is, he doeth communicate vnto him, hauing the same power and the same will.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kil him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath: but said also that God was his Father, and made him self equal with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, & said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of him self, saue that he seeth y Father do: for whatsoeuer things he doeth, the same things doeth y Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, & sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer he him self doeth, and he wil shewe him greater workes then these, that ye shulde marueile.

7 Philippe answered him, * Two hundred pennyworthe of bread is not sufficient for them, that euerie one of them may take a litle.

c This summe amounteth to about five pound sterling.

8 Then said vnto him one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, 9 There is a litle boye here, which hath five barlie loaves, and two fishes: but what are they among so manie?

10 And Iesus said, Make the people sit downe. (Now there was muche grasse in that place) Then the men sate downe in number, about five thousand.

11 And Iesus toke the bread, and gaue thanks, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: & likewise of the fishes as muche as they wolde.

d Prayer and thanksgiving do sanctifie our meates wherewith we are nourished.

12 And when they were satisfied, he said vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meat which remaineth, that * nothing be lost.

e The abundance of Gods gifts ought not to make vs prodigal to waste them.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meat of the five barlie loaves, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had sene the miracle that Iesus did, said, This is of a trueth the Prophet that shulde come into the worlde.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they wolde come, and take him to make him a King, he departed againe into a mountaine him self alone.

16 ¶ Whē euen was now come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea, 17 * And entred into a ship, and went ouer the sea towards Capernaum: and now it was darke, & Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose with a great winde that blew.

19 And when they had rowed about five & twentie, or thirtie furlongs, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing nere vnto the ship: so they were afraid.

20 But he said vnto them, It is I: be not afraid.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship, and the ship was by and by at the land, whether they went.

22 ¶ The day following, the people which stode on the other side of the sea, sawe that there was none other ship there, saue that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone alone,

23 And that there came other shippes from Tiberias nere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thanks.

24 Now when the people sawe that Iesus was not there, nether his disciples, thei also toke shipping, & came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had founde him on the other side of the sea, thei said vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ye seke me not, because ye sawe the miracles, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Laboure not for the meat which perisheth, but for the meat that endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the Sonne of mā shal giue vnto you: for him hathe * God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they vnto him, What shal we do, that we might worke the workes of God?

29 Iesus answered, & said vnto them, * This is the worke of God, that ye beleue in him, whome he hathe sent.

30 They said therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we maye se it, and beleue thee? what doest thou worke?

31 * Our fathers did eat Māna in the desert, as it is * written, He gaue them bread from heauen to eat.

32 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, * Moses gaue you not bread from heauen, but my Father giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh downe from heauen, and giueth life vnto the worlde.

34 Then thei said vnto him, Lord, euermore giue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus said vnto the, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me, shal not hunger, and * he that beleueth in me, shal neuer thirst.

36 But I said vnto you, that ye also haue sene me, and beleue not.

37 All that the Father giueth me, shal come to me: and him that cometh to me, I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to do mine owne wil, but his wil which hathe sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers wil which hathe sent me, that of all which he hathe giuen me, I shulde lose nothing, but shulde raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the wil of him that sent me, that euerie man which seeth the Sonne, & beleueth in him, shulde haue euerlasting life: and I wil raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread, which is come downe from heauen.

42 And they said, * Is not this Iesus the sonne of Ioseph, whose father & mother we knowe? how the saith he, I came downe from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, & said vnto them, Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father, which hathe sent me, drawe him: and I wil raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the * Prophetes, And they shalbe all taught of God. Euerie man therefore that hathe heard, & hathe learned of the Father, cometh vnto me, 46 * Not that anie man hathe sene the Father, saue he which is of God, he hathe sene the Father.

47 Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that beleueth in me, hathe euerlasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 * Your fathers did eat Manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread, which cometh downe from heauen, that he which eateth of it, shulde not dye.

51 I am the liuing bread, which came downe from heauen: if anie man eat of this bread, he shal liue for euer: and the bread that I wil giue, is my flesh, which I wil giue giue for the life of the worlde.

52 Then the Iewes stroue among them selues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eat?

53 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Sone of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue no life in you.

^a Where Christ is not, there death reigneth. 1. Cor. 15. 27.

54 Whosoever eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life, and I wil raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat in dede, & my blood is drinke in dede.

^y As our bodies are sustained with meat & drinke so are our soules nourished with the bodie, and blood of Iesus Christ. ^z To eat the flesh of Christ and drinke his blood, is to dwell in Christ and to haue Christ dwelling in vs.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the liuing Father hath sent me, so liue I by the Father, and he that eateth me, euen he shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake he in the Synagogue as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Manie therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) said, This is an hard saying: who can heare it?

^a That is, vnderstand it.

61 But Iesus knowing in him self, that his disciples murmured at this, said vnto the, Doeth this offende you?

62 What then if ye shulde see the Sone of mā ascende vp where he was before?

Chap. 3. 13.

^b He meaneth not that his humanitie descended from heauen: but he speaketh touching y^e vnion of bothe natures, attributing to the one that which apperteineth to the other.

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh profiteth nothing: the wordes that I speake vnto you, are spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that beleue not: for Iesus knewe from the beginning, which they were that beleued not, & who shulde betraye him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

^c To wit, if it be separate from y^e Spirit, wherof it hath the force: for it cometh of the power of the Spirit that the flesh of Christ giueth vs life.

66 From that time, manie of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 The said Iesus to the twelue, Wil ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master to whome shal we go? Thou hast the wordes of eternal life:

^d The without Christ there is but death: for his worde onely leadeth vs to life. Mat. 10. 16.

69 And we beleue and knowe that thou art the Christ the Sonne of the liuing God.

70 Iesus answered the, Haue not I chosen you twelue and one of you is a deuill?

^e Although your number be small, yet shall ye be diminished.

71 Now he spake it of Iudas Iscariot the sonne of Simō: for he it was that shulde betraye him, thogh he was one of y^e twelue.

CHAP. VII.

^d Iesus reproveth the ambition of his cousins. 13 There are diuers opinions of him among the people. 17 He sheweth how to knowe the truth. 20 The iurise they do vnto him. 47 The Pharise: rebuke the officers because they haue not taken him. 52 And chide with Nicodemus for taking his parts.

^a After these things, Iesus walked in Galile, and wolde not walke in Iudea: for the Iewes sought to kil him.

2 Now the Iewes feast of the Tabernacles was at hand.

Leui. 23. 34.

^a At this feast they dwelled seven dayes in the tentes, w^{ch} put the in remembrance, y^e they had no stie here permanent, but y^e they must seek one to come. 1. Ur. mo. i. 3.

3 His brethren therefore said vnto him, Departe hence, and go into Iudea, that thy disciples may see thy workes that thou doest.

4 For there is no mā that doeth anie thing secretly, & he him self seeketh to be famous. If thou doest these things, shewe thy self to the worlde.

5 For as yet his brethré beleued not in him.

6 Then Iesus said vnto the, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway readie.

7 The worlde can not hate you: but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that the workes thereof are euil.

^b Why the worlde hateth Christ.

8 Go ye vp vnto this feast: I wil not go vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

^c Christ doeth not vterly denie that he wolde go to y^e feast, but signifieth y^e as yet he was not fully determined.

9 These things he said vnto them, and abode stil in Galile.

10 But asone as his brethren were gone vp, then wēt he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuely.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, & said, Where is he?

12 And muche murmuring was there of him among the people. Some said, He is a good man: other said, Naye: but he deceiueth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Iewes.

^d These were the heads of y^e people who did enuie Christ.

14 Now whē half the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, How knoweth this man the Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned.

Or, letters.

16 Iesus answered them, & said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

^e In that, that he is man only.

17 If anie mā wil do his wil, he shall knowe of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my self.

18 He that speaketh of him self, seeketh his owne glorie: but he that seeketh his glorie that sent him, the same is true, and no s vnrighteousnes is in him.

^f By this make we may knowe whether the doctrine be of God, or of man.

19 Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you kepeth the Law? Why go ye about to kil me?

^g Nothing can be said or v^{er} true. Exod. 24. 3.

20 The people answered, and said, Thou hast a deuill: who goeth about to kil thee?

21 Iesus answered, and said to them, I haue done one worke, and ye all marueile.

22 Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day circumcise a man.

ⁱ Because I did it on the Sabbath day. Leui. 12. 3. Gen. 17. 10.

23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the Law of Moses shuldenot be broken, be ye angrie with me, because I hauē made a man euerie whit whole on the Sabbath day?

 27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no man shal knowe whence he is.
 28 ¶ Then cryed Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Ye ^hbothe knowe me, and knowe whence I am: yet am I not come of my self, but he that sent me, is true, whome ye knowe not.
 29 But I knowe him: for I am of him, and he hathe sent me.
 30 Then they sought to take him, but no mā laid hands on him, because his houre was not yet come.

AND Iesus went vnto the mount of oliues,

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, and all the people came vnto him, and he sate downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes, & the Pharises broghe vnto him a woman, taken in adulterie, & set her in the middes,

4 And said vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adulterie, in the verie act.

5 *Now Moses in the Law commanded vs, that suche shulde be stoned: what saist thou therefore?

6 And this they said to tempt him, that they might haue, whereof to accuse him. But Iesus stouped downe, and with his finger wrote on the grounde.

7 And while they continued asking him, he list him self vp, & said vnto them, Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe he stouped downe, and wrote on the grounde.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middes.

 15 Ye iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.
 16 And if I also iudge, my iudgemēt is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father, that sent me.
 17 And it is also written in your Law, that the testimonie of two men is true.
 18 I am one that beare witness of my self, & the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.
 19 Then said they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye nether knowe me, nor my Father. If ye had knowen me, ye shulde haue knowen my Father also.
 20 These wordes spake Iesus in the temple, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.
 21 Then said Iesus againe vnto them, I go my way, and ye shal seke me, and shal dye in your sinnes. Whether I go, can ye not come.

 23 And he said vnto them, Ye are fro beneth: I am fro aboue: ye are of this worlde: I am not of this worlde.
 24 I said therefore vnto you, That ye shal dye in your sinnes: for except ye beleue, that I am he, ye shal dye in your sinnes.
 25 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus said vnto them, Euen the same thing that I said vnto you from the beginning.
 26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the worlde.
 27 They vnderstode not that he spake to them of the Father.
 28 Then said Iesus vnto them, Whē ye haue lift vp the Sonne of man, then shal ye knowe that I am he, and that I do nothing of my self, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.
 29 For he that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone, because I do alwayes those things that please him.

30 As he spake these things, many beleued in him.
 31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes which beleued in him, If ye continue in my worde, ye are verely my disciples, 32 And shal knowe the truth, & the truth shal make you fre.
 33 They answered him, We be Abrahams fede, and were neuer bonde to any man: why saist thou then, Ye shalbe made fre?
 34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that who so euer committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne.
 35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.
 36 If the Sonne therefore shal make you fre, ye shalbe fre in dede.
 37 I knowe that ye are Abrahams fede, but ye seke to kill me, because my worde hath no place in you.
 38 I speake that which I haue sene with my Father: and ye do that which ye haue sene with your father.
 39 They answered, and said vnto him, Abraham is our father. Iesus said vnto the, If ye were Abrahams children, ye wolde do the workes of Abraham.
 40 But now ye go about to kill me, a man that haue tolde you the truth, which I haue heard of God: this did not Abraham.
 41 Ye do the workes of your father. Then said they to him, We are not borne of fornication: we haue one Father, which is God.
 42 Therefore Iesus said vnto them, If God were your Father, then wolde ye loue me: for I proceded forth, & came from God, nether came I of my self, but he sent me.
 43 Why do ye not vnderstand my talke? because ye can not heare my worde.
 44 Ye are of your father the deuil, and the lustes of your father ye wil do: he hath bene a murtherer from the beginning, & abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.
 45 And because I tell you the truth, ye beleue me not.
 46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the truth, why do ye not beleue me?
 47 He that is of God, heareth Gods wordes: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.
 48 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, Say we not wel that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a deuil?
 49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuil, but I honour my Father, and ye haue dishonored me.

¹ Of him that was borne blinde. ¹¹ The confession of Christ giueth sight.

AND as Iesus passed by, he sawe a mā which was blinde from his birth.
 2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man, or his parēts, that he was borne blinde?
 3 Iesus answered, ^a Nether hathe this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the workes of God shulde be shewed on him.

 me, while it is ^b day: the night cometh whē

 5 As long as I am in the worlde, ^c I am the 6 Alsone as he had thus spoken, ^c he spate tle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the claye,

 7 And said vnto him, Go wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretatiō, ^d Set) He went his way therefore, and washed, & came againe seing.
 8 Now the neighbours and they that had sene him before, when he was blinde, said,
 Is not this he that sate and begged?
 9 Some said, This is he: & others said, He is like him: but he him self said, I am he.
 10 Therefore they said vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?
 11 He answered, and said, The man that is called Iesus, made claye, and anointed mine eyes, and said vnto me, Go to the poole of Siloam and wash. So I went and washed and receiued sight.

 12 Then they said vnto him, Where is he?
 He said, I can not tell.
 13 ¶ They broght to the Pharises him that was once blinde.
 14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the claye, and opened his eyes.
 15 The againe the Pharises also asked him, how he had receiued sight. And he said vnto them, He laid claye vpon mine eyes, &
 I washed, and do se.
 16 Then said some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because he kepeth not the Sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, do suche miracles? and there was a diffension among them.
 17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe,
 What saist thou of him, because he ha-the opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.
 18 Then the Iewes did not beleue him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntil they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.
 19 And they asked the, saying, Is this your sonne, whome ye say was borne blinde?
 How doeth he now se then?
 20 His parents answered them, & said, We knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:
 21 But by what meanes he now seeth, we knowe not: or who hathe opened his eyes, ^e can we not tell: he is olde ynough: aske

 22 These wordes spake his parents, because they feared the Iewes: for the Iewes had ordeined alreadie, that if any mā did con-fesse that he was the Christ, he shulde be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.
 23 Therefore said his parents, He is olde ynough: aske him.
 24 Then againe called they the man that

33 The Iewes answered him, saying, For the good worke we stone thee not, but for blasphemie, and that thou being a man, makest thy self God.

34 Iesus answered them, Is it not written in your Law, *I said, ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, vnto whome the worde of God was giuen, and the Scripture can not be broken, 36 Say ye of him, whome the Father hathe sanctified, and sent into the worlde, Thou blasphemest, because I said, I am the Sonne of God?

CHAP. XI.

Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 47 The hie Priests and Pharises gather a counsil against him. 50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

1 And a certeine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that Marie which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his fete with her heere, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, beholde, he whome thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, he said, This sickenes is not vnto death, but for the glorie of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 ¶ Now Iesus loued Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that he was sicke, yet abode he two dayes stil in y^e same place where he was.

7 Then after that, said he to his disciples, Let vs go into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples said vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately soght to stone thee, & dost thou go thither againe.

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day? If a man walke in the day, he stonbleth not, because he seeth the light of this worlde.

10 But if a man walke in the night, he stonbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, and after he said vnto the, Our friend Lazarus slepeth: but I go to wake him vp.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he slepe, he shall be safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the natural slepe.

14 Then said Iesus vnto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleue: but let vs go vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellowe disciples, Let vs also go, that we may dye with him.

17 ¶ The came Iesus, & founde that he had line in the graue foure dayes already.

18 (Now Bethania was nere vnto Ierusalē, about fiftene furlongs of.)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when she heard that Iesus was coming, wet to mete him: but Marie sate stil in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now I knowe also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God wil giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I knowe that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

26 And whosoever liueth, and beleueth in me, shall neuer dye. Beleuest thou this?

27 She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which shulde come into the worlde.

28 ¶ And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Marie her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quickly, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

31 The Iewes then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they sawe Marie, that she rose vp hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth vnto the graue, to wepe there.

32 Then when Marie was come where Iesus was, and sawe him, she fel downe at his fete, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou haddest 35 And Iesus wept. 36 Then said the Iewes, Beholde, how he loued him.

37 And some of them said, Colde not he, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also, that this man shulde not haue dyed?

38 Iesus therefore againe groned in him self, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was laid vpon it.

39 Iesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he stinketh alreadie: for he hath bene dead foure daies.

40 Iesus said vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleue, thou shuldest se the glorie of God?

l That is, a miracle whereby Gods Name shulde be glorified.

41 Then they toke away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, and said, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I knowe that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I said it, that they maye beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As he had spoken these things, he cryed w a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forthe.

44 Then he that was dead, came forthe, bounde hand and fore with bandes, & his face was bounde with a napkin. Iesus said vnto them, Lose him, and let him go.

45 ¶ Then manie of the Iewes, which came to Marie, and had sene the things, which Iesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharises, and tolde them what things Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priests, and the Pharises a council, and said, What shal we do? For this man doeth manie miracles.

m They resist God, thinking to hinder his worke by their owne policie.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleue in him, and the Romaines will come and take away bothe our place, and the nacion.

n Or, for that present time.

49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest, that same yere, said vnto the, Ye perceiue nothing at all,

50 Nor yet do you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man dye for the people, and that the whole nacion perish not.

o God made him to speake, nether colde his impietie let Gods purpose who caused this wicked man euen as he did Baalam, to be an instrument of holie Goſt

51 This spake he not of him self: but being hie Priest that same yere, he prophesied that Iesus shulde dye for the nacion:

52 And not for the nacion onely, but that he shulde gather together in one y children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forthe they consulted together, to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey nere to the wildernes, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Pascheouer was at hand, and manie went out of the countrey vp to Ierusalem before the Pascheouer, to purifie them selues.

p Because they thought hereby to make them selues more holie against the Pascheouer: but they were not commanded by God to vse this ceremonye.

56 Then fought they for Iesus, and spake among them selues, as they stode in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he cometh not to the feast?

57 Now bothe the hie Priests and the Pharises had giuen a commandement, that if anie man knewe where he were, he shulde shewe it, that they might take him.

9 Then muche people of the Iewes knewe that he was there: and they came, not for Iesus sake onely, but that they might se Lazarus also, whome he had raised from the dead.

10 The hie Priests therefore consulted, that they might put Lazarus to death also, 11 Because that for his sake manie of the Iewes went away, and beleued in Iesus.

Mat. 22, 8. Mar 11, 7. Luk. 19, 35.

12 ¶ On the morowe a great multitude that were come to the feast, when they heard that Iesus shulde come to Ierusalé, 13 Toke branches of palme trees, & went forth to mete him, and cryed, Hosanna, Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

 14 And Iesus founde a d yong asse, and sate thereon, as it is written, 15 * Feare not, daughter of Sion: beholde, thy King cometh sitting on an asses colte.
 16 But his disciples vnderstode not these things at the first: but when Iesus was glorified, then remembered they, that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things vnto him.
 17 The people therefore that was with him, bare witness that he called Lazarus out of the graue, and raised him from the dead.
 18 Therefore met him the people also, because they heard that he had done this miracle.
 19 And the Pharises said among themselves, Perceiue ye how ye prouaile nothing? Beholde, the worlde goeth after him.
 20 ¶ Now there were certein e Grekes among them that came vp to worship at the feast.
 21 And they came to Philippe, which was of Bethsaida in Galile, and desired him, saying, Syr, we wolde se Iesus.
 22 Philippe came and tolde Andrew: and againe Andrew & Philippe tolde Iesus.
 23 And Iesus answered them, saying, The houre is come, that the Sonne of mā must be glorified.
 24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except the wheate corne fall into the grounde & dye, it bideth alone: but if it dye, it bringeth forth the muche frute.
 25 * He that loueth his life, shal lose it, & he that hateth his life in this worlde, shal kepe it vnto life eternal.
 26 * If anie man serue me, let him followe me: for where I am, there shal also my seruant be: and if anie man serue me, him wil my Father honour.
 27 Now is my soule troubled: & what shal I say? Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.
 28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I haue bothe glorified it, and wil glorifie it againe.
 29 Then said the people that stode by and heard, that it was a thundre: others said, An Angel spake to him.
 30 Iesus answered, and said, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.
 31 Now is the iudgement of this worlde: now shal the prince of this worlde be cast out.
 32 * And I, if I were lift vp from the earth, wil drawe all men vnto me.

33 Now this said he, signifying what death he shulde dye.
 34 The people answered him, We haue heard out of the * Law, that the Christ by death for euer: and how saist thou, that the Sonne of man must be lift vp? who is that Sonne of man?
 35 Then Iesus said vnto them, Yet a litle while is * the light with you: walke while ye haue light, lest the darkenes come vpon you: for he that walketh in the daike, knoweth not whether he goeth.
 36 While ye haue light, beleue in y light, that ye may be the children of the light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, & hid him self from them.
 37 ¶ And though he had done so manie miracles before them, yet beleued they not on him:
 38 That the saying of Esaias the Prophet might be fulfilled, that he said, * Lord, who beleued our reporte? and to whome is the arme of the Lord reueiled?
 39 Therefore colde they not beleue, because that Esaias saith againe, 40 * He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they shulde not see with their eyes, nor vnderstand with their heart, and shulde be conuerted, & I shulde heale them.
 41 These things said Esaias when he sawe his glorie and spake of him.
 42 Neuertheles euen among the chief rulers manie beleued in him: but because of the Pharises, they did not confesse him, lest they shulde be cast out of the Synagogue.
 43 * For they loued the praise of men, more then the praise of God.
 44 And Iesus cryed, and said, He that beleueth in me, beleueth not in me, but in him that sent me.
 45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.
 46 I * am come a light into the worlde, that whosoever beleueth in me, shulde not abide in darkenes.
 47 And if anie man heare my wordes, and beleue not, I iudge him not: for I came not to iudge the worlde, but to saue the worlde.
 48 He that refuseth me, and receiueth not my wordes, hath the one that iudgeth him: * the worde that I haue spokē, it shal iudge him in the last day.
 49 For I haue not spoken of my self: but the Father, which sent me, he gaue me a commandement what I shulde say, and what I shulde speake.

5 After that, he powred water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples fete, and to wipe them with the towel, wherewith he was girde.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, doest thou wash my fete?

7 Iesus answered and said vnto him, What I do, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt knowe it hereafter.

8 Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my fete. Iesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou shalt haue no parte with me.

35 By this shal all ⁿ me knowe that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one ro another.

1 iohn 4, 21.
ⁿ Whereof we ought to haue continual remembrance as though it were euen newly giuen

36 Simoⁿ Peter said vnto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Iesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not followe me now: but thou shalt followe me afterwarde.

37 Peter said vnto him, Lord, why can I not followe thee now? *I wil lay downe my life for thy sake.

^o When thou shalt be more strong

38 Iesus answered him, Wilt thou lay downe thy life for my sake? Verely, verely I say vnto thee, The cocke shal not crowe, til thou haue denyed me thrise.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He armeth his disciples with consolation against trouble. 2 He ascendeth into heauen to prepare v. a place. 6 The way, the truth and the life. 10 The Father and Christ one. 13 How we shoulde pray. 23 The promes vnto them that kepe his worde.

1 And he said to his disciples, Let not your heart be troubled: ye beleue in God, a beleue also in me.

a For in so beleuig no troubles shal ouercome them. b So that there is not onely place for him, but for all his. c At the latter day. Act. 17. 11.

2 In my Fathers house are b many dwelling places: if it were not so, I wolde haue tolde you: I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And thogh I go to prepare a place for you, I wil c come againe, and receiue you vnto my self, that where I am, there may ye be also.

4 And whither I go, ye knowe, and the way ye knowe.

d He was not altogether ignorant, but his knowledg was weake and imperfect. e Therefore we must begin in hum. continue in him, & end in him.

5 Thomas said vnto him, Lord, we d knowe not whither thou goest: how can we then knowe the way?

6 Iesus said vnto him, I am the e Way, and the Truth, & the Life. No man cometh vnto the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had knowen me, ye shulde haue knowen my Father also: and from hence forthe ye knowe him, and haue sene him.

8 Philippe said vnto him, Lord, shewe vs thy Father, and it sufficeth vs.

9 Iesus said vnto him, I haue bene so long time with you, and hast thou not knowen me, Philippe? he that hathe sene me, hathe sene my Father: how canst thou, Shewe vs thy Father?

f For the verie fulnes of the diuinitie remaineth in Christ.

10 Beleuest thou not, that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The wordes that I speake vnto you, I speake not of my self: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he h doeth the workes.

g In that, that he is man.

11 Beleue me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: at the least, beleue me for the very workes sake.

h Who declarereth his maiestie and vertue by his doctring and miracles.

12 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleueth in me, the workes that I do, i he shal do also, & greater then these shal he do: for I go vnto my Father.

i This is referred to the whole bodie of the Church in whome this verue of Christ doeth shine & remaine for euer.

13 * And whatsoever ye aske in my Name, that wil I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Sonne.

Chap. 16. 28. mat. 7. 7. mar. 11. 24. ian. 1. 5.

14 If ye shal aske any thing in my Name, I wil do it.

15 If ye loue me, kepe my comandements, 16 And I wil pray the Father, and he shal giue you another k Coforter, that he may abide with you for euer, k I haue comforted you whiles I was with you, but henceforth the h holie Gost shal comfort you, and preserue you. So called because he worketh in vs the truth.

17 Euen the Spirit of truth, whome the worlde can not receiue, because it seeth him not, nether knoweth hi: but ye knowe him: for he dwelleth with you, and shal be in you.

m Which thing he doeth by y verue of his Spirit.

18 I wil not leaue you comfortles: but I wil o come to you.

19 Yet a litle while, and the worlde shal se me no more, but ye shal se me: because I liue, ye shal liue also.

20 At that day shal ye knowe that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hathe my commandements, and kepeith them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, o shalbe loued of my Father: and I wil loue him, and wil shewe mine owne self to him.

n He shal sensibly feeke y the grace of God abideth in him. o But the brother of Iames.

22 Iudas said vnto him (not o Iscarior) Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shewe thy self vnto vs, and not vnto the worlde?

23 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, If any man loue me, he wil kepe my worde, & my Father wil loue him, and we wil come vnto him, and wil dwell with him.

p Whereby he aduerteth that not so haue resp. & to y worlde, lest they shulde be drawn backe by euil example.

24 He that loueth me not, kepeth not my wordes, and the worde which ye heare, is not q mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

q That is, not his alone: for he had nothing separate from his Father.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holie Gost, whome the Father wil send in my Name, he shal teache you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, which I haue tolde you.

r All comfort & prosperitie.

27 Peace I leaue with you: my peace I giue vnto you: not as the worlde giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.

28 Ye haue heard how I said vnto you, I go away, and wil come vnto you. If ye loued me, ye wolde verely reioyce, because I said, I go vnto the Father: for my Father is s greater then I.

s In that, that Christ is become man to be Mediator betweene God & vs.

29 And now haue I spoken vnto you, before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleue.

30 Hereafter wil I not speake many things vnto you: for the t prince of this worlde commeth, and hathe u nocht in me.

t Satan executereth his rage & tyrannie by the permission of God.

31 But it is that the worlde may knowe that I loue my Father: & as the Father hathe commanded me, so I do. Arise, let vs go hence.

u Satan shal assaile me with all his force, but he shal not finde that in me which he loketh for: for I am that innocēt lambe without spot.

CHAP. XV.

1 The swete consolation, and mutual loue betweene Christ and his membres under the parable of the vine. 18 Of their comune afflictions and persecutions. 26 The face of the holie Gost and the Apostles.

1 I Am the true vine, and my Father is an houband man.

2 * Euerie branche that beareth not frute in me, he taketh away: & euerie one that beareth frute, he purgeth it, that it may bring forthe more frute.

3 * Now are ye cleane through the worde, Chap. 13. 11. which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 Abide in me, and I in you: as the brache can not beare frute of it self, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, a except ye abide in me.

a We can bring forthe no frute, except we be ingrafted in Christ.

5 I am the vine: ye are the branches: he that abideth abideth in me, & I in him, the same bringeth forth the muche frute: for without me can ye do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branche, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fyre, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in me and my wordes abide in you, aske what ye wil, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare muche frute, and be made my disciples.

9 As the Father hathe loued me, so haue I loued you: continue in my loue.

10 If ye shall kepe my commandements, ye shall abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers commandements, and abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spokē vnto you, that my ioye might remaine in you, and that your ioye might be full.

12 This is my commandement, that ye loue one another, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue then this hathe no man, when any man bestoweth his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I commande you.

15 Henceforth, call I you not seruants: for the seruant knoweth not what his master doeth: but I haue called you friends: for all things that I haue heard of my Father, haue I made knowen to you.

16 Ye haue not chosen me, but I haue chosen you, and ordeined you, that ye go & bring forth the frute, and that your frute remaine, that whatsoever ye shall aske of the Father in my Name, he may giue it you.

17 These things commande I you, that ye loue one another.

18 If the worlde hate you, ye knowe that it hated me before you.

19 If ye were of the worlde, the worlde wolde loue his owne: but because ye are not of the worlde, but I haue chosen you out of the worlde, therefore the worlde hateth you.

20 Remember the worde that I said vnto you, The seruant is not greater then his master. If they haue persecuted me, they wil persecute you also: if they haue kept my worde, they wil also kepe yours.

21 But all these things wil they do vnto you for my Names sake, because they haue not knowen him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken vnto the, they should not haue had sinne: but now haue they no cloke for their sinne.

23 He hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done workes among them which none other man did, they had not had sinne: but now haue they bothe sene, &

haue hated bothe me, and my Father.

25 But it is that the worde might be fulfilled, that is written in their Law, They hated me without a cause.

26 But when Comforter shall come, whom I wil send vnto you from the Father, euen the Spirit of trueth, which proceedeth of the Father, he shall testifie of me.

27 And ye shall witnesse also, because ye haue bene with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

2 He putteth them in remembrance of the crosse, and of their owne infirmitie to come, 7 And therefore doeth comfort the with the promes of the holie Ghost 16 Of the coming againe of Christ. 17 Of his ascension. 23 To aske in the Name of Christ Peace in Christ, & in the worlde affliction.

1 These things haue I said vnto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoever killeth you, wil thinke that he doeth God seruice.

3 And these things wil they do vnto you, because they haue not knowen the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I tolde you, that when the houre shall come, ye might remember, that I tolde you the. And these things I said I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I haue said these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorowe.

7 Yet I tel you the trueth, It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter wil not come vnto you: but if I departe, I wil send him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he wil reprove the worlde of sinne, and of righteousnes, and of iudgement.

9 Of sinne, because they beleue not in me:

10 Of righteousnes, because I go to my Father, and ye shall see me no more:

11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this worlde is iudged.

12 I haue yet manie things to say vnto you, but ye can not beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when he is come which is the Spirit of trueth, he wil lead you into all trueth: for he shall not speake of him self, but whatsoever he shall heare, shall he speake, and he wil shewe you the things to come.

14 He shall glorifie me: for he shall receiue of mine, and shall shewe it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hathe, are mine:

not condemned by him as a blasphemer or transgressor. 17 The said some of his disciples amog the selues, What is this that he saith vnto vs, A litle while, and ye shal not se me, & againe, a litle while, and ye shal se me, and, For I go to my Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A litle while: we knowe not what he saith.

19 Now Iesus knewe that they wolde aske him, and said vnto them, Do ye enquire among your selues, of that I said, A litle while, and ye shal not se me: and againe, a litle while, and ye shal se me?

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, that ye shal wepe and lament, and the worlde shal reioyce: & ye shal sorowe, but your sorowe shal be turned to ioye.

21 A woman when she trauaileth, hathe sorowe, because her houre is come: but as soon as she is deliuered of the childe, she remembreth no more the anguish, for ioye that a man is borne into the worlde.

22 And ye now therefore are in sorowe: but I wil se you againe, and your hearts shal reioyce, and your ioye shal no man take from you.

23 And in y^e day shal ye aske me nothing. * Verely, verely I say vnto you, whatsoeuer ye shal aske the Father in my Name, he wil giue it you.

24 Hitherto haue ye asked nothing in my Name: aske, and ye shal receiue, that your ioye may be ful.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you in parables: but the time wil come, when I shal no more speake to you in parables: but I shal shewe you plainly of y^e Father.

26 At that day shal ye aske in my Name, & I say not vnto you, that I wil pray vnto the Father for you.

27 For the Father him self loueth you, because ye haue loued me, * and haue beleued that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, & came into the worlde: againe I leaue the worlde, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said vnto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and thou speakest no parable.

30 Now knowe we that thou knowest all things, and nedeest not that any man shulde aske thee. By this we beleue, that thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Do you beleue now?

32 * Beholde, the houre cometh, & is alreadie come, that ye shalbe scattred euerie man into his owne, and shal leaue me alone:

but I am not alone: for the Father is with me.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, y^e in me ye might haue peace: in the worlde ye shal haue affliction, but be of good comfort: I haue overcome the worlde.

r Although he forsake Christ, yer is he no wh^{er} diminished: for he & his Father are one. We haue rest & coloure when we are truly graffed in Christ.

CHAP. XVII.

The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, bothe for himself and his Apostles, and also for all such as receiue the trueth.

These things spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, & said, Father the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee,

2 * As thou hast giuen him a power ouer all flesh, that he shulde giue eternal life to all them that thou hast giuen him.

Mat 28.18. a Christ hathe all rule & dominion ouer men. b Which are the elect.

3 And this is life eternal, that they knowe thee to be the onely verie God, and whome thou hast sent, Iesus Christ.

4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to do.

c That is, that they acknowledge bothe y^e Father, & the Sonne to be verie God. d As wel by doctrine as by racles.

5 And now glorifie me, thou Father, with thine owne self, with y^e glorie which I had with thee before the worlde was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the worlde: & thine they were, and thou gauest the me, and they haue kept thy worde.

e Our electioⁿ standeth in the good pleasure of God, which is the onelic foundation, & cause of our saluation, and is declared to vs in Christ, through whome we are iustificed by faith and sanctified. Rom 8.39. eph 1.4

7 Now they knowe that all things whatsoever thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the wordes, which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them, * and haue knowen surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleued that thou hast sent me.

Chap 16.27. f That is, the reprobate.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for y^e worlde, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the worlde, but these are in the worlde, & I come to thee. Holie Father, kepe them in thy Name, euery one of them whome thou hast giuen me, that they may be one, as we are.

g That they may be ioyned in vnitie of faith & spirit

12 While I was with them in the worlde, I kept them in thy Name: those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the childe of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

h He was so called, not onely for y^e he perished, but because God had appointed and ordered him to this end. Act 1.26 & 4.27.

13 And now come I to thee, & these things speake I in y^e worlde, that they might haue my ioye fulfilled in them selues.

14 I haue giuen them thy wordes, and the worlde hathe hated them, because they are not of the worlde, as I am not of y^e worlde.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Christ is betrayed. 6 The wordes of his mouth smite the officers to the grounde. 10 Peter smiteth of Malchus eare. 13 Iesus is broght before Annas and Cai-phas. 25 Where Peter denieth him. 36 He telleth Palate what his kingdome is.

1 When Iesus had spokē these things, he went forthe with his disciples ouer y^e ^a broke Cedro, where was a gardē, into the which he entred, and his disciples.
2 And Iudas which betrayed him, knewe also the place: for Iesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.
3 * Iudas then after he had receiued a ^b bāde of men and officers of the high Priests, and of the Pharises, came thither with lan-ternes and torches, and weapons.
4 Then Iesus, knowing all things that shul-de come vnto him, went forthe and said vnto them, Whome seke ye?
5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Ie-sus said vnto thē, I am he. Now Iudas also which betrayed him, stode with them.
6 Aflone then as he had said vnto them, I am he, they wēt backwards, and fel to the grounde.
7 Then he asked them againe, Whome seke ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazaret.
8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he: therefore if ye seke me, let these go their way, 9 This was that the worde might be fulfilled which he spake, * ^c Of thē which thou gauest me, haue I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sworde, drew it, and smote the high Priests seruant, and cut of his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.
11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sworde into the sheath: shal I not drinke of y^e cup which my Father hath giue me?
12 Then the bande and the captaine, & the officers of the Iewes toke Iesus, and bounde him, 13 And led him away to ^d Annas first (for he was Father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high Prielt^e that same yere) 14 * And Caiaphas was he, that gaue counsel to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man shulde dye for the people.
15 ¶ Now Simon Peter followed Iesus, & another disciple, and that disciple was knowē of the high Prielt: therefore he wēt in with Iesus into the hall of y^e high Prielt.
16 But Peter stode at the dore without.
Then went out the other disciple which was known vnto the high Prielt, and spake to her that kept the dore, and broght in Peter.
17 Then said the maide that kept the dore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He said, I am not.
18 And the seruants and officers stode there, which had made a fyre of coles : for it was colde, and they warmed them selues.
And Peter also stode among them & warmed him self.
19 ¶ The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.
20 Iesus answered him, I spake ^f openly to the worlde: I euer taught in the Synagogue & in the Tēple, whither the Iewes reforte continually, and in secret haue I said nothing.
21 Why askest thou me? aske them which heard me what I said vnto them: beholde, they knowe what I said.
22 When he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stode by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the high Priest so?
23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euil spoken, beare witnes of the euil: but if I haue wel spoken, why smitest thou me?
24 ¶ Now Annas had sent him bounde vnto Caiaphas the high Prielt)
25 * And Simon Peter stode and warmed him self, and they said vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied it, & said, I am not.
26 One of the seruants of the high Prielt, his cousin whose eare Peter smote of, said,

Mat. 27. 2. mar. 15. 1. luk. 22. 1. Act. 10. 28. & 11. 2.

28 ¶ Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the commune hall. Now it was morning & thei them selues went not into the comūne hall, lest they shulde be defiled, but that they might eat the Passeouer.

b He spake thus disdainfully, because they were so bent against all right and equitie.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

Mat. 26. 19. i As if they shulde say, Thou wilt not suffice vs to do it: for he knew that it was not permitted to them by the Romanes to punish with death.

30 They answered and said vnto him, If he were not an euil doer, we wolde not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

Mat. 27. 11. mar. 15. 2. luk. 23. 31.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take hee him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes said vnto him, It is not lawful for vs to put any man to death.

k It standeth not in strength of men nor in worldelie defence.

32 It was that the worde of Iesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifyg what death he shulde dye.

33 ¶ So Pilate entred into the commune hall againe, and called Iesus, & said vnto him, Art thou the King of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Saist thou that of thy self, or did other tel it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iewe? Thine owne nation, and the high Priests haue deliuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this world: if my kingdome were of this world, my seruants wolde surely fight, that I shulde not be deliuered to the Iewes; but now is my kingdome not from hence.

l This was a mocking and disdainful question.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a King the? Iesus answered, Thou saist that I am a King: for this cause am I borne, & for this cause came I into the world, that I shulde beare witnes vnto the trueth: euenie one that is of the trueth, heareth my voyce.

Mat. 27. 15. mar. 15. 6. luk. 23. 27. m This was one of their blinde abuses: for the Law of God gaue no libertie to quite a wicked trespasser.

38 Pilate said vnto him, What is trueth? And when he had said that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, & said vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

39 ¶ But you haue a custome, that I shulde deliuer you one lose at the Passeouer: wil ye then that I lose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

40 ¶ Thei cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murtherer.

CHAP. XIX.

¶ When Pilate could not a swage the rage of the Iewes against Christ, he deliuereth him vp with his superscription to be hanged betwixt two theues. 23 They cast lottes for his garments. 26 He commandeth his mother vnto Iohn. 28 Calleth for drinke. 33 Dyeth, and his side is perced, and taken downe from the crosse. 38 He is buried.

Mat. 27. 26. mar. 15. 18. n He thought to haue pacified the fuste of the Iewes by some indifferent correction.

¶ Then Iesus & a scourged him.

And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head; and they put on him a purple garment, And said, Hail, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their rodde.

¶ Then Pilate went forthe againe, and said vnto them, Beholde, I bring him forthe to you, that ye may knowe, y I finde no faute in him at all.

¶ Thei came Iesus forthe wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them, Beholde the man.

b He spake in mockerie, because Christ called him self King.

¶ Then when the high Priests and officers sawe him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no faute in him.

e Christ was in all the Sonne of God, and therefore might iustly call him self so, without breache of Law: herefore their colored accusation was falsely applied.

¶ The Iewes answered him, We haue a Law, and by our Law he oght to dye, because he made him self the Sonne of God.

¶ Whē Pilate then heard that worde, he was the more afraide,

¶ And went againe into the commune hall and said vnto Iesus, Whēce art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answer.

¶ Thei said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to lose thee?

d Her by he sheweth him, that he oght not to abuse his office and auctorite.

¶ Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

¶ From thence forthe Pilate sought to lose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cefars friend: for whosoeuer maketh him self a King, speaketh against Cefar.

f This was the place called the Pannement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

¶ Whē Pilate heard that worde, he broght Iesus forthe, and sate downe in the iudgement seat in a place called the Pannement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

g Which was mudday.

¶ And it was the Preparation of the Passeouer, and about the sixt houre: and he said vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

¶ But they cryed, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Shal I crucifie your King? The high Priests answered, We haue no King but Cefar.

Mat. 27. 31. mar. 15. 21. h This was the place called the Pannement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

¶ Then deliuered he him vnto them, to be crucified. ¶ And they toke Iesus, and led him away.

¶ And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens Skulles, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha:

¶ Where thei crucified him, & two other with him, on ether side one, & Iesus in the middes.

23 This

20 This title then red manie of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was nere to the cite: and it was written in Hebrew, Grcke and Latin.

21 Then said the hie Priests of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that he said, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶ Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, toke his garments & made foure partes, to euerie souldier a parte, & his coate: and the coate was without seame, & wouen from the top throughout.

24 Therefore thei said one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lots for it, whose it shalbe. *This was that y^e Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, * They departed my garmets among them, & on my coate did cast lottes.* So the souldiers did these things in dede.

25 ¶ Then stode by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sifter, Marie the wife of Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus sawe his mother, & the disciple standing by whome he loued, he said vnto his mother, Womā, beholde thy sonne.

27 Then said he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre, the disciple toke her home vnto him.

28 ¶ After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that y^e Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessell ful of vinegre: & they filled a sponge with vinegre, and put it about an hylose stalke, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vinegre, he said, It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaued vp the gost.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the Preparation, that the bodies shulde not remaine vpo the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an hie day) besoght Pilate that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers and brake the legges of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead already, they brake not his legges.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare perced his side, & forthewith came there out blood and water.

And he that sawe it, bare recorde, & his recorde is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might beleue it.

35 For these things were done, y^e Scripture shulde be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shalbe broken.

And againe another Scripture saith, *Thei shal se him whome thei haue thrust through.

38 *And after these things, Ioseph of Arimathea (who was a disciple of Iesus, but secretly for feare of the Iewes) besoght Pilate that he might take downe the bodie of Iesus. And Pilate gaued him licence. He came then and toke Iesus bodie.

39 And there came also Nicodemus (which first came to Iesus by night) and broght of myrrhe & aloes mingled together about an hundred pounde.

40 ¶ Then toke thei y^e bodie of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the maner of y^e Iewes is to burie.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet laid.

42 There then laid they Iesus, because of the Iewes Preparation day, for the sepulchre was nere.

1 Now the first day of the weke came Marie Magdalene, earely when it was yet darke, vnto the sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken away from the tobe.

2 Then she ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Iesus loued, and said vnto them, They haue taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we knowe not where they haue laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, & the other disciple, & they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ranne bothe together, but the other disciple did out runne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and sawe the linnen clothes lye,

7 And the kercheffe that was vpo his head, not lying wth the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it self.

8 Then went in also the other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he sawe it, and beleued.

9 For as yet they knewe not the Scripture, That he must rise againe from the dead.

10 And the disciples went away againe vnto their owne home.

14 When she had thus said, she turned herself backe and sawe Iesus standing, and knewe not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why wepest thou? whome sekest thou? She supposing that he had bene the gardener, said vnto him, Syr, if thou hast borne him hence, teill me where thou hast laid him, and I wil take him away.

16 Iesus saith vnto her, Marie. She turned her self, & said vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus saith vnto her, Touche me not: for I am not yet ascended to my Father, but go to my brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, & to your Father, and to my God, and your God.

18 Marie Magdalene came and tolde the disciples that she had sene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ The same daye then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the dores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stode in the middes, & said to them, Peace be vnto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed vnto them his hands, and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they had sene the Lord.

21 Then said Iesus to them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent me, so send I you.

22 And whē he had said that, he breathed on them, and said vnto them, Receiue the holie Ghost.

23 ¶ Who soeuer sinnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them: & whoeuer sinnes ye reteine, they are reteined.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said vnto him, We haue sene the Lord: but he said vnto them, Except I se in his hands the print of the nailes, and put my finger into the print of the nailes, and put mine hand into his side, I wil not beleue it.

26 ¶ And eight daies after againe his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus, whē the dores were shut, and stode in the middes, and said, Peace be vnto you.

27 After, said he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and se mine hands, and put forth the thine hand, and put it into my side, and be not faithles, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and said vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus said vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast sene me, thou beleuest: blessed are they that haue not sene, and haue beleued.

30 ¶ And manie other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, that ye might beleue, that Iesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleuing ye might haue life through his Name.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 He commaundeth Peter earnestly to fede his shepe. 18 He forewarneth him of his death. 25 And of Christs manifolde miracles.

After these things, Iesus shewed himself againe to his disciples at sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, & Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, & two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter said vnto them, I go a fishing. They said vnto him, We also wil go with thee. They went their way and entered into a ship straight way, & that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stode on the shore: neuertheles the disciples knewe not that it was Iesus.

5 Iesus then said vnto them, Sirs, haue ye anye meat? They answered him, No.

6 Then he said vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, & ye shal finde. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore said the disciple whome Iesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his coate to him (for he was naked) and cast himself into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by shippe (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundred cubites) & they drew the net with fishes.

9 Assone then as they were come to land, they sawe hotte coles, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus said vnto the, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, an hundred, fiftie and thre: and albeit there were so manie, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, & dyne. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knewe that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came & toke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Iesus shewed him self to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So whē they had dined, Iesus said to Simon Peter, Simon sonne of Iona, c̄ louest thou me more thē these? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Fede my lambes.

16 He said to him againe the secōde time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Fede my shepe.

17 He said vnto him the d̄ third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sorie because he said to him the third time, Louest thou me: and said vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus said vnto him, Fede my shepe.

18 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, When thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy self, & walkedst whither thou woldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretch for the thine hands, & another shall gird thee, & lead thee whither thou woldest not.

19 And this spake he, signifying by what death he shulde glorifie God. And whē he had said this, he said to him, Followe me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whome Iesus loued, following, which had also leaned on his brest at supper, and had said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore sawe him, he said to Iesus, Lord, what shal this man do?

22 Iesus said vnto him, If I wil that he tarrye til I come, what is it to thee? followe thou me.

23 Then went this worde abroad among the brethren, that this disciple shulde not dye. Yet Iesus said not to him, He shal not dye: but if I wil that he tarrye til I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these things, & wrote these things, and we knowe that his testimonie is true.

25 * Now there are also manie other things which Iesus did, the which if they shulde be written euerie one, I suppose the worlde colde not containe the booke that shulde be written, Amen.

THE ACTES OF THE holie Apostles written by Luke the Euangeliste.

THE ARGUMENT

CHRIST, after his ascension, performed his promes to his Apostles, and sent them the holie Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not onely mindeful of his Church, but wolde be the head & maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan & the worlde resisted neuer so muche against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the worlde with the sounde of his Gospel. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, we may plainly perceue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppress, and ouerthrowe the Gospel: he raiseth conspiracies, tumultes, commotions, persecutions, slanders and all kinde of crueltie. Againe we shal here beholde the prouidence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprys, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth, and incourageh his most valiantly and constantly to followe their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this historie a perpetual memorie to the Church, that the crisse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheles God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings and tentations of his, to a good yssue, giuing them as it were, in sorrowe, ioye: in bandes, fredome: in prison, deliuerance: in trouble, quietnes: in death, life. Finally, this boke cōteineth manie excellent sermons of the Apostles & disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christs flocke. Of repentance, & feare of God, with other principal points of our faith so that this onelie historie in a manner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

the promes of the Father, *which, said he, ye haue heard of me. 5 *For Iohn in dede baptized with water, but ye shalbe baptized with the holie Gost within these fewe dayes. 6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the kingdome to Israel? 7 And he said vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power, 8 But ye shal receiue power of the holie Gost, when he shal come on you: and ye shal be witnesses vnto me bothe in Ierusalem, & in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the uttermost parte of the earth. 9 * And when he had spoken these things, while they behelde, he was taken vp: for a cloude toke him vp out of their sight. 10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heauen, as he went, beholde, two men stood by them in white apparel, 11 Which also said, Ye men of Galile, why stand ye gazing into heauen? This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shal so come, as ye haue sene him go into heauen. 12 ¶ Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of oliues, which is nere to Ierusalem, containing a Sabbath dayes journey. 13 And when they were come in, they wet vp into an vpper chamber, where abode bothe Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew, Philippe, and Thomas, Bartlemewe, and Mattheue, Iames the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon zelotes, and Iudas Iames brother. 14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren. 15 ¶ And in those dayes Peter stood vp in the middes of the disciples and said (now the number of names that were in one place, were about an hundred and twentie) 16 Ye men brethren, this Scripture must needs haue bene fulfilled, which the holie Gost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was guide to them that toke Iesus. 17 For he was nombred with vs, and had obtained fellowship in this ministration. 18 He therefore hath purchased a field with the rewarde of iniquitie: and when he had throwe downe him selfe head long he brast a sondre in the middes, and all his bowels gushed out. 19 And it is knowen vnto all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, in so muche, that that field is called in their owne langage, Aceldama, that is, The field of blood. 20 For it is written in the booke of Psalmes, * Let his habitation be voyde, and let no man dwell therein: * also, Let another take his charge. 21 Wherefore, of these men which haue companied with vs, all the time that the Lord Iesus was conversant among vs, 22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that he was taken vp from vs, must one of the be made a witness with vs of his resurrection. 23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barsabas, whose surname was Iustus, and Matthias. 24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shewe whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take the roume of this ministration and Apostleship, from which Iudas hath gone astray, to go to his owne place. 26 Then they gaue forthe their lottes: and the lot fel on Matthias, and he was by a commune consent counted with the Eleue Apostles.

CHAP. II.

wolde raise vp Christ concerning the flesh to set him vpon his throne,
He knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that "his "soule shul-de not be left in "a graue, nether his flesh shulde "se corruption.
This Iesus hathe God raised vp, whereof we all are witnesses.
Since then that he by the "right hand of God hathe bene exalted, and hathe "recei-ued of his Father the promes of the holie Gost, he hathe shed forth the this which ye now se and heare.
For Dauid is not ascended into heauen, but he saith, * The Lord said to my Lord,

"Vntil I "make thine enemies thy fote-stole.
Therefore, let all the house of Israel knowe for a suretie, that God hathe "made him bothe Lord, and Christ, this Iesus,
I say, whome ye haue crucified.
Now when they heard it, they were pricked in their hearts, and said vnto Peter & the other Apostles, Men & brethren, what

10 Then she fell downe straight way at his fete, and yelded vp the gost: and the yong men came in, and founde her dead, and caryed her out, and buryed her by her housband.

15 In someuche that they broght the sick into the stretes, and laid them on beddes and couches, that at the least way the shadowe of Peter, whē he came by, might shadowe some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about vnto Ierusalē, bringing sick folkes, & them which were vexed with vnclane spirits, who were all healed.

20 Go your way, and stand in the Temple, & speake to the people all the wordes ^m of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Tēple early in the morning & taught. And the chief Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Council together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be broght.

22 But when the officers came, and founde them not in the prison, they returned and tolde it,

23 Saying, Certeinly we founde ⁿ prison shut as sure as was possible, & the keepers ⁿ standing without, before the dores: but when we had opened, we founde no man within.

24 Then whē the chief Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this wolde growe.

25 Then came one and shewed thē, saying, Beholde, the men that ye put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teache the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and broght them without violence (for they feared the people, lest they shulde haue bene stoned)

27 And when they had broght them, they set them before the Council, and the chief Priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did not we straitely commande you, that ye shulde not teache in this Name: and beholde, ye haue filled ^o Ierusalem with your doctrine, & ye wolde bring this mans ^p blood vpon vs.

*Patriarkes.
 9 And the Patriarkes moued with enuie folde * Ioseph into Egypt : but God was f with him,
 10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and * gaue him fauour and wisdome in the light of Pharao King of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, &
 ouer his whole house.
 11 ¶ Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers founde no sustenance.
 12 But when * Iacob heard that there was coine in Egypt, he sent our fathers first.
 13 * And at the seconde time, Ioseph was knowen of his brethren, and Iosephs kin-red was made knowen vnto Pharao.
 14 Then sent Ioseph and caused his father to be brought, & all his kinred, euen s thre score and fiftene soules.
 15 So * Iacob went downe into Egypt, and he * dyed, and our fathers, 16 And were remoued into * Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that ^h Abraham had bought * for money of the sonnes of Emor, sonne of Sychem.
 17 But when the time of the promes diue nere, which God had sworne to Abraham, the people * grewe & multiplied in Egypt, 18 Til another King arose, which knewe not Ioseph.
 19 The same dealt i subtly with our kin-red, and euil intreated our fathers, & made them to cast out their yong children, that they shulde not remaine alieue.
 20 * The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house thre mo-neths.
 21 And whē he was cast out, Pharaos daughter toke him vp, & nourished him for her owne sonne.
 22 And Moses was learned in all the wis-dome of the Egyptians, and was mightie in wordes and in dedes.
 23 Now when he was ful fortie yere olde, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the children of Isiael.
 24 * And when he sawe one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and auenged his quarel that had the harme done to him, & smote the Egyptian.
 25 For he supposed his brethren wolde haue vnderstand, that God by his hand shul-de giue them deliuerance: but thei vnder-stode it not.
 26 * And the next day, he shewed him self vnto them as they stroue, and wolde haue fet them at one agame, saying, Syrs, ye are brethré: why do ye wrong one to another?
 27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee

a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?
 28 Wilt thou kil me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?
 29 Then fled Moses at that saying, & was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.
 30 And when fourtie yeres were expired, there appeared to him in the * wildernes of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame * of fyre, in a bush.
 31 And when Moses sawe it, he wondred at y sight: & as he drewe nere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying, 32 I am the ^l God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, & the God of Iacob. Then Moses trembled, & durst not beholde it.
 33 Then the Lord said to him, ^m Put of thy shooes from thy fete: for the place where thou standest, is holie grounde.
 34 I haue sene, I haue sene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, and am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I wil send thee into Egypt.
 35 This Moses whome thei forsoke, saying,
 Who made thee a prince and a iudge? the same God sent for a prince, and a deliuerer by the hands of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.
 36 He * brght them out, doing wonders, and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red sea, and in the wildernes * four-tie yeres.
 37 This is that Moses, which said vnto the childré of Israhel, * A ⁿ Prophet shal y Lord your God raise vp vnto you, euen of your brethren, like vnto me: him shal ye heare.
 38 * This is he that was in the Congregation, in the wildernes with the ^o Angel, which spake to him in mount Sina, & with our fathers, who receiued the ^r liuelie oracles to giue vnto vs.
 39 To whome our fathers wolde not obey, but refused, & in their hearts turned backe
 againe into Egypt,
 40 Saying vnto Aaron, * Make q vs gods that may go before vs: for ^r we knowe not what is become of this Moses that brought vs out of the land of Egypt.
 41 And they made a calfe in those daies, and offred sacrifice vnto the idole, and reioyced in the workes of their owne nads.
 42 Then God turned himself away, & * ga-ue them vp to serue the ^f hoste of heauen, as it is written in the boke of the Prophe-res, * O house of Israhel, haue ye offred to me slayne beafts & sacrifices by the space of fourtie yeres in the wildernes?
 43 And ye ⁿ toke vp the tabernacle of * Moloch, & y ^h starr of your god Remphan, fi-

CHAP. VIII.

1 Steuen is lamented & buried. 2 The rage of the Jewes and of Saul against them. 3 The faithful scatted, preach here & there 4 Samaria is seduced by Simo the forcerer, but was conuerted by Philippe, and confir- med by the Apostles 5 The conuersion and hypocri- sies of Simon, 6 And conuersion of the Eunuche.

And Saul consented to his death, and at that time, there was a great perfe- cution against the Church which was at Ie- rusalem, & they were all scatted abroade through the regions of Iudea & of Sama- ria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, ^a caryed Steuen amongs the, to be buried, and made great ^b lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church, and entred into euerie house, and drewe out bothe men and women, and put them into prifon.

4 Therefore they that were scatted abro- ade, went to and fro preaching the worde.

5 ¶ Then came Philippe into the citie of Samaria, & preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue hede vnto those things which Philippe spake, with one ac- corde, hearing & seing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loude voyce, came out of many that were posses- sed of them: and many taken with palsies, & that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioye in that citie.

9 And there was before in the citie a cer- teine man called Simon, which vsed wic- checraft, and bewitched the people of Sa- maria, saying, that he him self was some great man.

10 To whome they ^d gaue hede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great^e power of God.

11 And they gaue hede vnto him, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But aslone as they beleued Philippe, which preached the things that concerned the kingdome of God, and in the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized bothe men and women.

13 Then Simon him self^e beleued also and was baptized, & continued with Philippe, and wondred, when he sawe the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 ¶ Now whé the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had re- ceiued the worde of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the^s holie Gost.

16 (For as yet, he was come downe on none of them, but they were baptized ^h onely in the Name of the Lord Iesus)

17 Then laid they their hands on them, & they receiued the holie Gost.

18 And when Simon sawe, that through lay- ing on of the Apostles háds the holie Gost was giuen, he offred them money, 19 Saying, Giue me also this power, that on whome soeuer I lay the hands, he may re- ceiue the holie Gost.

24 Then answered Simon, & said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, y none of these things which ye haue spoken, come vpon me.

25 ¶ So they, when they had testified and preached the worde of the Lord, returned to Ierusalem, and preached the Gospel in many townes of the Samaritans.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philippe, saying, Arise, and go towarde the South vnto the way that goeth downe fro Ierusalem vnto Gaza, which is waste.

27 And he arose and went on: and beholde, a certeine Eunuche of Ethiopia Cadaces the Quene of the Ethiopians chief Gouverner, who had the rule of all her treasure, & came to Ierusalem to worship:

28 And as he returned sitting in his charet, he red Esaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philippe, Go nere & ioyne thy self to yonder charet.

30 And Philippe ranne thether, and heard him read the Prophet Esaias, & said, But vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except I had a guide? And he desired Philippe, that he wolde come vp and sit with him.

32 Now the place of the Scripture which he red, was this, * He was led as a shepe to slaughter: & like a lambe domme before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 ¶ In his humilitie his iudgement hathe bene exalted: but who shal declare his regeneration for his life is taken fro the earth.

34 Then the Eunuche answered Philippe, and said, I pray thee of whome speaketh the Prophet this? of him self, or of some other man?

35 Then Philippe opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certeine water, and the Eunuche said, Se, here is water: what doeth let me to be baptized?

37 And Philippe said vnto him, If thou beleuest with all thine heart, thou maist. Then he answered, and said, I beleue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then he commanded the charet to stand stil: and they went downe bothe into the water, bothe Philippe & the Eunuche, and he baptized him.

39 And assone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philippe, that y Eunuche sawe him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philippe was founde at Azotus, & he walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, til he came to Cesarea.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this mā, how much euil he hath done to thy sanctes at Ierusalem.

15 Then the Lord said vnto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel vnto me, to beare my Name before the Gentiles, & Kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I wil shewe him, how many things he must suffre for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and put his hands on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me (euen Iesus y appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receiue thy sight, and be filled with the holie Gost.

18 And immediatly there fel from his eyes as it had bene scales, & suddenly he receiued sight, and arose, and was baptized, 19 And receiued meat, & was strenghtened. So was Saul certeine dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straight way he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God, 21 So that all that heard him, were amased, and said, Is not this he, that destroyed the which called on this Name in Ierusalem, & came hither for that intent, y he shulde bring them bounde vnto the hie Priests?

22 But Saul encreased the more in strenght, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, confirming, that this was the Christ.

23 And after that many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes toke counsel together, to kill him.

24 But their laying await was knowen of Saul: now they watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples toke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, he assaide to ioyn him self with the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and beleued not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas toke him, and broght him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how he had sene the Lord in the way, & that he had spoken vnto him, & how he had spokē boldly at Damascus in y Name of Iesus.

28 And he was conuersant with them at Ierusalem,

29 And spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Iesus; & spake and disputed with the Greciās; but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knewe it, they broght him to Cesarea, & sent him forthe to Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, and were edified, & walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holie Gost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked through out all quarters, he came also to the sanctes which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he founde a certeine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeres, and was sicke of the palsie.

34 The said Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and make vp thy bed. And he arose immediatly.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron, sawe him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa a certeine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called Dorcas) she was full of good workes & almes which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke and dyed: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an vpper chamber.

38 Now forasmuche as Lydda was nere to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that he wolde not delaye to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose and came with them: and when he was come, they broght him into the vpper chamber, where all the widowes stode by him weping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forthe, and knelled downe, and praid, and turned him to the bodie, and said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she sawe Peter, she vp.

41 Then he gaue her the hand & lift her vp, and called the sanctes & widdowes, and restored her aliuē.

42 And it was knowen throughout all Ioppa, and manie beleued in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that he taryed manie dayes in Ioppa w one Simon a tanner.

4 But when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said vnto him, Thy prayers & thine almes are come vnto remembrance before God.

5 Now therefore send men to Ioppa, & call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his seruants, & a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Ioppa.

9 On the morowe as they went on their iorney, and drew nere vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the sixth houre.

10 Then waxed he an hungred, and wolde haue eatē: but while they made some thing readie, he fel into a trance.

11 And he sawe heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheet, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were all maner of foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted, or vncleane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the seconde time, The things that God hathe purified, pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thrise: and the vessel was drawn vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter douted in his self what this vision which he had sene, meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate, 18 And called, & asked, whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the spirit said vnto him, Beholde, three men seke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, & go with them, and doute nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ Then Peter went downe to five men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, & said, Beholde, I am he whome ye seke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good reporte among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holie Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy wordes.

23 Then called he them in, & lodged them, and the next day, Peter went forthe with them, and certeine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, & had called together his kinsmen, and special friends, 25 And it came to passe as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fel downe at his fete and worshipped him.

26 But Peter toke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my self am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he came in, & founde manie that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye knowe that it is an vnlawful thing for a man that is a Iewe, to companie or come vnto one of another nation: but God hathe shewed me, that I shulde not call anie man polluted, or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying naye, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for me.

30 Then Cornelius said, Foure dayes ago, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I praid in mine house, and beholde, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side) who when he cometh, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediatly, and thou hast wel done to come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceiue, that God is no acceptor of persones.

4 I was in the cite of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I sawe this vision, A certeine vessel coming downe as it had bene a great shete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

5 Toward the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and sawe foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes, and creeping things, & foules of the heauen.

6 Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eat.

7 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hathe at anie time entred into my mouth.

8 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hathe purified, pollute thou not.

27 In thoe dayes also came Prophetes fro Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stode vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit, that there shulde be great famine throughout all the worlde, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, euerie man according to his habilitie, purposed to send succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Iudea.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders, by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAP. XII.

Herode persecuteth the Christians. He killeth Iames, and putteth Peter in prison. Whome the Lord deliuereth by an Angel. The horrible death of Herode. The Gospel flourisheth. Barnabas & Saul returning to Antiochia take Iohn Marke with them.

Now about that time, Herode the King stretched forth his hands to vexee certeine of the Church.

And he killed Iames the brother of Iohn with the sworde.

And when he sawe that it pleased the Iewes, he proceeded further, to take Peter also (then were they daies of vnleauened bread)

And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him to foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passeouer to bring him forth to the people.

So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

And when Herode wolde haue broght him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betwene two souldiers, bounde with two chaines, and the keepers before the dore kept the prison.

And beholde, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fel off from his hands.

And the Angel said vnto him, Girde thy self, and binde on thy sandals. And so he did. Then he said vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and followe me.

So Peter came out and followed him, & knewe not that it was true, which was done by the Angel, but thought he had sene a vision.

Now when they were past the first and the secōde watche, they came vnto the yrd gate, that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by its owne accorde, and they went out, and passed through one strete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

And when Peter was come to him self, he said, Now I know for a truth, that the Lord hathe sent his Angel, and hathe deliuered me out of the hand of Herode, and from all the waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Marie, the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where manie were gathered together and prayed.

And when Peter knocked at the entrie dore, a maide came furthe to hearken, named Rhode.

But when she knew Peters voyce, she opened not the entrie dore for gladnes, but ran in, and tolde how Peter stode before the entrie.

But they said vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then said they, It is his Angel.

But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and sawe him, they were astonied.

And he beckened vnto them with the hand, to holde their peace, and tolde them how the Lord had broght him out of the prison. And he said, Go shewe these things vnto Iames and to the brethren: and he departed and went into another place.

Now as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

And when Herode had sought for him, & founde him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded them to be led to be punished. And he went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

Then Herode intended to make warre against them of Tyrus and Sidon, but they came all with one accorde vnto him, and persuaded Blaustus the Kings chamberlaine, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the Kings land.

And vpon a day appointed, Herode arrayed him self in royal apparel, and sate on the iudgement seat, and made an oration vnto them.

And the people gaue a shout, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.

But immediatly the Angel of the Lord smote him, because he gaue not glorie vnto God, so that he was caten of wormes, and gaue vp the gost.

And the worde of God grewe, and multiplied.

So Barnabas and Saul returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their office, and toke with them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

The vilenes of the punishment declareth how God detesteth pride, and tyrannie: his grande father also was eaten of life. The more that tyrants go about to suppress Gods worde, the more doeth it increase.

This prophesie was an occasion to the Antiochians to relieue the necessity of their brethren in Ierusalem.

To signifye that it came of a charitable minde towards them.

1 THere were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certeine Prophetes and teachers, as Barnabas, & Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, & Manahan (which had bene broght vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

2 Now as they ministred to the Lord, & fasted, the holie Gost said, Separate me Barnabas & Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

3 Then fasted they and praied, and laid their hands on them, and let them go.

4 And they, after they were sent forthe of the holie Gost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And whē they were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also Iohn to their minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they founde a certeine forcerer, a false prophet, being a Iewe, named Bariesus, 7 Which was with Deputy Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. He called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the worde of God.

8 But Elymas, the forcerer (for so is his name by interpretacion) withstode them, & foght to turne away the Deputy fro the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being ful of the holie Gost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O ful of all subtiltie and all mischief, the childe of the deuil, & enemye of all righteousnes, wilt thou not cease to peruert the straight waies of the Lord?

11 Now therefore beholde, the hand of the Lord is vpon thee, & thou shalt be blinde, & not see the sunne for a season. And immediatly there fell on him a miste and a darkenes, and he went about, seking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputy when he sawe what was done, beleued, and was astonied at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him were departed by ship from Paphus, they came to Perga a cite of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antiochia a cite of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

15 And after the lecture of the Law & Prophetes, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye haue anie worde of exhortacion for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stode vp and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of Egypt, & with an high arme broght them out thereof.

18 And about the time of fortie yeres, suffered he their manners in the wildernes.

19 And he destroyed seuen nacions in the land of Chanaan, & deuided their land to them by lot.

20 Then afterwarde he gaue vnto them Iudges about foure hundreth and fiftie yeres, vnto the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a King, and God gaue vnto them Saul, the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of fortie yeres.

22 And after he had take him away, he raised vp Daud to be their King, of whom he witnessed, saying, I haue foude Daud the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which wil do all things that I wil.

23 Of this mans seide hathe God accordig to his promes raised vp to Israel, the Sauiour Iesus:

24 When Iohn had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his course, he said, Whome ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but beholde, the cometh one after me, whose shoe of his fete I am not worthie to lose.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generacion of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God, to you is the worde of this saluacion sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and their rulers, because they knewe him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophetes, which are red euerie Sabbath daye, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they foude no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they toke him downe from the tre, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him vp from the dead.

31 And he was sene manie dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Ierusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you, that touching the promes made vnto the fathers, 33 God hathe fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that he raised vp Iesus, euen as it is written in the seconde Psalme, Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotē thee.

34 Now as concerning that he raised him vp fro the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hathe said thus, I wil giue you

37 But he whome God raised vp, sawe no corruption.

38 Be it known vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you his forgiuenes of sinnes.

39 And from all things, from which ye colde not be iustified by the Law of Moses, by him euerie one that beleueth, is iustified.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophetes, 41 Beholde, ye despisers, & wonder, and vanish away: for I worke a worke in your daies, a worke which ye shal not beleue, if a man wolde declare it you.

42 ¶ And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, that they wolde preache these wordes to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolved, manie of the Iewes, and profelytes that feared God, folowed Paul & Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole cite together, to heare his worde of God.

45 But when the Iewes sawe the people, they were ful of enuie, & spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrarying them, and railing on them.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, and said, It was necessarie that the worde of God shulde first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing ye put it to you, and iudge your selues vnworthie of euerlasting life, lo, we turne to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded vs, saying, I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shuldest be the saluacion vnto the end of the worlde.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lord: and as manie as were ordeined vnto eternal life, beleued.

49 Thus the worde of the Lord was published throughout the whole countrey.

50 But the Iewes stirred vp deuoute & honorable womē, & the chief men of the cite, & raised persecucion against Paul & Barnabas, & expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they shooke of the dust of their fetes against them, and came vnto Iconium, 52 And the disciples were filled with ioye, and with the holie Ghost.

3 God giueth successe to his worde. 6 Paul and Barnabas preache at Iconium and are persecuted. 13 At Lystra thes wolde do sacrifice to Barnabas & Paul, which refuse it, & exhorte the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned 23 They confirme the disciples in faith and patience, 23 Appointe ministers, 26 And passing through manie places, make reporte of their diligence at Antiochia.

1 And it came to passe in Iconiu, that they went bothe together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and so spake, that a great multitude bothe of the Iewes and of the Grecians beleued.

2 But the vnbeleuing Iewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lord, which gaue testimonie vnto the worde of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the people of the cite were diuided: and some were with the Iewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made bothe of the Gentiles, and of the Iewes with their rulers, to do them violence, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, & vnto the region rounde about,

7 And there were preaching the Gospel.

8 ¶ Now there sate a certeine man at Lystra, impotent in his fete, which was a creature from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed, 10 Said with a loude voyce, Stand vp right on thy fete. And he leaped vp, & walked.

11 Then when the people sawe what Paul had done, they lift vp their voyces, saying in the speache of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenes of men.

12 And thei called Barnabas, Iupiter, & Paul, Mercurius, because he was chief speaker.

13 Then Iupiters priest, which was before their cite, brought bulles with garlandes vnto the gates, & wolde haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul heard it, they rent their clothes, & ran in among the people, crying, 15 And saying, O men, why do ye these things? We are euen men subiect to the like passions that ye be, and preache vnto you, that ye shulde turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, which made heauen and earth, and the sea, & all things that in them are.

16 Who in times past suffered all the Gentiles to walke in their owne waies.

CHAP. XV.

1 Variance about circumcision. 22 The Apostles send their determination to the Churches. 31 Paul and Barnabas preache at Antiochia, 39 And separate company because of Iohn Marke.

Then came downe * certeine from Iu-dea, and taught the brethren, saying,
* Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye can not be saued.

2 And when there was great dissention, and disputation by Paul & Barnabas agaiⁿ st them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certeine other of them, shulde go vp to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles & Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forthe by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioye vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But said they, certeine of the secte of the Pharises, which did beleue, rose vp, saying, that it was needefull to circumsise the,
and to commande them to kepe the Law of Moses.

6 Then the Apostles & Elders came together to loke to this matter.

7 And when there had bene great disputa-tion, Peter rose vp, & said vnto them, * Ye me & brethre, ye knowe that a good while ago, among vs God chose out me, that the Gentiles by my mouth shulde heare the worde of the Gospel, and beleue.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnes, in giuing vnto them the holie Gest, euen as he did vnto vs.

9 And he put no * difference betwene vs & them, after that by faith he * had * purified their hearts.

10 Now therefore, why * tempt ye God, to * lay a yoke on y disciples neckes, which neither our fathers, nor we were able to beare?

11 But we beleue, through the * grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to be saued, euen as they do.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas & Paul, which tolde what signes and wondres God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they helde their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men & brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 * Simeon hath declared, how God first did visite the Gētiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agre the wordes of the Prophetes, as it is written,

16 * After this I wil returne, and wil buylde again the * tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof wil I buylde againe, and I wil set it vp,

17 That the residue of men might seke after the Lord, and all the * Gentiles vpon whome my Name is called, saith y Lord which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the worlde God knoweth all his workes.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God,

20 But that we write vnto them, that they absteine them selues fro * filthines of idoles, and * fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood||.

21 For * Moses of olde time hath in euerie will take of them a people. Therefore the ceremonies

28 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, & after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the epistle.

29 And when they had red it, they reioyced for the consolation.

30 And Iudas and Silas being Prophetes, exhorted the brethre with manie wordes, and strengthened them.

31 And after they had taried there a space, they were let go in^e peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

32 Notwithstanding^e Silas thought good to abide there stil.

33 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with manie other the worde of the Lord.

34 ¶ But after certeine dayes, Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne, & visite our brethren in euerie citie, where we haue preached y^e worde of y^e Lord, & se how thei do.

35 And Barnabas counseled to take with them Iohn, called Marke.

36 But Paul thought it not mete to take him vnto their companie, which departed fro them from Pamphilia, and went not with them to the worke.

37 Then were they so stirred that they departed a sunder one from the other, so that Barnabas toke Marke, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

38 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

39 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

16 And it came to passe that as we went to prayer, a certeine maide hauing * a spirit of diuination, met vs, which gate her masters muche vantage with diuining.

17 She followed Paul and vs, and cried, saying, These men are the seruants of the moste high God, which shewe vnto vs the way of saluation.

18 And this did she manie dayes: but Paul being griued, ¹ turned about, and said to the spirit, I commande thee in the Name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 Now whē her masters sawe that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul & Silas, and diue the into the market place vnto the magistrates,

20 And broght them to the gouernours, saying, These mē which are Iewes, trouble our citie, 21 And picache ordinances, which are not lawful for vs to receiue, nether to obserue, seing we are Romaines.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, and the gouernours rent ^m their clothes, and * commanded them to be beaten with roddes.

23 And when they had beatē them sore, they cast them into prison, cōmanding the iayler to kepe them surely.

24 Who hauing receiued suche commandement, cast them into the inner prison, & made their fete fast in the stockes.

25 Now at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, & sang a psalme vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddēly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: & by and by all the doores opened, and euerie mans bandes were lofed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his slepe, and when he sawe the prison doores open, he drewe out his sworde and wolde haue killed him self, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cryed w^a a loude voyce, saying, Do thy self no harme: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light and leaped in and came trembling, and fel downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And broght thē out, and said, Syrs, what must I do to be sauēd?

31 And they said, Beleue in the Lord Iesus Christ, & y^e shalt be sauēd, and thine household.

32 And they preached vnto him the worde of y^e Lord, & to all that were in his house.

33 Afterwarde he toke thē the same houre of the night, & washed their stripes, and was baptized with all that belonged vnto him, straight way.

34 And when he had broght them into his house, he ^m set meat before them, and reioyced that he with all his household beleued in God.

35 And when it was day, the gouernours sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 Then the keeper of the prison tolde these wordes vnto Paul, saying, The gouernours haue sent to lose you: now therefore get you hence, and go in peace.

37 Then said Paul vnto them, After that they haue beaten vs openly vncōdemned, which are ^a Romaines, they haue cast vs into prison, & now wolde they put vs out priuely: nay verely: but let them come & bring vs out.

38 And the sergeants tolde these wordes vnto the gouernours, who ^a feared when they heard that they were Romaines.

39 Then came they and prayed them, and broght them out, and desired them to departe out of the citie.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia: and when they had sene the breth^rē, they comforted them, and departed.

1 Paul cometh to Thessalonica. 4 Where some receiue him, and others persecute him. 11 To searche the Scriptures. 17 He disputeth at Athens, and the frute of his doctrine.

1 NOW as they passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, & thre Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening, and alledging that Christ must haue suffred, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whome, said he, I preache to you.

4 And some of them beleued, & ioyned in companie with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God a great multitude, & of the chief women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleued not, moued with enuie, toke vnto them certeine vagabondes & wicked felowes, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumulte in the citie, & made assaut against the house of Iason, & soght to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they founde them not, they drewe Iason & certeine brethren vnto the heades of the citie, crying, These are they 7 Whome Iason hath received, and these all do against the decrees of Cesar, saying that there is another King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heads of the cite, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had received sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul & Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which received the worde with all readines, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore manie of them beleued, & of honeste women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knewe, that the worde of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and moued the people.

14 But by & by brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that did conduit Paul, broght him vnto Athenes: and when they had received a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they shulde come to him at once, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athenes, his spirit was stirred in him, when he sawe the cite subject to idolatrie.

17 Therefore he disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market daily with whome soeuer he met.

18 Then certein philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoickes, disputed with him, and some said, What wil this babler say? Others said, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (because he preached vnto them Iesus, & the resurrectio.)

19 And they toke him, and broght him into Mars strete, saying, May we not knowe, what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certein strange things vnto our eares: we wolde knowe therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians, and strangers which dwelt there, gaue them selues to nothing els, but ether to tel, or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stode in the middes of Mars strete, & said, Ye me of Athenes, I perceiue that in all things ye are to superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, & behelde your deuotions, I founde an altar wherein was written, VNTO THE VNKNOVEN GOD. Whome ye then ignorantly worshipp, him shewe I vnto you.

25 Nether is worshipped with mens hands, as thogh he needed any thing, seing he giueth to all life and breath and all things,

26 And hath made of one blood all mankinde, to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath assigned the times which were ordeined before, and the boundes of their habitation,

27 That they shulde seke the Lord, if so be they might haue groped after him, and founde him, thogh douteles he be not farre from euerie one of vs.

29 For asmuche then, as we are the generation of God, we ought not to thinke that the Godhead is like vnto gold, or silver, or stone grauen by arte and the inuention of man.

30 And the time of this ignorace God regarded not: but now he admonisheth all men euerie where to repent, 31 Because he hath appointed a day in which he wil iudge the worlde in righteousness, by that man whome he hath appointed, whereof he hath giuen an assurance to all me, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 Now when they heard of the resurrectio from the dead, some mocked, & other said, We wil heare thee againe of this thing.

33 And so Paul departed from among them, abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make tentes.) And he disputed in the Synagogue euerie Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes, & the Grecians. Now when Silas & Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul burned in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ. And when they resisted and blasphemed, he shooke his raiment, & said vnto them, Your blood be vpon your owne head: I am cleane: fro hence forth wil I go vnto the Gentiles. So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Iustus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue, And Crispus the chief ruler of the Synagogue, beleued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleued & were baptized. Then said the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, & holde not thy peace. For I am with thee, and no man shall lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I haue muche people in this citie. So he continued there a yere and six monthes, and taught the worde of God among them. Now when Gallio was Deputie of Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accorde against Paul, and broght him to the iudgement seat, Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the Law. And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euil dede, O ye Iewes, I wolde according to reason mainteine you. But if it be a question of wordes, and names, and of your Law, loke ye to it your selues: for I wil be no iudge of those things. And he draue them from the iudgement seat. Then toke all the Grecians Sosthenes the chief ruler of the Synagogue, and bet him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things. But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he toke leaue of the brethren, and sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that he had shorne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a uowe. Then he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he entred into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes. Who desired him to tary a longer time with them; but he wolde not consent,

But bade them fare wel, saying, I must needs kepe this feast that commeth, in Ierusalem: but I wil returne againe vnto you, if God wil. So he sailed from Ephesus. And when he came downe to Cesarea, he went vp to Ierusalem: & when he had saluted the Church, he wet downe vnto Antiochia. Now when he had taried there a while, he departed, and went through the countrey of Galacia & Phrygia by order, strengthening all the disciples. And a certaine Iewe named Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus, an eloquent man, & mightie in the Scriptures. The same was instructed in the way of the Lord, & he spake feruently in the Spirit, and taught diligently the things of the Lord, & knewe but the baptisme of Iohn onely. And he began to speake boldly in the Synagogue. Whome when Aquila & Priscilla had heard, they toke him vnto them, and expounded vnto him the way of God more perfectly. And when he was minded to go into Achaia, the brethren exhorting him, wrote to the disciples to receaue him: and after he was come thither, he holpe the muche which had beleued through grace. For mightely he confuted publicly the Iewes with great vehemencie, shewing by the Scriptures, that Iesus was the Christ.

And it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed through the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and founde certaine disciples, And said vnto the, Haue ye receued the holie Ghost sence ye beleued? And they said vnto him, We haue not so muche as heard whether there be an holie Ghost. And he said vnto them, Vnto what were ye then baptized? And they said, Vnto Iohns baptisme. Then said Paul, Iohn verely baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they shulde beleue in him, which shulde come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus. So when they heard it, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus. And Paul laid his hands vpon them, and the holie Goff came on them, & they spake the tongues, and prophecied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreouer he went into the Synagogue, & spake boldly for the space of thre moneths, disputing & exhorting to the things that apperteine to the kingdome of God.

13 Then certeine of the vagabonde Iewes, exorcistes, toke in hand to name ouer the which had euil spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We adiure you by Iesus, whome Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certeine sonnes of Sceua a Iewe, the Priest, about seuen which did this)

15 And the euil spirit answered, and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I knowe: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whome y euil spirit was, ran on them, & ouercame them, & preuailed against them, so that they fled out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes & Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, & feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleued, came and cofessed, and shewed their workes.

g That is, declared by confessio of their finnes and by their good workes y they were faithful.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious artes, brought their bokes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, & founde it fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the worde of God grewe mightely, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed by the Spirit to passe through Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue bene there, I must also se Rome.

i By the mention of the holie Goff, he vnderstode this iorney.

22 So sent he into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

k That is, about the state of the Christians: for they concerned the Christians because they left the olde religion, & brought in another trade of doctrine.

23 And the same time there arose no smale trouble about that way.

24 For a certeine man named Demetrius a siluer smith, which made siluer temples of Diana, broght great gainer vnto the craftes men:

25 Whome he called together, with the workemen of like things, and said, Sirs, ye knowe that by this crafte we haue our goods.

26 Moreouer ye se and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almoste through out all Asia this Paul hath persuaded, & turned away muche people, saying, That they be not gods which are made with hands, 27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, that the state shulde be reproued, but also that the temple of the great goddesse Diana shulde be nothing esteemed, and that it wolde come to passe that her magnificence, which all Asia and the worlde worshippeth, shulde be destroyed.

28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole citie was full of cofusion, and they rushed into the commune place with one assent, and caught Gaius, and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, & Pauls companions of his iourney.

30 And whē Paul wolde haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffred him not.

31 Certeine also of the chief of Asia which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that he wolde not present him self in the commune place.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assemblie was out of order, and the more parte knewe not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the companie drew forthe Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forwardes. Alexander then beckened with the hand, and wolde haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Iewe, there arose a shoute almoste for the space of two houres, of all men crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 Then the towne clarke when he had stayed the people, said, Ye me of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not how that the citie of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image, which came downe from Iupiter?

36 Seing then that no man can speake against these things, ye ought to be appeased, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye haue brought hither these men, which haue nether commit sacrilege, neither do blaspheme your goddesse.

CHAP. XX.

Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia. 7 He celebrateth the Lords supper and preacheth. 9 At Troas he raseth vp Eutyphus 17 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

1 Now after the tumulte was ceased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those parties, and had exhorted them with manie wordes, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing taried there thre moneths, because the Iewes laid waite for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, & Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, & of them of Asia Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These wet before, & taried vs at Troas.

6 And we sailed forthe from a Phlippis, after the daies of vnleauened bread, & came vnto them to Troas in fise daies, where we abode seuen daies.

7 And the first day of the weke, the disciples being come together to breake bread, Paul preached vnto the, readie to departe on the morowe, and continued the preaching vnto midnight.

8 And there were manie lightes in an vpper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a windowe a certeine yong man, named Eutyphus, fallen into a depe slepe: & as Paul was log preaching, he ouercome with slepe, fell downe from the third lofte, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went downe, and laid him self vpon him, & embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, & eaten, he commoned a long while til the dawning of the daye, and so he departed.

12 And they broght the boie aliue, and they were not a litle comforted.

13 ¶ Then we went for the to ship, & sailed vnto the cite d Assos, that we might receiue Paul there: for so had he appointed, and wolde him self go a fote.

14 Now when he was come vnto vs to Assos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next daye we arriued at Samos, and taried at Trogyllium: the next daye we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because he wolde not spend the time in Asia: for he hatted to be, if he colde possible, at Ierusalem, at the day of Pentecoste.

17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, & called the Elders of the Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he said vnto them, Ye knowe fro the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

19 Seruing the Lord with all modestie, and with manie teares, and tentacions, which came vnto me by the layings awaite of the Iewes,

20 And how I kept s backe nothing that was profitable, but haue shewed you, and taught you openly, & through out euerie house, 21 Witnesing bothe to the Iewes, & to the Grecians the repentance towarde God, & faith towarde our Lord Iesus Christ.

22 And now beholde, I go bounde in the spuit vnto Ierusalem, and knowe not what things shal come vnto me there, 23 Saue that the holie Gost witnesseth in euerie cite, saying, that bandes and afflictions abide me.

24 But I passe not at all, nether is my life deare vnto my self, so that I may fulfil my course with ioye, and the ministracion which I haue receiued of the Lord Iesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now beholde, I knowe that hence forth the ye all, through whome I haue gone preaching the kingdome of God, shal se my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to recorde this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you all the counsel of God.

28 Take heed therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, whereof the holie Gost hathe made you Ouerseers, to fede the Church of God, which he hathe purchased with his owne blood.

29 For I knowe this, that after my departig shal gieuous wolues entre in among you, not sparing the flocke.

30 Moreouer of your owne selues shal arise speaking peruerse things, to drawe disciples after them.

5 The commune prayers of the faithfull & Philippes foure daughters prophetes 23 Pauls constancie to beare the croffe, as Agabus & others forespake, althogh he was otherwise counseled by the brethren. 28 The great danger that he was in, and how he escaped.

1 And as we lauched forth, and were departed from them, we came with a straight course vnto Coos, and the daye following vnto the Rhodes, & from thence vnto Patara.

2 And we founde a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboarde, & set for-the.

3 And when we had discouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed towarde Syria, and arriued at Tyrus: for there the ship vnladed the burden.

4 And when we had founde disciples, we taryed there seuen dayes. And they tolde Paul through the Spirit, that he shulde not go vp to Ierusalem.

5 But whē the daies were ended, we departed, and went our way, and thei all accompanied vs with their wiues and children, euen out of the citie: & we kneeling downe on the shore, prayed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, we toke ship, & thei returned home.

7 And when we had ended the course from Tyrus, we arriued at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one daye.

8 And the next day, Paul & thei that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cesa-rea: and we entred into the house of Philippe the Euangelist, which was one of the seuen Deacons, and abode with him.

Now he had foure daughters virgines, which did prophecie.

10 And as we taryed there manie dayes, there came a certeine Prophet fro Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, he toke Pauls girdle, and bounde his owne hands and fete, and said, Thus saith the holie Gost, So shal the Iewes at Ierusalē binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shal deliuer him into the hands of Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, bothe we and other of the same place besoght him that he wolde not go vp to Ie-rusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What do ye weping and breaking mine heart? For I am readie not to be bounde onely, but also to dye at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.

14 So when he wolde not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The wil of the Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes we trusted vp our fardeles, and went vp to Ierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certeine of the disciples of Cefarea, & broght with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whome we shulde lodge.

17 And when we were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next daye Paul went in with vs vnto James: and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, he tolde by ordre all things, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministracion.

20 So when thei heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said vnto him, Thou seeest, brother, how manie thousand Iewes there are which beleue, and they are all zealous of the Law.

21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teacheest all the Iewes, which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and saist, that they ought not to circuncise their children, nether to liue after the scultoimes.

22 What is then to be done, the multitude must nedes come together: for they shal heare that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we saye to thee.
We haue foure men, which haue made a vowe.

24 Them take, & purifie thy self with the,
and contribute with them, that they maye shauē their heades: and all that knowe, that those things, whereof they haue bene informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy self also waikest and ke-peest the Law.

7 So I fel vnto the earth, and heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Iesus of Nazaret, whome thou persecutest.

9 Moreouer they that were with me, sawe in dede a light and were afraid: but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shal I do, Lord? And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and go into Damascus: and there it shalbe tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to do.

11 So when I colde not se for the glorie of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with me, and came into Damascus.

16 Now therefore why tarieſt thou? Arise, and be baptized, and waſhe away thy finnes, in calling on the Name of the Lord.

17 ¶ And it came to paſſe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a traunce, 18 And ſawe him ſaying vnto me, Make haſte, & get thee quickly out of Ierusalem: for they wil not receiue thy witnes cōcerning me.

19 Then I ſaid, Lord, they knowe y I* priſoned, and bet in euerie Synagogue them that beleued in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Steuen was ſhed, I alſo *ſtoode by, and conſented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that ſlewe him.

21 Thē he ſaid vnto me, Depart: for I wil ſend thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 ¶ And they heard vnto this worde, but thē they liſt vp their voyces, and ſaid, Away with ſuche a felowe from the earth: for it is not mete that he ſhulde liue.

23 And as they cryed and caſt of their clothes, and threwe duſt into the aire, 24 The chief captaine commanded him to be led into the caſtle, & bade that he ſhulde be ſcourged, and examined, that he might knowe wherefore they cryed ſo on him.

25 And as they bounde him with thongs, Paul ſaid vnto the Cēturion that ſtoode by, Is it lawful for you to ſcourge one that is a Romaine, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went, and tolde the chief captaine, ſaying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Romaine.

27 Then the chief captaine came, and ſaid to him, Tell me, art thou a Romaine? And he ſaid, Yea.

28 And the chief captaine answered, With a great ſummē obteined I this burgeſſhip. Then Paul ſaid, But I was ſo borne.

29 Then ſtraight way they departed from him, which ſhulde hāve examined him: & the chief captaine alſo was afraid, after he knewe that he was a Romaine, and that he had bounde him.

30 On the next day, becauſe he wolde haue knowne the certēnetie wherefore he was accused of thē Iewes, he loſed him from his bondes, & commanded the hie Priests and all their Council to come together: and he brought Paul, and ſet him before them.

And Paul behelde carneſtly y Council, and ſaid, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conſcience ſerued God vntil this day.

3 Then the hie Priest Ananias commanded thē that ſtoode by, to ſmite him on the mouth.

3 Then ſaid Paul to him, God wil ſmite thee, thou whited wall: for thou fitteſt to iudge me according to the Law, and commandeſt thou me to be ſmiten contrary to the Law?

4 And thei that ſtoode by, ſaid, Reuileſt thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then ſaid Paul, I b knewe not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, *Thou ſhalt not ſpeake euil of y Ruler of thy people.

6 But whē Paul perceiued that the one parte were of the Sadduces, and the other of y Pharifeſ, he cried in the Council, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharife, the ſonne of a Pharife: I am accused of the hope and reſurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had ſaid this, there was a diſſenſion betwene the Pharifeſ and the Sadduces, ſo that the multitude was deuided.

8 *For the Sadduces ſay that there is no reſurrection, nether Angel, nor ſpirit: but y Pharifeſ confeſſe d bothe.

9 Then there was a great crye: & the Scribes of the Pharifeſ parte roſe vp, and ſtrove, ſaying, We finde none euil in this mā: but if a ſpirit or an Angel haſe ſpoken to him, let vs not fight againſt God.

10 And when there was a great diſſenſion, the chief captaine, fearing leſt Paul ſhulde haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commanded the ſouldiers to go downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the caſtel.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lord ſtoode by him, & ſaid, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou haſt testified of me in Ierusalem, ſo muſt thou beare witnes alſo at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certēine of the Iewes made an aſſemblic, and bounde them ſelues with an othe, ſaying, that thei wolde nether eat nor drinke, til they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fourtie, which had made this conſpiracie.

14 And they came to the chief Priests and Elders, and ſaid, We haue bounde our ſelues with a ſolēne othe, that we wil eat nothing, vntil we haue ſlaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye and the Council ſignifie to the chief captaine, that he bring him forthe vnto you to morow, as though ye wolde knowe ſome thing moie perſtely of him, and we, or euer he come nere, wil be readie to kil him.

16 But when Pauls sisters f sonne heard of 17 And Paul called one of y Cēturions vnto him, & said, Bring this yong man vnto

the chief captaine: for he hathe a certeine

18 So he toke him, and broght him to the chief captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong mā vnto thee, which hathe some thing to say vnto thee.
19 Then the chief captaine toke him by the hand, and went aparte with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shewe me?
20 And he said, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou woldest bring for-the Paul to morow into the Council, as though they wolde inquire somewhat of him more perfirely.
21 But let them not persuaide thee: for there lie in waite for him of them, more then fourtie men, which haue bounde them selues with an othe, that they wil nether eat nor drinke, til they haue killed him:
and now are they readie, and wait for thy promes.
22 The chief captaine then let the yong man departe, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.
23 And he called vnto him two certeine Centurions, saying, Make readie two hundredth souldiers, that they may go to Cesa-rea, and horsmen thre score and ten, and two hundredth, with dartes at the thirde houre of the night.

shulde haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, and rescued him, h perceiuing that he was a Romaine.
28 And when I wolde haue knowen the cause, wherefore they accused him, I broght him forthe into their council.
29 There I perceiued that he was accused of questions of their Law, but had no crime worthie of death, or of bondes.
30 And whē it was shewed me, how that the Iewes laid wait for the man, I sent him straight way to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Fare wel.
31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, toke Paul, and broght him by night to Antipatris.
32 And the next day, they left the horsmen to go with him, and returned vnto the castell.

33 Now when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the epistle to the Gouvernour, & presented Paul also vnto him.
34 So when the Gouvernour had red it, he asked of what prouince he was: and whē

the Synagogues, nor in the citie.
13 Nether can they proue the things, whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call heresie) so worship I the God of my fathers, beleuing all things which are written in the Law & the Prophetes,

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they them selues loke for also, shalbe bothe of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I endeouour my self to haue alway a cleare conscience towarde God, & towarde men.

17 Now after many yeres, I came and broght almost to my nacion & offrings.

18 At what time, certeine Iewes of Asia founde me purified in the Temple, 19 Nether with multitude, nor with tumult. Who ought to haue bene present before thee, and accuse me, if they had oght against me.

20 Or let these them selues say, if they haue founde any vniust thing in me, while I stode in the Council, 21 Except it be for this one voyce; that I cryed standing among them, Of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.

22 Now when Felix heard these things, he differred them, & said, When I shal more perfectly knowe the things which concerne this way, by the coming of Lyfias y chief Captaine, I wil decide your matter.

23 Then he comanded a Centurion to kepe Paul, and that he shulde haue ease, and that he shulde forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

24 And after certeine dayes, came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a Iewesse, & he called for the Paul, & heard him of the faith in Christ.

25 And as he disputed of righteousness, and temperance, & of the iudgement to come, Felix trembled, & answered, Go thy way for this time, and when I haue conuenient time, I wil call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money shulde haue bene giuen him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 When two yeres were expired, Porcius Festus came into Felix rourne: and Felix willing to get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bounde.

CHAP. XXV.

2 The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus. 3 He answereth for himself. 11 And appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa. 23 And he is brought forth.

1 W H E N Festus was then come into the prouince, after thre dayes he went vp from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chief of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And desired fauour against him, that he wolde send for him to Ierusalem: and they laid wait to kil him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul shulde be kept at Cesarea, & y he him self wolde shortly departe thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there be anie wickednes in the man, let them accuse him.

6 ¶ Now when he had taried among the no more then ten dayes, he went downe to Cesarea, and the next daye saie in the iudgement seat, & comanded Paul to be broght.

7 And when he was come, the Iewes which were come from Ierusalem, stode about him and laid manie and grieuous complaints against Paul, which they colde not proue, Forasmuche as he answered, that he had nether offended anie thing against y Law of the Iewes, nether against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

8 Yet Festus willing to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go vp to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

9 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars iudgement seat, where I ought to be iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou verie wel knowest.

10 For if I haue done wrong, or committed anie thing worthie of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things, whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

11 Then when Festus had spoken with the Council, he answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar vnto Cesar shalt thou go.

12 And after certeine dayes, King Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

13 And when they had remained there manie dayes, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certeine man left in prison by Felix.

14 Of whome when I came to Ierusalem, the high Priests & Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

15 To whome I answered, that it is not the maner of the Romaines for fauour to deliuer anie man to the death before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend him self, concerning the crime.

16 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following I saie on the 7 Whereunto our twelue tribes inſtantly ſeruing God day and night, hope to come: for y^e which hopes ſake, o King Agrippa, I am accuſed of the Iewes.

8 Why ſhulde it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God ſhulde raiſe againe the dead?

9 I alſo verely thought in my ſelf, that I ought to do manie contrarie things againſt the Name of Ieſus of Nazaret.

10 *Which thing I alſo did in Ieruſalem: Chap. 8. 24 for manie of the Sainctes I ſhut vp in priſon, hauing receiued autoritie of the high Priests, and when they were put to death, I ^c gaue my ſentence.

^c That is I approved their cruelty which they vied againſt him.

11 And I puniſhed the throughout all y^e Synagogues, and cōpelled them to blaſpheme, and being more mad againſt them, I perſecuted them, euen vnto ſtrange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to * Damafcus with autoritie, & cōmiſſion from the high Priests, Chap. 9. 3.

13 At midday, o King, I ſawe in the way a light from heauen, paſſing the brightnes of the ſunne, ſhine rounde about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice ſpeaking vnto me, and ſaying in the Hebrew tongue, *Saul, Saul, why perſecuteſt thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke againſt prickes. Chap. 9. 4. & 22. 7.

15 Then I ſaid, Who art thou, Lord? And he ſaid, I am Ieſus whome thou perſecuteſt.

16 But riſe and ſtand vp on thy ſere: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpoſe, to appoint thee a miniſter and a witnes, bothe of the things which thou haſt ſene, & of the things in the which I wil appeare vnto thee,

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not diſobedient vnto the heauenlie viſion, 20 * But ſhewed firſt vnto them of Damafcus, and at Ieruſalem, and throughout all the coaſtes of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they ſhulde repent, and turne to God, and do workes worthie amendemēt of life. Chap. 13. 14.

21 For this cauſe the Iewes caught me in the Temple, and went about to kil me.

Chap. 21. 30.

21 Neuertheles, I obtained helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessng bothe to smal & to great, sayng none other things, then those which the Prophetes & Moses did say shulde come,

22 To wit, that Christ shulde suffer, and that he shulde be the first that shulde rise from the dead, and shulde shewe light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

23 And as he thus answered for himself, Festus said with a loude voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy self: muche learning doeth make thee mad.

24 But he said, I am not mad, o noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of trueth and sobernes.

25 For the King knoweth of these things, before whome also I speake boldly: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

26 O King Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophetes? I know that thou beleuest.

27 Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to become a Christiā.

28 The Paul said, I wolde to God that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to daye, were bothe almost, & altogether such as I am, except these bondes.

29 And when he had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that fate with them.

30 And when they were gone aparte, they talked berwene them selues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthie of death, nor of bondes.

31 Then said Agrippa vnto Festus, This mā might haue bene losed, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous viage and his companie towards Roma. 44 How, and where they arriue.

Now when it was concluded, that we shulde saile into Italie, they deliuered bothe Paul, & certeine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Iulius, of the bande of Augustus.

2 And we entred into a ship of Adramyttium purposing to saile by the costes of Asia, and launched forthe, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, & vs.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: & Iulius courteously entreated Paul, & gaue him libertie to go vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, and sailed harde by Cyprus, because the windes were contrarie.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion founde a ship of Alexandria, sailing into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly manie dayes, and scarce were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sailed harde by Candie, nere to Salomone,

8 And with muche a do sailed beyonde it, and came vnto a certeine place called the Faire hauens, nere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when muche time was spent, and sailing was now ieopardous, because also the fast was now passed, Paul exhorted the,

10 And said vnto them, Syrs, I se that this viage wil be with hurt & muche damage, not of the lading & shippe onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheles the Centurion beleued rather the gouernour & the master of the ship, the those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, manie toke counsel to departe thence, if by anie meanes they might atteine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lieth towards the South west and by West, and North west and by West.

13 And when the southern winde blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, losed nerer, and sailed by Candie.

14 But anone after, there arose by it a stormie winde called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, & colde not resist the winde, we let her go, & were caryed away.

16 And we ran vnder a litle yle named Clauda, and had muche a do to get the boat.

17 Which they toke vp and vsed all helpe, vndergirding the ship, fearing lest they shulde haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the vessel, and so were caryed.

18 The next day when we were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the shippe.

19 And the third day we cast out with our owne hands the takling of the ship.

20 And when nether sunne nor starres in manie dayes appeared, and no smal tēpest lay vpon vs, all hope that we shulde be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stode forthe in the middes of the, and said, Syrs, ye shulde haue hearkened to me, and not haue losed from Candie: so shulde ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhorte you to be of godd courage: for there shalbe no losse of anie mans life among you, saue of the shippe onely.

23 For there stode by me this night the Angel of Gods, whose I am, & whome I serue,

24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and lo, God hath giuen

 25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good courage: for I beleue God, that it shalbe so as it hath bene tolde me.
 26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certeine yland.
 27 And when the fourtenth night was come, as we were caryed to & fro in the ^k Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen demed that some countrey approached vnto them, 28 And founded, and founde it twentie fathoms: & when they had gone a litle further, they sounded againe, and founde fiftene fathoms.
 29 Then fearing lest they shulde haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ancores out of the sterne, & wished that the day were come.
 30 Now as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, & had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as thogh they wolde haue cast ancores out of the foreship, 31 Paul said vnto the Centurion and the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ^l ye can not be safe.
 32 Then the souldiers cut of the ropes of the boat, and let it fall away.
 33 And when it began to be daye, Paul exhorted them all to take meat, saying, This is the fourtenth daye that ye haue taryed, and continued ^m fasting, receiuing nothing.
 34 Wherefore I exhorte you to take meat: for this is for your sauegarde: for there shal not ⁿ an heere fall from the head of anie of you.
 35 And when he had thus spoken, he toke bread, and gaue thanks to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eat.
 36 Then were they all of good courage, & they also toke meat.
 37 Now we were in the ship in all two hundred, thre score and sixtene soules.
 38 And when they had eaten ynough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.
 39 And when it was daye, they knewe not the countrey, but they spyed a certeine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.
 40 So when they had taken vp the ancores, they committed the ship vnto the sea, and losed the rudder bondes, and hoyed vp the maine saile to the winde, & drew to the shore.
 41 And when they fell into a place, where two seas met, they thrust in the ship: and the fore parte stucke fast, and colde not be moued, but the hinder parte was broked with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsel was ^o to kill the prisoners, lest anie of them, when he had swome out, shulde flee away.
 43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, staid them from this counsel, and commanded that they that colde swimme, shulde cast them selues first into the sea, and go out to land:
 44 And the other, some on boardes, & some on certeine pieces of the ship: and so it came to passe, y^e they came all safe to land.

 2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no litle kindenes: for they kindled a fyre, and receiued vs euerie one, because of the present showre, and because of the colde.

^a Now called Malta.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of sticke, and laid them on the fyre, there came a viper out of the heat, and leapt on his hand.

^d Beholde the extremite of the foolishnes, & how muche they are bent to superstition: so, after one rage & error they fell into another.

7 In the same quarters, the chief man of the yle (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, and lodged vs thre daies courteously.

8 And so it was, that the father of Publius lay sicke of the feuer, & of a bloodie fluxe: to whome Paul entred in, & when he prayed, he laid ^e his hands on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the yle, which had diseases, came to him and were healed,

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when we departed, they laded vs wth things necessarie.

- 14 Where we founde brethren, and were desired to tarie with them seuen dayes, & so we went towarde Rome.
- 15 ¶ And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to mete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the Theatre uernes, whome when Paul sawe, he thanked God, and waxed bolde.
- 16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the general Captaine: but Paul was suffered to dwel by him self with a souldier that kept him.
- 17 And the third day after, Paul called the chief of the Iewes together: & when they were come, he said vnto them, Men brethren, though I haue committed nothing agaiſt the people, or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the hands of the Romaines.
- 18 Who when they had examined me, wolde haue let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.
- 19 But when the Iewes spake contrarie, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.
- 20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see you, and to speake with you: for the hope of Israels sake, I am bounde with this chaine.
- 21 Then they said vnto him, We nether receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, nether came anie of the brethren that shewed or spake anie euil of thee.
- 22 But we wil heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this secte, we knowe that euerie where it is spoken agaiſt.

- 23 And when they had appointed him a daye, there came manie vnto him into his lodging, to whome he expounded and testified the kingdome of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus bothe out of the Law of Moses and out of the Prophetes, from morning to night.

24 And some were persuaded with the things, which were spoken, and some beleued not.

25 Therefore when they agreed not among them selues, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one worde, to wit, Wel spake y holie Ghost by Esaias the Prophet vnto our fathers, 26 Saying, * Go vnto this people, and say, By hearing ye shal heare, and shal not vnderstand, and seing ye shal see, and not perceiue.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed fat, and their eares are dull of hearing, and with their eyes haue they winked, lest they shulde see with their eyes, & heare with their eares, & vnderstand with their hearts, and shulde returne that I might heale them.

28 Be it knowne therefore vnto you, that this saluacion of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they shal heare it.

29 And when he had said these things, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among them selues.

30 And Paul remained two yeres full in an house hired for him self, and receiued all that came in vnto him, 31 Preaching the kingdome of God, & teaching those things, which concerne the Lord Iesus Christ, with all boldenes of speache, without let.

THE EPISTLE OF the Apostle Paul to the Romaines.

THE ARGUMENT.

The great mercie of God is declared towarde man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousness is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption colde not fulfil the Law, yea, committed moste abominably, bothe against the Law of God and nature, the infinite bountie of Gods, mindeful of his promes made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleuers, ordeined that mans saluation shulde onely stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not onely the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles shulde be saued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iuste onely through faith, and yet afterwarde receiued circumcision, as a seale or badge of the same righteousness by faith. And to the intent, that none shulde thinke that the covenant which God made to him, and his posteritie, was not performed: ether because the Iewes receiued not Christ (which was the blessed sede) or els beleued not that he was the true redemer, because he did not onely, or at least more notably preserve the Iewes, the exam- ples of Ismael and Esau declare, that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham ac- cording to the flesh: but also the verie strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heres of the promes. The cause whereof is the onelie wil of God: forasmuche as of his fre mercie he electeth some to be saued, and of his iuste iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testi- monies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes shulde not be to muche beaten downe, nor the Gentiles to muche puff'd vp, the example of Elias proueth, that God hathe yet his elect euen of the natural posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it procedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length wil stretch towarde the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them bothe. This grounde wor- ke of faith and doctrine layed, instructions of Christian maners followe: teaching euery man to wal- ke in roundenes of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenes, reuerencing, and obeying the magistrate, exercising charitie, putting of the olde man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christs example. Finally S. Paul after his commendacions to the brethren exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

to preache the Gospel to you also, that are at Rome.

16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God vnto saluatiō to euerie one that beleueth, to the Iewe first, and also to the Grecian.

17 For by it the righteousness of God is reueiled, from faith to faith: as it is written, *The iuste shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reueiled from heauen against all vngodlines, and vngodlines of men, which withholde the truth in vngodliness, 19 Forasmuche as y, which may be knownen of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternal power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the worlde, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they shulde be without excuse:

21 * Because that when they knewe God, they glorified him not as God, nether were thankful, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darkenes.

22 When they professed them selues to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glorie of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, & of birdes, and foure footed beastes, & of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lustes, vnto vnclenes, to defile their owne bodies betwene the selues:

25 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the natural vse into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the natural vse of the woman, and burned in their luste one toward another, and man with man wrought filthines, & receiued in them selues suche recompense of their error, as was mete.

28 For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them vp vnto reprobat mīde, to do those things which are not conuenient,

29 Being full of all vngodliness, fornication, wickednes, coueteousnes, malicioufnes, full of enuie, of murder, of debate, of disceite, taking all things in the euil parte, whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, doers of wrōg, proude, boasters, inuenters of euil things, disobedient to parents, without vnderstanding, couenant breakers, without natural affection, suche as can neuer be appeased, merciles.

22 Thou that saist, A man shulde not commit adulterie, doest thou commit adulterie? thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacrilege?

23 Thou that gloriest in the Law, through breaking the Law dishonorest thou God?

Isa. 52. 5. Ez. 36. 30.

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou do the Law: but if thou be a transgressor of the Law, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

m The end of circumcision was keeping of the Law, & the Sacrament separated from his end is of none effect.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision kepe the ordinances of the Law, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

Or, condemne.

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it kepe the Law) iudge thee, which by the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the Law?

n When the Law is called the letter, or that it pronouketh death in vs, or that it killeth, or is ministerie of death, or is strength of sinne, it is met as we consider the Law of it selfe without Christ.

28 For he is not a Iewe, which is one outward: nether is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Iewe which is one within, & the circumcision of the heart, in the spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

6 God forbid: els how shall God iudge the worlde?

7 For if veritie of God hath more abounded through my lie vnto his glorie, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

b He sheweth how wicked do reason against God.

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme that we say) why do we not euil, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

c Whose carnal wisdom wil not obey the wil of God d Left the Iewes shulde be puffed vp 9 What then are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, bothe Iewes and Gentiles are vnder sinne.

in that he preferred them to the Gentiles, he sheweth that this their preferment standeth only in the mercie of God, for as muche as bothe the Iewe and Gentil through sinne are subiect to Gods wrath, that they might bothe be made equal in Christ.

10 As it is writtē, There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none that vnderstandeth: there is none that seketh God.

12 They haue all gone out of the way: they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

18 The feare of God is not before their eyes.

19 Now we knowe that whatsoeuer the Law saith, it saith it to them which are vnder the Law, that euerie mouth may be stopped, and all the worlde be culpable before God.

f That is, the olde testamenc g The Law doeth not make vs guiltie, but doeth declare that we are guiltie before God, & deserue condemnation.

20 Therefore by the workes of the Law shall no flesh be iustified in his sight: for by the Law commeth the knowledge of sinne.

h He meaneth the Law ethe written or vawritten which commandeth or forbiddeh any thing, whose workes can not iustifie because we can not performe them.

21 But now is the righteousness of God made manifest without the Law, hauiug witness of the Law and of the Prophetes, Chap. 2. 17. i The worde significeth them which are left behinde in the race and are not able to runne to the marke, y is to euertlasting life, which here is called the glorie of God.

22 To wit, the righteousness of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleue.

23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are deprived of the glorie of God,

24 And are iustified frely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus, 25 Whome God hath set forthe to be a re-k Or fidelitie in performing his promes.

l The Law of faith is the Gospel which offereth saluation with condition (if thou beleuest) & condition also Christ freely giueth to vs. So the condition of the Law is (if thou doest all these things) the vncircumcised onely Christ hathe fulfilled for vs. m Meaning, that they are all iustified by one meane, & if they will haue any difference, it onely standeth in wordes: for in effect there is none.

n The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Law: for it embraceth Christ, who by his death hathe satisfied the Law: so that the Law which colde not bring vs to saluation by reason of our owne corruption, is now made effectual to vs by Christ Iesus.

CHAP. IIII.

1. 17 He declareth that iustification is a free gift euen by them them selues, of whome the Iewes moste boasted as of Abraham and of Dauid, 15 And also by the office of the Law & faith.

1 What shal we say then, that Abraham our father hathe soude concerning the flesh?

n That is, by workes.

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hathe wherein to breioyce, but not with God.

b He might pretende some merite or worke worthe to be recompensed.

Gen. 15. 6. Gal. 3. 6.

Gal. 2. 23.

c Meriteth by his workes. d That dependeth not on his workes, nether thinketh to merit by them.

e Which maketh him that is wicked: in him self, iuste in Christ. Psal. 32. 1.

3 For what faith the Scripture? Abraham beleued God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by dette.

5 But to him that worketh not, but beleueth in him that iustifieth the vngodlie, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednes of the mā, vnto whome God imputeth righteousness without workes, saying,

7 Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are couered.

8 Blessed is the mā, to whome the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this blessednes then vpon the circumcised onely, or vpon the vncircumcised also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then imputed? when he was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as y^e seale of the righteousness of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumconciliation through faith in his blood to declare his righteousness, by the forgiveness of the sinnes that are passed through the pacience of God, 16 To shewe at this time his righteousness, that he might be iuste, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

17 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the Law of faith.

18 Therefore we conclude that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.

19 God, is he the God of the Iewes onely, & not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

20 For it is one God who shal iustifie circumcision of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

21 Do we then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea we establish the Law.

cised, that he shulde be the father of all them that beleue, nor being circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also,

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.

13 For the promes that he shulde be the heire of the worlde, was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seed, through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the Law, be heires, faith is made voyde, & the promes is made of none effect.

15 For the Law causeth wrath: for where no Law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promes might be sure to all the seede, not to that onely which is of the Law: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, I haue made thee a father of many nacions) euen before God whome he beleued, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

18 Which Abraham about hope, beleued vnder hope, that he shulde be the father of many nacions: according to that which was spoken to him, So shal thy seede be.

19 And he was not weake in the faith, considered nor his owne bodie, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yere olde, nether the deadnes of Saras wombe.

20 Nether did he doute of the promes of God through vnbelleife, but was strengthened in faith, & gaue glorie to God, 21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to do it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousness, 24 But also for vs, to whome it shalbe imputed for righteousness, which beleue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead.

25 Who was deliuered to death for our sinnes, & is risen againe for our iustification.

CHAP. V.

faith vnto this grace, wherein we stand, & reioyce vnder y hope of the glorie of God.

3 Nether do we so onely, but also we reioyce in tribulatiõs, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth the patience,

4 And patience experience, and experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not b ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holie Ghost, which is giuẽ vnto vs.

6 For Christ, when we were yet of no strength, at his time, dyed for the * vngodlie.

7 Douteles one wil scarce dye for a d righteous man: but yet for a c good mā it may be that one dare dye.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seing y while we were yet sinners, Christ dyed for vs.

9 Muche more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shal be sauẽd from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were f enemies, we were recõciled to God by the death of his Sonne, muche more being recõciled, we shal be sauẽd by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whome we haue now receiued y atonemẽt.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the worlde, and death by sinne, and so death wẽt ouer all men: for as muche as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the g time of the Law was sinne in the worlde, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses euen ouer them also that sinned not h after the like maner of the transgression of i Adam, which was y figure of k him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, muche more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hathe abounded vnto many.

16 Nether is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the faute came of one offence vnto condẽnacion: but the gift is l of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by y offence of one, death reigned through one, muche more shal they which receiue the abundance of grace, and of the gift of m righteousness, reigne in life through one, that is Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise thẽ as by the offence of one the faute came on all men to condẽnation, so by the iustifying of one the benefite abounded toward n all men to y iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shal many also be made righteous.

20 Moreouer the o Law entred thereupon that the offence shulde p abunde: neuertheles where sinne abounded, there grace abounded muche more:

CHAP. VI.

Because no man shoulde glorie in the flesh, but rather seke to subdue it to the Spirit. 3 He sheweth by the verue & end of Baptisme. 5 That regeneration is soynd with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godlie life. 21 Setting before mens eyes the rewarde of sinne and righteousness.

1 WHat shal we say then: Shal we continue stil in sinne, that grace may abunde? God forbid.

2 How shal we, that are a dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Knowe ye not, that * all we which haue bene baptized into b Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 * We are buried then with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead by the glorie of the Father, so we also shulde * walke in newnes of life.

5 * For if we be c grafted with him d to the similitude of his death, euen so shal we be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the e bodie of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth we shulde not serue sinne.

7 For he that is dead, is f freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleue that we shal liue also with him, 9 Knowing that Christ being raised from y dead, dyeth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he dyed, he dyed once g to sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to h God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that ye are i dead to sinne, but are aliuẽ k to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortal bodie, that ye shulde obey it in the l lustes thereof.

13 Nether giue ye your membres as o weapons of v righteousness vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aliuẽ from the dead, and giue your membres as weapons of righteousness vnto God.

14 For sinne shal not haue dominion ouer you: for ye are not vnder the m Law, but vnder n grace.

s Or, y^e rewarde and recompense.

t Sinne is compared to a tyrant which reigneth by force, who giueth death as an allowance to them that were preferred by the Lawe.

16 *Knowe ye not, that to whomefoener ye giue your selues as seruants to obey, his seruants ye are to whome ye obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of obedience vnto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye haue bene the seruants of sinne, but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, whereunto ye were deliuered.

18 Being then made fre from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousness.

19 I speake after the maner of man, because of the infirmitie of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to vncleannes and to iniquitie, to commit iniquitie, so now giue your mebers seruants vnto righteousness in holines.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sinne, ye were freed from righteousness.

21 What frute had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your frute in holines, and the end, euerlasting life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gifte of God is eternal life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1.7.12 The use of the Law, 6.24 And how Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmitie of the fleshful. 23 The dangerous fight betwene the flesh & the Spirit.

1 Knowe ye not, brethren, (for I speake to them that knowe the Law) that the Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 *For the woman which is in subiection to a man, is bounde by the law to the man, while he liueth: but if the man be dead, she is deliuered from the law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, she take another man, she shalbe called an adulteresse: but if the man be dead, she is fre fro the Law, so that she is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4 So ye, my brethre, are dead also to the Law by the bodie of Christ, that ye shulde be vnto another, euen vnto him that is raised vp fro the dead, that we shulde bring forth the frute vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sinnes, which were by the Law, had force in our membres, to bring forth the frute vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Law, being dead vnto it, wherein we were holden, that we shulde serue in newnes of Spirit, and not in the oldenes of the letter.

17 What shal we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knewe not sinne, but by the Law: for I had not knowen lust, except the Law had said, *Thou shalt not lust.

18 But sinne toke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in me all maner of concupiscence: for without the Law sinne is dead.

19 For I once was a liue, without the Law: but when the commandement came, sinne returned, 20 But I dyed: and the same commandement which was ordained vnto life, was founde to be vnto me vnto death.

21 For sinne toke occasion by the commandement, and disceiued me, and thereby slew me.

22 Wherefore the Law is holie, and iust, & good.

23 Was that the which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinful by the commandement.

24 For we knowe that the Law is spiritual, but I am carnal, solde vnder sinne.

25 For I allowe not that which I do: for what I wolde, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I.

26 If I do then that which I wolde not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

27 Now then, it is no more I, that do it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

28 For I knowe, that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

29 For I do not the good thing, which I wolde, but the euil, which I wolde not, that do I.

30 Now if I do that I wolde not, it is no more I that do it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

31 I finde then by the Law, that when I wolde do good, euil is present with me.

32 For I delite in the Law of God, concerning the inner man:

33 But I see another law in my membres, rebelling against the law of my minde, & leading me captiue vnto the law of sinne, which is in my membres.

34 O wretched man that I am, who shal deliuer me from the bodie of this death!

35 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. Then I my self in my minde serue the Law of God, but in my flesh the law of sinne.

 Or, of like valac.

NOW then there is no cōdemnacion to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
 2 For the Law of the Spirit of life which is in Christ Iesus, hath freed me from the law of sinne and of death.
 3 For (that that was impossible to the Law, in as muche as it was weake, because of the flesh.) God sending his owne Sonne, in the similitude of sinful flesh, and for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh, 4 That the righteousness of y Law might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
 5 For they that are after the flesh, saour the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.
 6 For the wisdom of the flesh is death; but the wisdom of the Spirit is life & peace, 7 Because the wisdom of the flesh is enmitye against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither in dede can be.
 8 So then they that are in the flesh, can not please God.
 9 Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.
 10 And if Christ be in you, the bodie is dead, because of sinne: but the Spirit is liue for righteousness sake.
 11 But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shal also quicken your mortal bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.
 12 Therefore brethren, we are detters not to the flesh, to liue after the flesh:
 13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shal dye: but if ye mortifie the dedes of the bodie by the Spirit, ye shal liue.
 14 For as manie as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.
 15 For ye haue not receued the Spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue receiued the Spirit of adopcion, whereby we crye Abba, Father.
 16 The same Spirit beareth witness with our Spirit, that we are the childre of God.
 17 If we be children, we are also heires, euen the heires of God, & heires annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that we maye also be glorified with him.
 18 For I counte that the afflictions of this present time are not worthie of the glory, which shalbe shewed vnto vs.
 19 For the seruente desire of the creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shalbe reueiled.

 20 Because the creature is subiect to vanitye, not of it owne wil, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder hope, 21 Because the creature also shalbe deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of y sonnes of God.
 22 For we knowe that euerie creature groeneth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.
 23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the first frutes of the Spirit, euen we do sigh in our selues, waiting for the adopcion, euen the redemption of our bodie.
 24 For we are saued by hope: but hope that is sene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?
 25 But if we hope for that we se not, we do with patience abide for it.
 26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we knowe not what to praye as we ought: but the Spirit it self maketh request for vs with sighs, which can not be expressed.
 27 But he that searcheth y hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he maketh request for the Saintes, according to the wil of God.
 28 Also we knowe that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.
 29 For those which he knewe before, he also predestinate to be made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among manie brethren.
 30 Moreouer whome he predestinate, them also he called, and whome he called, them also he iustified, and whome he iustified, them he also glorified.
 31 What shal we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?
 32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, how shal he not with him giue vs all things also?
 33 Who shal lay anye thing to the charge of Gods chosen? it is God that iustificeth, 34 Who shal condemne? it is Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.
 35 Who shal separate vs from the loue of y Christ? shal tribulacion or anguish, or persecucion, or famine, or nakednes, or peril, or sword?
 36 As it is writte, For thy sake are we killed all day long: we are counted as shepe for the slaughter.
 37 Neuertheles, in all these things we are more then conquerers through him that loued vs.

n The creature shal not be restored before that Goss children be brought to their perfections in the meane season that waite.

2 For I beare them recorde, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they, being ignorāt of the righteousness of God, & going about to stablish their owne righteousness, haue not submitted them selues to the righteousness of God.

4 * For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness vnto euerie one y^e beleueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousness which is of the Lawe, * That the man which doeth these thi^{gs}, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascende into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from aboue)

7 Or, Who shall descende into the depe^r (y^e is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what saith it? * The worde is nere thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is y^e d^ewarde of faith which we praechē.

9 For if thou shalt cōfesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

2 God hathē not cast away his people which he aⁿ knewe before. Knowe ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophetes, & digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seke my life?

4 But what saith y^e answer of God to him? * I haue reserued vnto my self c^e seuē thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euē so then at this present time is there a remnant through the election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of workes: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of workes, it is no more grace: or els were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hathē not obtained y^e he sought: but the electiō hathē obtained it, and the rest haue bene hardened, 10 Let their eyes be darkened that they se not, & bowe downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demāde then, Haue they stumbled, that they shulde fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluacion commeth vnto the Gentiles, to & prouoke them to follow them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the worlde, & the diminishing of thē the riches of the Gētiles, how much more shall their abundance be?

- 15 For if the casting away of them be the recōciling of the worlde, what shall the receiuing be, but a life from the dead?
- 16 For if the first frutes be holie; so is the whole lompe: and if the roote be holie, so are the branches.
- 17 And thogh some of the brāches be broken of, & thou being a wilde oliue tre, wast grafte in for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnesse of the oliue tre,
- 18 Boast not thy self against the branches: and if thou boast thy self, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.
- 19 Thou wilt say then, The brāches are broken of, that I might be grafte in.
- 20 Wel: through vnbelefe they are broken of, and thou standest by faith: be not hie minded, but feare.
- 21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take hede, lest he also spare not thee.
- 22 Beholde therefore the bountifulnes, & seueritie of God: towarde them which haue fallen, seueritie: but towarde thee, bountifulnes, if thou continue in his bountifulnes: or els thou shalt also be cut of.
- 23 And thei also, if thei abide not stīl in vnbelefe, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

- 1 Let *euerie soule be subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: & the powers that be, are ordeined of God.
- 2 Whoſoeuer therefore resisteth þ̃ power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receiue to them selues iudgement.
 For princes are not to be feared for good workes, but for euil. Wilt þ̃ then be without feare of the power? do wel: so shalt thou haue praise of the same.
- 4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou do euil, feare: for he beareth not the swerde for nought: for he is the minister of God to take vengeãce on him that doeth euil.
- 5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for^b conscience sake.
- 6 For, for this cause ye paye also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying them selues for the same thing.
- 7 *Giue to all men therefore their due: tribute, to whome ye owe tribute: custome, to whome custome: feare, to whome feare: honour, to whome ye owe honour.
- 8 Owe nothing to any man, but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the^d Law.
- 9 For this, *Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witness, Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commandement, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, euẽ in this, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self.

- 4 *Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? he standeth or falleth to his owne^c master: yea, he shall be established: for God is able to make him stande.
- 5 This mā esteemeth one daye aboute another daye, & another man counteth euerie daye a like: let euerye man be^d fully persuaded in his minde.
- 6 He that^e obserueth the day, obserueth it to the^f Lord: and he that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for he giueth God thãkes: and he þ̃^g eateth not, ^heateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thanks.
- 7 For none of vs liuethⁱ to him self, nether doeth anye dye to him self.
- 8 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: or whether we dye, we dye vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or dye, we are the Lords.
- 9 For Christ therefore dyed and rose againe, and reuued, that he might be Lord bothe of the dead and the quicke.
- 10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why doest thou despise thy brotner? *for we shall all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ.
- 11 For it is written, *I k liue, saith the Lord, and euerye knee shall bowe to me, and all tongues shall^k confesse vnto God.
- 12 So then euerye one of vs shall giue accountes of him self to God.

q Faith here is taken for a full persuasion of the Christian libertie in things indifferēt as the Apostle interpreteth it in the 24. verse.

21 *It is good nether to eat flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing, whereby thy brother stombleth, or is offended, or made weake.

r Which hath the none euil remembrance of conscience in his doing.

s Meaning, of a right conscience

23 For he that douteth, is condemned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: & whatsoever is not of^f faith, is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

a To edifie, signifies to do all maner duties to our neighbour, either to bring him to Christ, or if he be w^ome, that he may growe from faith to faith: for y^e faithful are called the temple of God wherein he is resident by his holie Spirit: & these faithful are the stones of y^e newe Ierusalem: that is, the vniuersal Church, 1 Sa. 24. reuel. 21. of the which buylding Christ is the chief corner stone, Eph. 2. 20. b I did so beare them, as if they had bene done to me and not to my 4 For whatsoeuer things are written afore time, are written for our learning, that we through patience, & cōsorte of the Scriptures might haue hope.

e First to gather y^e Iewes, and then the Gentiles that bothe might be made one flocke.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercie, as it is writtē, * For this cause I wil confesse thee amōg the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

g Which is Christ who did spring as a yong budde out of y^e drye and dead roote. h Then seing he take bothe the Iewes and Gentiles to his Fathers glorie, they ought by his example to Ioue one another.

13 Now the God of hope fil you with all ioye, and peace in beleuing, that ye may abunde in hope through the power of the holie Gost.

14 And I my self also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are ful of goodnes, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

i The minister offereth vp the people to God by the Gospel

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not^k speake of anie thing, which Christ hathe not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient in worde and dede, k God gaue him suche ample occasions to set forth his excellent workes y^e he had done by him, that the Apostle neede not to feike anie other thing to boast vpon.

19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: for that from Ierusalem, and rounde about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abunde the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my self to preache the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I shulde haue buylt on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, *To whome he was not spoken of, they shal se him, & they that heard not, shal vnderstand him.

THE FIRST EPISTLE of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that S. Paul had preached at Corinthus a yere and an halfe, he was compelled by the wickednes of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false Apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glorie, and affect at eloquence, sought to bring into contēpt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition suche factions & schismes sprang vp in the Church, that frō opinions in pollicies & ceremonies they fel to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doute the resurrection frō the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian religio. Against these evils the Apostle procedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, & eares with gentle salutations: but soon after he reproveth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie & pride, and exhorteth thē to cōcorde & humilitie, setting before their eyes the spiritual vertue, & heauenlie wisdom of the Gospel, which cā not be perswaded by worldlie wit and eloquent reasons, but is reueiled by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this salutation may not be attribute to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church wherein S. Paul behaued him self skilfully, buylding according to the fundacion (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent hede that they be not polluted with vaine doctrine, seruing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit he had declared by manifest signes that he neuer sought his owne glorie, neither yet how he might liue, but onely the glorie of Christ: which thing at his coming he wolde declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sought them selues onely, & therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproved & unpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infidels, fornication, & suche like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certeine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, dueue of marriage, of discorde & dissension among the married, of virginite, & seconde marriage. And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole seruice, seing in their heart they worshipped the true God, he warneth them to haue respect to their weak brethren, whose faith by that dissēbling was hurt, & their consciences wounded, which thing rather thē he wolde do, he wolde neuer vse that libertie which God had giuen him. But forasmuche as pride, & self wil was the cause of those great evils, he admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glorie in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to followe Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men, and women in the assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the spiritual gifts, which God hath giuen to mainteine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and wel doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

- 2 He praiseth the great graces of God shewed towards them, 10 Exhorting them to concorde and humilitie. 19 He beateth downe all pride, and wisdom which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whome God hath chosen to confounde the wisdom of the worlde.

PAUL called to be an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, through the wil of God, and our brother Sostenes, vnto y^e Church of God which is at Corinthus, to them that are * sanctified in Christ Iesus, * b Saintes by calling, * with all that c call on the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ in euerie place, bothe their Lord, and ours:

Mat.12.38. q He that is so subtil in discussing questions? & herein Paul reproceheth even the best learned, as though not one of them coulde perceiue by his owne wifdome this mysterie of Christ reueiled in the Gospel. r He speaketh in the persone of the wicked, who contrarie to their conscience rather attribute these things to God, then acknowledge their owne follie & weakenes. s According as the worlde termeth wise men.

20 Now I beseeche you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that ye all speake one thing, and that there be no dissentions among you: but be ye knit together in one minde, and in one iudgement. 21 For it hath bene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you by them that are of the house of Cloe, that there are contentions among you. 22 Now this I say, that euerie one of you faith, I am Paul, and I am Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Christs. 23 Is Christ deuiled? was Paul crucified for you? ether were ye baptized into the name of Paul? 24 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but Crispus, and Gaius, 25 Lest anie shulde say, that I had baptized into mine owne name. 26 I baptized also the household of Stephanas: furthermore knowe I not, whether I baptized anie other. 27 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preache the Gospel, not with wifdome of wordes, lest the crosse of Christ shulde be made of none effect. 28 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnes: but vnto vs, which are saued, it is the power of God. 29 For it is written, I wil destroye the wifdome of the wise, and wil cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent. 30 Where is the wise? where is the Scriber? where is the disputer of this worlde? hath not God made the wifdome of this worlde foolishnes? 31 For seeing the worlde by wifdome knowe not God in the wifdome of God, it pleased God by the foolishnes of preaching to saue them that beleue: 32 Seeing also that the Iewes require a signe, and the Grecians seeke after wifdome. 33 But we preache Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, & vnto the Grecians, foolishnes. 34 But vnto them which are called, bothe of the Iewes & Grecians we preache Christ, the power of God, and the wifdome of God. 35 For the foolishnes of God is wiser than men, and the weakenes of God is stronger than men. 36 For brethren, you see your calling, how that not manie wise men after the flesh, not manie mightie, not manie noble are called. 37 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the worlde to confounde the wise, and God hath chosen the weak things of the worlde, to confounde the mightie things. 38 And vile things of the worlde & things which are despised, hath God chosen, & things which are not, to bring to nought things that are, 29 That no flesh shulde reioyce in his presence. 30 But ye are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs wifdome and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, 31 That, according as it is written, He that reioyceth, let him reioyce in the Lord. CHAP. III. He putteth for example his maner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Gospel. & Which Gospel was contemptible & hid to the carnal, so And againe honorable and manifest to the spiritual. And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellencie of wordes, or of wifdome, shewing vnto you the testimonie of God. For I esteemed not to knowe anie thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, and him crucified. And I was among you in weakenes, and in feare, & in muche trembling. Nether stode my worde, & my preaching in the enticing speache of mans wifdome, but in plaine euidence of the Spirit and of power, That your faith shulde not be in the wifdome of men, but in the power of God. And we speake wifdome among them that are perfit: not the wifdome of this worlde, nether of the princes of this worlde, which come to nought. But we speake the wifdome of God in a mysterie, euen the hid wifdome, which God had determined before the worlde, vnto our glorie. Which none of the princes of this worlde hath knowen: for had they knowen it, they wolde not haue crucified the Lord of glorie. But as it is written, The things which eye hath not sene, nether care hath heard, nether came into mans heart, are, which God hath prepared for them that loue him. But God hath reueiled them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, saue the spirit of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we haue receiued not the Spirit of the worlde, but the Spirit, which is of God, that we might knowe the things that are giuen to vs of God. Which things also we speake, not in the wordes which mans wifdome teacheth,

Which are in mans iudgement almost nothing, but taken for abstracts & casti-wities. i Esteemed & in reprobacion. Jerem.23.5. x Thus he calleth man in contempt & to beate downe his arrogancie. Isa.64.4. e That is, very fewe. f He calleth Iesus the mightie God, full of true glorie & matie-stie, whome Dauid also calleth the King of glorie, Psal.24.7. and Steuen named him the God of glorie, Act.7.2: & hereby appeareth the diuinitie of Christ & consubstantio of two natures in one persone. Chap.1.17. 2.pet.1.16. g Man is not able to thinke Gods prouidence towards his one God with the Father and the Sonne. h For he is standeth and iudgeth. i Mans minde, which vnderstandeth and iudgeth. k We are not moued with that Spirit, which teacheth things wherewith the worlde is delited, and which men vnderstand by nature. l All the benefites of God in Iesus Christ.

14 But the natural man perceiueh not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishnes vnto him: nether can he knowe them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual, discerneth all things: yet he him self is iudged of no man.

16 For who hath knowen the minde of the Lord, that he might instruct him? But we haue the minde of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 Paul rebuketh the feltes and outours thereof. 7 No man ought to attribute his saluacion to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they beware erroneous doctrines. 11 Christ is the fundacion of his Church. 16 The dignitie and office bothe of the ministers and also of all the faithful.

And I colde not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spiritual me, but as vnto carnal, even as vnto babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, & not meat: for ye were not yet able to beare it, nether yet now are ye able.

For ye are yet carnal: for where as there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are ye not carnal, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnal?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whome ye beleued, & as the Lord gaue to euerie man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watred, but God gaue the encrease.

7 So then, nether is he that planteth, anie thing, nether he that watreth, but God that giueth the encrease.

8 And he that planteth, & he that watreth, are one, and euerie man shal receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For we together are Gods laborers: ye are Gods housbandrie, and Gods buylding.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to me, as a skilful master buylder, I haue laid the fundacion, and another buylderth thereon: but let euerie man take hede how he buylderth vpon it.

11 For other fundacion can no man lay, then that which is laid, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if anie man buylde on this fundacion, golde, siluer, precious stones, tymber, haye, or stubble, 13 Euerie mans worke shalbe made manifest: for the daye shal declare it, because it shalbe reueiled by the fyre: & the fyre shal trye euerie mans worke of what sorte it is.

14 If anie mans worke, that he hath buylt vpon, abide, he shal receiue wages, 15 If anie mans worke burne, he shal lose, but he shal be safe him self: neuertheles yet as it were by the fyre.

16 Knowe ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If anie man destroy the Temple of God, him shal God destroy: for the Temple of God is holie, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue him self. If anie man among you seme to be wise in this worlde, let him be a foole, that he may be wise.

19 For y^e wisdom of this worlde is foolishnes with God: for it is written, He catcheth the wise in their owne craftines.

20 And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the worlde, or life, or death: whether they be things present, or things to come, even all are yours, 23 And ye Christs, and Christ Gods.

CHAP. IIII.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle. 3 Seing they did not acknowledge him suche one, 4 He appealeth to Gods iudgement. 7 Bearing downe their glorie which hindered them to praise that, which they dispraised in him. 16 He sheweth what he requirerh on their parte, & what they ought to loke for of him at his returne.

1 Let a man so thinke of vs, as of the ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, y^e euerie man be founde faithful.

3 As touching me, I passe verie litle, to be iudged of you, or of mans iudgement: no, I iudge not mine owne self.

4 For I knowe nothing by my self, yet am I not thereby iustificed: but he that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore iudge nothing before the time, vntil the Lord come, who wil lighten things that are hid in darkenes, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shal euerie man haue praise of God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I haue figuratiuely applied vnto mine owne self & Apollos, for your sakes, that ye might learne by vs, that no man presume about that which is written, that one swel not against another for anie mans cause.

7 For who separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou hadest not receiued it?

8 Now ye are ful: now ye are made riche: ye reigne as Kings without vs, and wolde to God ye did reigne; that we also might reigne with you.

21 What wil ye? ſhal I come vnto you with a rod, or in loue, and in the ſpirit of mekenes?

CHAP. V.

1 He reproveth ſharply their negligence in puniſhing him that had committed inceſt, 3 Wilking them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace puritiſe, 9 And ſee wikednes.

I T is heard certainly that there is fornication amōg you, and ſuche fornicatiō as is not once named among the a Gentils, * that one ſhulde haue his fathers wiſe.

2 And ye are puffed vp & haue not rather forowed, that he which hathe done this dede, might be put from among you.

3 *For I verely as aſſent in bodie, but preſent in ſpirit, haue determined already as thogh I were preſent, that he that hathe b thus done this thing,

4 When ye are gathered together, and my c ſpirit, d in the Name of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, that ſuche one, I ſay, by the power of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt,

5 * Be deliuered vnto e Satan, for the e Which is, to deſtruō of the fleſh, that the ſpirit may be ſaued in the day of the Lord Ieſus.

6 Your reioycing is not s good: * know ye not that a litle leauē, leaueneth the whole lumpe?

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may be a newe lumpe, h as ye are vnleauened: for Chriſt our Paſſeouer is ſacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs kepe the feaſt, not with olde leauē, nether in the leauen of malicioſnes and wickednes: but with the vnleauened bread of ſinceritie and trueth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an epiſtle, * that ye ſhulde not cōpanie together w fornicators,

10 And i not all together with the fornicators of this worlde, or with the couetous, or with extorcioners, or with idolaters: for then ye muſte go out of the worlde.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye companie not together: if ane that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or k an idolater, or a railar, or a drunkard, or an extorcioner, with ſuche one eat not.

12 For what haue I to do, to iudge them alſo, which are l without? do ye not iudge the ſo that are m within?

13 But God iudgeth them that are without. Put away therefore frō among your ſelues that wicked man.

preſent at idole ſeruiſe, & yet profeſſe the Goſpel. I Vnto whom the Eccleſiaſtical diſcipline doeth not ſtretch. m Which are ſubiect to Gods worde, & to the diſcipline of the Church.

CHAP. VI.

1 He rebuketh them for law together before the Heathen 7 Chriſtians ought rather to ſuffer. 12 He reproveth the abuſing of Chriſtian libertie, 15 And ſheweth that we ought to ſerue God purely bothe in bodie, and in ſoule.

1 D Are anie of you, hauing buſines againſt another, be iudged vnder the a vniuſt, and not vnder the Saintes?

2 *Do ye not knowe, that the Saintes ſhal iudge the worlde? If the worlde then ſhal be iudged by you, are ye vnworthie to iudge the ſmalleſt matters?

3 Knowe ye not y we ſhal iudge the b Angels? how muche more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgemēt of things pertaining to this life, c ſet vp them which are d leaſt eſteemed in the Church.

5 I ſpeake it to your ſhame. Is it ſo that there is not a wiſe man among you? no not one, y can iudge betwene his brethre?

6 But a brother goeth to lawe with a brother, and that vnder the infideles.

7 Now therefore there is vtterly f a faute among you, becauſe ye go to law one with another: * why rather ſuffer ye not wrong? why rather ſuſteine ye not harme?

8 *Nay, ye your ſelues e do wrong, and do harme, and that to your brethren.

not reprove y godlie, which with a good conſcience wſeth y magiſtrat to defende his right, but condemneeth harſed, grudges & deſires of reuengance.

f For being wounded with ſhame & ſorrowe, his ſelf or olde man ſhal dye: and the ſpirit or newe man ſhal remaine aliue & enioye the victorie in y day when the Lord ſhal iudge the quicke and dead. 2. Cor. 4. 18. 1 pet. 4. 6.

12 ¶ All ^f things are lawful vnto me: but all things are not profitable. I may do all things, but I wil not be broght vnder the power of anie thing.

13 Meates are ordeined for the bellie, and the bellie for ^y meates: but God shal destroe bothe it, and them. Now the bodie is not for ^h fornication, but for the ^l Lord, & the Lord for the bodie.

14 And God hathe also raised vp ^y Lord, and ^h shal raise vs vp by his power.

15 Knowe ye not, that your bodies are the members of Christ? shal I then take the mēbers of Christ, and make them the mēbers of an ^k harlot? God forbid.

16 Do ye not knowe, that he which coupleth him self with an harlot, is one bodie? ^h for two, saith he, shalbe one flesh.

17 But he that is ioyned vnto the Lord, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication: euerie sinne that a man doeth, is without the bodie: but he ^y comitteth fornicatiō, sinneth against his ^l owne bodie.

19 Know ye not, that ^y your bodie is ^y tēple of the holie Ghost, which is in you, whome ye haue of God: and ye are not your owne.

20 *For ye are bought for a price: therefore glorifie God in your bodie, and in your spirit: for they are Gods.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Apostle answereth to certaine questions, which the Corinthians desired to knowe, 2 As of single life, 3 Of the duette of mariage, 21 Of discordes & dissension in mariage, 23 Of marriage betwene the faithful & vnfaithful, 25 Of vncircumcising the circumcised, 27 Of seruitude, 28 Of vrginitie, 39 And seconde mariage.

1 Now concerning the things whereof I ye wrote vnto me, It were ^a good for a man not to touche a woman.

2 Neuertheles, to auoide fornication, let ^b euerie man haue his wife, and let euerie woman haue her owne housband.

3 *Let the housbād giue vnto the wife ^c due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the housband.

4 The wife hathe not ^y power of her owne bodie, but the housband: and likewise also the housband hathe not the power of his owne bodie, but the wife.

5 Defraude not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, & againe come together that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, ^d not by commandement.

7 For I wolde that all men were euen as I my self am: but eue ^e man hathe his proper gift of God, one after this maner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmarried, and vnto the widowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I do.

9 But if they can not absteine, let the marrie: for it is better to marie the ^e to ^burne.

10 And vnto the married I comāde, not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife ^a departe from her housband.

11 But and if she ^f departe, let her remaine vnmarried, or be recōciled vnto her housband, and let not the housband put ^a way ^his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, ^g not ^h the Lord, If anie brother haue a wife, that beleueh not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the womā which hathe an housbād that beleueh not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbeleuing housband is sanctified by the wife, & the vnbeleuing wife is sanctified by the housband, els were your childrē vncleane: but now are they ^k holie.

15 But if the vnbeleuing departe, let him departe: a brother or a suster is not in subiection in ^l suche things: but God hathe called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, ^o wife, whether thou shalt saue thine housband? Or what knowest thou, ^o mā, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hathe distribute to euerie mā, as the Lord hathe ^m called euerie one, so let him waike: and so ordeine I, in all Churches.

18 Is anie man called being circumcised? let him not ⁿ gather ^his vncircumcision: is anie called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised.

19 ^o Circumcision is nothing, & vncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the comādements of God.

20 *Let euerie man abide in the same vocation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? ^p care not for it: but if yet thou maist be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the ^q Lord being a seruant, is the Lords freman: likewise also d He sheweth that he comādemeth not precisely all men to marie, but that God hathe granted this remedie vnto them w^h can not liue chaste.

e With the fyre of concupiscence, that is when mans will so giueth place to the lust that tempteth, that he can not call v^o God with a quiet conscience.

 24 Brethren, let euerie man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.
 25 Now concerning virgines, I haue no commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduise, as one that hathe obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithful.
 26 I suppose then this to be good for the present necessity: I meane that it is good for a man so to be.
 27 Art thou boude vnto a wife? seke not to be losed: art thou losed from a wife? seke not a wife.
 28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not:
 and if a virgine marie, she sinneth not: ne-uertheles, ſuche ſhal haue a trouble in the fleſh: but I ſpare you.
 29 And this I ſay, brethré, becauſe the time is ſhort, here after that bothe they which haue wifes, be as though they had none:
 30 And they that wepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though thei reioyced not: & thei that bie, as though they poſſeſſed not:
 31 And they that viſe this worlde, as though they vſed it not: for the facion of this worlde goeth away.
 32 And I wolde haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of y Lord, how he may pleaſe the Lord.
 33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the worlde, how he maie pleaſe his wife.
 34 There is differéce alſo betwene a virgine
 & a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that ſhe may be holie, bothe in bodie and in ſpirit: but ſhe that is married, careth for the things of the worlde, how ſhe may pleaſe her houſ-band.
 35 And this I ſpeake for your owne comoditie, not to tangle you in a ſnare, but that ye followe that, which is honeſt, and that ye may cleaue faſt vnto the Lord without ſeparation.
 36 But if anie man thinke that it is vncomlie for his virgine, if ſhe paſſe the flowre of her age, & ſe nede ſo require, let him do what he wil, he ſinneth not: let them be married.
 37 Neuertheles he that ſtanderh firme in his heart, that he hathe no nede, but hathe power over his owne wil, & hathe ſo decreed in his heart, that he wil kepe his vir-gine, he doeth wel.
 38 So then he that giueth her to mariage, doeth wel, but he that giueth her not to marriage, doeth better.
 39 The wife is boude by the law, as long as her houſband liueth: but if her houſ-band be dead, ſhe is at libertie to mary w

CHAP. VIII.

He rebuketh the that use their libertie to the ſclander of other, in going to the idolatrous ſacrifices. And ſheweth how men ought to behaue them towarde ſuche as be weake.

And as touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that we all haue knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.
 2 Now, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to knowe.
 3 But if any man loue God, the ſame is known of him.
 4 Concerning therefore meat sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that an idol is nothig in the worlde, & that there is none other God but one.
 5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heauē, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many lords) 6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whome are all things, & we in him: & one Lord Ieſus Chriſt, by who-me are all things, and we by him.
 7 But euerie man hathe not knowledge: for ſome hauing conſcience of the idole, vntil this houre, eat as a thiſg ſacrificed vnto the idole, and ſo their conſcience being weake, is defiled.
 8 But meat maketh not vs acceptable to God: for nether if we eat, haue we more:
 nether if we eat not, haue we the leſſe.
 9 But take hede leſt by any meanes this power of yours be an occaſion of falling to them that are weake.
 10 For if any man ſe thee which haſt knowledge, ſit at table in the idoles temple, ſhal not the conſcience of him which is weake, be boldened to eat thoſe things which are ſacrificed to idoles?
 11 And through thy knowledge ſhal the weake brother periſh, for whome Chriſt dyed.
 12 Now when ye ſinne ſo againſt the brethren, and wounde their weake conſci-ence, ye ſinne againſt Chriſt.
 13 Wherefore if meat offend my brother,
 I wil eat no fleſh while the worlde ſtan-deth, that I may not offend my brother.

12 If others with you be partakers of this power, are not we rather? neuertheles, we haue not vsed this power: but suffre all things, that we shulde not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not knowe, that they which minister about the holie things, eat of þ things of the Temple? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

14 So also hathe the Lord ordered, that they which preache the Gospel, shulde liue of the Gospel.

15 But I haue vsed none of these things: nether wrote I these things, that it shulde be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to dye, then that anie man shulde make my reioycing vaine.

16 For though I preache the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is laid vpon me, and wo is vnto me, if I preache not the Gospel.

17 For if I do it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I do it against my wil, notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verely that whẽ I preache the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ free that I abuse not mine autoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free frõ all men, yet haue I made my self seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the mo.

20 *And vnto þ Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the Law, that I may winne the that are vnder the Law:

21 To them that are without lawe, as though I were without law (whẽ I am not without Law as pertaining to God, but am in the Law through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law.

22 To the weake I become as weake, that I may winne the weake: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.

23 And this I do for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Knowe ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receiveth the price? so runne, that ye may obtaine.

25 And euerie man that proueth masteries, abstaineth from all things: and they do it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateth the ayre.

27 But I beat downe my bodie, & bring it into subiection, left by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my self shulde be reprovod.

CHAP. X.

He feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie. 23 And of fence of their neighbour.

4 Euerie mā a praying or b prophecyng ha-

5 But euerie woman that prayeth or c pro-she were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman be not couered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be " shorne or shauen, let her be couered.
7 For a man ought not to couer his head: for 15 But if a woman haue long heere, it is a praise vnto her: for her heere is^l giuē her for a couering.

16 But if any man luste to be contentiuous, we haue no suche custome, nether y^e Churches of God.

17 ¶ Now in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are diffensions among you: and I beleue it to be true^m in some parte.

19 For there must beⁿ heresies euen among you, that they which are approued amōg you, might be knowen.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, thū is not to eat the Lords Supper.

21 For euerie man when they shulde eat, taketh his owne supper afore, and one is hungrie, and another is drunken.

22 Haue ye not houses to eat & to drinke in: dispise ye y^e Church of God, and shame thē that haue not: what shal I say to you? shal I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the^o Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, That the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, toke bread.

24 *And when he had giuen thakes, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my bodie, which is p^r broken for you: this do ye in remembrance of me.

25 After the same maner also he toke the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the Newe testament in my blood: this do as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shal eat this bread, & drinke this cup, ye shew the Lords death til he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoever shal eat this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lord vnworthely, shal be gillie of the bodie & blood of the Lord.

28 *Let a man therefore examine him self, and so let him eat of this bread, & drinke of this cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh vnworthely, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, because he discerneth not y^e Lords bodie.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many slepe.

31 For if we wolde iudge our selues, we shulde not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we shulde not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tary one for another.

34 And if any man be hungrie, let him eat at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things wil I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

The diuersitie of the giftes of the holie Ghost ought to be vsed to the edifying of Christs Church. 12 As the members of mans bodie serue to the vse one of another.

Now concerning spiritual giftes, brethren, I wolde not haue you^a ignorant.

2 Ye knowe that ye werē Gentiles, and were caryed away vnto the^b domme idoles, as ye were^c led.

3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man^{} speaking by the^d Spirit of God, calleth Iesus^{} execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holie Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of giftes, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euerie man, to^e profit with all.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the worde of wisdom: and to another the worde of^f knowledge, by the same Spirit:

9 And to another^g is giuen^h faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the giftes of healing, by the same Spirit:

10 And to another^h y^e operations of great workes: and to another, prophecie: and to another, k the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: & to another the interpretation of tongues.

11 *And all these things worketh euen the self same Spirit, distributing to euerie māⁱ feuerally as he wil.

12 For as the bodie is one, and hath many membres, and all the membres of the bodie, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one bodie: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into^j one bodie, whether we be Iewes or Grecians, whether we be bonde, or free, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the bodie also is not one member, but many.

15 If the fote wolde say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the bodie?

16 And if the eare wolde say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the bodie?

17 If the whole bodie were an eye, where were the hearing: If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the membres euerie one of them in the bodie. at his owne pleasure.

Chap. XIII. If the Angels had tongues, & I had the vse thereof, & did not becoue them to profite my neighbour, it were nothing but vaine babbling. Mat. 17. 20. luk. 17. 6. b Faith is here taken for the gift of doing miracles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7. 22, & also for that faith (called historical) which beleueth the mightie power of Christ, but can not apprehend Gods mercie through him: & this deuils haue, I am. 2. 19: & therefore is separate from charite, but which faith that iustifieth in effect can not, as 1 Iohn. 2. 9.

- 19 For if they were all one member, where were the bodie?
- 20 But now are there manie membres, yet but one bodie.
- 21 And the eye can not say vnto the hand, I haue no nede of thee: nor the head againe to the fete, I haue no nede of you.
- 22 Yea, muche rather those membres of the bodie, which seme to be more feble, are necessarie.
- 23 And vpon those membres of the bodie, which we thinke moste vn honest, put we more honestie on: and our vncemelie partes haue more comelines on.
- 24 For our comelie partes nede it not: but God hath tempered the bodie together, and hath giuen the more honour to that parte which lacked,
- 25 Lest there shulde be anie diuision in the bodie: but that the membres shulde haue the same care one for another.
- 26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the membres reioyce with it.
- 27 Now ye are the bodie of Christ, & membres for your parte.
- 28 And God hath ordeined some in the Church: as first, Apostles, secondly Prophetes, thirdly teachers, then them that do miracles: after that, the giftes of healing, & helpers, & gouernours, diuersitie of tongues.
- 29 Are all Apostles are all Prophetes are all teachers?
- 30 Are all doers of miracles have all the giftes of healing? do all speake with tongues? do all interprete?
- 31 But desire you the best gifts, and I will yet shewe you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he setteth forthe the nature, office and praise thereof.

- 1 THogh I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brasie, or a tinkling cymbal.
- 2 And thogh I had the gift of prophecie, and knewe all secretes and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, so that I colde remoue mountaines and had not loue, I were nothing.
- 3 And thogh I fede the poore with all my goods, and thogh I giue my bodie, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.
- 4 Loue suffreth long: it is bountifull: loue enuieth not: loue doeth not boast it self: it is not puffed vp:
- 5 It seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euil:
- 6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioy-

- ceth in the trueth:
- 7 It suffreth all things: it beleueth all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all things.
- 8 Loue doeth neuer fall away, thogh that prophecying be abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away.
- 9 For we knowe in parte, and we prophesie in parte.
- 10 But when that which is perfecte, is come, then that which is in parte, shalbe abolished.
- 11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstode as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
- 12 For now we see through a glasse darkely: but then shal we see face to face. Now I knowe in parte: but then shal I knowe euen as I am knowne.
- 13 And now abideth faith, hope & loue, euen these thre: but the chiefest of these is loue.

CHAP. XIII.

- 1 He exhorreth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, & other spiritual gifts, & But chiefly prophecying.
- 34 He comandeth women to kepe silence in the Church.
- 40 And sheweth what good ordre ought to be obserued in the Church.

- 1 Followe after loue, and couet spiritual gifts, and rather that ye maye prophesie.
- 2 For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man heareth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh secret things.
- 3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortacion, and to comfort.
- 4 He that speaketh strange language, edifieth him self: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.
- 5 I wolde that ye all spake strange languages, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, then he that speaketh diuers tongues, except he expoude it, that the Church may receiue edification.
- 6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shal I profite you, except I speake to you, ether by reuelacion, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine?
- 7 Moreouer things without life which giue a founde, whether it be a pipe or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shal it be knowne what is piped or harped?
- 8 And also if the trumpet giue an vncertaine founde, who shal prepare him self to battel?

shal it be vnderstand what is spoken? for ye shal speake in the e ayre.

10 There are so manie kindes of voyces, (as it cometh to passe) in the worlde, and none of them is domme.

11 Except I knowe then the power of the voyce, I shalbe vnto him that speaketh, a barbarian, and he that speaketh, shalbe a barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, for asmuche as ye couet spiritual gifts, seke that ye maye excel vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh a strange tongue, praie, that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirit praie: but mine vnderstanding is without frute.

15 What is it then? I wil pray with the spirit, but I wil pray with the vnderstanding also: I wil sing with the spirit, but I wil sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 Els, when thou blest with the spirit, how shal he that occupieth the roume of the vnlearned, say Amen, at thy giuing of thankes, seing he knoweth not what thou saist?

17 For thou verely giuest thankes wel, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake five wordes with mine vnderstanding that I might also instruct others, then ten thousand wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in vnderstanding, but as concerning malicioufnes be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, By men of other tongues, & by other languages wil I speake vnto this people: yet so shal they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to the that beleue not: but prophesying serueth not for the that beleue not, but for the which beleue.

23 If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, wil they not say, that ye are out of your wittes?

24 But if all prophetic, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vnlearned, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secretes of his heart made manifest, & so he wil fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainly that God is in you in dede.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euerie one of you hathe a psalme, or hathe doctrine, or hathe a tongue, or hathe reuelacion, or hathe interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If anie man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by thre, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him kepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to him self, and to God.

29 Let the Prophetes speake two, or thre, and let the other iudge.

30 And if anie thing be reueiled to another y sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For ye may all prophecie one by one, y all may learne, & all may haue comfort.

32 And the spirits of the Prophetes are subiect to the Prophetes.

33 For God is not the autor of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saintes.

34 Let your women kepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto the to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also the Law saith.

35 And if thei wil learne anie thing, let thei aske their housbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 Came the worde of God out from you? ether came it vnto you onely?

37 If anie man thinke him self to be a Prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things, that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 And if anie man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, couet to prophecie, & forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things be done honestly and by order.

if he mencioned this abuse afore, yet he referred it to this place to be repro- ued, because there he brought it in for another purpose. y Are ye the first or the last Christians, that ye nether submit your selues to the Churches, of whome you haue receiued the Gospel, nor haue respect to the others to whome the Gospel doeth likewise appertene? z To haue vnderstanding of spir- itual things. a If anie man haue iudgement, let him acknowledge that I speake of the Spirit of God, and so let him obey: and if he haue no iudgemēt, let him acknowledge his ignorance, and trouble not the Church, but credit them that are learned.

CHAP. XV.

We proueth the resurrection of the dead. 3 And first that Christ is risen: 22 Then that we shal rise. 52 And the manner how.

1 Moreouer, brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospel, which I preached vnto you; which ye haue also receiued; and wherein ye continue,

2 And whereby ye are saued, if ye kepe in memorie, after what maner I preached it vnto you, except ye haue beleued in vaine.

3 For first of all, I deliuered vnto you that which I receiued, how that Christ dyed for our finnes according to Scriptures,

4 And that he was buryed, & that he arose the third day accordig to the Scriptures, f Paul beareth as yet w their weakenes, be- cause also the- se were the gifts of God: but yet he sheweth that thei shuld not passe this mea- sure that first one, after ano- ther & at y ve- most the third shulde read in a strange lan- guage, which was to decla- re Gods mira- cle in the gift of tongues: but chiefly he com- mandeth that nothing be done without in- terpretacion. 1. q Christ as he is man & head of the Church is said to be subiect to God: but in respect of the world, is King of heauen and earth. This kingdome standeth in governing the faithful: and ouercoming the aduersaries, euen death the chiefest, which done, Christ being perfid with all his membres, shal as he is man, & head of the Church, with his selowe beyes deliuer his kingdome, and he is equal.

5 *And that he was sene of Cephas, then of the twelue.

6 After that, he was sene of mo then siue hundred brethren at once: whereof many remaine vnto this present, & some also are a slepe.

7 After that, he was sene of Iames: then of all the Apostles.

8 *And last of all he was sene also of me as of one, borne out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the Apostles, which am not mete to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 *But by the grace of God, I am that I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preache, and so haue ye beleued.

12 ¶ Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

15 And we are founde also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whome he hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if y^e dead be not raised, the is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine: ye are yet in your sinnes.

18 And so they which are a slepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the first frutes of them that slepe.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all dye, euē so in Christ shal all be made aliue, 23 But euerie man in his owne order: the first frutes is Christ, afterwarde, they that are of Christ, at his comming shal rise againe.

24 Then shalbe the end, whē he hath deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euē the Father, when he hath put downe all rule, and all autoritie and power.

25 For he must reigne til he hath put all his enemies vnder his fere.

26 The last enemy that shalbe destroyed, be subiect to God with whome and the holie Ghost in Godhead death.

27 *For he hath put downe all things vnder his fere. (And when he saith that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest y^e he is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shalbe subdued vnto him, then shal the Sone also him self be subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may be all in all.

29 Els what shal they do which are baptized for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

30 Why are we also in ieopardie euerie houre?

31 By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I dye daily.

32 If I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus after the maner of men, what aduantage hath it me, if the dead be not raised vp? let vs eat & drinke: for to morowe we shal dye.

33 Be not deceiued: euil speakings corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to liue righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man wil say, How are the dead raised vp? and with what bodie come they forth?

36 O foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it dye.

37 And y^e which thou sowest, thou sowest not that bodie that shalbe, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheat, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a bodie at his pleasure, euen to euerie sēde his owne bodie.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beastes, and another of fishes, and another of birdes.

40 There are also heauenlie bodies, and earthlie bodies: but the glorie of the heauenlie is one, and the glorie of the earthlie is another.

41 There is another glorie of the sunne, and another glorie of the moone, and another glorie of y^e starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glorie.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The bodie is sown in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sown in dishonour, and is raised in glorie: it is sown in weaknes, and is raised in power.

44 It is sown a natural bodie, and is raised a spiritual bodie: there is a natural bodie, and there is a spiritual bodie.

45 As it is also writen, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first made which is spiritual: but that which is natural, & afterwarde that which is spiritual.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conuaye him forth in peace, that he may come vnto me: for I loke for him with the brethren.
12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him, to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit he wil come when he shal haue convenient time.
13 Watch ye: stand fast in the faith: quite

THE SECONDE EPI- 1117/1224 stle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

AS nothing can be written, either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not unprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a love towards them farre passing all natural affections: which did not onely not profit all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbornnes, and contemne the Apostles autoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iuste occasions to come vnto them, wrote this epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begonne among them. First therefore he wisheth them wel in the Lord, declaring that albeit certeine wicked persones abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his autoritie, yet they were necessarie schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And where as they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherlie affection, he shulde haue bene compelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former epistle, it came through their faute, as is now euident bothe in that, that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, til he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuche as the false Apostles went about to vndermine his autoritie, he consateth their arrogant bragges, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which se not the brightnes of the Gospil in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnes of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, steing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrowe which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospil, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sought onely to fil their bellies, where as he contrariwise, sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persones scandered him: wherefore at his comming he menaceth suche as reuell against his autoritie, that he wil declare by liuelie example, that he is the faithful ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 He declareth the great profite that cometh to the faithful by their afflictions. 15.17 And because they shulde not impute to lightnes, that he differred his comming contrarie to his promes, he proueth his constancie, bothe by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospil. 21 Which trueth is groundod on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holie Gost.

intes, which are in all

2 Achaia:

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 *b Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comforte,

5 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comforte the which are in anie affliction by the coforte wherewith we our selues are comforted of God.

6 For as the sufferings of Christ abunde in vs, so our consolation abundeth through Christ.

7 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and ^d saluation, which ^e is wrought in the induring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

8 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as muche as we knowe that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

9 For brethre, we wolde not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how we were pressed out of measure passing strength, so that we all together doubted, euen of life.

10 Yea, we received the sentece of death in our selues, because we shulde not trust in our selues, but in God, who raiseth the dead.

11 Who deliuered vs from so ^h great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whome we trust, that yet here after he wil deliuer vs, 12 *So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for manie, thankes may be giuen by manie persones for vs.

13 For our reioycing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godlie purenes, & not in fleshie wisdom, ^k but by the grace of God we haue had our conuersation in the worlde, and moste of all to you warues.

XX.iii.

^d For seeing he indure so muche, they had occasion to be confirmed in the Gospil ^e As God onely worketh all things in vs: so doeth he also our saluation by his free mercie, and by such means as he hathe here left in this life for vs to be exercised in.

^c Which I suffer for Christ, or which Christ suffereth in me. Rom 7.5 & 8.17. col 1.24

1 Ye knowe partly my co[n]science booke by my dwelling with you, and also my writing vnto you: and I trust ye shal knowe me to be the same to y^e very end. m In that we haue taught you y^e Gospel so sincerely. n Because we haue w^ont you to Christ. o Which shal abolish all worldelie glorie. p Which is ratherly to prome and not to performe. q Now to affirm one thing, and then to deny it, which is a signe of inco[n]science. r He taketh God to witness that he preacheth y^e truth. He preached nothing vnto them but onely Iesus Christ who is the mo[n]te constant and infallible truth of the Father. s They are made, performed & we are partakers onely by him, who is our Amen, in that he hath fulfilled them for vs. Eph. 4. 30. t In that I say I came not because I wolde spare you, I meane not that I haue autoritie to alter true religio[n], or to binde your co[n]science: but that I am Gods minister to confirme and comfort you. u And faith is not in subiection to man.

11 For we write none other things vnto you, then y^e ye read or els that ye acknowledge, & I trust ye shal acknowledge vnto the end. 14 Euen as ye haue acknowledged vs partly, that we are your reioycing, euen as ye are ours, in the day of our Lord Iesus. 15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that ye might haue had a double grace, 16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, & to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forthe towarde Iudea of you. 17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnes? or minde I those things which I minde, according to y^e flesh, that w^e me shulde be, 18 Yea, yea, and Nay, nay? 19 Yea, God is faithful, that our worde towarde you was not Yea, and Nay. 20 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is by me, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was Yea. 21 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glorie of God through vs. 22 And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anointed vs. 23 Who hath also sealed vs, & hath giue[n] the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. 24 Now, I call God for a recorde vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus. 25 Not that we haue dominion ouer your faith, but we are helpers of your ioye: for by faith ye stande.

hathe not made me sorie, but partely (lest I shulde more charge him) you all. 6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of manie. 7 So that now contrarie wise ye ought rather to forgie him, and comforte him lest the same shulde be swallowed vp with ouer muche heaumes. 8 Wherefore, I praye you, that you wolde confirme your loue towards him. 9 For this cause also did I write, y^e I might knowe the profe of you, whether ye wolde be obedient in all things. 10 To whome ye forgie anie thing, I forgive also: for verely if I forgave anie thing, to whome I forgave it, for your sakes forgive I it in the sight of Christ, 11 Lest Satan shulde circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises. 12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preache Christs Gospel, & a dore was opened vnto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I foude not Titus my brother, but toke my leaue of the, and went away into Macedonia. 14 Now thanks be vnto God which alwayes maketh vs to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the fauour of his knowledge by vs in euerie place. 15 For we are vnto God the swete fauour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them which perish. 16 To the one we are the fauour of death, vnto death, and to the other the fauour of life, vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not as manie, which make marchandise of the worde of God: but as of synceritie, but as of God in the sight of God speake we in Christ.

c After his adulterer did rep^er & am^ed, Paul did so vterly cast of all sorowe, y^e he denieth that in maner he was asue whit sorie. d And so shulde increase his sorowe which I wolde diminish. e The adulterer, which interceded his mother in Law. f That as my intercession you wolde declare by the publike consent of the Church that you embrace him againe as a brother seeing he was excommunicate by the common consent. g That is, truly, and from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christ. h By our rigorous punishing. Or, in my misde. i Fro this place vnto the 6. chap. it. he entreateth onely of y^e ministers, saue he some time intermits delect that w^e appertineth to the whole Church, as Chap. 3. 17, and 18 verses, and not onely to y^e ministers. Rom. 11. 16. Chap. 4. 2. k In working mightly by vs he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumph. l The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to them which onely consider Christs death as a common death, & be thereat offed, or els thinke it folie: & bringeth againe life to the who in his death beholde their life. m That is, w^e preache for gaue, & corrupt it to saue mens afflictions. Or, through Christ, or of Christ

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towards them, 7 Requiring like wise that they wolde be fauorable to the incessuans adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also rayoceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine, 17 Consuting thereby suche quarelpickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his persone, sought nothing, but the overthrowe of his doctrine.

1 But I determined thus in my self, that I wolde not come againe to you in heaumes. 2 For if I make you sorie, who is he then that shulde make me glad, but the same which is made sorie by me? 3 And I wrote this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I shulde take heaumes of them, of whome I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioye is the ioye of you all. 4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye shulde be made sorie, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you. 5 And if any hath caused sorow, the same

1 He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the truth which he preached. 6 And to exalte his Apostleship against the bragges of the false apostles. 7. 13 He maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

CHAP. III.

1 DO we begine to praise our selues againe? or nede we as some other, epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you? 2 Ye are our epistle, writen in our hearts, which is vnderstand and red of all men, 3 In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ, ministered by vs, and writen, not with ynce, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart. 4 And suche trust haue we through Christ to God:

a Meaning himself, Timotheus and Siluanus. b Who were Gods penne. c The hardness of mans heart before he be regenerate, is as a stone table. Eze. 11. 19, & 36. 26: but being regenerate by the Spirit of God, it is as softe as flesh, y^e the grace of the Gospel may be writen in it, as in new tables. Jer. 31. 33.

a Which was giuen to Satan but now dooth repent. b Which made you & him sorie in my further epistle.

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, 4 to thinke anie thing, as of our selues: but our sufficiencie is of God.

6 Who also hathe made vs able ministers of the New testament, not of the letter but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministrat[i]on of death written w[i]th letters & ingraue[n] in stones, was glorious so y^e the childre[n] of Israel colde not beholde the face of Moses for the h[igh] glorie of his countenance (which glorie is done away)

8 How shal not the ministrat[i]on of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministerie of i[n]c[on]d[em]nati[on] was glorious, muche more doeth the ministrat[i]on of righteousnes excede in glorie.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceding glorie.

11 For if that which shulde be abolished, was glorious, much more shal that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seing then that we haue suche trust, we vse great boldenes of speache.

13 And we are not as Moses, which put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel shulde not looke vnto the end of that which shulde be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntil this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the Olde testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is laved ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheles when their heart shalbe turned to the Lord, the vaile shalbe taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is libertie.

18 But we all beholde as in a mirrour the glorie of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glorie to glorie, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

He declarath his diligence, and roundenes in his office. And that which his enemies roke for his disadvantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which he endured, he turned it to his great advantage. 11. 17 Showing what profit cometh thereby.

Therefore, seing that we haue this ministerie, as we haue receiued mercie, we fainte not:

2 But haue cast from vs the clokes of shame & walke not in craftines, nether handle we the worde of God disceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approue our selues to euerie mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

In whome the god of this worlde hathe blinded the mindes, that is, of the infideles, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the image of God, shulde not shine vnto them.

For we preache not our selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkenes, who which hathe shined in our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glorie of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But we haue this treasure in earthes vessels, y^e the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on euerie side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouertie, but not ouercome of pouertie.

9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euerie where we beare about in our bodie the dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 And because we haue the same Spirit of faith, according as it is written, I beleue, & therefore haue I spoken, we also beleue, and therefore speake, 14 Knowing that he which hathe raised vp the Lord Iesus, shal raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shal set vs with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes that mooste plenteous grace by the thanksgiving of manie may redoude to the praise of God.

16 Therefore we faint not, but thogh our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed daily.

17 For our light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre mooste excellent & eternal waight of glorie:

18 While we loke not on the things which are sene, but on the things which are not sene: for the things which are sene, are temporal: but the things which are not sene, are eternal.

for this insolite benefite of deliuerance, but also you all, which are bothe partakers of mine affliction and comforte, may abundantly set forth the glorie. Or, be corrupted. o Groweth stronger. p Which is so called in respect of the euerlasting life.

CHAP. V.

Paul proceedeth to declare the utilitie that cometh by the crosse. 4 How we ought to prepare our selues vnto it. 5 By whome, 9 And for what end. 14. 19 He setteth forth the grace of Christ, 20 And the office of ministers, and all the faithfull.

^a After this bodie shalbe dissolved, it shalbe made incorruptible and immortal.

^o Or, if so be we shalbe founde clothed, & not naked.
Reuel. 16. 15.
^o Or, whether.

^b Not onely quiet in mīde, but also ready w^o suffe all dangers: being assured of the good successe thereof.
^o Or, strangers in the bodie.
^c For here onely we beleue in God, & se him not.
^d In this bodie.
Rom. 14. 10.
^e Out of this bodie, to heauen.

^f That is, ether glorie, or shame.

^g His feareful iudgement.
^h He proneth the dignitie of his ministerie by ^h frute and effect thereof, which is to bring men to Christ.

ⁱ By embracing the same faith which we preach to others.

^k As they, w^o more esteemed the outward shewe of wisdom and cloquence, then true godlines.
^l As the aduersaries said, w^o colde not abide to heare them praised in our folie strength, to Gods glorie.

^m Therefore who soeuer giueth place to ambition or vaine glorie, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.

Isa. 43. 19.
Reuel. 21. 5.

ⁿ As the onely faithful do in Christ. ^p According to the estimation of the worlde: but as he is guided by the Spirit of God. ^q We do not esteeme, nor commend Christ him self now, as he was an excellent man: but as he was the Sonne of God, partaker of his glorie, and in whome God dwelled corporally: and do you thinke, that I will flatter my self or anye man in setting forth his giftes: Yea, when I praise my ministeres, I comēde the power of God: when I comēde our worthie factes, I praise the mightie power of God, set forth by vs wormes and wretches. ^r Let him be regenerat, and renounce him self, is all the rest is nothing.

FOR we knowe that if ^a our earthlie house of this tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a buylding giuen of God, that is, an house not made with hands, but eternal in the heauens.

² For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is frō heauen.

³ "Because that if we be clothed, we shal not be founde ^anaked.

⁵ And he that hathe created vs for this thing, ^h God, who also hathe giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit.

⁶ Therefore we are alway ^bbolde, though we knowe that whiles we are "at home in the bodie, we are absent from the Lord.

⁷ (For we ^c walke by faith, & not by sight)

⁸ Neuertheles, we are bolde, & loue rather to remoue out of the bodie, and to dwell with the Lord.

⁹ Wherefore also we couet, that bothe dwelling ^d at home, and remouing ^e from home, we may be acceptable to him.

¹⁰ *For we must all appeare before the iudgemēt seat of Christ, that euerie man may receiue the things which are done in his bodie, according to that he hathe done, whether it be ^f good or euil.

¹¹ Knowing therefore the ^s terror of the Lord, we ^h persuade men, & we ⁱ are made manifest vnto God, & I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.

¹² For we praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that ye may haue to answere against them, which reioyce in the ^k face, and not in the heart.

¹³ For whether we be ^l out of our wit, we are it ^m to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

¹⁴ For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because we thus iudge, that if one be dead for all, then were ⁿ all dead, ¹⁵ And he dyed for all, that they ^o which liue, shulde not hence forthe liue vnto the selues, but vnto him which dyed for the, and rose againe.

¹⁶ Wherefore, hēce forthe know we no mā pasther the flesh, yea though we had knowen Christ after the flesh, yet now hēce forthe ^q know we him no more.

¹⁷ Therefore if anye man be in Christ, let him be a ^r new creature. *Olde things are passed away: beholde, all things are become new.

¹⁸ And all things are of God, which hathe recociled vs vnto him self by Iesus Christ, and hathe giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

²⁰ Now then are we ambassadours for Christ: as though God did beseeche you through vs, we praye you in Christs steede, that ye be reconciled to God.

²¹ For he hathe made him to be ^t sinne for vs, which knew no sinne, that we shulde be ^u made the righteoufnes of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

^r An exhortation to Christian life, ^s And to beare him like affection, as he doeth them. ^t Also to kepe themselues from all pollution of idollarie bothe in bodie, and soule, and to haue none acquaintance w^o idolaters.

¹ SO we therefore as workers together be siēche you, that ye receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

³ We giue no occasion of offence in anye thing, that our ministerie shuide not be ^b reprehended.

⁴ But in all things we approue our selues as ^c the ministers of God, in muche patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

⁵ In stripes, in prisones, in tumultes, in labours,

⁶ By ^c watchings, by fastings, by puritie, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindnes, by the ^d holie Ghost, by ^e loue vnfaigned,

⁷ ^f By the worde of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteoufnes on the right hand and on the lefte,

⁸ By honour, and dishonour, by euil reporte & good reporte, as deceiuers, and yet true: ⁹ As vnknown, and yet known: as dying, and beholde, we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

¹⁰ As sorowing, & yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet make manie riche: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

¹¹ O Corinthians, our ^s mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

¹² Ye are not kept strait in vs, but ye are kept strait in your owne ^h bowelles.

¹³ Now for the same recompense, I speake as to my children, ⁱ Be you also enlarged.

^f Therefore without Christ we can not enioye the life euerlasting: not come to God.

^t That is, a sacrifice for sinne.

^u By imputation, when we shalbe clad with Christs iustice.

^a To wit, Gods fre mercie, wherein he hathe powred forth his infiniti-loue.

^b By the infidels, if they sawe no frute come thereof.
1 Cor. 4. 10.

^c He declareth w^o what weapons he resisted his afflictions.

^d Who is the efficient cause.

^e Which is, the final cause
^f By the Gospel, and the power of God and his owne integritie, he ouerthrew Satan, and the worlde, as w^o weapons on euery side most ready.

^g Signifying his most vehement affection.

^h Their iudgement was so corrupted, y^e they were not likewise afflicted towardes him, as he was towardes them. ⁱ Shewe like affection towardes me.

Ecl. 13. 21. k He seemeth to allude to y^e w^h is written, Deut. 22. 10. where y^e Lord commandeth that an ox & an ass be not yoked together, because y^e match is vnequal: so if the faithful marie with the infidels, or els haue to do w^h them in anye thing vnlawful, it is here rep: o ued.

1. Cor. 3. 13. & 6. 19. Leuis. 26. 11. Isa. 52. 11. Ierem. 31. 1. Or, the deuil. I so called because he hathe not onely life in him self, but giueth it also to all liuing creatures.

a Consider this wel, ye y^e ferne idoles w^h your bodies, & yet thinke your consciences pure towards God: God wil one day imite you for your halting. b Of bodie & soule. c That we may teache you. d By griedie consciences.

e He had neither rest in bodie, nor spirit. & it seemeth y^e he alludeth to that which is written, Deut. 32. 25. for the crosse to mans eye is commu- ne bothe to y^e goalie & to the wicked, although ro contrarie ends. f This ioye ouercame all my sorowes.

- 14 * Be not vnequally yoked with the infidels: for what fellowship hathe righteousnes with vnrighteousnes? and what communion hathe light with darkenes?
- 15 And what concorde hathe Christ with Belial? or what parte hathe the beleuer with the infidel?
- 16 And what agreement hathe the Temple of God with idoles? * for ye are the Temple of the liuing God: as God hath said, * I wil dwell among them, and walke there: and I wil be their God, and they shalbe my people.
- 17 * Wherefore come out from among the, and separate your selues, saith the Lord: and touche none vncleane thing, & I wil receiue you.
- 18 * And I wil be a Father vnto you, and ye shalbe my sonnes and daughters, saith the Lord almightie.

CHAP. VII.

He exhorteth them by the promises of God to kepe their selues pure. 3. 7 Assuring them of his loue. 8. 13 And doeth not excuse his seueritie towards them, but reioy- ceth thereat, considering what profite came thereby. 10 Of two sortes of sorow.

- 1 SEing then we haue these promises, dearely beloued, let vs * cleanse our selues from all filthines of the b flesh & spirit, and growe vp vnto ful holines in the feare of God.
- 2 * Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: we haue consumed no man: we haue defrauded no man.
- 3 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue said before, that ye are in our hearts, to dye and liue together.
- 4 I vse great boldenes of speache towards you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulacion.
- 5 For whē we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no reste, but we were troubled on euerie side, fightings e without, & terrours within.
- 6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus:
- 7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolacion wherewith he was comforted of you, whē he tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent minde to mearde, so that I reioyced f muche more.
- 8 For thogh I made you forie with a letter, I repent not, thogh I did repent: for I perceiue that the same epistle made you forie, thogh it were but for a season.
- 9 I now reioyce, not that ye were forie, but that ye forowed to repentance: for ye sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.
- 10 * For godlie sorowe causeth repentance vnto saluacion, not to be repented of: but the worldlie sorowe causeth death.

11 For beholde, this thing that ye haue bene s godly forie, what great care it hathe wrought in you: yea, what h clearing of your selues: yea what indignacion: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what i punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues, that ye are pure in this matter.

- 12 Wherefore, thogh I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrōg, nether for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care towards you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.
- 13 Therefore we were comforted, because ye were comforted: but rather we reioyced muche more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.
- 14 For if y^e I haue boasted anye thig to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in trueth, euen fo our boasting vnto Titus was true.
- 15 And k his inwarde affection is more abundant towards you, when he remembereth the obedience of you all, and how with feare & trembling ye receiued him.
- 16 I reioyce therefore that I may l put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

By the example of the Macedonians, 9 And Christ he exhorteth them to continue relieuing the poore Sautes, commending their good beginning. 23 After he commendeth Titus and his felowes vnto them.

- 1 WE do you also to wit, brethren, of the a grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,
- 2 Because in great tryal of affliction their ioye abunded, and their moste extreme pouertie b abunded vnto their riche liberalitie.
- 3 For to their power (I beare recorde) yea, & beyonde their power, they were willing,
- 4 And prayed vs with great instance that we wolde receiue the c grace, & fellowship * of the ministring which is towards the Sautes.
- 5 And thus they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the wil of God,
- 6 That we shulde exhorte Titus, that as he had begonne, so he wolde also accomplish the same grace among you also.
- 7 Therefore, as ye abunde in euerie thing, in faith and worde, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so se that ye abude in this grace also.
- 8 This say I not by commandement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore proue I the naturalnes of your loue.
- 9 For ye knowe the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that he being riche, for your sake became poore, that ye through his pouertie might be made riche.

g Whose heart Gods Spirit doeth touche, he is forie for his sinnes committed against so mercifull a Father: & these are the frutes of his repē tance, as witness Dauids & Peters teares: others which are forie for their sinnes onely for feare of punishment & Gods vengeance, fall into desperacio, as Cain, Saul, Achitophil & Iudas. h In asking God forgiveness. i For in iudging & chastising your selues, you preuented Gods anger. H. Arr. k The Greke worde signifieth, his bowels, whereby is ment moste great loue and tender affection. l Bothe in thinking & reporting wel of you.

a This benefite of God appeared in two things: first, y^e the Macedonians being so to great affli: & so were so propit to helpe others: & next y^e being in great pouertie, were verie liberal towards others. b So that a moste abundant river of riches flowed out of their pouertie. c So he calleth their liberalitie, ether because they were the bestowers of Gods graces, or because they receiued them of God freely, and so they desired Paul to se to y^e distribution thereof.

d Euerie man may do good that hath ability thereto, but to wil, and haue a minde to do good, cometh of peruse charitie.

e That as you helpe others in their neede, so others shall relieue your want.

Exod. 16. 18. f That bothe you & others, as occasiõ shall serue, may relieue y^e godlie according to their necessities.

g And willingly offered him self to gather your almes.

h In preaching the Gospel. Some vnderstand Luke, others Barnabas.

Rom. 12. 17. i This weldoing is approved before God & man.

k That is, by whome Christs glorie is greatly advanced.

- 10 And I shewe my minde herein : for this is expedient for you, w^h haue begonne not to do onely, but also to wil, a yere ago.
- 11 Now therefore performe to do it also, that as there was a readines to wil, euē so ye maye performe it of that which ye haue.
- 12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a mā hathe, & not according to that he hathe not.
- 13 Nether is it that other men shulde be eased and you grieued.
- 14 But vpon like condicion, at this time your e abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be f equalitie:
- 15 As it is written, He that gathered muche, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.*
- 16 And thanks be vnto God, which hathe put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.
- 17 Because he accepted the g exhortacion, yea, he was so careful that of his owne accorde he went vnto you.
- 18 And we haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise h in y^e Gospei throughout all the Churches,
- 19 (And not so onely, but is also chofen of the Churches to be a felowe in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glorie of the same Lord, and declaracion of your prõpt minde)
- 20 Auoyding this, that no man shulde blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs,
- 21 Prouiding* for honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.
- 22 And we haue sent with thē our brother, whome we haue oft times proued to be diligent in manie things, but now muche more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.
- 23 Whether ame do enquire of Titus, he is my felowe and helper to youwarde: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, & the g glorie of Christ.
- 24 Wherefore shewe towarde them, & before the Churches the profe of your loue, and of the reioycing that we haue of you.

CHAP. IX.

- 3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to thē.
- 6 He exhorteth to giue almes cherefully, 7 Shewing what frute wil come thereof.
- 1 FOR as touching the ministring to the Saintes, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.
- 2 For I knowe your readines of minde, whereof I boast my self of you vnto them of Macedonia, & say, that Achara was prepared a yere ago, and your zeale hathe prouoked manie.
- 3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioycing ouer you shulde be in vaine in

- this behalfe, that ye (as I haue said) be readie:
- 4 Lest if thei of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, we (I nede not to say, you) shulde be ashamed in this my constant boasting.
- 5 Wherefore, I thought it necessarie to exhorte the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be readie, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.
- 6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.
- 7 As euerie man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not grudgingly*, or of necessitie: for God loueth a chereful giuer.
- 8 And God is able to make all grace to abounde towarde you, that ye alwaies hauing a all sufficiencie in all things, may abounde in euerie b good worke,
- 9 As it is written,* c He hathe sparsed abroad and hathe giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.
- 10 Also he that findeth seede to the sower, wil minister likewise bread for foode, and multiplie your sede, and increase the frutes of your beneuolence,
- 11 That on all partes ye may be made rich vnto all liberalitie, w^h causeth through vs thanksgiuing vnto God.
- 12 For the ministracion of this serue not onely supplieth the necessities of y^e Saintes, but also is abundant by the thanksgiuing of manie vnto God,
- 13 (Which by the experimete of this ministracion praise God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospei of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men)
- 14 And by d their praier for you, desiring after you greatly, for the abundant grace of God in you.
- 15 Thanks therefore be vnto God for his vnspokeable gift.

CHAP. X.

- He toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his autoritie, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how he vseth it.*
- 1 NOW I Paul my self beseeche you by the mekenes, & gentlenes of Christ, which when I am present among you, am a base, but am bolde towarde you being absent:
- 2 And thus I require you, that I nede not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, w^h esteeme vs as thogh we walked b according to the flesh,
- 3 Neuertheles, thogh we walke in the flesh, yet we do not warre after the flesh,

Prou. 11. 25.
Rom. 12. 8.
Eccle. 35. 11.

a Lest thei shulde giue but little, distrusting to impoverish the felues thereby, he sheweth y^e God wil so blesse their liberal heartes, y^e bothe they shall haue y^e enough for the felues & also to helpe others with all.

Psal. 112. 9.
b That ye may do good & helpe others at all times.

c Dauid speaketh of that man w^h feareth God & loueth his neighbour.

d Besides that by their liberalitie God shall be praised, thei also shall be commended to God by their prayers whome thei haue holpen. yea, & all men shall reuerence them, as being endued with an excellent gift of God.

e Or, greatly affected towarde you.

f These wordes his backbiters vsed, thinking thereby to diminish his autoritie, as ver. c. 10.

g As thogh we boasted of our felues by a carnal affection.

- 4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mightie through God, to cast downe holdes)
- 5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euerie high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euerie thoght to the obedience of Christ,
- 6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
- 7 Loke ye on things after the appearance: If anie man trust in him self that he is Christs, let him consider this againe of him self, that as he is Christs, euē so are we Christs.
- 8 For thogh I shulde boast somewhat more of our autoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I shulde haue no shame.
- 9 This I say that I may not seme as it were to feare you with letters.
- 10 For the letters, saith he, are fore and strong, but his bodelie presence is weak, and his speache is of no value.
- 11 Let suche one thinke this, that suche as we are in worde by letters when we are absent, suche wil we be also in dede, when we are present.
- 12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to the, which praise them selues: but they vnderstand not that they measure them selues with them selues, & compare them selues with them selues.
- 13 But we wil not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to atreine euen vnto you.
- 14 For we stretch not our selues beyonde our measure, as thogh we had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue we come in preaching the Gospel of Christ,
- 15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shal increase, to be magnified by you according to our line abundantly,
- 16 And to preache the Gospel in those regions which are beyode you: not to reioyce in another mans line, that is in the things that are prepared already.
- 17 * But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.
- 18 For he that praiseth him self, is not allowed, but he whome the Lord praiseth.

CHAP. XI.

He declareth his affection towards them. 5 The excellence of his ministerie. 9 And his diligence in the same. 13 The fetches of the false apostles. 16 The peruerse judgement of the Corinthians. 22 And his owne praises.

- 1 WOlde to God, ye colde suffer a litle my foolishnes, and in deed, ye suffer me.
- 2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godlie ielousie: for I haue prepared you for one housband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:
- 3 But I feare lest as the * serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your mindes shulde be corrupte from the simplicitie that is in Christ.
- 4 For if he that cometh, preacheth another Iesus then him whome we haue preached: or if ye receiue another spirit then that which ye haue receiued: ether another Gospel, then that ye haue receiued, ye might wel haue suffered him.
- 5 Verely I suppose that I was not inferior to the verie chief Apostles.
- 6 And thogh I be rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifeste to the vtmost, in all things.
- 7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my self, that ye might be exalted, & because I preached to you the Gospel of God frely?
- 8 I robbed other Churches, and toke wages of them to do you seruice.
- 9 And when I was present with you, and had neede, I was not slothful to the hindrance of anie man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came fro Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I kept and wil kepe my self that I shuld not be grieuous to you.
- 10 The trueth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shal not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.
- 11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.
- 12 But what I do, that wil I do: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might be founde like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.
- 13 For suche false apostles are deceitful workers, and transforme them selues into the Apostles of Christ.
- 14 And no maruail: for Satan him self is transformed into an Angel of light.
- 15 Therefore it is no great thing, thogh his ministers transforme them selues, as thogh they were the ministers of righteousness, whose end shalbe according to their workes.
- 16 I say againe, let no man thinke, that I am foolish: or els take me euē as a foole, that I also may boast my self a litle.
- 17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

^a He calleth the praising of hi self dotage to the wthig the arrogacie of the false apostles copelled him, who fought nothing els, but to ouerthrowe the Church by diminishing the autoritie of his ministerie.

^b To speake in mine owne commendation.

^c The minister maisteth Christ & his Church as housband and wife by preaching of the Gospel.

^d That is, more perfit doctrine concerning Christ Iesus.

^f They did not preache Christ more purely then I did: for in this behalfe I was nothing inferior to the chiefest Apostles.

CHAP. XII.

1 He reioyceth in his preferment, s. 7 But chisty in his humbles. 11 And layeth the cause of his boasting upon the Corinthians. 14 He sheweth what good wil he beareth them. 20 And promyseth to come vnto them.

I T is not expedient for me no dout to reioyce: for I wil come to vision and reuelations of the Lord.

* I knowe a man in Christ above fourtene yeres ago, (whether he were in the bodie, I can not tel, or out of the bodie, I can not tel: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the thirde heauen.

And I knowe suche a man (whether in the bodie, or out of y bodie, I can not tel: God knoweth.)

4 How that he was také vp into Paradise, & heard wordes which can not be spoken, which are not possible for man to vtter.

5 Of suche a man wil I reioyce: of my self wil I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I wolde reioyce, I shulde not be a foole: for I wil say the trueth, but I refraine, lest anie mā shulde thinke of me about that he seeth in me, or y he heareth of me.

7 And lest I shulde be exalted out of measure through the abundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto me d a pricke in the flesh, y messenger of Satā to buffet me, because I shulde not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besoght the Lord * thrise, that it might departe from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made f perfite through weakenes. Verse gladly therefore wil I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for whē I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my self: ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene comended of you: for in nothing was I inferior vnto the verie chief Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all pacience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it, w herein ye were inferiors vnto other Churches, * except that I haue not bene slothful to your hinderace: forgive me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the thurde time I am readie to come vnto you, and yet wil I not be slothful to your hinderace: for I seke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to laye vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I wil moſte gladly bestowe, and wil be bestowed for your * foules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But be it that I charged you not: k yet forasmuche as I was craftie, I toke you with guile.

17 Did I pillyou by anie of them whome I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, & with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pil you of anie thing? walked we not in the self same spirit? walked we not in the same steppes?

19 Againe, thinke ye that we excuse our selues vnto you? we speake before God in Christ. But we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

4 Proue your selues whether ye are in the faith: examine your selues: knowe ye not your owne selues, how that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

5 But I trust that ye shal knowe that we are not reprobates.

6 Now I pray vnto God that ye do none euil, not that we shulde seme approued, but that ye shulde do that which is honest: thogh we be as reprobates.

7 For we can not do anie thing against the trueth, but for the trueth.

8 For we are glad when we are weake, and that ye are strong: this also we wish for euen your perfection.

9 Therefore write I these things being absent, lest when I am present, I shulde vse sharpenes, according to the power which the Lord hath giuen me, to edification, and not to destruction.

10 Finally brethren, fare ye well: be patient: be of good comfort: be of one minde: liue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shal be with you.

THE EPISTLE OF the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Galatians after they had bene instructed by S. Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to false Apostles, who entering in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, & taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he proueth that the granting thereof is the overthrowe of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as thogh they had bene sent of the chief Apostles, and that Paul had no autoritie, but spake of him self, he proueth bothe that he is an Apostle ordained by God, and also that he is not inferior to the rest of the Apostles: which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not onely vprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the trueth and the end thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to embrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, & not to haue their consciences snared in the gennes of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered them selues to be seduced by the false apostles who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Law were necessarie to saluation, & And detesteth them that preache a me otherwise then Christ purely. 13 He sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office & Apostleship, and declareth him self to be equal with the chief Apostles.

PAUL an Apostie (not of men, nether by mā, but by IESVS CHRIST, and God the Father w̄ hath raised him from the dead)

And all the brethren w̄ are with me, vnto ȳ Churches of Galatia: Grace be with you and peace from God the Father, & from our Lord Iesus Christ, Which gaue him self for our sinnes, that he might deliuer vs * from this c present euil worlde according to the wil of God euen our Father,

To whome be glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

I marueile that ye are so sone remoued away vnto another Gospel, from him that had called you in the d grace of Christ,

Which is not another Gospel, saue ȳ there be some which trouble you, and intende to e peruert the Gospel of Christ.

But thogh that we, or an f Angel from heauen preache vnto you other wise, the that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now againe, If anie man preache vnto you otherwise, the ȳ ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

For s now preache I mans doctrine, or Gods: or go I about to please men? for if I shulde yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

* Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after h man.

For nether receiued I it of man, nether was I taught it, but by the i reuelation of Iesus Christ.

For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time paste, in the Iewish religiō, how that * I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it,

And profited in the Iewish religiō aboute manie of my companions of mine owne nacion, and was muche more zealous of ȳ k traditions of my fathers.

But when it l pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

To reueile his Sonne in me, that I shulde preache him * among the Gentiles, immediatly I cōmunicated not with m flesh and blood:

Nether came I againe to Ierusalem to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, & turned againe vnto Damascus.

18 Then after thre yeres I came againe to Ierusalem to visite Peter, and abode with him fiftene dayes.

19 And none other of the Apostles sawe I, saue Iames the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write vnto you, beholde, I w̄nesse before God, that I lie not.

21 After that, I went into the coastes of Syria & Cilicia: for I was vnknownen by face vnto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.

22 But they had heard onely some say, He w̄ persecuted vs in time past, now preacheth the a faith, which before he destroyed.

23 And they glorified God for me.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that he is nothing inferior to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that he hath reproofed Peter the Apostle of the Iewes. 16 After he cometh to the principal scope, which is to proue that iustification onely cometh of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe.

THEN fourtene yeres after, I went vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and toke with me Titus also.

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and a communicated with the of the Gospel which I preache among the Gentiles, * but particularly with them that were the chief, lest by any meanes I shulde runne, or had runne in vaine:

Gentiles, and thei vnto the Circumcision,

10 *Warning onely that we shulde remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to do.

11 ¶ And whē Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstode him sto his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certeine came from Iammes, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew & separated him self, fearing them which were of the Circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in somuche that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I sawe, that they went not the right way to the truth of the Gospel, I said vnto Peter before all men, If y being a Iewe, liuest as the Gētiles, & not like the Iewes, why hcōstrainest thou the Gentiles to do like the Iewes?

15 We which are Iewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Law, but by the faith of Ie-sus Christ: euen we, I say, haue beleued in Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law, because that by the workes of the Law no flesh shalbe iustified.

17 *If then while we seke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are founde sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God forbidd.

18 For if I buyld againe the things that I haue destroyed, I make my self a tref-passer.

19 For I through the Law am dead to the Law, & that I might liue vnto God, I am crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue yet, not I now, but Christ liueth in me: & in that that I now liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued me, & giuen him self for me.

21 I do not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousness be by y Law, then Christ dyed without a cause.

CHAP. III.

He rebuketh them sharply. 2 And proueth by di-uers reasons that iustification is by faith. 6 As ap-peareth by the example of Abraham. 10. 19. 24. And by the office, & the end, bothe of the Law. 11. 25. And of faith.

O Foolish Galatiās, who hath bewit-ned you that ye shulde not obey the truth, to whome Iesus Christ before was described in your sight, & among you crucified?

2 This onely wolde I learne of you, Receiue ye the blessing of God which is in Christ Iesus, or els had bene crucified among you.

ued ye the Spirit by the workes of y Law, or by the hearing of e faith preached?

Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begonne in the Spirit, ye wolde now be made perfit by the flesh?

4 Haue ye suffred so many things in vaine?
if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 He therefore y ministrereth to you the Spirit, & worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Tea rather as Abraham beleued God, & it was imputed to him for righteousness.

7 Knowe ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreseeing, y God wolde iustifie y Gētiles through faith, preached before y Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, *In thee shal all the Gentiles be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blef-sed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the workes of the Law, are vnder the curse: for it is written,
*Cursed is euerie man that continueth not in all things, which are writtē in the boke of the Law, to do them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is euident: * for the iust shal liue by faith.

12 And the Law is not of faith: but * the man that shal do those things, shal liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Law, when he was made a curse for vs (for it is written, * Cursed is euerie one that hangeth on tre)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come firmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or kaddeth any thing thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his sēde were the promises made. He saith not, And to the sēdes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy sēde, as of one, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Law which was foure hundredth and thirtie yeres after, can not disanul the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, y it shulde make the promises of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more by the promises, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promises.

19 Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was 21 Is the Law then against the promes of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Law giue which colde haue giuen life, surely righteousnes shulde haue bene by the Law.

22 But the Scripture hathe concluded all vnder sinne, that the promes by the faith of Iesus Christ shulde be giuen to them that beleue.

23 But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Law, and shut vp vnto the faith, which shulde afterwarde be reueiled.

24 Wherefore the Law was our scholmaster to bring vs to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

CHAP. IIIII.

1 He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordeined.
 3 Which being shadowes must end when Christ the trueth commeth.
 9 He moueth them by certeine exhortations.
 22 And confirmeth his argument with a strong example or allegorie.

Then I say, that the heire as long as the is a childe, differeth nothing from a seruant, though he be Lord of all,

2 But is vnder tuters and gouerners, vntil the time appointed of the father.

3 Euen so, we when we were children, were in bondage vnder the rudiments of the worlde.

4 But when the fulnes of time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, & made vnder the Law,

5 That he might redeme them which were vnder the Law, that we might receiue the adoption of the sonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, God hathe sent forth the Spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, which cryeth, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore, thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne: now if thou be a sonne, thou art also the heire of God through Christ.

8 But euen then, when ye knewe not God, ye did seruite vnto them, which by nature are not gods.

9 But now seing ye knowe God, yea, rather are knowen of God, how turne ye againe vnto impotent and beggerlie rudiments, whereunto as from the beginning ye will be in bondage againe?

10 Ye obserue dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeres.

11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.

12 Be ye as I: for I am euen as you: brethren, I beseeche you: ye haue not hurt me at all.

13 And ye knowe, how through infirmitie of the flesh I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first.

14 And the tryal of me which was in my flesh, ye despised not, nether abhorred: but ye receiued me as an Angel of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.

15 What was then your felicitie: for I beare you recorde, that if it had bene possible, ye wolde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the trueth?

17 They are ielous ouer you amisse: yea, they wolde exclude you, that ye shulde altogether loue them.

18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, & not onely when I am present with you, 19 My litle children, of whome I trauaile in birth againe, vntil Christ be formed in you.

20 And I wolde I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I am in doute of you.

21 Tell me, ye that will be vnder the Law, do ye not heare the Law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, one by a seruant, & one by a fre woman.

23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was of the fre woman, was borne by promes.

24 By the which things another thing is ment: for these mothers are the two Testaments, the one which is Agar of mounte Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, & it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) and she is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem, which is aboute, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, Reioyce thou barren that bearest no children: breake forth, & crye, thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hathe many more children, then she which hathe an housband.

16 Then I say, walke in the Spirit, and ye shal not fulfil the lustes of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrarie one to the other, so that ye can not do the same things that ye wolde.

18 And if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not vnder the Law.

19 Moreouer the workes of the flesh are manifest, which are adulterie, fornication, vnclennes, wantonnes,

22 But the frute of the Spirit is loue, ioye, peace, long suffering, gentlenes, goodnes, faith, 23 Mekenes, temperancie: against suche there is no Law.

24 For they that are Christs, haue crucified the flesh with the affections and the lustes.

25 If we liue in the Spirit, let vs also walke in the Spirit.

1 Brethren, if a man be fallen by occasion into anie faute, ye which are spiritual, restore suche one with the spirit of mekenes, considering thy self, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one anothers burden, and so fulfil the Law of Christ.

3 For if anie man seme to him self, that he is some what, when he is nothing, he deceueth him self in his imagination.

4 But let euerie man proue his owne worke, and then shal he haue reioycing in him self onely and not in another.

5 For euerie man shal beare his owne burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the worde, make him that hath taught him, partaker of all his goods.

7 Be not deceiued: God is not mocked: for whatsoeuer a man soweth, that shal he also reape.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, shal of the flesh reape corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shal of the spirit reape life euerlasting.

9 Let vs not therefore be wearie of well doing: for in due season we shal reape, if we faint not.

10 While we haue therefore time, let vs do good vnto all men, but specially vnto them, which are of the housholde of faith.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGUMENT.

While Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them, by reason wherof he wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutacion, he assureth them of saluacion, because they were thereunto predestinate by the fre election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vpon to this eternal life by the holie Gost, giuen vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which mysterie he prayeth God to confirme towards them. And to the intent they shulde not glorie in them selues, he sheweth them their extreme miserie, wherein they were plunged before they knewe Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whome the promises were not made, and yet by the fre mercie of God in Christ Iesus, they were saued, and he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfite vnderstanding of his Sonne, & exhorteih them like wise to be mindeful of so great benefites, nether to be moued with the false apostles, which seke to overthrowe their faith, and treade vnder fote the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternal counsel of God: who by this meanes preserueih onely his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministerie, forasmuche as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring forth the moste plentiful frutes, as innocencie, holines, with all suche offices appertaining to godlines. Last of all, he declareth not onely in general what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euerie mans vocacion.

CHAP. I.

After his salutacion, 4 He sheweth that the chief cause of their saluacion standeth in the fre election of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his good wil towards them, giuing thanks and praying God for their faith.
 21 The maiestie of Christ.

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, vntill the redemption of the possession purchased vnto the praise of his glorie.

15 Therefore also after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, & loue towards all the Saintes, 16 I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lord Iesus Christ the Father of glorie, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisdom, and reuelation through the knowledge of him,

18 That y^e eyes of your vnderstanding may be lightened that ye may knowe what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saintes,

19 And what is y^e exceeding greatnes of his power towards vs, which beleue, according to the working of his mightie power,

22 And hath made all things subiect vnder his fete, & hath appointed him ouer all things to be the head of the Church, 23 Which is his bodie, euen the fulnes of him that filleth all in all things.

CHAP. II.

1 To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the onlie cause of saluation, 11 He sheweth them what manner of people they were before their conuersion, 18 And what they are now in Christ.

Col. 2. 13.
1 And you haue he quickened, that were dead in trespasses and finnes,
2 Wherein, in time past ye walked, according to the course of this worlde, & after the prince that ruleth in the aire, euen the spirit, that now worketh in the childre of disobedience,
3 Among whome we also had our conuersion in time past, in the lustes of our flesh, in fulfilling the wil of the flesh, & of the minde, and were by nature the children of wrath, as well as others.
4 But God which is riche in mercie, through his great loue wherewith he loued vs,
5 Euen when we were dead by finnes, hath quickened vs together in Christ, by whose grace ye are saued,
6 And hath raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenlie places in Christ Iesus,
7 That he might shew in the ages to come the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindnes towards vs in Christ Iesus.
8 For by grace are ye saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gifte of God,

9 Not of workes, lest any man shulde boaste him self.

10 For we are his workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes; which God hath ordeined, that we shulde walke in them.

11 Wherefore remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, & called vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands, 12 That ye were, I say, at y^e time without Christ, & were aliens from the comunion of Israel, & were strangers fro the covenants of promes, & had no hope, & were without God in the worlde.

13 But now in Christ Iesus, ye which once were farre of, are made nere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of bothe one, & hath broken the stoppe of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his flesh the hatred, that is, the Law of commandments which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one newe man in him self, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile bothe vnto God in one bodie by his crosse, & slay hatred thereby, 17 And came, and preached peace to you which were a farre of, & to them that were nere.

18 For through him we bothe haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers & foreners: but citizens with the Saintes, and of the household of God,

20 And are buyt vpon the fundacion of the Apostles and Prophetes, Iesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone, 21 In whome all the buylding coupled together, groweth vnto an holie Temple in the Lord, 22 In whome ye also are buyt together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment: 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his trouble, 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.

1 For this cause, I Paul am the prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,
 2 It ye haue heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is giuen me to you warde,
 3 That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this mysterie vnto me (as I wrote aboue in fewe wordes, 4 Whereby when ye read, ye may know mine vnderstanding in the mysterie of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was not opened was not in coparison of that abundance which was shewed when they were called: neither yet was the time, nor the manner known.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holie Gost to go to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi: a citie of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preache the Gospel vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he trauiled from place to place, til at the length he was taken prisoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians, being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with relief vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, causid him to write this Epistle, wherem he commendet them that they stode manfully against the false apostles, putting them in minde of his good wil towards them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrink: for the Gospel thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace embrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who shulde instruct them in matters more amply yea, and that he him self wolde also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, he cōsisteth their false doctrine, by prouing onely Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whome we haue all thing, and without whome we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this followe certeine admonitions bothe particular and general, with testification of his affection towarde them, and thankesfull accepting of their beneuolence.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing that he that hath begone this good worke in you, wil performe it vntil the ^d day of Iesus Christ,
7 As it becometh me so to iudge of you all because I haue you in remembrance ^e that bothe in my ^{bādes}, and in my defense, and confirmation of the Gospel you all were partakers of my ^f grace.
8 For God is my recorde, how I long after you all from the verie heart rote in Iesus Christ.
9 And this I pray, that your loue may abūde, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement, 10 That ye may discern things that “differ one from another, that ye may be pure, and without offence, vntil the day of Christ, 11 Filled with the frutes of ^h righteousnes, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glorie and praise of God.
12 ¶ I wolde ye vnderstode, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto me, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel, 13 So that my ^{bādes} in ⁱ Christ are famous throughout all the ^k iudgement hall, and in all other places, 18 What then? yet Christ is preached all maner wayes, whether it ^p be vnder a pretence, or syncerely: and I therein ioye: yea, and wil ioye.

19 For I knowe that this shal turne to my saluation, through your prayer, & by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ,

25 And this am I sure of, that I shal abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioye of ^t your faith, 26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in Iesus Christ for me, by my comming to you againe.
27 * Onely let your cōuersation be, as it becometh ^u the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and se you, or els be absent, I may heare of your matters that ye ^v continue in one Spirit, & in one minde fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

6 Who being in the forme of God, thought it no robbery to be equal with God:

7 But he made him self of no reputation, and toke on him the forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, and was founde in shape as a man.

8 He humbled him self, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

9 Wherefore God hathe also highly exalted him, and giuen him a Name aboue euerie name,

15 That ye may be blameles, and pure, & the sonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughtie and croked nation, among whome ye shine as lights in the worlde, 16 Holding forthe the worde of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Christ, that I haue not runne in vaine, nether haue labored in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be offered vp vpon the sacrifice, and seruice of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Iesus, to send

*Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comforte, when I knowe your state.

20 For I haue no man like minded, who wil faithfully care for your matters.

21 For all seke their owne, & not y which is Iesus Christs.

22 But ye knowe the profe of him, that as a sonne with his father, he hathe serued with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send assone as I knowe how it wil go with me, 24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my self shal come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessarie to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellowe souldier, eue your messenger, and he that ministred vnto me suche things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after all you, and was full of heaumes, because ye had heard, that he had bene sicke.

27 And no doute he was sicke, verie nere vnto death: but God had mercie on him, & not on him onely, but on me also, lest I shulde haue sorowe vpon sorowe.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligētly, that when ye shulde se him againe, ye might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorowful.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladnes, and make muche of suche:

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGUMENT.

In this Epistle S. Paul putteth difference betweene the liuelie, effectual and true Christ, and the fained, contrefait and imagined Christ, whome the false apostles taught. And first, he confirmeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefite towards them, teaching them also that saluacion, and whatsoeuer good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whome onely we embrace by the Gospel. But forasmuche as the false brethren wolde haue mixed the Law with the Gospel, he toucheth those flatterers Vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay onely on Christ, without whome all things are but mere vanitie. And as for Circumcision, abstinence from meates, external holines, worshiping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, he vterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stande in mortification of the flesh, newenes of life, with other like offices appertaining to the generally & particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

2 He giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Praieth for the increase of their faith. 13 He sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discovereth the contrefait Christ of the false apostles. 25 He approueth his autoritie & charge, 28 And of his faithfull executing of the same.

1 Paul an Apottle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God, & Timotheus our brother,

2 To the, which are at Colosse, Saïtes & faithfull brethren in Christ: Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 We giue thanks to God euē the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, alwaies praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Iesus, and of your loue towards all Saintes,
5 For the hopes sake, which is layd vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the worde of trueth, which is the Gospel,

6 Which is come vnto you, even as it is vnto all the worlde, and is frutefull, as it is also among you, from the day that ye heard and truly knewe the grace of God,

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our deare felowe seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue by the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the daye we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be fulfilled with knowledge of his wil, in all wisdome, & spiritual vnderstanding,

10 * That ye might walke worthie of the Lord, and please him in all things, being frutefull in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all pacience, & long suffring with ioyfulness,

12 Giuing thanks vnto the Father, which hath made vs mete to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saintes in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkenes, and hath translated vs into the kingdome of his deare Sonne,

14 In whome we haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiuenes of sinnes, 15 Who is the image of the inuisible God, the first borne of euerie creature.

16 * For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and inuisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principaities, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him, 17 And he is before all things, and in him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the bodie of the Church: he is the beginning, & the first borne of the dead, that in all things he might haue the preeminence.

19 * For it pleased the Father, that in him shulde all fulnes dwell,

20 And by him to reconcile all things vnto him self, and to set at peace through the blood of his crosse bothe the things in 9 *For in him dwelleth all the fulnes of the Godhead bodely.

10 And ye are compleate in him, which is the head of all Principallitie and Power:

11 In whome also ye are circumcised with circumcison made without hāds, by putting of y^e sinful bodie of the flesh, through the circumcison of Christ,

12 In that ye are buried with him through baptisme, in whome ye are also raised vp together through the faiths of the operation of God which raised him from the dead.

13 *And ye which were dead in sinnes, and in the vncircumcisiō of your flesh, hathe he quickened together with him, forgiuing you all your trespases.

14 And putting out the hand writing of ordinances that was against vs, w^{ch} was contrarie to vs, he euen toke it out of the way, & fastened it vpon the crosse,

15 And hathe spoiled the Principalities, and Powers, and hathe made a shewe of them openly, and hathe triumphed ouer them in the same crosse.

16 Let no man therefore condemne you in meat and drinke, or in respect of an holie day, or of the new moone, or of the Sabbath dayes,

THE FIRST EPISTLE of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene wel instructed in the faith, perfection, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel, arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as mozte careful for th:m) sent Timothee to strengihen them, who sone after admonishing him of their estate, gaue occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, & to suffer whatsoeuer God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godlie liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheat, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to ouerthrowe their faith, taught falsely, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seke curiously to knowe the times, willing them rather to wathe lest the sudden comming of Christ come vpon them at vnwares: and so after certeine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

 But as touching brotherlie loue, ye neede not y^e I write vnto you: * for ye are taught of God to loue one another.
 Yea, & that thing verely ye do vnto all y^e brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: but we beseeche you, brethre, that ye increase more and more,
 * And that ye studie to be quiet, and to medle with your owne busines, & to worke with your fowne hands, as we commanded you,
 That ye may behaue your selues honestly toward them that are without, & that nothing be lacking vnto you.
 ¶ I wolde not, brethren, haue you ignorant concerning the which are a slepe, that ye sorrowe not euē as other w^h haue no hope.
 For if we beleue that Iesus is dead, and is risen, euē so them which slepe in Iesus, wil God bring with him.
 For this say we vnto you by the m worde of the Lord, * that we which liue, & are remaining in the coming of the Lord, shal not preuent them which slepe.
 For the Lord him self shal descēd from heauē with a showte, & with the voyce of the Archāgel & * with the trūpet of God: and the dead in Christ shal rise first.
 Then shal we which liue and remaine, be caught vp with them also in the cloudes, to mete the Lord in the ayer: & so shal we euer be with the Lord.
 Wherefore, comfort your selues one another with these wordes.

CHAP. V.

He enformeth them of the day of iudgement & coming of the Lord, & Exhorting the to watch, & to regard such as preache Gods worde among them.

But of the times & seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede y^e I write vnto you.
 For ye your selues knowe perfetely, that the day of the Lord shal come, euen as a thefe in the night.
 For when they shal say, Peace, and safetie, then shal come vpon them sudden destruction, as the b trauail vpon a woman with childe, and they shal not escape.

that day shulde come on you, as if were a thefe.
 Ye are all the children of light, and the childre of the day, ye are not of the night nether of darkenes.
 Therefore let vs not slepe as do other, but let vs watch and be sober.
 For they that slepe, slepe in the night, & they that be dronken, are dronken in the night.
 But let vs which are of the day, be sober, * putting on y^e brest plate of faith & loue, & of the hope of saluation for an helmet.
 For God hathe not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ,
 Which dyed for vs, that whether we wake or slepe, we shulde liue together with him.
 Wherefore exhorte one another, & edifie one another, euen as ye do.
 Now we beseeche you, brethren, that ye knowe them, which labour among you, & are ouer you in the Lord, and admonish you,
 That ye haue them in singular loue for their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.
 We desire you, brethre, admonish them that are vnruilie: comforte the feble minded: beare with the weake: be patient toward all men.
 * Se that none recompense euil for euil vnto any man: but euer followe that which is good, bothe toward your selues, and toward all men.
 Reioyce euermore.
 * Pray continually.
 In all things giue thanks: for this is the wil of God in Christ Iesus toward you.
 Quench not the Spirit.
 Despise not prophesying.
 Trye all things, and kepe that which is good.
 Absteyne from all appearance of euil.
 Now the verie God of peace sanctifie you throughout: and I pray God that your whole spirit and soule and bodie, may be kept blameles vnto the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

THE SECONDE EPI- stle to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Lest the Thessalonians shulde thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places, rather then came to the, he writeth vnto them and exhorteth the to patience and other frutes of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of suche as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuche as before that day there shulde be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great parte of the worlde, and that Antichrist shulde reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending him self to their prayers, & encouraging them to constancie, he willethe the to correcte suche sharply, as live idelly of other mens labours, whome, if they do not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 *We ought to thake God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is mete, because that your faith groweth excedingly, and the loue of euerie one of you towarde another aboundeth,

4 So that we our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, because of your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffre,

5 *Which is a broken of the righteous iudgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for y which ye also suffre.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs * when the Lord Iesus shal shewe him self from heauen with his mightie Angels,

8 In flaming fyre, rendring vengeance vnto them, that do not knowe God, & which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ, d As God is euerlasting, so shal their punishment be euerlasting: and as he is mozte mightie of power, so shal their punishment be mozte fore.

9 Which shalbe punished with euerlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glorie of his power,

11 Wherefore, we also praye alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodnes, & the worke of faith with power, 12 That y Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, & ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

e The fre beneuolence of Gods goodnes, comprehendeth his purpose, his predestination and vocation: the worke of faith containeth our mission, to the which God addeth glorification: and all these he worketh of his mere grace through Christ. f Faith is Gods wonderful worke in vs. g As the head with the bodie.

CHAP. II.

1 He sheweth them that the day of the Lord shal not come, til the departing from the faith come first. 2 And the kingdome of Antichrist. 11 And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceued, but to stand stedfast in the things that he hath taught them.

1 NOW we beseeche you, brethren, by y comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him, c A wonderful departing of the moste parte from the faith.

d This wicked Antichrist cõprenderh the whole succession of the persecuters of the Church, & all that abominable kingdome of Satan, whereof some were beares, some lyons, others leopards, as Daniel describeth the, e Who as he man of sinne because he feteth him self vp agair God.

4 Which is an aduerfarie, and exalteth him self against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing him self that he is God.

5 Remeber ye not, that whẽ I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

6 And now ye knowe what f withholdeth, that he might be reueiled in his time.

7 For the mysterie of iniquitie doeth alreadye sworke: onely he which know withdestruyeth others, so shal he be destroyed him self. f Because the false apostles had persuaded after a sorte the Thessalonians, that the day of the Lord was nere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to loke for this horrible dissipation before, and therefore rather to prepare them selues to patience, then to rest and quietnes. for as yet there was a let, that is, that the Gospel shulde be preached throughout all, Mar. 24. 14. g To wit, priuely, and is therefore called a mysterie because it is secret. h Which shal stay for a time.

The seconde Epistle to the Thessalonians, written from Athens.

THE FIRST EPIstle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

In writing this Epistle Paul seemed not onely to haue respect to teache Timotheus, but chiefly to kepe other in awe, which wolde haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therfore he doth arme him against those ambitious questionistes, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godlie with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Law they knewe not what was the chief end of the Law. And as for him self he so confesseth his vnworthines, that he sheweth to what worthines the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he willesh prayers to be made for all degrees and sortes of men, because that God by offering his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euerie sorte of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And forasmuche as God hath the les. ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluacion, he describeth what manner of men they ought to be, to whome the mystere of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shal susteine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion men shal teach things contrarie to the worde of God. Thus done, he teacheth what widdowes shulde be received or refused to minister to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him nether to be hastie in admitting, nor in iudging anye: also what is the dutie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of contentions, of riue men, and about all things he chargeth him to beware false doctrine.

Dr. M. H. a. So called because he followed the similitude of y Gospel
b. Because these questioners preferred their curious fables to all other knowledge, & beautified them w the Law, as if they had bene the verie Law of God, S. Paul sheweth that y end of Gods Law is loue, & canot be without a good conscience, nether a good conscience without faith, nor faith without y worde of God: so their doctrine is an occasion of contention, is worth nothing.

Chap. 6. 11.

CHAP. I.

1 He exhorterth Timotheus to waite vpon his office namely to se that nothing be taught but Gods worde, &c. 2 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie & edification are the end thereof, 30 And admonisherth of Himeneus and Alexander.

DAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the cōmandement of God our Saviour, and of our Lord Iesus Christ our hope, * Vnto Timotheus my natural sonne in the faith: Grace, mercie, & p'ace from God our Father, & from Christ Iesus our Lord. 2 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so do, that thou maiest cōmande some, that thei reache none other doctrine, 3 Nether that they giue hede to * fables and genealogies, * which are endles, which brede questiones rather then godlie edifying which is by faith. 4 For * the b end of the c commandement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfained. 5 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine iangling. 6 They wolde be doctours of the Law, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, nether whereof they affirme. 7 * And we knowe, that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully, 8 Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a c righteous man, but vnto the lawles and disobedient, to the vngodlie, and to d sinners, to the vnholie, and to the prophane, to murderers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers, 9 To whom eogers, to buggerers, to e mē stealers, to liers, to the perjured, & if there be anie other thing, that is contrarie to wholesome doctrine, 10 Which is according to the glorious Gospel of the * blessed God, which is cōmitted vnto me. 11 Therefore f I thanke him, which hath made me strong, that is, Christ Iesus our Lord: for he counted me faithful, and put me in his seruice:

12 When before I was a blasphemour, and a persecuter, and an oppresser: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it ignorantly through vnbeliefe. 13 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with h faith and loue, which is in Christ Iesus. 14 This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthy to be receiued, that * Christ Iesus came into the worlde to saue sinners, of whome I am chief. 15 Notwithstanding, for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ shulde first shewe on me all lōg suffering vnto the ensample of them, which shal in time to come beleue in him vnto eternal life. 16 Now vnto the King euerlasting, immortal, inuisible, vnto God onely wise, be honour and glorie for euer, and euer, Amen. 17 This commandement commit I vnto thee, sonne Timotheus, according to the 18 prophecies, which went before vpo thee, that thou by them shuldest * fight a good fight, 19 Hauing m faith and a good conscience, which some haue put away, and as concerning faith, haue made shipwracke. 20 Of whome is Himeneus, and Alexander, * whome I haue a deliuered vnto Satan, that thei might learne not to blaspheme.

7 * Whereunto I am ordeined a preacher & an Apostle (I speake y trueth in Christ, and lie not) euen a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and veritie.
8 I wil therefore that the men pray, euerie where lifting vp pure hands without wrath, or douting.
9 * Likewise also the women, that they a-rraye them selues in comelie apparel, with shamefastnes & modestie, not with broy-ded heare, or gold, or pearles, or costlie apparel, 10 But (as becōmeth women that professe the feare of God) with good workes.
11 Let the woman learne in silence with all subiection.
12 I permit not a woman to teache, nether to vsurpe autoritie ouer the man, but to be in silence.
13 For * Adam was first formed, then Eue.
14 * And Adam was not deceiued, but the woman was deceiued, & was in the transgression.
15 Notwithstanding, through bearing of children she shalbe saued if they continue in faith, and loue, and holines with modestie.

7 He must also be wel reported of, euen of them which are without, lest he fall into rebuke, and the snare of the deuil.
8 Likewise must deacons be honest, not double tongued, not giuen vnto muche wine, nether to filthie lucre,
9 * Hauing the mysterie of the faith in pure conscience.
10 And let them first be proued: then let them minister, if they be founde blame-les.
11 Likewise their wiues must be honest, not euil speakers, but sober, and faithful in all things.
12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, and suche as can rule their children wel, and their owne householdes.
13 For they that haue ministred wel, get the selues a good degre, & great libertie in the faith, which is in Christ Iesus.
14 These things write I vnto thee, trusting to come very shortly vnto thee.
15 But if I tary long, that thou maist yet knowe, how thou oghtest to behaue thy self in the house of God, which is the Church of the liuing God, the pillar & grounde of trueth.
16 And without controuersie, great is the mysterie of godlines, which is, God is manifested in the flesh, purified in the Spirit, sent of Angels, preached vnto the Gentiles, beleued on in the worlde, and recei-ued vp in glorie.

1 This is a true saying, * If any mā desire the office of a bishoppe, he desireth a worthis worke.
2 A bishoppe therefore must be vnrepro-uable, the husband of one wife, watching, sober, modest, harberous, apt to teache, 3 Not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthie lucre, but gentle, no fighter, not

 8 For bodelie exercise profiteth litle: but godlines is profitable vnto all things, w^h hathe the promes of the life present, and of that that is to come.
 9 This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthie to be received.
 10 For therefore we labour & are rebuked, because we trust in the liuing God, which is the Sauour of all mē, specially of those that beleue.
 11 These things commande and teache.
 12 Let no man despise thy youth, but be vnto thē that beleue, an ensample, in worde, in conuersation, in loue, in spirit, in faith, & in purenes.
 13 Til I come, giue attendance to reading, to exhortation, & to doctrine.
 14 Despise not the gift that is in thee which was giuen thee by prophecie with the laying on of the hands of the companie of the Eldership.
 15 These things exercise, and giue thy self vnto them, that it may be sene how thou profitest among all men.
 16 Take hede vnto thy self, and vnto learning: continue therein: for in doing this thou shalt bothe saue thy self, and them that heare thee.

10 And wel reported of for good workes: if she haue nourished her childre, if she haue lodged the strangers, if she haue washed the Saintes fete, if she haue ministred vnto them which were in aduersitie, if she were cōtinually giue vnto euerie good worke.
 11 But refuse the yonger widdowes: for whē they haue begōne to waxe wāton against Christ, they wil marie, 12 Hauing damnation, because they haue broken the first faith.
 13 And likewise also being ydle they learne to go about from house to house: yea, they are not onely ydle, but also prattlers and busbodies, speaking things which are not comelie.
 14 I wil therefore that the yonger women marie, and beare children, & gouerne the house, and giue none occasion to the aduersarie to speake euil.
 15 For certeine are already turned backe after Satan.
 16 If any faithful man, or faithful woman haue widdowes, let them minister vnto them, and let not the Church be charged, that there may be sufficient for them that are widdowes in dede.
 17 ¶ The Elders that rule wel, are worthie of * double honour, specially they which labour in the worde and doctrine.
 18 For the Scripture saith, * Thou shalt not mouel the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: and, * The labourer is worthie of his wages.
 19 Against an Elder receive none accusation, but vnder two or thre witnesses.
 20 Them that sinne, rebuke openly, that the rest also may feare.

 c Which hath the no manner of worldelie meanes to helpe her selfe.
 d Because she is vterly vaprofitable.
 e He meaneth such widdowes which being iustly diuorced from their first husbands married againe to the scandler of the Church: for els he doeth not reprove the widdowes that haue bene offered married the once.

1 Rebuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father, & the yonger men as brethren,
 2 The elder women as mothers, the yonger as sisters, with all purenes.
 3 Honour widdowes, which are widdowes in dede.
 4 But if any widdowe haue children or nephewes, let thē learne first to shewe godlines towards their owne house, and to recompēse their kinred: for that is an honest thing and acceptable before God.
 5 And she y^e is a widdowe in dede and left alone, trusteth in God, & continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.
 6 But she that liueth in pleasure, is dead, while she liueth.

The first epistle to Timotheus written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest cite of Phrygia Pacaciana.

THE SECONDE EPISTLE of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Apostle being now ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (in him all the faithful) in the faith of the Gospel, & in the constant & sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrinke for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attende the issue, as do husband men, which at length receiue the frutes of their labours, & to cast off all feare & care, as souldiers do which seek onely to please their captaine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel, which he preached, commanding him to preache the same to others, diligently taking hede of contentions, curious disputations, & vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may all together consist. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus & Philetus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: & yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authority and in estimation, he sheweth that all that profess Christ, are not his, & that the Church is subject to this calamitie: that the euil must dwell among the good till Gods trial come: yet he reserveth them whom he hath elected, euen to the end. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, & dangerous times shall followe, willing him to arme himself with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto him, and to exercise him self diligently in the Scriptures, bothe against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, directing him to come to him for certein necessarie affaires, and so with his and others salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnes and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine, that he had taught him. 12 Whereof his bonds and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God, according to the promes of life, which is in CHRIST IESVS, To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercie, & peace from God the Father, & from Iesus Christ our Lord.

1 I thanke God, * whome I serue fro mine belders with pure conscie, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,
 2 Desiring to se thee, mindful of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioye:
 3 When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, & am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.
 4 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance that thou stirre vp the gifte of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.
 5 For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sounde minde.
 6 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimonie of our Lord, nether of me his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,
 7 Who hath saued vs, & called vs with an *holie calling, not according to our *workes, but according to his owne purpose & grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Iesus before the *worlde was,
 8 But is now made manifest by the *appearing of our Sauour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel.
 9 *Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, & Apostle, & a teacher of the Gentiles.
 10 For the which cause I also suffre these things, but I am not ashamed: for I knowe whome I haue beleued, & I am persuaded that he is able to kepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.
 11 Kepe the true paterne of the wholsome wordes, which y^e hast heard of me in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus.
 12 That ^hworthie thing, which was committed to thee, kepe through the holie Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

CHAP. II.

2 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abyde faste in the wholsome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ. 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsell touching the saluation of his, 19 And the marke thereof.

1 THou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.
 2 And what things thou hast heard of me, by manie witnesses, the same deliuer to faithful men, which shal be able to teache other also.
 3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.
 4 No man that warreth, entangleth himself with ^bthe affaires of thu life, because he wolde please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.
 5 And if anie man also strue for a matterie, he is not crowned, except he strue as he ought to do.
 6 The housband man ^c must labour before he receiue the frutes.
 7 Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

 10 Therefore I suffer all things, for the *elects sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternal glorie.
 11 It is a true saying, For if we be ^edead with him, we also shal liue with him.
 12 If we suffer, we shal also reigne with him: * if we denie him, he also wil denie vs.
 13 If * we beleue not, yet abideth he faithful: he can not denie him self.
 14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, that they strue not about wordes, which is to no profit, but to the peruerting of the hearers.
 15 Studie to shewe thy self approued vnto God, a workemaⁿ that nedeth not to be ashamed, diuiding the worde of trueth aright.

4 Traitors, headie, high minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,

5 Hauing a shewe of godlines, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therefore from suche.

6 For of this sorte are they which creep into houses, and lead captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and led with diuers lustes,

7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the trueth.

8 And as Iannes and Iambres withstode Moses, so do these also resist the trueth, men of corrupte mindes, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall preuaile no longer: for their madnes shall be euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.

10 But thou hast fully knowen my doctrine, maner of liuing, purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience, 11 Persecutions, & afflictions which came vnto me at Antiochia, at Iconium, and at Lystri, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered me.

12 Yea, & all that wil liue godly in Christ Iesus, shall suffer persecution.

13 But the euil men and deceiuers, shall waxe worse and worse, deceiuing, and being deceiued.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and art persuaded thereof, knowing of whome thou hast learned them:

15 And thou hast knowen the holie Scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.

16 For the whole Scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, and is profitable to teache, to improve, to correct and to instructe in righteousness, 17 That the man of God may be absolute, being made perseuerant vnto all good workes.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth Timotheus to be seruant in the worde, and to suffer aduersitie, 2 Maketh mention of his owne death, 3 And biddeth Timotheus come vnto him.

1 Charge thee therefore before God, & before the Lord Iesus Christ, which shall iudge the quicke and dead at his appearing, and in his kingdome,

2 Preache the worde: be instant, in season and out of season: improve, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time wil come, when they wil not suffer wholesome doctrine: but hauing their eares itching, shall after their owne lustes get them an heape of teachers,

4 And shall turne their eares from the trueth, and shall be giuen vnto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things: suffer aduersitie: do the worke of an Euangeliste: make thy ministerie fully knowen.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departing is at hand.

7 I haue fought a good fight, and haue finished my course: I haue kept the faith.

8 For hence forth is laid vp for me the crowne of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous iudge shall giue me at that day: and not to me onely, but vnto all them also that loue his appearing.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to Titus.

THE ARGUMENT.

When Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begonnt, Satan stirred vp certeine which went about not onely to ouerthrowe the gouernemēt of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition wolde haue thrust in them selues to be pastours: others, vnder pretext of Moses Law brought in manie trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to chose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sounde doctrine to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and amongst other things he noteth the Iewes which put a certeine holines in meates & suche outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, & what things appertaine to euerie mans vocation. Against the which if anie man rebelle or els doeth not obey, he willett him to be auoyded.

8 And with the wholsome worde, which can not be reprobued, that he which withstandeth, may be ashamed, hauing nothig concerning you to speake euil of.

9  Let seruants be subiect to their masters, and please them in all things, not answering againe,

10 Nether pykers, but that they shewe all good faithfulness, that thei may adorne the doctrine of God our Sauour in all thigs.

11  For the grace of God, that bringeth c saluacion vnto all men, hath appeared,

7 That we, beig iustified by his grace, shulde be made heires according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a true saying, and these things I wil thou shuldest affirme, that they which haue beleued in God, might be careful to shewe forth the good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witnes, and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the basenes of his matter, he steeth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maistie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon bothe robbed his master, and fled away, whome Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardone, with moste waighie arguments prouing the duetie of one Christian to another, & so with salutations endeth.

1 He reioyceth to heare of the faith and laue of Philemon.
2 Whome he desireth to forgine his seruant Onesimus, and louingly to receiue him againe.

I Paul a prisoner of Iesus Christ, and our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our dere friend, & fellow helper, 3 And to our dere sister Apphia, and to Archippus our felowe souldier, & to the Church that is in thine house:

4 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I giue thanks to my God, making mention alwaies of thee in my praiers,

6 (When I heare of thy loue & faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, & toward all Saintes)

7 That the fellowship of thy faith may be made fruteful, and that whatsoeuer good thing is in you through Christ Iesus, may be knowne.

8 For we haue great ioye and consolacion in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saintes hearts are comforted.

9 Wherefore, thogh I be verie bolde in Christ to commande thee that which is conuenient, 10 Yet for loues sake I rather beseeche thee, thogh I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

11 I beseeche thee for my sonne Onesimus, whome I haue begotten in my bondes,

12 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable bothe to thee and to me,

13 Whome I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, y is mine owne bowels, 14 Whome I wolde haue retained with me, that in thy stede he might haue ministred vnto me in the bondes of the Gospel.

15 But without thy minde wolde I do nothing, that thy benefite shulde not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

16 It may be that he therefore departed for a ceason, that thou shuldest receiue him for euer, 17 Not now as a seruant, but aboue a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, specially to me: how much more then vnto thee, bothe in the flesh, and in the Lord?

18 If therefore thou counte our things commune, receiue him as my self.

19 If he hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accountes, 20 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I wil recompense it, albeit I do not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne self.

21 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: confort me by bowels in the Lord.

22 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt do euen more then I say.

23 Moreouer also prepare me lodging: for I trust through your praiers I shalbe giuen vnto you.

24 There salute thee Epaphras my fellowe prisoner in Christ Iesus,

THE EPISTLE TO the Ebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuche as diuers, bothe of the Greke writers and Latines witnesseth, that the writer of this Epistle for iuste causes wolde not haue his name knowne, it were curiositie of our parte to labour muche therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the autor thereof, it diminisheth nothing his autoritie, although we knowe not with what penne he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chief purpose is to persuade vnto the Ebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuche as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the prophetes, and therefore not onely Moses was inferior to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himself: for he is that eternal Priest, whereof all the Levitical Priests were but shadowes, and therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the seventh chap. verse 11. vnto the 12. chap. verse 18. Also he was that Prophet of whome all the Prophetes in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. chapter, verse 18. to the twentieth and five verse of the same chapter: yea, and is the King to whome all things are subiect, as appeareth from that verse 25. to the beginning of the last chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the olde fathers we must constantly beleue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdom, and gouerned by his power, we may stedfastly, and courageously perseuere euen to the end in hope of that ioye that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises that we may bothe be thankfull to God, and duetifull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 About the Angels, 7 And of their office.

In sondrie times & in diuers maners a God spake in y olde time to our fathers by the Prophetes: In these b last dayes he hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, c whome he hath made heir of all things, d by whome also he made the worldes, e Who being the brightnes of the glorie, and the f ingraued forme of his persone, & bearing vp all things by his mightie worde, hath by him self g purged our finnes, and sitteth at the right hand of the maiestie in the highest places,

4 And is made so muche more excellent then the h Angels in as muche as he hath obtained a more excellent name then thei.

5 For vnto which of the Angels said he at any time, i Thou art my Sonne, k this day begate I thee, and againe, l I wil be his Father, and he shalbe my sonne?

6 And againe when he bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the worlde, he saith, m And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels he saith, n He maketh the o Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fyre.

8 But vnto the Sonne he saith, p O God, thy throne is for euer and euer: the q scepter of thy kingdome is a scepter of righteousness.

9 Thou hast loued righteousness and hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath e anointed thee with y oyle of gladnes about thy fellowes.

10 And, r Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shal perish, but thou doest remaine: and they all shal waxe olde as doeth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou folde them vp, and they shalbe changed: but thou art the same and thy yeres shal not faile.

a We must diligently keepe in memorie the doctrine, which we haue learned, lest like vessels full of chappes we leake, and runne out on euerie parte.

b Which was the Law giuen to Moses by the hands of the Angels, Gal. 3. 19. Act. 7. 53. Mar. 16. 20. c As the Gospell is which onely offereth saluation.

d That is, the Apostles. e Which Esti calleth the new heauens, and the newe earth, chap 65. 17. whereof Christ is the father, Isa 9. 6. that is, the head of vs his members.

f He speaketh here chiefly of the faithful, which are made through Christ citizens of this worlde to come where they shal enioye their prince all these things & now they haue onely but in parte.

g In making him fellowe heire & Christ h To them vnto which they fe not these things accomplished in ma, the Apostle answereth that they are fulfilled in Christ our captaine who leadeth histo the same glorie & him.

i To man, as he is of Christ. k By his vertue which moste manifestly appeareth in the Church.

l Iesus Christ by hūbling himself & taking vpon him the forme of a seruant, & was our flesh, & mortallie, giueth vs assurance of our saluation.

m Therefore we by afflictions are made like to the Sone of God. n The head & the members are of one nature: so Christ & sanctified vs, & we are sanctified, are all one by the vnion of our flesh. o This proueth Christs humanitie. p Meaning, that Christ touching his humanitie put his trust in God. q Istei speaketh this of him self, & his disciples, but properly it is applied to Christ & head of all ministres. r And Gods agree.

heard, lest at anie time we shulde let the slippe.

For if the worde spoken by Angels was stedfaite, and euerie transgression, and disobedience receiued a iuste recompense of rewarde,

How shal we escape, if we neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lord, and afterwarde was confirmed vnto vs by them that heard him,

God bearing witness thereto, bothe with signes and wonders, & with diuers miracles, and giftes of the holie Ghost, according to his owne will.

For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the worlde to come, whereof we speake.

But one in a certeine place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou shuldest be mindeful of him! or the sonne of man that thou woldest consider him!

Thou madest him a litle inferior to the Angels: thou crownedst him with glorie and honour, and hast set him aboute the workes of thine hands.

Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his fete. And in that he hath put all things in subiection vnder him, he left nothing that shulde not be subiect vnto him. But we yet se not all things subdued vnto him.

But we se Iesus crowned with glorie & honour, which was made a litle inferior to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

For it became him, for whome are all things, and by whome are all things, seing that he broght manie children vnto glorie, that he shulde consecrate the Prince of their saluation through afflictions.

For he that sanctifieth, & they which are sanctified, are all of one: wherefore he is not ashamed to call them brethren, Saying, I wil declare thy Name vnto my brethren: in the middes of the Church wil I sing praises to thee.

And againe, I wil put my trust in him. And againe, Beholde, here am I, and the children which God hath giuen me.

Forasmuche then as the children were partakers of fleshe and bloode, he also him self likewise toke parte with them, that he might destroye through death, him that had the power of death, that is the deuill,

And that he might deliuer all them, which for feare of death were all their life time subiect to bondage.

For he in no sorte toke the seed of Abraham. Wherefore in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethren, that he might be merciful, and a faithful high Priest in things concerning God, that he might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.

For he in no sorte toke the seed of Abraham.

Wherefore in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethren, that he might be merciful, and a faithful high Priest in things concerning God, that he might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.

For in that he suffered, and was tempted, he is able to sucker them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

He requireth them to be obedient vnto the worde of Christ, who is more worthie then Moses. The punishment of such as wil harden their hearts, and not beleue, that they might haue eternal rest.

Therefore, holie brethren, partakers of the heauenlie vocatiō, consider the Apostle and high Priest of our professiō Christ Iesus:

Who was faithful to him that hath appointed him, euen as Moses was in all his house.

For this man is counted worthie of more glorie then Moses, inasmuche as he which hath buylded the house, hath more honour then the house.

For euerie house is buylded of some man, & he that hath buylt all things, is God.

Now Moses verely was faithful in all his house, as a seruant, for a witness of things which shulde be spoken after.

But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose house we are, if we holde fast the confidence and the reioycing of the hope vnto the end.

Wherefore, as the holie Ghost saith, To day if ye shal heare his voyce,

Harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wilderness,

Where your fathers tempted me, proued me, and sawe my workes fortie yeres long.

Wherefore I was grieued with that generation, and said, They erre euer in their heart, nether haue they knowen my wayes.

Therefore I sware in my wrath, If they shal enter into my rest.

Take hede, brethren, lest at anie time there be in anie of you an euil heart, and vnfaithful, to departe away from the liuing God.

But exhorte one another daily, while it is called, To day, lest anie of you be hardened through the deceitfulnes of sinne.

For we are made partakers of Christ, if we kepe sure vnto the end the beginning, wherewith we are vpholden,

So long as it is said, To day if ye heare his voyce, hardē not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

For some when they heard, prouoked him to angre: howbeit, not all that came

Not the nature of Angels but of man. Not onely as touching nature, but also qualities, onely none except. Forasmuche as he is exercised in our miseries, we may be assured, that at all times in our tentations he wil sucker vs.

Take hede to his wordes & receiue him. Of that doctrine w we beleue, & oge to confesse. To be the ambassadour & high Priest.

Moses was but parte of house. y is, of Church whereof pastours are the liuelie stones, but Christ buylded it, & layd the stones: therefore he deserueth more praise.

This is Christ: for Christ is y fundacion, & head of his Church: he is our brother, & Lord: he is the Sonne of God, & verte God, working all things by his owne power.

For in obeying the Sonne we are made the house of God.

As when ye prouoked Gods anger in Massa and Meriba.

Exod. 17. 7. h Meaning by this othe that they shulde not enter.

Which is all y time where in God doeth call vs: while he therefore speaketh, let vs heare.

Which is by faith to embrace, and holde fast y true doctrine of Iesus Christ.

Or, fundacio of our assurance.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospel preached as also vnto them: but the worde that they heard, profited not them, because it was not a mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleued, do enter into rest, as he said to the other, * As I haue sworne in my wrath, If b they shal enter into my from the fundation of the worlde.

4 For he spake in a certeine place of the seuenth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his workes.

5 And in this place againe, If they shal en-

6 Seing therefore it remaineth that some must enter thereinto, and they to whome it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbeleues sake:

7 Againe he appointed d in Dauid a certei-ne day by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is said, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For e if Iesus had giuen them rest, then wolde he not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entred into his rest, f that he also ceased from his owne workes, as God did from his.

11 Let vs studie therefore to entre into that rest, lest anie man fall after the same en-sample of disobedience.

tie in operation, and sharper then anie two edged sworde, & s entereth through, euen

we haue l to do.

14 Seing the that we haue a great hie Priest, which is entred into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hye Priest, which can not be touched with the feling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sorte, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore go boldely vnto y^e throne of grace, that we may receiue mercie, & finde grace to helpe in time of nede.

CHAP. V.

5 He compareth Iesus Christ with the Leuitical Priests, shewing wherein they ether agree or dissent. 11 Afterwarde he reproveth the negligence of the Lewes.

1 FOr euerie hie Priest is taken from among men, and is a ordeined for men, in things pertaining to God, that he may offer bothe b giftes & c sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue copafsion on them d that are ignorant, & that are out of the way, because that he also is co-passed with infirmitie,

3 And for the sames sake he is bonde to offer for sinnes, as wel for his owne parte, as for the peoples.

4 * And no man taketh this honour vnto him self, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ toke not to him self this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but he that said vnto him, * Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee, gane it him.

CHAP. VI.

1 He procedeth in reproofing them, and exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be stedfast & patient, 18 For as much as God is sure in his promises.

1 Therefore, leauing the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the fundament of repentance from dead workes, and of faith towards God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisment, & laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternal iudgement.

3 And this wil we do if God permit.

4 For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heauenlie gift, and were made partakers of the holie Gost,

5 And haue tasted of the good worde of God, and of the powers of the worlde to come,

6 If they fall away, shulde be reuened againe by repentance: seing they crucifie againe to them selues the sonne of God & make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh of heauen vpon it, and bringeth forth the herbes mete for them by whome it is dressed, receiueith blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes & briars, is reprobued, and is nere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and suche as accompanie saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that he shulde forget your worke, and labour of loue, which ye shewed towards his Name, in that ye haue ministred vnto the Saintes, & yet minister.

11 And we desire that euerie one of you shewe the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the end, 12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, which through faith and patience, inherite the promises.

13 For when God made the promes to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he swaere by him self,

14 Saying, Surely I wil abundantly blesse thee and multiplie thee marueilously.

15 And so after that he had raryed patiently, he enioyed the promes.

16 For men verely sweare by him that is greater then them selues, and an othe for confirmation is among them an end of all strife.

17 So God willing more abundantly to shewe vnto the heires of promes the stabilitie of his counsell, bound him self by an othe,

18 That by two immutable things, wherein it is vnpossible that God shulde lye, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to holde fast the hope that is set before vs,

19 Which we haue, as an ancre of the soule, bothe sure and steadfast, & it entrencheth into that which is within the vaile, 20 Whether the fore runner is for vs entered in, euen Iesus that is made an hie Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAP. VII.

1 He compareth the Priesthode of Christ vnto Melchisedec. 11 Also Christi Priesthode with the Leuites.

1 For this Melchisedec was King of Salem, the Priest of the most hie God, who met Abraham, as he returned from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him:

2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righteousness: after that, he is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,

3 Without father, without mother, without kindred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, nether end of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Now consider how great this man was, vnto whome euen the Patriarke Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoiles.

5 For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthode, haue a commandement to take, according to the Law, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But he whose kindred is not counted among them, receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here me that dye, receiue tithes: but there he receiue them, of whome it is witnessed, that he liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueith tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loines of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthode of the Leuites (for vnder it the Law was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest shulde rise after the order of Melchisedec, & not to be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthode be changed, then of necessitie must there be a change of the Law.

13 For he of whome these things are spokē, pertaineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lord sprang out of Iuda, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthode.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vp another Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the Law of the carnal commandement, but after the power of the endles life.

17 For he testifieth thus, *Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the commandement that went afore, is disanulled, because of y^e weakenes thereof, and vnprofitableness.

19 For the Law made nothing perfite, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfite, whereby we drawe nere vnto God.

20 And forasmuche as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without an othe:

21 But this, he is made with an othe by him that said vnto him, *The Lord hathe sworn, & wil not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec)

22 By so muche is Iesus made a suretie of a better Testament.

23 And among the many were made Priests, because they were not suffred to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because he endureth euer, hathe an eueralsting Priesthode.

25 Wherefore, he is able also *perfite*ly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seing he euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For suche an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holie, harmeles, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made hier then the heauens:

27 Which neded not daily as those hie Priests to offer vp sacrifice, * first for his owne sinnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he once, when he offered vp him self.

28 For the Law maketh men hie Priests, which haue infirmitie: but y^e worde of the othe that was since the Law, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

bothe giftes and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man shulde haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seing there are Priests that according to the Law offer giftes,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne & shadowe of heauenlie things, as Moses was warned by God, when he was about to finish the Tabernacle. *Se, said he, that thou make all things according to y^e paterne, shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our hie Priest hathe obtained a more excellent office, inasmuche as he is the Mediatour of a better Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bene fauoreteles, no place shulde haue bene sought for the seconde.

8 For in rebuking them he saith, *Beholde, the dayes wil come, saith the Lord, when I shal make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda a new Testamēt:

9 Not like the Testamēt that I made with their fathers, in the day that I toke them by the had, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: for they continued not in my Testament, and I regarded the not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testamēt that I wil make with y^e house of Israel, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I wil put my lawes in their munde, and in their heart I wil write them, and I wil be their God, and they shal be my people, 11 And they shal not teache euerie man his neighbour & euerie man his brother, saying, Knowe y^e Lord: for all shal knowe me, from the least of the to the greatest of them.

12 For I wil be merciful to their vnrighteousnes, and I wil remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that he saith a newe Testament, he hathe abrogate the olde: now that w^{ch} is disanulled & waxed olde, is readie to vanish away.

which had manna, was, and *Aarons rodde that had budded, and the * tables of the Testament.

5 *And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the mercie seat: of which things we wil not now speake particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordeined, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, & accomplished the seruice.

*Exo. 30, 30.
Leu. 16, 2.*

7 But into the second went the * hie Priest alone, once euerie yere, not without blood which he offered for him self, and for the ignorances of the people.

Or, error.

8 Whereby the holie Gost this signified, that the way into the Holiest of all was, not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing, e For so long as the hie Priest offered once a yere for his owne finnes & for the peoples, and also while this earthlie tabernacle stode, the way to the heauelie Tabernacle, which is made open by Christs blood, could not be entred into.

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered giftes and sacrifices that colde not make holie, concerning the conscience, & him that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stode in meats and drinckes, and diuers washings, and carnal rites, vntil the time of reformation.

Or, pers. h.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfecte Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this buylding,

Which ceremonies although they were ordeined of God, yet considered in them selues, or els copared with Christ, are but carnal, grosse, and earthlie & touche not the soule.

12 Nether by the blood of goates and calues: but by his owne blood entred he in once vnto the holie place, and obtained eternal redemption for vs.

13 *For if the blood of bulles & of goates & the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling the that are vnclane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the flesh,

Leu. 16, 14.

14 How muche more shal the blood of Christ which through the eternal Spirit offered him self without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead workes, to serue the liuing God?

Nom. 19, 4.

15 And for this cause is he the Mediatour of the new Testamēt, that through death which was for the redēption of the transgressions that were in the former Testamēt, they which were called, might receiue the promes of eternal enheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must be the death of him that made the testamēt.

1. John 1, 9.

17 *For the testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is a liue.

1. Pet. 1, 19.

18 Wherefore nether was the first ordeined without blood.

1. Pet. 1, 19.

19 For when Moses had spoken euerie precept to the people, according to the Law,

Rom. 5, 6.

the Leuitical Priest offered yerele, and therefore did onely represent the true holines: but Christ by one onely sacrifice hath made holie for euer all the that beleue. l Outwardely in the sight of man. m Which of the selues procure death & are the frutes thereof. n Made betwene God and Christ, who by his death shulde make vs heires. o He proueth that Christ must dye, because the couenant or testamēt is of none effect without the death of the testator. p Without the death of beastes that were sacrificed & signified, that Christ wolde pacifie his Fathers wrath with his blood.

2. Pet. 1, 19.

h Which is heauen.

i For Christ was the sacrifice, the Tabernacle and the Priest.

Gal. 3, 15.

h The Leuitical Priest offered beastes blood: but Christ the true and eternal Priest offered his owne blood, which was moche holie and perfecte.

he toke the blood of calues and of goates, with water and purple wolle and hyssoppe, and sprinkled bothe the boke, and all the people, 20 *Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed vnto you.

Exo. 24, 8.

21 Moreouer, he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministering vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessarie, that the similitudes of heauelie things shulde be purified with such things: but the heauelie things themselves are purified with better sacrifices then are these.

q Albeit there is but one sacrifice, which is Christ himselfe once offered, yet because this true & eternal sacrifice is copared with all those which were figuratiue, & is more sufficient then all they, therefore he calleth it in the plural number, sacrifices.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holie places that are made with hands, which are similitudes of the true Sanctuarie: but he entred into very heauen, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs,

25 Not that he shulde offer him self rosten, as the hie Priest entred into the Holie place euerie yere with other blood, 26 (For then must he haue often suffred since the fundacion of the worlde) but now in the end of the worlde hath he appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of him self.

Or, patens. r Therefore to make any other offering or sacrifice for sinne after that Christs bodie was once offered, is blasphemie. s Which is the latter daies when Christ came.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shal once dye, and after that commeth the iudgement, 28 So * Christ was once offered to take away the finnes of many, and vnto them that loke for him, shal he appeare the seconde time without sinne vnto saluation.

Rom. 5, 8. 1. Pet. 3, 18. t Of the elect. u That is, without a sacrifice for sinne: or sin abolished.

CHAP. X.

The olde lawe had no power to cleanse away sinne. 10 But Christ did it with offering of his bodie once for all. 22 An exhortation to receiue the goodnes of God thankfully with patience and stedfast faith.

1 For the Lawe hauing the shadowe of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices, which they offer yere by yere continually, sanctifie the commers thereunto.

Leu. 16, 14. a Which was as it were the first draught and purtrait of the liuelie paterne to come. b Which are eternal.

2 For wolde they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, shulde haue had no more conscience of finnes?

Or, substance. c When Christ was made man. Leuit. 16, 14.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of finnes euerie yere.

Psal. 40, 7. d In the hebrew it is, thou hast perced mine eares throwe, that is, hast made me prompt and ready to heare: and in greke, thou hast made me a bodie, that is, to obey thee, which both sende to one purpose.

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of bulles & goates shulde take away finnes.

5 Wherefore when he commeth into the worlde, he saith, * Sacrifice & offering thou woldest not: but a bodie hast thou ordeined me.

6 In burnt offerings, & sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then

7 Then I said, Lo, I come (In y^e beginning of the booke it is written of me) that I shulde do thy wil, o God.

8 Aboue, when he said, Sacrifice & offering, and burnt offrings, & sinne offrings thou woldest not haue, nether hadst pleasure therein (which are offred by the Law)

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy wil, o God, he taketh away the first, that he may establish the seconde.

10 By the which wil we are sanctified, euē by the offering of the bodie of Iesus Christ once made.

11 And euerie Priest appeareth daiely ministering, and oft times offreth one maner of offering, which can neuer take awaye sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offred one sacrifice for sinnes, * sitteth for euer at the right hand of God, 13 And from hence forthe tarieth, * til his enemies be made his foesteole.

14 For with one offering hath he consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holie Ghost also beareth vs recorde: for after that he had said before, 16 * This is the Testament that I wil make vnto them after those dayes, saith y^e Lord, I wil put my Lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I wil write them.

17 And their sinnes and iniquities wil I remember no more.

18 Now where i remission of these things is, there is no more^k offering for sinne.

19 Seing therefore, breth^ren, that by the blood of Iesus we may be bolde to enter into the Holie place

20 By the new and ^m liuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his flesh:

21 And seing we haue an high Priest, which is ouer the House of God, 22 Let vs drawe nere with a true heart in assurance of faith, ⁿ sprinkled in our hearts from an euil conscience, & washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let vs kepe the profession of our hope, without wauering (for he is faithful that promised)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes, 25 Not forsaking the felowship that we haue among our selues, as the maner of some is: but let vs exhorte one another, & that so muche the more, because ye se that the day draweth nere.

26 * For if we sinne willingly after that we haue received the knowledge of the trueth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes,

27 But a feareful loking for of iudgement,

& violet fyre, which shal deuoure the aduersaries.

28 He that despiseth Moses Law, dyeth without mercie * vnder two, or thre witnesses.

29 Of how muche forer punishment suppose ye shal he be worthie, which treadeth vnder fore the Sonne of God, and counteth the blood of the Testament as an vnholie thing, wherewith he was sanctified, and doeth despite the Spirit of grace?

30 For we knowe him that hath said, * Vengeance belongeth vnto me: I wil recompense, saith the Lord. And againe, The Lord shal iudge his people.

31 It is a feareful thing to fall into y^e hands of the liuing God.

32 Now call to remembrance the dayes that are passed, in the which, after ye had receiued light, ye endured a great fight in afflictions.

33 Partely while you were made a gazing stocke bothe by reproches and afflictions, and partely while ye became ^s companio^s of them which wereⁿ so tossed to and fro.

34 For bothe ye sorowed with me for my bondes, and suffred with ioye the spoiling of your goods, knowig in your selues how that ye haue in heauen a better, and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence which hath the great recompense of rewarde.

36 For ye haue nede of patience, that after ye haue done the wil of God, ye might receiue the promes.

37 * For yet a verie litle while, and he that shal come, wil come, and wil not tarie.

38 Now the iust shal liue by faith: but if a man withdrawe him self, my soule shal haue no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not they which withdrawe our selues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the conseruation of the soule.

8 By faith * Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God, to go out into a place, which he shulde afterwarde receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whether he went.

9 By faith he abode in the land of promes, as in a strange countrey, as one that dwelt in tentes with Isaac and Iacob heires with him of the same promes.

10 For he looked for a citie hauing a b fundacion, whose buylder and maker is God.

11 Through faith * Sarra also receiued strength to conceiue sene, and was deliuered of a childe when she was past age, because she iudged him faithful which had promised.

12 And therefore sprang there of one, eue of one which was dead, so manie as * the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sand of y sea shore which is innumerable.

13 All these dyed in faith, and k receiued not the promes, but sawe them l a farre of, and beleued them, and receiued them thankfully, and confessed that they were m strangers and pilgremes on the earth.

14 For they that say suche things, declare plainly that they seke a countrey.

15 And if they had bene mindeful of n that countrey, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is an heauenlie: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith * Abraham offered vp Isaac, when he o was tryed, & he that had receiued the promes, offered his onely begotte sonne.

18 (To whome it was said, * In Isaac shall thy sene be called)

24 By faith * Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaos daughter,

25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasures of sinnes for a ceason, 26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompense of the reward.

27 By faith he forsoke Egypt, and feared not the fiercenes of the King: for he endured, as he that sawe him which is inuisible.

28 Through faith he ordeined the * Passouer and the effusion of blood, lest he that destroyed the first borne, shulde touche them.

29 By faith they * passed through the red sea as by drye land, which whē the Egyptians had assaied to do, they were drowned.

35 The r women receiued their dead raised to life: other also were racked, and wolde not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better resurrection.

36 And others haue bene tryed by mockings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bondes and prisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were hewen a sunder, they were tempted, they were slayne with the sworde, they wandered vp and downe in shepes skines, and in goates skines, being destitute, afflicted, & tormented:

6 If ye endure chastening, God offreth him self vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whome the father chasteneth not?

7 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sonnes.

THE GENERAL Epistle of Iames.

THE ARGUMENT.

Iames the Apostle and sonne of Alphaeus wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were converted to Christ, but disperied throughout diuers countreys, and therefore he exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true worde of God, & not to be partial, neither to boast of an ydle faith, but to declare a true faith by liuelse frutes, to auoide ambition, to bridel the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble & loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to viter their fautes when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

a He exhorteeth to ioyce in trouble. b To be feruent in prayer with stedfast belief. 17 To loke for all good things from aboue. 21 To forsake all vice, and thankesfully to receiue the worde of God. 22 Not onely hearing it, & speaking of it, but to do thereafter in dede. 27 What true religion is.

h Seeing all good things come of God, we ought not to make him the autor of euil.

i He alludeth vnto the sunne which in his course and turning sometime is cleare and bright, sometime darke and cloudie: but Gods liberalitie is cuer like it self, bright and continualy shining.

3 * Knowing that the trying of your faith bringeth forthe pacience.

4 And let pacience haue her benefite worke, that ye may be perfite and entier, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke wisdom, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reprocheth no man, and it shall be giuen him.

6 * But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde, and caryed away.

7 Nether let that man thinke that he shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A wauering minded man is vnstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of lowe degree ioyce in that he is exalted:

10 Againe he that is riche, in that he is made lowe: for as the flower of the grasse, shall he vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, & the beautie of the facion of it perisheth: euen so shall the riche man fade away in all his wayes.

12 * Blessed is the man, that endureth tentation: for when he is tryed, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say whē he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God can not be tempted with euil, nether tempteth he any man.

14 But euerie man is tempted, when he is drawne away by his owne concupiscence, and is enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceiued, it bringeth forthe sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forthe death.

16 Erre not, my deare brethren.

17 Euerie good giuing, and euerie benefite gift is from aboue, and cometh downe from the Father of lights, with whome is no variableness, i nether shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne wil begate he vs with the worde of truth, that we shulde be as the first frutes of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, let euerie man be swift to heare, slowe to speake, & slowe to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish the righteousnes of God.

21 Wherefore lay aparte all filthines, & superfluitie of malicioufnes, & receiue with mekenes the worde that is graffed in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 * And be ye doers of the worde, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if anie heare the worde, & do it not, he is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his natural face in a glasse.

24 For when he hath considered him self, he goeth his way, & forgetteth immediatly what maner of one he was.

25 But who so loketh in the perfite Law of libertie, and continueth therein, he not being a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed in his dede.

26 If anie man among you semeth religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiueth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion & vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherles, and widdowes in their aduersitie, and to kepe him self vnspotted of the worlde.

CHAP. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue anie respect of persones, 5 But to regarde the poore as wel as the riche. 8 To be louing and merciful. 14 And not to boast of faith where no dedes are. 17 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes followe not.

1 MY brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ in respect of persones.

2 For if there come into your companie a man with a golde ring, and in goodlie apparel, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And ye haue a respect to him which weareth the gaye clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, & say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my fote stole,

4 Are ye not partial in your selues, and are become iudges of euil thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloued brethren, hath not God chosin the poore of this worlde, that they shulde be riche in faith, and heires of the kingdome which he promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Do not the riche oppresse you by tyrannie, and do not they drawe you before the iudgement seates?

to the Scripture, which saith, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self, ye do wel.

9 *But if ye regarde the persones, ye com- mit sinne, and are rebuked of the Law, as transgressours.

10 For * whosoever shal kepe the whole Law, and yet faileth in one point, he is gil- tie of all.

11 For he that said, * Thou shalt not com- mit adulterie, said also, Thou shalt not kill. Now thogh thou doest none adulter- ie, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgres- sor of the Law.

12 So speake ye, and so do, as they that shal- be iudged by the Law of libertie.

13 For there shalbe iudgement merciles to him that sheweth no mercie, & mercie re- ioyceth against iudgement.

14 What auaileth it, my brethren, thogh a man saith he hath faith, whē he hath no workes? can the faith saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister be * naked and destitute of dailie fode, 16 And one of you say vnto them, Departe in peace: warme your selues, and fil your bellies, notwithstanding ye giue them not those things which are nedeful to the bod- ie, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it self.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast the faith, & I haue workes: shewe me thy faith out of thy * workes, & I wil shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleuest that there is one God: thou doest wel: the deuils also beleue it, & tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, o thou vaine man, that the faith which is without wor- kes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the Altar?

22 Seest thou not that y^e faith wrought with his workes? & through the workes was the faith made perfecte.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, * Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnes: & he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye se then how that of workes a man is iustified, and not of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not * Rahab the har- lot iustified through workes, whē she had receiued the messengers, and sent the out another way?

26 For as the bodie without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

He forbiddeth all ambition to seeke honour aboue our brethren. He describeth the properties of the tongue, 15. 16 And what difference there is betwixt the wisdom of God, and the wisdom of the worlde.

1 MY brethren, be not manie masters, knowing that we shal receiue the greater condemnation.

2 For in manie things we^e sinne all. * If anie man sinne not in wordē, he is a perfect man, and able to bridel all the bodie.

3 Beholde, we put bits into the horses moun- thes that they shulde obey vs, and we turne about all their bodie.

4 Beholde also the shippes, which thogh they be so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a verie smale rudder, whether soeuer y^e gou- uerner listeth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a litle member, and boasterh of great things: beholde, how great a thing a litle fyre kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fyre, yea, a worlde of wickednes: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole bodie, and setteth on fyre the course of nature, and it is set on fyre of hel.

7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birdes and of creping things, and things of the sea is tamed and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an vnruilie euil, ful of deadielie poyson.

9 Therewith blesse we God euen the Fa- ther, and therewith curse we mē, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth procedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send forth at one place swete water and bytter?

12 Can the figge tre, my brethren, bring forth the oliues, other a vine figges? so can no fountaine make bothe salte water & swete.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his workes in mekenes of wisdom.

14 But if ye haue bitter enuying and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, nether be liers against the trueth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not fro aboue, but is earthlie, sensual, and diuelish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is fedition, and all maner of euil workes.

17 But the wisdom that is from aboue, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be entreated, ful of mercie and good frutes without iudging, and without hypocrisie.

18 And the frute of righteousnes is sown in peace, of them that make peace.

1 Having shewed the cause of all wrong and wickednes, 2 and also of all graces and goodnes, 4 He exhorteth them to love God, 7 And submit them selues to him, 11 Not speaking euil of their neighbours, 13 But patiently to depend on Gods providence.

He threateneth the wicked riche men, 7 Exhorteth vnto pacience, 12 To beware of swearing, 16 One to knowlege his fautes to another, 20 And one to labour to bring another to the truth.

For the Law of the members continually fighteth against the Law of the minde.

THE FIRST EPI- stle general of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

HE exhortheth the faithful to denie them selues, and to contemne the worlde, that being deliuered from all carnal affections and impediments, they may more speedely attein to the heauenlie kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reueiled to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possesed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holines of life. And to the intent this faith shoulde not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiect-ed almost of the whole worlde, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he shoulde be the stumbling stone to the reprobate and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithful: therefore he exhortheth them courageously to go forwarde, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue them selues. And because it is appointed for all that are godlie, to suffre persecutions, he sheweth them what good yssue their afflictions shall haue, and contrarie wise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue them selues, forbidding them to vsurpe autoritie over the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuelie hope. 7 And how faith must be tried, 10 That the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of olde. 13 He exhortheth them to a godlie conuersation, forasmuche as they are now borne a newe by the worde of God.

2 Elec according to the foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the spirit, through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you.
3 * Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath begoten vs againe vnto a liuelie hope by the resurrectiō of Iesus Christ from the dead,
4 To an inheritance immortal and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in heauen for you,
5 Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the last time:

6 Wherein ye reioyce, thogh now for a ceason (if nede require) ye are in heauines, through manifolde tentations,
7 That the trial of your faith, being muche more precious then golde that perisheth (thogh it be tryed with fyre) might be foude vnto your praise, & honour and glorie at the appearing of Iesus Christ:
8 Whome ye haue not sene, and yet loue him, in whome now, thogh ye se him not, yet do you beleue, and reioyce with ioye vnspokeable and glorious,
9 Receiuing the end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.
10 Of the which saluation the Prophetes haue inquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that shulde come vnto you, 11 Searching when or what time the Spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, shulde declare the sufferings that shulde come vnto Christ, and the glorie that shulde followe.
12 Vnto whome it was reueiled, that not vnto them selues, but vnto vs they shulde minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holie Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to beholde.

g And nede doeth so requyre, when it pleaseth God to lay his crose vpon his, for to drawe the things & make them partakers of his heauenlie graces.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe effect of the Apostle here is to exhorte the which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stande to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectual grace towards me moueth them to holines of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, & in increasing his gifts in the godlie: wherefore by godlie life he being now almost at death's dore, exhorteth the to approue their vocacion, not setting their affections on worldlie things (as he had oft writ vnto them) but lifting their eyes towarde heauen, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witnes, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophetes testified. And lest they shoulde promise to them selues quietnes by professing the Gospel, he warneth the bothe of troubles which they shoulde susteine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers & contemners of religion, whose maners and trade he liuely setteth forth as in a table: aduertising the faithful not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to beholde presently the day of his comming, and to preserue them selues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 Forasmuche as the power of God hathe giuen them all things pertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldlie lusts. 10 To make their calling sure with good workes, and frutes of faith. 14 He maketh mention of his owne death. 17 Declaring the Lord Iesus to be the true Sonne of God, as he him self had sene vpon the mounte.

IMON Peter a seruant and an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the ^arighteousnes of our God and Sauour Iesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lord,

3 According as his ^bgodlie power hathe giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto life and godlines, ^dthrough the knowledge of him that hathe called vs vnto glorie and vertue.

4 Whereby moste great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them ye shoulde be partakers of the ^egodlie nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the worlde through lust.

5 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer ^fvertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlines:

7 And with godlines, brotherlie kindenes: and with brotherlie kindenes, loue.

8 For if these things be among you, and abunde, they will make you that ye neither shalbe ydle, nor vnfruitful in ^gknowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For he that hathe not these things, is blinde, & can not se farre of, & hathe forgottē that he was purged from his olde sinnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling & election ^hsure: for if ye do these things, ye shal neuer fall.

11 For by this meanes an entring shalbe ministered vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lord & Sauour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I wil not be negligēt to put you alway in remembrance of these things, thogh that ye haue knowledge, and be established in the present trueth.

13 For I thinke it mete as lōg as I am in this ^ktabernacle, to stirre you vp by puttīg you in remembrance.

14 Seing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hathe ^lshewed me.

15 I wil endeuour therefore alwaife, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For we folowed not ^mdeceiueable fables when we opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we saw his maiestie:

17 For he receiued of God the Father honour and glorie, when there came suche a voyce to him from the excellent glorie, ⁿ*This is my beloued Sonne, in whome I am wel pleased.

18 And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the ^oholie mounte.

15 * And suppose that the long suffring of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisdome giuen vnto him wrote to * you,

Albeit his epistles were writ to peculiar Churches, yet they containe a general doctrine appertaining to all men.

16 As one, that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are * hard to be vnderstand, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable, peruert, as they do also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

As no man condemneth the brightness of the sunne because his eye is not able to susteine the clearenes thereof: so the hardenes wherewith we can not some time compass or perfectly vnderstande in the Scriptures, ought not to take away from vs the vie of the Scriptures.

17 Ye therefore beloued, seing ye knowe these things before, beware, lest ye be also plucked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnes.

18 But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Sauour Iesus Christ: to him be glorie bothe now and for euer more. Amen.

THE FIRST EPI- stle general of Iohn.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared, how that our whole saluation doeth consist onely in Christ, lest that any man shoulde thereby take a boldnes to sinne, he sheweth that no man can beleue in Christ, onles he doeth endeuour him self to kepe his commandements, which thing being done, he exhorteeth them to beware of false prophetes, whome he calleth Antichrists, and to vrye the spirits. Laste of all he doeth earnestly exhorte them vnto brotherlie loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

Iohn 8. 12.

The frutes of our faith must declare whether we be ioyned in God or no: for God being true & verie puritie & light will not haue fellowship with them whiche are in sinne and darkenes.

CHAP. I.

1 True witness of the euerlasting worde of God. 2 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man is without sinne.

a That is, Christ God eternal.
b That is, Christ being man.

That which was from the beginning, which we haue heard, which we haue sene with our eyes, which we haue looked vpon, and our hands haue hadled of the Word c Which giueth life and had it in him self, Ioh. 14.

d Before all be ginning.
e The effect of the Gospel is, y^e we all being ioyned together in Christ by faith, shal be the sonnes of God.

de of life, (For the life appeared, and we haue sene it, and beare witness, and shewe vnto you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and appeared vnto vs.)

That, I say, which we haue sene & heard, declare we vnto you, that ye may also haue fellowship with vs, and that our fellowship also may be with the Father and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write we vnto you, that your ioye may be full.

5 This then is the message which we haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God * is light, & in him is no darkenes.

6 If we say y^e we haue fellowship with him, and walke in darkenes, we lye, & do not truly.

In an euil conscience, & without the feare of God. That is, Christ with vs and we with our felues.

7 But if we walke in the light as he is in the light, we haue fellowship with one with another, and the * blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

1. Pet. 1. 2. 9. Gen. 1. 6. 1. King. 8. 48. 2. Chron. 6. 36. pro. 20. 9. Eccl. 7. 20.

8 * If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceiue our felues, and truth is not in vs.

If we be not ashamed, earnestly & openly to acknowledge our felues before God to be sinners.

9 If we acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithful and iust, to forgie vs our sinnes, & to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnes.

10 If

^{Or, doctrine.} 10 If we say we haue not sinned, we make him a lier, and his¹⁰ worde is not in vs.

CHAP. II.

^a Christ is our Aduocate. ¹⁰ Of true loue, & how it is tried. ¹⁵ To beware of Antichrist.

¹ MY babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any mā sinne, we haue an^a Aduocat with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust.

² And he is the reconciliation for our finnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the finnes of^b the whole worlde.

And hereby we are sure that we^c knowe him, if we kepe his commandements.

⁴ He that saith, I knowe him, and kepeth not his commandements, is^a a lier, and the trueth is not in him.

⁵ But he that kepeth his worde, in him is^d the loue of God perfite in dede: hereby we knowe that we are in him.

⁶ He that saith he remaineth in him, oght euen so to walke, as he hathe walked.

⁷ Brethren, I write no newe^e commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement, which ye haue had from the^e beginning: the^f olde commandement is the worde, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

⁸ Againe, a newe commandement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenes is past, and the true light now shineth.

⁹ He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenes vntil this time.

¹⁰ *He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euil in him.

¹¹ But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenes, and walketh in darkenes, & knoweth not whether he goeth, because that darkenes hathe blinded his eyes.

¹² Little children, I write vnto you, because your finnes are forguen you for^h his Names sake.

¹³ I write vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him that is frō the beginning. I write vnto you, yong men, because ye haue ouercome theⁱ wicked.

¹⁵ Loue not the^k worlde, nether the things that are in the worlde. If any mā loue the^k worlde, ^l he loue of the Father is not in him.

¹⁶ For all that is in the worlde (as the luste of the^k flesh, the^l luste of the eyes, & the^m pride of life) is not of^l the Father, but is of the worlde.

And the worlde passeth awaye, and the luste thereof: but he that fulfilleth the wil of God, abideth euer.

¹⁸ Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shal come, eue now are there many Antichrists: whereby we knowe that it is the last time.

¹⁹ They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they wolde haue continued with vs. But ^o this cometh to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

²⁰ But ye haue an^o ointement frō him, that is^p Holie, & ye haue knowen all things.

²¹ I haue not writen vnto you, because ye knowe not^q the trueth: but because ye knowe it, and that no lye is of the trueth.

²² Who is a lier, but he that denyeth that Iesus is^r Christ: the same is the Antichrist that denyeth the Father and the Sonne.

²³ Whosoever denyeth the Sonne, the same^r hathe not the Father.

²⁴ Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shal remaine in you, ye also shal continewe in the Sonne, & in the Father.

²⁵ And this is^s the promise that he hathe promised vs, euen eternal life.

²⁶ These things haue I writen vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

²⁷ But the anointing which ye receiued of him, dwelieth in you: and ye nede not that any man teache you: but as the same^t Anointing teacheth you of all things, & it is true, & is not lying, & as it taught you, ye shal abide^t in him.

²⁸ And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shal appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

²⁹ If ye knowe that he is righteous, knowe ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

CHAP. III.

¹ The singular loue of God towards vs, ⁷ And how we againe ought to loue one another

¹ Beholde, what loue the Father hathe shewed on vs, that we shulde be^a called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

² Dearly beloued, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shalbe: and we knowe that when^b he shal appeare, we shalbe^c like him: for we shal se him as he is.

³ And euerie man that hathe this hope in him, purgeth him self, euen as he is pure.

⁴ Whosoever^d comitteth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

⁵ And ye knowe that he appeared that he

^a Christ is our ouerlie Aduocate and atonement: for the office of intercession and redemption are toynd together.
^b That is, of them which haue embraced the Gospel by faith in all ages, degrees, & places: for there is no saluation without Christ.
^c That is, by faith and obedience: by him for knowledge can not be without obedience.
^d Whereby he loueth God: so that to loue God is to obey his worde.
^e Or, doctrine.
^f When the Law was giuen.
^g Loue thy neighbour as thy self, is the olde commandement taught in the Law: but wher Christ saith, So loue one another as I haue loued you, he giueth a newe commandement onely as touching the forme, but not as touching the nature or substance of the precept.

might *take away our finnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whoſoever abideth in him, ſinneth not: whoſoever ſinneth, hat he not ſene him, neither hathe knowen him.

7 Litle children, let no man deceiue you: he that doeth righteousnes, is righteous, as he is righteous.

Iohn 8. 44. e As appeared by Adam.

8 He that *committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuill ſinneth from the beginning: for this purpose appeared the Sonne of God, that he might loſe the workes of the deuill.

9 Whoſoever is borne of God, ſinneth not: for his ſede remaineth in him, nether can he ſinne, becauſe he is borne of God.

f Which is the holie Goſp. g He can not be vnder the power of sinne becauſe the Spirit of God correcteth his euil and corrupt affections. h He deſcendeth from the firſt table of 5 commandments to the ſeconde. Iohn 13. 34. e 15. 12. Gen. 4. 8.

10 In this are the childre of God knowen, and the children of the deuill: whoſoever doeth not righteousnes, is not of God, neither he that loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the meſſage, that ye heard fro the beginning, that *we ſhulde loue one another, 12 Not as *Cain which was of the wicked, and ſlewe his brother: & wherefore ſlewe he him? becauſe his owne workes were euil, and his brothers good.

13 Marueile not, my brethren, though y^e worlde hate you.

i This loue is the ſpecial fruite of our faith and a certaine ſigne of our regeneration. Chap. 2. 10. Iouet 19. 17.

14 We knowe that we are translated from death vnto life, becauſe we loue the brethren: *he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whoſoever hateth his brother, is a manſlayer: & ye knowe that no maſlayer hathe eternal life abiding in him.

Iohn 15. 13. aphe 5. 22.

16 *Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that he laid downe his life for vs: therefore we ought alſo to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

Iak. 3. 22.

17 *And whoſoever hathe this worldeſ good and ſeeth his brother haue nede, and ſhutteth vp his compaſſion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

k Which is not the cauſe, wherefore we are y^e ſonnes of God, but a moſt certaine ſigne. l If our conſcience being giltye of any ſhing, be able to condemne vs, muche more y^e iudgement of God which knoweth our hearts better the we our ſelnes, is able to condemne vs. Iohn 15. 7. e 16. 23. mat. 21. 22. chap. 5. 24. Iohn. 6. 29. e 17. 3. Iohn 13. 34. e 15. 10.

18 My litle children, let vs not loue in worde, nether in tongue onely, but in *dede & in trueth.

19 For thereby we knowe that we are of the trueth & ſhal before him aſſure our hearts.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldenes towarde God.

22 *And whatſoever we aſke, we receiue of him, becauſe we kepe his comandements, and do thoſe things which are pleaſing in his ſight.

23 *This is then his commandement, That we beleue in the Name of his Sonne Ieſus Chriſt, and loue one another, as he gaue commandement.

24 *For he that kepeth his commadements, dwelleth in him, and he in him: & hereby we knowe that he abydeth in vs, euen by the Spirit which he hathe giuen vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of ſpirits. 2 How the Spirit of God may be knowne from the ſpirit of errour. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbours.

1 D^erely beloued, beleue not euerie ſpirit, but trye the ſpirits whether they are of God: for many falſe Prophetes are gone out into the worlde.

a The which boakt that they haue the Spirit to preache or prophetic.

2 Hereby ſhal ye knowe the Spirit of God, Euerie ſpirit that confeſſeth that Ieſus Chriſt is come in the fleſh, is of God.

b Who being very God came from his Father and toke vpon him our fleſh. He y^e confeſſeth or preacheth this truly, hathe the Spirit of God, is not.

3 And euerie ſpirit which confeſſeth not that Ieſus Chriſt is come in the fleſh, is not of God: but this is the ſpirit of Antichriſt, of whome ye haue heard, how y^e he ſhulde come & now already he is in the worlde.

c He began to buylde the myſterie of iniquitie. d Satan the prince of the worlde.

4 Litle children, ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is he that is in you, then d he that is in the worlde.

5 They are of the worlde, therefore ſpeake they of the worlde, and the worlde heareth them.

Iohn 8. 47. e With pure affection & obedience.

6 We are of God, *he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby knowe we the Spirit of trueth, and the ſpirit of errour.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue cometh of God, & euerie one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

Iohn 3. 16. f Trueth is, y^e God hathe declared his loue in many other things, but herein hath he paſſed all other. g By his onely death.

9 *In f this appeared y^e loue of God towarde vs, becauſe God ſent his onely begottē Sonne into the worlde, that we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and ſent his ſonne to be a reconciliation for our finnes.

11 Beloued, if God ſo loued vs, we ought alſo to loue one another.

12 *No man hathe ſene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perſite in vs.

Iohn 1. 18. 1. ioh. 6. 16.

13 Hereby knowe we, that we dwell in him, and he in vs: becauſe he hathe giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue ſene, and do teſtifie, that the Father ſent the Sōne to be the Sauour of the worlde.

h So that his confeſſion proceedeth of faith.

15 Whoſoever h confeſſeth that Ieſus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

i Or, inwardly. j By inſpiring it into vs.

16 And we haue knowen, and beleued the loue that God hathe i in vs. God is loue, & he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is the loue perſite in vs, that we ſhulde haue boldenes in the day of iudgement: for as he is, euen ſo are we in this worlde.

k Suche as ould trouble
the conscience.

18 There is no ^k feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hathe painfulness: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.

l For god presteth him self so vs in them, which beare his image.

20 If anie man say, I loue God, and^l hate his brother, he is a lyer: for^l how can he that loueth not his brother whome he hathe sene, loue God whome he hathe not sene?

Iohn 13.43. & 15.12.

21 * And this commandement haue we of him, that he which loueth God, shulde loue his brother also.

1.10.13 Of the frutes of faith. 14.20 The office, autoritie, & diuinitie of Christ. 21 Against images.

a Is regenerat by the verue of this Spirit.

WHosoever beleueth that Iesus is the Christ, is ^a borne of God, & euerie one that loueth him, which begate, loueth him also which is begottē of him.

b The loue of God must go before, or els we ca not loue aright.

2 In this we knowe that we loue the children of God, when we loue ^b God, & kepe his commandements.

Mat. 21.30.

3 For this is the loue of God that we kepe his commandements: and his ^c commandements are not ^c grieuous.

c They are easie to the sonnes of God, who are led with his Spirit: for thei desire therein.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercometh the worlde: and this is the victorie that ouercometh the worlde, ^{euen} our faith.

1. Cor. 13.17.

5 * Who is it that ouercometh the worlde, but he which beleueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

d That is, regeneration.
e The water & blood that came out of his side, declare y^e we haue our sinnes washed by him, & he hath made full satisfactio for the same.
f Our munde inspired by y^e holie Gost.
g Which testifieth to our hearts, that we be y^e children of God.

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by ^d water & ^e blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the ^f spirit, y^e beareth witness: for the Spirit is ^g truth.

7 For there are thre, which beare recorde in heauen, the Father, the Worde, and the holie Gost: and these thre are one.

8 And there are thre, which beare recorde in the earth, the spirit and the water and the blood: and these thre agre in one.

9 If we receiue the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he testified of his Sonne.

10 * He that beleueth in the Sonne of God, hathe the witness in him self: he that beleueth not God, hathe made him a lyer, because he beleued not the recorde, y^e God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the recorde, that God hathe giuen vnto vs eternal life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hathe the Sonne, hathe life: and he that hathe not the Sonne of God, hathe not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you, that beleue in the Name of the Sonne of God, that ye may knowe that ye haue eternal life, and that ye may beleue in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance, that we haue in him, * that if we aske anie thing according to his wil, he heareth vs.

15 And if we knowe that he heareth vs, whatsoeuer we aske, we knowe that we haue the petitions that we haue desired of him.

16 If anie man se his brother sinne a sinne, that is not vnto death, let him aske, and he shal giue him life for them that sinne not ^h vnto death. * There is a sinne ⁱ vnto death: I say not that thou shuldest praye for it.

17 All vnrighteousnes is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 We knowe that whosoever is borne of God, ^k sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, ^l kepeth him self, & the ^m wicked ⁿ toucheth him not.

19 We knowe that we are of God, and the whole worlde ^o lyeth in wickednes.

20 But we knowe that the Sonne of God is ^p come, & hathe giue vs a minde to knowe him, which is true: and we are in him that is true, ^q that is, in his Sonne Iesus Christ: this same is verie ^r God, and eternal life.

THE SECONDE

Epistle of Iohn.

He writeth vnto a certeine ladie, 4 Reioyng that her children walke in the trueth, 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue, 7 Warneth them to beware of suche deuisers as deme that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, 8 Præsteth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 And to haue nothing to do with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Saviour.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I founde of thy children walking ^c in trueth, as we haue receiued a commandement of the Father.

5 And now beseeche I thee, Ladie, (not as writing a new commandement vnto thee, but that same which we had from the beginning) that we ^d loue one another.

 6 And this is the loue, that we shulde walke after his^e commandements. This commandement is, that as ye haue heard from the beginning, ye shulde walke in it.
 7 For manie deceiuers are entred into the worlde, which confesse not y^e Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is suche one, is a deceuer and an Antichrist.

³ He is glad of Gains that he walketh in the trueth, & exhorteth them to be louing vnto the poore Christen in their persecution, ⁹ Sheweth the vnkynde dealing of Diotrephes, ¹² And the good reporte of Demetrius.

I He Elder vnto the beloued Ga:us, whome I loue in the trueth.
 Beloued, I wish chiefly y^e thou prosperedst & faredst wel, as thy soule prospereth.
 3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the trueth.
 4 I haue no greater ioye then this, ^{that} us, to heare that my sonnes walke in^a veritie.
 5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully whatfoeuer thou doest to the brethren, & to^b strangers,
 6 Which bare witness of thy loue before the Churches. Whome if thou bringest of their iourney as it^c besemeth according to God, thou shalt do wel, ^c If y^e furnishest the with necessities toward their iourney, knowing y^e the Lord saith, He that receiueth you, receiueth me.

8 We therefore ought to receiue suche, that we might be helpers to the trueth.
 9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueth vs not.
 10 Wherefore if I come, I wil declare his dedes which he doeth, prating agaynst vs with malicious wordes, and not therewith content, nether he him self receiueth the brethren, but forbiddeth them y^e wolde, and thrusteth them out of the Church.
 11 Beloued, folowe not that which is euil, but that which is good: he that doeth wel, is of God: but he that doeth euil, hath not^h sene God.
 12 Demetrius hath good reporte of all men, and of the trueth it self: yea, and we our selues beare recorde, and ye knowe that our recorde is true.
 13 I haue manie things to write: but I wil not with yncke and pen write vnto thee.
 14 For I trust I shal shortly se thee, and we shal speake mouth to mouth. Peace be with thee. The friends salute thee. Grete the friends by name.

THE GENERAL Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take hede of deceiuers which go about to drawe awaye the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God, and willet them to haue no societie with suche, whome he setteth forth in their liuelie colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally he comforteth the faithfull and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

2 Mercie vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the cōmune saluation, it was nedeful for me to write vnto you to exhorte you, that ye shulde earnestly cōtende for the maintenance of ^t faith, which was ^u once giuen vnto the Saines.

4 For there are certeine mē crept in which were before of olde ^v ordeined to this cōdemnation: vngodlie men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnes, and ^w denye God the onelie Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I wil therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuche as ye once knewe this, how that the Lord, after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, ^x destroyed them afterwarde which ^y beleued not.

6 The ^z Angels also which kept not their first ^{aa} estate, but lest their owne habitation, he hath reserved in euerlasting chaines vnder darkenes vnto ^{ab} iudgement of the great daye.

7 As ^{ac} Sodom and Gomorrhe, and the cities about thē, which in like maner as they did, cōmitted, and followed ^{ad} strāge flesh, are set forthe for an ensample, and suffre the vengeance of eternal fyre.

8 Likewise notwithstanding these ^{ae} dreamers also defie the flesh, and despise gouernement, and speake euil of them that are in autoritie.

9 Yet ^{af} Michael the Archangel, when he strove against the deuil, and disputed about the bodie of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but faith, ^{ag} The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speake euil of those things, which they knowe not: and whatsoever things they knowe ^{ah} naturally, as beastes, which are without reason, in those things they corrupt them selues.

13 They are the raging waues of the sea, foaming out their owne shame: they are wandering starres, to whome is reserved the blackenes of darkenes for euer.

14 And Enoch also the seuēth from Adam, prophced of ^{ao} siche, saying, ^{ap} Beholde, the Lord cometh with thousands of his Santes, 16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their owne lustes: ^{ar} whose mouths speake proude things, hauing mens perſones in admiration, because of a vantage.

17 But, ye beloued, remember the wordes which were spokē before of the Aposties of our Lord Iesus Christ,

THE REVELATION

of Iohn the Diuine.

Or, declared in Iohn.

THE ARGUMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holie Ghost wolde as it were gather into this moste excellent booke a summe of those prophecies, which were written before, but shoulde be fulfill'd after the coming of Christ, adding also suche things as shoulde be expedient, aswel to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is lively set forth the Diuinitie of Christ, & the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things he reproveth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glorie and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which sting like scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed, but the Lambe Christ shal defende them, which beare witnes to the truth, who in despite of the beast and Satan wil reigne ouer all. The liuelie description of Antichrist is set forthe, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited, and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no farther then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shal be destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shal give praise to God for the victorie: neuertheless for a ceason God wil permit this Antichrist, and stromper vnder colour of faire speache and pleasant doctrine to deceue the worlde: wherefore he aduertiseth the godlie (which are but a smale portion) to auoide this harlots flatteries, and bragges, whose ruine without mercie they shal see, and with the heauenlie companies sing continual praises: for the Lambe is married: the worde of God hath gotten the victorie: Satan that a long time was vntied, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fyre to be tormented for euer, where as contrariwise the faithful (which are the holie Citie of Ierusalem, & wife of the Lambe) shal enioye perpetual glorie. Read diligently: iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The vision of the maiestie of God. 2 He seeth the throne, and one sitting vpon it. 3 And 24. seates about it with 24. elders sitting vpon them, and foure beastes praising God day and night.

After this I looked, and beholde, a dore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trūpet talking with me, saying, Come vp hither, and I wil shewe thee things which muste be done hereafter.

a Before that he make mencō of ȳ great afflictions of the Church, he setteth forth the maiestie of God, by whose wil, wisdom and prouidēce all things are created, & gouerned, to teache vs patience.

b He describeth the Diuine and incomprehensible vertue of God the father as chap. 5. 6. and ȳ Sonne who is ioy and with him.

c By these are meant all the holie cōpanie of the heauē.

d From the throne of the Father, & the Sonne proceedeth the holie Goſt, who hauing all but one throne, declare the vertue of ȳ Godhead.

e The holie Goſt is as a lightning vnto vs that beleue, and as a fearful thunder to the disobedient.

f The worlde is compared to a sea because of the changes and vntabilities.

Isa. 6. 3.

Or, vnder the throne.

h They are called Cherubins, Eze. 10. 20

i We are hereby taught to giue glorie to God in all his workes.

k They wil chalēge no authoritic, honour nor power before God.

Chap. 5. 12.

2 And immediatly I was rauished in the spirit, & beholde, a throne was set in heauen, and one sat vpon the throne.

3 And he that sat there, was to loke vpon, like vnto a iasper stone, and a sardine, & there was a raine bowe rounde about the throne in sight like to an emeraude.

4 And rounde about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raimēt, and had on their heads crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings, and voyces, & there were seuen lampes of fyre, burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto cristall: and in the middes of the throne, & rounde about ȳ throne were foure beastes full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast was like a lion, & the seconde beast like a calfe, and the thirde beast had a face as a man, and the fourthe beast was like a flying egle.

8 And the foure beafts had eche one of the six wings about him, and they were ful of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, Holie, holie, holie Lord God, almightie, which Was, & Which is and Which is to come.

9 And when those beafts gaue glorie, and honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

10 The foure and twentie elders fell downe before him that sat on the throne, and worshipped him, that liueth for euer more, & cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art worthie, o Lord, to receiue glorie and honour, & power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy willes sake they are, and haue bene created.

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the boke. 2. 14 And therefore the foure beafts, the 24. elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, & do him worship 9 For their redemption and other benefites.

And I sawe in the right hand of him that sat vpon the throne, a boke written within, and on the backside, sealed with seuen seales.

a A similitude taken of earthlie princes, w̄ iudge by booke & writtē & here it doeth signifie all the counsels & iudgements of God w̄ are onely knowen to Christ the Sonne of Dauid, vers. 5. b That is, manie.

2 And I sawe a strong Angel which preached with a lowde voyce, Who is worthie to open the boke, and to lose the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauē, nor in earth, nether vnder the earth, was able to open the boke nether to loke thereon.

4 Then I wept muche, because no mā was founde worthie to open, and to reade the boke, nether to loke thereon.

5 And one of the elders said vnto me, Wepe not: beholde, the lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the rote of Dauid, hath obtained to open the boke, and to lose the seuen seales thereof.

Gen. 49. 9.

6 Then I behelde, and lo, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beafts, & in the middes of the elders, stood a Lambe as though he had bene killed, which had seuen hornes, & seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the worlde.

c This vision confirmeth ȳ power of our Lord Iesus, w̄ is the Lambe of God that taketh away the sinne of the worlde.

d That is, maniefolde power.

e Signifying ȳ fulnes of the Spirit, which Christ putteth vpon all.

f The Angels honour Christ: he is therefore God.

g This declareth how the prayers of the faithful are agreeable vnto God, read Ad. 10. 4. chap. 8. 3.

Chap. 4. 11.

7 And he came, and toke the boke out of the right hand of him that sat vpon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the boke, the foure beafts and the foure and twentie elders fell downe before the lambe, hauing euerie one harpes and golden vials full of odours, w̄ are the prayers of the Saines,

9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthie to take the boke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euerie kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our God Kings and Priests, and we shal reigne on the earth.

11 Then I behelde, and I heard the voyce of manie Angels rounde about the throne and about the beafts and the elders, & there were thousand thousands,

12 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthie is the Lambe that was killed to receiue power and riches, and wisdom, and strength, & honour, and glorie, and praise.

13 And all ȳ creatures which are in heauē, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, & all that are in them, heard I, saying, Praise & honour, and glorie, and power be vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, & vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beafts said, Amen, and the foure and twentie Elders fell downe, and worshipped him that liueth for euer more.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the fixe seales, and manie things follow the opening thereof, so that this contemeth a general prophete to the end of the worlde

After, I behelde when y Lambe had opened one of the seales, & I heard one of the foure beafts say, as it were the noyce of thunder, Come and se.

2 Therefore I behelde, and lo, there was a white horse, and he that sat on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went for the conquering that he might ouercome.

3 And when he had opened the seconde seale, I heard the seconde beast say, Come and se.

4 And there went out another horse that was red, & power was giuen to him that sat thereon, to take peace from the earth and that they shulde kil one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sworde.

5 And when he had opened the thurde seale, I heard the thurde beast say, Come and se. Then I behelde, & lo, a blacke horse, & he that sat on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beafts say, A measure of wheat for a penie, and thre measures of barlie for a penie, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and se.

8 And I looked, & beholde, a pale horse, & his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth parte of the earth, to kill with sworde, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beafts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seale, I sawe vnder the altar the soules of them, that were killed for the worde of God, & for y testimonie which they mainteined.

10 And they cryed with a lowde voyce, saying, How long, Lord, holie and true! doest not thou iudge & auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euerie one, and it was said vnto them, that they shulde rest for a litle ceason vntil their felowe seruants, and their brethren that shulde be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I behelde when he had opened the sixt seale, and lo, there was a great earthquake, & the sunne was as blacke as sackcloth of here, and the moone was like blood.

13 And the starres of heauen fel vnto the earth, as a figge tre casteth her grene figges when it is shaken of a mightie winde.

14 And heauen departed away, as a scrole when it is rolled, and euerie mountaine & yle were moued out of their places.

15 And the Kings of the earth, & the great men, and the riche men, and the chief captaynes, and the mightie men, and euerie bondman, and euerie fre man, hid them selues in denes, and among the rockes of the mountaynes, 16 And said to the mountaynes and rockes, Fall on vs, and hide vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the throne, & fro the wrath of the Lambe.

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand?

CHAP. VII.

9 He seeth the seruants of God sealed in their foreheades out of all nations and people, 15 Which though they suffer trouble, yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaines of liuing water, 17 And God shal wipe awaye all teares from their eyes.

And after that, I sawe foure Angels stād on y foure corners of the earth, holding the foure windes of the earth, y the windes shulde not blowe on the earth, nether on the sea, nether on anie tre.

2 And I saw another Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a loude voyce to the foure Angels to whome power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea, saying, Hurt ye not the earth, nether the sea, nether the trees, til we haue sealed y seruants of our God in their foreheades.

4 And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, and there were sealed an hundred and foure and fortie thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

1 The seuenth scale is opened: there is silence in heauen. 2 The foure Angels blowe their trumpettes, and great plagues followe vpon the earth.

1 AND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

a Vnder the sixt scale he touched in general the corruption of the doctrine: but vnder the seuenth he sheweth the great danger thereof, & what troubles, scisses & heresies hath bene & shall be brought into the Church thereby.

b That the hearers might be more attentive.

c He sheweth the onelie remedie in our afflictions, to wit, to appeare before the face of God by the meanes of Iesus Christ, who is the Angel, the sacrifice, and the Priest, which presenteth our prayers, which remaine yet on earth, before the altar and diuine matricie of God.

2 And I sawe the seuen Angels, which stode before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpettes.

3 Then another Angel came and stode before the altar hauing a golden censer, and muche odours was giuen vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saintes vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saintes, went vp before

God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

d He mea by fyre the grace of God by which we are purged & made cleane, 6, 6.

e He powr the holie spirit into the hearts of the faithful.

f When grace is vnto red, maruel rebellions: se against the reason of the wicked, which can neither bide to be touched, nor mercie offer.

g That is, preclaimeth warre against the Church, as troubles by the doctrine.

h That is, the moste parte men were seduced.

i Euen the vrie clest were fore tried & prouen.

k Diuers sectes of heretikes were spread abroad in the world.

l Meaning the shipmasters, so that they had any gouernement.

m That is, some excellent minister of the Church, which shall corrupt the Scripture.

n Which heretike falsly corrupt doctore.

o That is, of Christ who is the sunne of iustice, meaning that men by boasting of their works and merites obscure Christ and tread his death vnder feete.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpettes, prepared them selues to blowe the trumpettes.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was haile & fyre, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third parte of the trees was burnt, & all greene grasse was burnt.

8 And the seconde Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fyre, was cast into the sea, & the third parte of the sea became blood.

9 And the third parte of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, dyed, & the third parte of the shippes were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, & there fell a great starre from heauen burning like a torche, and it fell into the third parte of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called wormewood: therefore the third parte of the waters became wormewood, and manie men dyed of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third parte of the sunne was smitten, & the third parte of the moone, and the third parte of the starres, so that the third parte of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third parte of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I behelde, & heard one Angel flying through the middes of heauen, saying with a lowde voyce, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the foules to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpettes.

p That is, of the Church. q Of the ministers and teachers, which haue not taught, as they ought to do. r These are the plagues for the contempt of the Gospell. s Horrible threatenings against the infidels & rebellious papistes.

CHAP. IX.

1 The fift and sixt Angel blowe their trumpettes: the starre falleth from heauen. 2 The locustes come out of the smoke. 3 The first wo is paste. 4 The foure Angels that were bounde, are loosed. 5 And the third parte of men is killed.

1 AND the fift Angel blew the trumpet, & I sawe a starre fall from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the keye of the bottomles pit.

a That is, the Bishops and ministers, which for sake of worde of God, & so fall out of heauen, & become Angels of darknesses.

b This autoritie chiefly is committed to the Pope in signe whereof he beareth the keyes in his armes.

2 And he opened the bottomles pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the smoke of a great fornace, and the sunne, keyes in his armes. c Abundance of heresies and errors, which couer with darkness Christ and his Gospell.

d Locustes are false teachers, heretikes, and worldlie suril Prelates, with Monkes, Freres, Cardinals, Patriarkes, Archbishops, Bishops, Doctors, Bachelors & masters which forsake Christ to main teine false doctrine.

e False and detestable doctrine, which is pleasant to the flesh.

f That is, secretly to persecute and to sting with their taile as scorpions do: such is the faction of the hypocrites.

g For the false prophetes can not destroye the elect, but such as are ordained to perdition.

h That is, the infidels whom Satan blindeth with the efficacy of error.

i Though the elect be hurt, yet they can not perish.

k The elect for a certeine space and at times are in troubles: for the grethoppers endure but fro April to Septeber, which is sixe moneths.

l For at the beginning y sting of their conscience semeth as nothing, but except they soone seke remedie, they perish.

m Suche is the terror of the vnbelaung conscience, which hath no assurance of mercie, but seletch the iudgement of God against it, when men embrace error and refuse the true simplicitie of Gods worde.

n Which signifieth that the Popes clergie shalbe proude, ambitious, bold, rouse, rash, rebellious, subber, cruel, lecherous & autors of warre & destruction of the simple children of God.

o They pretend a certeine title of honour, which in dede belogeth nothing vnto the, as the Priests by their crownes and strange apparel declare.

p That is, they pretend great gentlenes & loue: they are wise, politicke, subtil, eloquent & in worldlie craftines passe all in all their doings.

and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke d Locustes vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen e power, as the f scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commanded them, that they shulde not hurt the g grasse of the earth, nether anie grene thing, nether anie tree: but onely those h men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheades.

5 And to them was commanded that they shulde not i kil them, but that they shulde be k vexed siue moneths, and that their paine shulde be as the paine that cometh of a l scorpion, when he hathe stung a mā.

6 * Therefore in those daies shal men m seke death, and shal not finde it, and shal desire to dye, and death shal flee from them.

7 * And the forme of the locustes was like vnto n horses prepared vnto battel, and on their heades were as it were o crownes, like vnto golde, and their faces p were like the faces of men.

8 And they had heere as the q heere of women, and their r teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had f habbergions, like to habbergions of yron: and the sounde of their r wings was like the sounde of charets when manie horses runne vnto battel.

10 And they had tailes like vnto scorpions, and there were u stings in their tailes, & their power was to hurt me siue moneths.

11 And they haue a King ouer them, which is the x Angel of the bottomles pit, whose name in Hebrewe is, y Abaddon, and in Greke he is named Apollyon.

12 One wo is past, & beholde, yet two woes come after this.

13 ¶ Then the sixt Angel blewe the trūpet, & I heard a z voyce from the foure hornes of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixt Angel, which had the trumpet, Lose the foure a Angels, w are bounde in the great riuer Euphrates.

15 And the foure Angels were losed, which were prepared at an b houre, at a day, at a moneth, & at a yere, to slay the third parte of men.

16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twetic thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I sawe the horses in a vision, and them that sare on them, hauing fyrie habbergions, & of Iacynth & of brimstone, & the heads of the horses were as y heads of lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth the fyre and smoke and brimstone.

18 Of these thre was the third parte of me killed, that is, of the fyre and of the smoke, and of the brimstone, which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their c mouthes, & in their tailes: for their tailes were like vnto serpents, and had heades, wherewith they hurte.

were twetic thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, d repented not of the workes of their hands that they shulde not worship deuils, and * idoles of golde and of siluer, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which nether can se, nether heare nor go.

21 Also they repented not of their murther, and of their forcerie, nether of their fornicacion, nor of their theft.

22 The Angel hathe the boke open. 6 He sweareth there shalbe no more tyme. 9 He giueth the boke vnto Iohn, which eateth it vp.

23 And I sawe another mightie a Angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloude, and the b raine bowe vpon his head, & his face was as the c sunne, and his d feete as pillers of fyre.

24 And he had in his hand a litle e boke open, and he put his right fote vpon the sea, and his left on the earth,

25 And cryed with a f lowde voyce, as when a lyon roareth: and when he had cryed, seuen g thondres vttered their voyces.

26 And when the seuen thondres had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen saying vnto me, h Seale vp those things which the seuen thondres haue spoken, & write the not.

27 And the Angel which I sawe stand vpon the sea and vpon the earth, lift vp his had to heauen, 28 And sware i by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, & the things that therein are, & the earth & the things that therein are, & the sea & the things, w therein are, that time shulde be no more.

29 But in the daies of the voyce of the seuen th Angel, whē he shal beginne to blowe the trumpet, euen the k mysterie of God shalbe finished, as he hathe declared to his seruants the Prophetes.

30 The whole graces of Gods Spirit bent them selues against Antichrist. h Belete that that is written: for there is no need to write more for the vnderstanding of Gods children.

i That is, by God with whome Christ by his diuinitie is equall. k The faithful shal vnderstand and se this mysterie of the last iudgement, the damnacion of Antichrist and infidels, & also the glorie of the iust at the resurrection.

l Meaning the enemies of the Gospel of Christ, which Antichrist can not hide, seeing Christ bringeth it open in his had. m Which declereth that in despite of Antichrist y Gospel shulde be preached through all the worlde: so that the enemies shalbe sfonted. n The whole graces of Gods Spirit bent them selues against Antichrist. h Belete that that is written: for there is no need to write more for the vnderstanding of Gods children. i That is, by God with whome Christ by his diuinitie is equall. k The faithful shal vnderstand and se this mysterie of the last iudgement, the damnacion of Antichrist and infidels, & also the glorie of the iust at the resurrection.

d Straight, strong & pure fro all corruptions.

e Meaning the enemies of the Gospel of Christ, which Antichrist can not hide, seeing Christ bringeth it open in his had. f Which declereth that in despite of Antichrist y Gospel shulde be preached through all the worlde: so that the enemies shalbe sfonted. n The whole graces of Gods Spirit bent them selues against Antichrist. h Belete that that is written: for there is no need to write more for the vnderstanding of Gods children. i That is, by God with whome Christ by his diuinitie is equall. k The faithful shal vnderstand and se this mysterie of the last iudgement, the damnacion of Antichrist and infidels, & also the glorie of the iust at the resurrection.

1 As S. Iohn vnderstode as by reuelation, so is the same reuelated to y^e true preachers to discouer the Pope, & Antichrist.

2 I. That is, the holie Scriptures: y^e minister must receive the^e at y^e hand of God before he can preache the^e to others.

3 Which signifieth that the ministers ought to receive the worde into their hearts, & to haue graue, & depe iudgement, and diligently to studie it, & with zeale to utter it.

4 Signifying y^e albeit that the minister haue consolation by the worde of God, yetihal he haue sore, & grievous enemies, which shalbe troublefome vnto him.

5 Not onely meaning in his life tyme, but that this boke after his death shulde be as a preaching vnto all nations.

6 aWhich declarerth y^e Christ Iesus wil buylde his Church and nor haue it destroyed: for he measurerth out his spiritual Temple

7 b The Iewish temple was deuoted into three parts: the boodie of the temple which is called the court, where into euerie man entered: y^e holie places where y^e leuit were: & the holiest of all, where into the high Priest once a yere entered: in respec^t therefore of these two later, the first is said to be cast out, because as a thig prophane it is neglected whē the temple is measured, and yet the aduersaries of Christ boast that they are in the Temple, and y^e none are of the Temple, but they.

8 c That is, the Church of God.

9 d Meaning, a certeine time: for God hathe limited the time of Antichrists tyrannie.

10 e By two witnesses he meaneth all the preachers y^e shulde buylde vp Gods Church, alluding to Zorubbabel and Iehoshua which were chiefly appointed for this thing, and also to this saying, In the mouthes of two witnesses standeth euerie worde.

11 f Signifying a certeine time: for whē God giueth strength to his ministers, their persecutions seme, but as it were for a day or two.

12 g In poure and simple apparell.

13 h Whereby are signified the excellēt graces of them which beare witness to the Gospel.

14 i Who hathe dominion ouer the whole earth.

15 k By Gods worde whereby his ministers discōmit the enemies.

16 l They denounce Gods iudgement against the wicked, that they can not enter into heauen.

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto me againe and said, Go & take y^e litle boke which is open in the hand of the Angel, which standeth vpon the sea & vpon the earth.

9 So I wēt vnto the Angel, & said to him, Giue me the litle boke. And he said vnto me, Take it, & eat it vp, and it shal make thy bellie bitter, but it shalbe in thy mouth as swete as honie.

10 Then I toke the litle boke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as swete as honie: but when I had eaten it, my bellie was bitter.

11 And he said vnto me, Thou must prophetic againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many Kings.

12 Then I toke the litle boke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as swete as honie: but when I had eaten it, my bellie was bitter.

13 The temple is measured. 3 Two witnesses raised up by the Lord, are murdered by the beast, 11 But after recouered to glorie. 15 Christ is exalted, 16 And God praised by the 24. elders.

14 Then was giuen me a rede, like vnto a rodde, & the Angel stode by, saying, Rise and mette the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

15 But the court which is without the temple, cast out, and mette it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holie citie shal they treade vnder fote a two & fortie moneths.

16 But I wil giue power vnto my two witnesses, & they shal prophetic a thousand, two hundred, & threscore dayes, clothed in sacke cloth.

17 These are two holie trees, & two cadel stickes, standing before y^e God of y^e earth.

18 And if anie mā wil hurte them, fyre procedeth out of their mouthes, and deuouereth their enemies: for if anie man wolde hurt them, thus muste he be killed.

19 These haue power to shut heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophcing, & haue power ouer waters to turne them into blood, and to smite the earth with all maner plagues, as ofrē as they wil.

20 And when they haue finished their testimonie, the beast that cometh out of the bottomles pit, shal make warre against them, and shal ouercome them, and kill them.

21 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was sene in his Temple the Arke of his couenāt: and there were lightnings, and voyces, and thōdrings, and earthquake, and muche haile.

8 And their corpses shal lie in the stretes of the great citie, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord also was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kinreds, and tongues, and Gentiles shal se their corpses thre dayes and an halfe, and shal not suffer their carkeses to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, shal reioyce ouer them and be glad, and shal send giftes one to another: for these two Prophetes vexed them that dwelt on the earth.

11 But after thre dayes and an halfe, the spirit of life comming from God, shal enter into them, & they shal stand vp vpon their fete: and great feare shal come vpon them which sawe them.

12 And they shal heare a great voyce from heauen, saying vnto them, Come vp hither. And they shal ascende vp to heauen in a cloude, and their enemies shal se them.

13 And the same houre shal there be a great earthquake, and the tenth parte of the citie shal fall, and in the earthquake shalbe slaine in nomber seuē thousand: and the remnant shalbe afraid, and giue glorie to the God of heauen.

14 The seconde wo is past, & beholde the thirde wo wil come anone.

15 And the seuēth Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voyces in heauē, saying, The kingdomes of this worlde are our Lords, and his Christs, and he shal reigne for euermore.

16 Then the foure & twētie Elders, which sate before God on their seates, fell vpon their faces, and worshipped y^e God, 17 Saying, We giue thee thanks, Lord God almightie, Which art, and Which wast, & Which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obtēned thy kingdome.

18 And the Gentiles were angrie, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they shulde be iudged, and that thou shuldest giue rewarde vnto thy seruants the Prophetes, and to the Saintes, and to them that feare thy Name, to smaile, and great, and shuldest destroye them, which destroye the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was sene in his Temple the Arke of his couenāt: and there were lightnings, and voyces, and thōdrings, and earthquake, and muche haile.

p Meaning the whole iurisdiction of the Pope, which is copared to Sodom for their abominable sōne, and to Egypt because the true Iheremie to serue God is taken away from the faithfull: and Christ was condemned by Pilate, who represented the Romaine power which shulde be enemy to the godlie. q The insidels are tormented by hearing y^e truth preached. r Which shalbe at the last resurrection. s For it semed that Antichrist had chased them out of the earth.

t Of the power of Antichrist.

u When they shal vnderstand by Gods worde the glorie of his, and the punishment of his enemies, they shal fall from the Pope, and glorifie God. x Albert Sarā by y^e Pope, Turke and other instruments troubleth the worlde neuer to muche, yet Christ shal reigne. y Iesus Christ. z This declarerth the office of the godlie, which is to giue God thanks for the deliuerance of his, and to praise his iustice for punishing of his enemies.

a Which signifieth the destruction of the enemies.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the dragon, which persecuteth the woman. 11 The victorie is gotten to the comfort of the faithfull.

a In this third viſion is declared how the Church which is compaſſed about with Ieſus Chriſt the Sonne of righteouſnes, is persecuted of Antichriſt. b The Church treadeth vnder ſore what ſoner is mutable, and incoſtant, with all corrupt affections and ſuche like. c Which ſignifie God and his worde. d The Church euer with a moſte feruent deſire longed the Chriſt ſhulde be borne, & that the faithfull might be regenerate by his power. Pſal. 9. e The deuil, & all his power which burneth with furie and is red with the blood of the faithful. f For he is prince of this worlde & almoſte hath the vniuerſal gouernement. g By his flatteries & promiſes he gaineſt manie of excellent miniſters & honorable perſones, and bringeth theſe to deſtruction. h Which is Ieſus Chriſt the firſt borne among manie brethren, who was borne of the virgin Marie as of a ſpecial member of the Church. i The Church was removed from among the Iewes to the Gētiles, which were as a bare wilderness, and ſo it is persecuted to & from. k Ieſus Chriſt and his members, as Apoſtles, Martyrs, and the reſt of the faithful. l For the dragon was deprived of all his dignitie and had no more place in the Church. m They put their liues in danger ſo oft as neede required. n Meaning, theſe that are giuen to the worlde and fleſhly luſtes. o And was overcome of Chriſt, then he ſaugh againſt his members. p Which the Lord had appointed for her. q God giueth meanes to his Church to eſcape the furie of Satan making his creatures to ſerue to the ſupport thereof.

1 And there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A woman clothed with the ſunne, & the moone was vnder her feete, and vpon her head a crowne of twelve ſtarres.

2 And ſhe was with childe and cryed traouailing in birth, and was pained readie to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for beholde, a great red dragon hauing ſeuē heades, and ten hornes, and ſeuē crownes vpon his heades:

4 And his taile drue the third parte of the ſtarres of heauen, & caſt the to the earth. And the dragon ſtoode before the woman, which was readie to be deliuered, to deuoure her childe when ſhe had brought it forth.

5 So ſhe brought forth a man childe, which ſhulde rule all nations with a rod of yron: and her ſonne was taken vp vnto God and to this throne.

6 And the woman fled into wildernesses where ſhe hath a place prepared of God, that they ſhulde fede her there a thouſand, two hundred and threſcore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen. Michael & his Angels fought againſt the dragon, and the dragon fought & his Angels.

8 But they preuailed not, nether was their place founde anie more in heauen.

9 And the great dragon, that olde ſerpent, called the deuil and Satan, was caſt out, which deceiueth all the worlde: he was caſt into the earth, & his Angels were caſt out with him.

10 The I heard a loude voyce, ſaying, Now is ſaluation in heauen, and ſtrength & the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Chriſt: for the accuſer of our brethren is caſt downe, which accuſed them before our God day and night.

11 But they ouercome him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the worde of their testimony, and they loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, & ye that dwell in the. Wo to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the ſea: for the deuil is come downe vnto you which hath the great wrath, knowing that he hath but a ſhort time.

13 And when the dragon ſaw that he was caſt vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought forth the man childe.

14 But to the woman were giuen two winges of a great eagle, the ſhe might flie into the wilderness, into ſome place, where ſhe is nourished for a time, & times, and halfe a time, from the preſence of the ſerpent.

15 And the ſerpent caſt out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, the he might caſe her to be caryed away of the flood.

16 But the earth hope the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and ſwalowed vp the flood, which the dragon had caſt out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and wēt and made warre with the remnant of her ſede, which kepe the commandments of God, and haue the testimony of Ieſus Chriſt.

18 And I ſtoode on the ſea ſande.

CHAP. XIII.

1. 8 The beaſt deceiueth the reprobate, 2. 4. 12. And is confirmed by another beaſt. 17 The priuiledge of the beaſts marke.

1 And I ſawe a beaſt riſe out of the ſea, hauing ſeuē heades, and ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were ten crownes, and vpon his heades the name of blaſphemie.

2 And the beaſt which I ſawe, was like a leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gaue him his power and his throne, & great autoritie.

3 And I ſawe one of his heades as it were wounded to death, but his deadlie wounde was healed, and all the worlde wōdred and followed the beaſt.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beaſt, & they worshipped the beaſt, ſaying, Who is like vnto the beaſt! who is able to warre with him!

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, that ſpake great things and blaſphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to do two and fortie moneths.

6 And he opened his mouth vnto blaſphemie againſt God, to blaſpheme his Name and his tabernacle, & the dwelling in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saintes, and to ouercome them, & power was giuen him ouer euerie kindred and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, ſhal worship him, whoſe names are not written in the Booke of life of the Lambe, which was ſlaine from the beginning of the worlde.

9 If anie man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If anie lead into captiuitie, he ſhal go into captiuitie: if anie kil with a ſworde, he muſt be killed by a ſworde: here is the patience, & the faith of the Saintes.

11 And I behelde another beaſt comming vp out of the earth, which had two hornes.

r Satan was not able to deſtroy the head nor the bodie, and therefore the wrath his rage againſt the members.

nes like the Lambe, but he spake like the dragon.
And he did all that the first beast colde do before him, & he caused the earth, and them which dwel therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadlie wounde was healed.
And he did great wonders, so that he made fyre to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men,
And deceiued the that dwel on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to do in the sight of the beast, sayig to them that dwell on the earth, that they shulde make the image of the beast, which had the wounde of a sworde, & did liue.
And it was permitted to him to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast shulde speake, and shulde cause that as manie as wolde not worship the image of the beast, shulde be killed.
And he made all, bothe small and great, riche and poore, fre and bonde, to receiue a marke in their right hand or in their foreheads.
And that no man might bye or sell, saue he that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

CHAP. XIII.

The notable copanig of the Labe. 6 One Angel announceth the Gospel. 8 Another the fall of Babylon. 9 And the thirde warneth to flee frō the beast. 13 Of their bles-sednes which dye in the Lord. 18 Of the Lords haruest.

Then I looked, and lo, a Labe stode on mount Sion, and with him an hundredth, fortie & foure thousand, hauing his Fathers Name writen in their foreheads.
And I heard a voyce from heauen, as the founde of manie waters, & as the founde of a great thunder: & I heard the voyce of harpers harping with their harpes.
And they sung as it were a newe song before the throne, & before the foure beasts, and the Elders, and no man colde learne that song, but the hundreth, fortie and foure thousand, which were boght from the earth.

These are they, which are not defiled with womē: for they are virgins: these folowe the Labe whither soeuer he goeth: these are boght from men, being the first frutes vnto God, and to the Lambe.
And in their mouths was founde no guile: for they are without spot before the throne of God.
Then I sawe another Angel flee in the middes of Heauen, hauing an euerlasting Gospel, to preache vnto them, that dwell on the earth, and to euerie nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, Sayig with a loude voyce, Feare God, and giue glorie to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.
And there followed another Angel, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie: for she made all nations to drinke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.
And the thirde Angel followed them, sayig with a loude voyce, If any mā worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,
The same shal drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the pure wine, which is powred into the cuppe of his wrath, and he shalbe tormented in fyre and brimstone before the holie Angels, & before the Lambe.
And the smoke of their torment shal ascende euermore: & they shal haue no rest day nor night, which worshippe the beast and his image, and whofoeuer receiueth the print of his name.
Here is the patience of the Saintes: here are they that kepe the commandements of God, and the faith of Iesus.
The I heard a voyce frō heauen, saying vnto me, Write, Blessed are the dead, which hereafter dye in the Lord. Euē so saith the Spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their workes folowe them.
And I looked, & beholde, a white cloude, and vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the Sōne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.
And another Angel came out of the Tēple, crying with a loude voyce to him

None can praise God, but the elect & whom he hath boght.
By whoredome: and vnder this vice he comprehendeth all other: but this is chiefly mee of idolatrie, which is the spiritual whoredome.
For their whole delite is in the Labe Iesus and they loue none but him.
Which declareth that the faithful ought to liue iustly and holily, that they may be the first frutes & an excellent offering of the Lord.
Psal. 145, 6.
For as muche as their sinnes are pardoned, & they are cled with the iustice of Christ.
Act. 14, 20.
By this Angel are meant the true ministers of Christ, which preache the Gospel faithfully.
Isa. 21, 9.
Iere. 51, 8.
chap. 18, 8.
The Gospel teacheth vs to feare God and honour him, which is the beginning of heauenlie wisdome.
m Signifying Rome, for as muche as the vices which were in Babylon, are founde in Rome in greater abundance, as perfection of the Church of God, oppression & sclauerie, destruction of the people of God, confusion, superstition, idolatrie, impietie, and as Babylon the first Monarchie was destroyed, so shal this wicked kingdome of Antichrist haue a miserable ruine, though it be great & semeth to extend throughout all Europa.
n By which fornicatiō God is prouoked to wrath: so that he suffereth many to walke in the way of the Romish doctrine to their destruction. o That is, of his terrible iudgement the faithful are exhorted to patience. q For they are deliuered from the horrible troubles which are in the Church, and rest with God. r On, for the Lords sake. s Which are ingrafted in Christ by faith, which rest and stay onely on him and reioyce to be with him: for inmediately after their death they are receiued into ioye. f Signifying that Christ shal come to iudgement in a cloude, euen as he was sene to go vp.

Ioel 3.13.

mat. 13.39.

1 The overthrow of the people is compared to an haruest, Isa. 19. 5: also to a vintage, Isa. 63.

u This is spoken familiarly for our capacite, alluding vnto an husband man who suffereth him self to be aduertised by his seruants when his haruest is ripe, and not that Christ ha the neede to be tolde when he shulde come to iudgement for the cofort of his Church and destrucio of his enemies. 2 This was Christ who is also the altar, the Priest and sacrifice.

y That is, a certeine place appointed and not in the heauen.

z By this similitude he declareth the horrible confusion of the tyrants and infideles, which delite in nothing but warres, slaughters, persecutions and efusion of blood.

that sate on the cloude, * Thrust in thy sickle & reape: for the time is come to reape: for the haruest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sate on the cloude, ^u thrust in his sickle on the earth, & the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the temple, which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the altar, which had power ouer fyre, and cryed with a lowde crye to him that had the sharpe sickle, and said, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, & gather the clusters of the vineyarde of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, & cutte downe the vines of the vineyarde of the earth, and cast them into the great wine presse of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine presse was trode without the citie, and blood came out of the wine presse, vnto the ^z horse bridles by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

2 Seuen Angels haue the seuen last plagues. 3 The song of them that ouercome the beast. 7 The seuen viales full of Gods wrath.

a This is the fourth vision which containeth the doctrine of Gods iudgements for the destruction of the wicked and comfort of the godlie.

b Meaning an infinite number of Gods ministers, which had infinite maners of sortes and punishments. Exod. 15. 1.

Psal. 145. 17.

Isa. 40. 16.

c Signifying this brittle & inconstant world mixt with fyre, that is, troubles and afflictions, but the Saintes of God ouercome them all, and sing diuine songs vnto God by whose power they get the victorie.

d Or, after and desired.

e Which is to declare that Gods iudgements are cleare, iust, and without spot.

And I sawe another ^a signe in heauē great & marueilous, ^b seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

2 And I sawe as it were a ^c glassie sea, mingled with fyre, and them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stand at the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God,

3 And they sung the song of Moses the ^{*fer} uant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great & marueilous are thy workes, Lord God almightie: iuste and true are thy ^{*wayes}, King of Saintes.

4 * Who shal not feare thee, o Lord, and glorifie thy Name! for thou onely art holie, and all nations shal come & worshippe before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and beholde, the temple of the tabernacle of testimonie was open in heauen.

6 And the seuen Angels came out of the temple, which had the seuen plagues, clothed in pure and ^d bright linnen, and hauing their ^e breastes girded with golden girdles.

e As readie to execute the vengeance of God.

7 And one of the ^f foure beastes gaue vnto the seuen Angels seuen golden viales full of the wrath of God, which liueth for euermore.

8 And the Temple was ful of the smoke of the glorie of God and of his power, and no mā was able to enter into the Temple, til the seuen plagues of the seuen Angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Angels powre out their vials full of wrath. 6 And what plagues followe thereof. 15 Admonition to take heed and wash.

And I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seuen Angels, Go your wayes, and powre out the seuen viales of the wrath of God vpon the earth. 2 And the first went, and powred out his vial vpon the earth: and there fell a noyesome, and a grieuous ^a sore vpon the men, which had the marke of the beast, & vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the secōd Angel powred out his vial vpon the sea, and it became as the ^b blood of a dead man: and euerie liuing thing dyed in the sea.

4 And the thirde Angel powred out his vial vpon the riuers & fountaines of waters, and they became ^b blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the ^c waters say, Lord, thou art iust, Which art, and Which wast, and Holie, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saintes, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthe.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuarie say, Euē so, Lord God almightie, ^f true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his vial on the sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with ^g heat of fyre, 9 And men boyled in great heat, and ^h blasphemed the Name of God, which hath the power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glorie.

10 And the fift Angel powred out his vial vpon the throne of the ⁱ beast, & his kingdom waxed darke, & they ^k gnewe their tongues for sorowe, 11 And blasphemed the God of heauen for their paines, and for their sores, & repented not of their workes.

12 And the sixt Angel powred out his vial vpon the great riuer ^l Euphrates, and the water thereof dried vp, that the way of Popes doctrine is an horrible plague of God, & kepeth men in darke ignorance and errours. k They shal thewe their furie, rage & blasphemie against God when the light of his Gospel shal shine. l By Euphrates which was ^g strength of Babylon, is meant ^g riches, strength, pleasures and commodities of Rome the second Babylon, ^h the faithfull ^h are the true Kings & Priests in Christ, haue taken away by disclosing their wicked discret.

f By the foure beastes are met all the creatures of God & willingly serue him for the punishment of the infideles.

g God giueth vs ful entrie in to his Church by destroying his enemies: for the Saintes can not clearely knowe all Gods iudgements before the ful end of all things.

a This was like the first plague of Egypt, which was sores and boiles or pockes: and this reigneth commonly among Canons, monkes, fraters, noines, Priests and such like vermin which beare the marke of ^g beast. b This is like to the first plague of Egypt which signifieth all kindes of perillances and contagious diseases. c That is, corrupt & infidel. d The first plague of Egypt was like vnto this. e He bringeth forth the two Angels: ^g one which is gouernour of ^g waters, and the other from ^g the altar, as witnesses & commēders of Gods iust iudgements. f For as muche as thou destroyest the rebelles, & preferrest thine. g Signifying famine, drought and hote diseases which procede thereof. h The wicked were hardhearted & stubborn when God punished them. i This answereth to ^g ninth plague of Egypt: which signifieth ^g the m That is, a strong number 13 of this great deuil & Popes ambassadours which are euer crying and croaking like frogs and come out of Antichrists mouth, because they shulde speake nothig but lies and vse all manner of craftie deceit to mainteine their riche Euphrates against the true Christians.

Chap. 3.7. mar. 24. 44. luk. 12. 39. n Albeit they call them selues spiritual and holie fathers. o For in all Kings courtes & Pope hath had his ambafadours to hinder the kingdome of Christ. p Of righteousness and holines, where with we are cled through Iesus Christ. q As if he wolde say, The craftines of destruction whic as Kings and princes shal warre against God, but by craft of Satan are brought to that place where they shal be destroyed. r This is the last iudgement when Christ shal come to destroy & wicked and deliuer his Church. f Meaning the whole number of them that call them selues Christians, whereof some are so in dede, some are Papistes and vnder pretence of Christ serue Antichrist, and some are neuters which are nerher on the one side nor of the other. e Signifying, all strange religions, as of the Iewes, Turkes & others, which then shal fall with that great whore of Rome, & be tormented in eternal paines.

the Kings of the East shulde be prepared. And I sawe three vncleane spirits like frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, & out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of deuils, working miracles, to go vnto the Kings of the earth, and of the whole worlde, to gather them to the battel of that great day of God Almightye. (*Beholde, I come as a thefe. Blessed is he that watcheth & kepeth his garmets, lest he walke naked, and men se his filthines) And they gathered them together into a place called in Hebrue 9 Arma-gedon. ¶ And the seuenth Angel powred out his vial into the ayre: & there came a loude voyce out of the Temple of heauen from the throne, saying, It is done. And there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, & there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mightie an earthquake. And the great citie was diuided into thre partes, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, * to giue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenes of his wrath. And euerie yle fled away, & the mountaines were not founde. And there fell a great haile, like talents, out of heauen vpon the men, and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the haile: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

ten hornes. And the woman was araied in purple & skarlat, & gilded with golde, & precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of golde in her hand, full of s abominations, and filthines of her fornication. And in her forehead was a name written, A Mysterie, great Babylon, the mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth. And I sawe the woman drunken with the blood of Saintes, & with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: & when I sawe her, I wōdred with great marueile. Then the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore marueilest thou? I wil shewe thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast, that beareth her, which hath seuen heads, and ten hornes. The beast that thou hast sene, was, and is not, and shal ascende out of the bottomles pit, and shal go into perdicion, and they that dwell on the earth, shal wondre (whose names are not written in the Boke of life from the fundacion of the worlde) when they beholde the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. Here is the minde that hath wisdom. The seuen heads are seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also seuen Kings. Five are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and whē he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the eight, and is one of the seuen, & shal go into destruction. And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten Kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shal receiue power, as Kings at one houre with the beast. These haue one minde, and shal giue their power, and autoritie vnto the beast. These shal fight with the Lambe, & the Lambe shal ouercome them: * for he is Lord of Lords, & King of Kings: & they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithful. And he said vnto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. And the ten hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shal hate the whore, and shal make her desolate and naked, & shal eat her flesh, & burne her with fyre. For God hath spū in their hearts to fulfil his wil, & to do with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntil the wordes of God be fulfilled.

f This woman is the Antichrist, that is, the Pope with his whole bodie of his filthie creatures, as is expounded, vers. 18, whose beautie onely standeth in outward pompe & impudencie and craft like a strumpet. g Of false doctrines & blasphemies. h Which none can knowe to auoide but the elect. i This is the Romaine empire which being fallen into decay, the whore of Rome vsurped autoritie, and proceeded from the deuil and thither shal returne. k Which are about Rome. l For after his empire was decayed in Nero, Galba, Orho, Vitellius, Vespasian, Titus dyed in lesse then fouretene yeres and reigned as Kings: Domitian then reigned, and after him Cocceius Nerua which was the seuenth. m He meant Traian the emperor who was a Spanyard & adoped by Nerua, but because he persecuted faith ful he goeth also to perdition. n He signifieth the horrible persecutions which haue bene vnder the empire of Rome, and in all other realmes subiect to the same. 1. Tim. 6. 15. chap. 19. 16. o And breake them to shivers as a porters pot. p Diuers nations as the Gothes, Vandales, Hunnes and other nations which were once subiect to Rome, shal rise againe & destroy it. q That in stead of doing homage to Christ Iesus, they shulde be cast into a reprobat sense to vnto him.

CHAP. XVII.

3 The description of the great whore. 8 Her finnes and punishment. 14 The victorie of the Lambe.

a Which was Christ Iesus who wil take vengeance on this Romish harlot. b Antichrist is compared to an harlot because he seduceth the worlde with vaine wordes, doctrines of lies, & outward appearance. c Meaning, diuers nations & countreys. d The beast signifieth an cient Rome: the woman that sitteth thereon, the newe Rome which is the Papistrie, whose crueltie and blood sheding is declared by skarlat. e Full of idolatrie, superstition and contempt of the true God.

¶ Then there came one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen viales, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come: I wil shewe thee the danacion of the great whore that sitteth vpon many waters, With whome haue committed fornication the Kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are drunken with the wine of her fornication. So he caried me away into the wilderness in the Spirit, and I sawe a woman sit vpon a skarlat coloured beast, full of names of blasphemie, which had seuen heads, &

And he said vnto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. CHAP. XVIII.

3.9 The louers of the worlde are sorie for the fall of the whore of Babylon: 4 An admouition to the people of God to flee out of her dominion, 20 But they that be of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

1 And after these things, I sawe another Angel come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightened with his glorie.

2 And he cryed out mightily with a loude voyce, saying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon y great citie, & is become the habitation of deuils, and the holde of all fowle spirits, and a cage of euerie vnclane and hateful byrde.

3 For all nations haue drōken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the marchāts of the earth are waxed riche of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce frō heauen say, d Go out of her, my people, that ye be not partetakers in her sinnes, and that ye receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are come vp vnto heauen, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 f Rewarde her, euē as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: & in the cup that she hath filled to you, fil her the double.

7 In asmuche as she glorified her self, and liued in pleasure, so muche giue ye to her torment and sorowe: for she saith in her heart, * I sit being a quene, and am no widowe, and shal se no mourning.

8 Therefore shal her plagues come at one day, death, and sorowe, and famine, & she shalbe burnt with fyre: for strong is the Lord God which wil condemne her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shal bewaile her, & lament for her, which haue comitted fornication, & liued in pleasure with her, when they shal se the smoke of her burning.

10 And shal stande a farre of for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the marchāts of the earth shal wepe and waile ouer her: for no man byeth their ware any more.

12 The ware of golde and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linen, and of purple, and of silke, and of skarlet, & of all maner of Thyne wood, and of all vessels of yuorie, and of all vessels of moste precious wood, & of brasfe, and of yron, and of marble,

13 And of synamon, and odours, and ointments, and franckinsence, and wine, and oile, and fine floure, and wheat, & beastes, and shepe, and horses, and charets, & seruants, and soules of men.

14 (And the apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, & all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no more)

15 The marchants of these things which were waxed riche, shal stand a farre of frō her, for feare of her torment, weping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linen and purple, and skarlet, and gilded with golde, and precious stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euerie shippe master, and all the people that occupie shippes, and shipmen, and who soeuer trauail on the sea, shal stand a farre of,

18 And crye, when they se the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shal cast dust on their heads, and crye weping, and wailing, & say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made riche all that had shippes on the sea by her costlines: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holie Apostles and Prophetes: for God hath giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mightie Angel toke vp a stone like a great millstone, & cast it into the sea, saying, With suche violēce shal the great citie Babylon be cast, and shaibe founde no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, & musicians, and of pipers, & trumpeters shalbe heard no more in thee, and no crafter man, of whatsoeuer crafter he be, shalbe founde any more in thee: and the sounde of a millstone shalbe heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shal shine no more in thee: and the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride shalbe heard no more in thee: for thy marchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine inchantements were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was founde the blood of the Prophetes, and of the Saintes, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

chap. 14. 8.
a This description of the overthrow of the great whore is like to that whereby the prophetes vic to declare the destruction of Babylon.
b He describeth Rome to be y snacke of all abomination and decessines, and a kinde of hel.
c The greatest parte of the worlde hath bene abused & seduced by this spiritual whoredome.
d When God threateneth y wicked, he euer cōforteth & counseleth his what they ought to do, y is, that they do not comunicat with y sinnes of the wicked.
Isa. 47. 8.
e The greke worde is, that her sinnes so followe one another, and so wife one after another, that they growe to suche an heape, y at length they touche y verie heauen.
f Blessed is he that ca repayc to the whore the like, as is written psal. 137. 9.
g The glorious boasting of the trumpeter.
h But ful of people & mightie.
i Bothe they that temporally haue had profite by the trumpeter, and also the spiritual marchāts shal for sorow & wāt of their gaine crye out and despair.
k Which is verie odoriferous and precious.

1 And

1 And after these things I heard a great voice of a great multitude in heauen, saying, a Hallelu-iah, saluacion & glorie, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

2 For b true & righteous are his iudgements: for he hath condemned the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornicacion, and hath aduenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

3 And againe they said, Hallelu-iah: & her c smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twentie Elders, & the foure d beastes fell downe, and worshiped God that sat on the throne, saying, e Amen, Hallelu-iah.

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, bothe smale and great.

6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of strong thondrings, saying, Hallelu-iah: for our Lord God almightie hath reigned.

7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glorie to him: for the f marriage of the Labe is come, and his wife hath made her self readie.

8 And to her was grated, that she shulde be arated with pure fyne linen and shining, for the fine linen is the righteousnes of Sainctes.

9 Then he said vnto me, Write, a Blessed are they which are b called vnto the Lambes supper. And he said vnto me, These wordes of God are true.

10 And I fell before his feete, * to worship him: but he said vnto me, Se thou do it not: I am thy fellowe seruant, and one of thy brethren, which haue the i testimonie of Iesus, Worship God: for the k testimonie of Iesus, is the spirit of prophecie.

11 And I sawe heauen open, and beholde a white l horse, and he that sat vpon him, was called, m Faithful & true, & he n iudged and fighteth righteously.

12 And his eyes were as a flame of fyre, & on his head were o manie crownes: and he had a name written, that no man p knewe but him self.

13 And * he was clothed with a garment dipte in q blood, and his name is called, THE WORDE OF GOD.

14 And the r warriors which were in heauē, solowed him vpon white horses, clothed with fine linen white and pure.

15 And out of his mouth went out a sharpe s sworde, that with it he shulde smite the heathen: for he t shal rule the with a rodde of yron: for he it is that treadeth the wine presse of the fiercenes and wrath of almightie God.

16 And he hath vpon his garment, and vpon his u thigh a name written, * THE KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I sawe an Angel stand in the x sunne, who cryed with a lowde voyce, saying to all the foules that did flye by the middes of heauen, Come, and gather your selues together vnto the supper of the great God,

18 That ye may eat the flesh of Kings, & the flesh of hie Captaines, and the flesh of mightie men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all fre mē and bondemen, and of smale and great.

19 And I sawe the beast, and the Kings of the earth, and their y warriors gathered together to make battel against him, that sat on the horse & against his souldiers.

20 But the beast was z taken, and with him that false prophete that wrought miracles before him, whereby he deceiued them that receiued the beastes marke, & them that worshiped his image. These bothe were alieue cast into a lake of fyre, burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slayne with the sworde of him that sitteth vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth, and all the foules were filled full with their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

1 Satan being bounde for a certeine time, 7 And after let lofe, vexeth the Church grievously. 10. 14 And after the world is iudged, he and his are cast into the lake of fyre.

1 And I sawe an a Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the b keye of the bottomles pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And he toke the dragon that olde serpēt, which is the deuill and Satan, and he bounde him c a thousand yeres,

3 And cast him into the bottomles pit, and he shut him vp, and sealed the dore vpon him, that he shulde deceiue the people no more, til y d thousand yeres were fulfilled: for after that he must be losed for a litle season.

4 And I sawe e seates: and they sat vpon their impietie and stubbernes. c That is, from Christs natiuitie vnto the time of Pope Syluester the seconde: so long the pure doctrine shulde after a sorte remaine. d After this terme Satan had greater power then he had before. e The glotic and autoritie of them that suffer for Christs sake.

a That is, praise ye God, because of Antichrist & all wickednes is take out of the worlde. b So that all the Sainctes are confirmed and ought nothing to doute of the saluacion of f faithful. c The wicked shalbe burned in continual fyre, y neuer shalbe extinguished. d By the foure Beasts are met all creatures. e Signifying y his iudgements are true & iust, and y we ought to praise him euermore for the destruction of the Pope.

f God made Christ y bridegrome of his Church at the beginning, and at the last day it shalbe fully accomplished when we that be ioyned w our head.

Mat. 22. 2. chap. 14. 13. g That is, the Angel.

h Whome God of fre mercie calleth to be partakers of his heauenlie graces, & deliuereth from y this pollution of Antichrist.

i Who am charged to testifie of Iesus, or am partaker of y same Gospel & faith.

k He sheweth that none ought to be worshipped but onely God, & that he is of their number whome God vseth to reueile his secrets by to the Prophetes, y they may declare them to others, also that we must beleue no other spirit of prophecie, but that which doeth testifie of Iesus, and lead vs to him. l Whereby is signified that Iesus Christ our Iudge shalbe victorious, and shal triumph over his enemies.

m He meaneth Christ n So that the wicked shal tremble before his face. o To shewe that he was ruler of all the worlde. p That is, none can haue so full reuelacion how Christ is verie God, eternal, infinite and almightie, as he him self.

q Whereby is signified his victorie, and the destruction of his enemies. r Signifying that Iesus Christ, which is the worde, is made flesh, and is our Lord, our God and the Iudge of the quicke and dead. s This declarerth that his Angels shal come with him to Iudge the worlde.

t Which d ueth the wicked into eternal fyre. Psal. 2. 9.

2. Tim. 4. 1.

u Which clarerth his manie, wheriu he is Lo of all, and sh iudge y worl x This signieth y the day of iudgement shalbe clear and euident, that none shalbe hid: for it trumpet shal blowe a lowd & all shal vnderstand it.

y For the Pope & y world lie princes shal fight against Christ, euen vntil the last day. z The overthrow of the beast and his w shalbe chiefly accomplished at the seconde coming of Christ.

a This Angel representeth y ordre of y Apostles, whose vocacion & of fice was from heauen: or may signifie Christ, w shulde treade downe the serpents head. b Hereby he meaneth the Gospel whereby hel is shut up to y faithful, & Satan is chained that he ca not hurt them, yea & y ministers hereby open it to the infidels, but through them, and iudgemēt was giuen vnto them, and I ſawe the ſoules of them, that were behæded for the wirtues of Ieſus, and for the worde of God; & which did not worſhip y^e beaſt, nether his image, nether had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or on their hands: and they liued, & reigned with Chriſt a^t thouſand yere.

5 But the reſt of the ſ dead men ſhal not liue againe, vntil the thouſand yeres be finiſhed: this is the^h firſt reſurreccion.

6 Blessed and holie is he, that hathe parte in the firſt reſurreccion: for on ſuche the ſeconde death hathe no power: but they ſhal be the Prielts of God and of Chriſt, & ſhal reigne with him a^t thouſand yere.

7 * And when the thouſand yeres are expired, Satan ſhal be loſed out of his priſon,

8 And ſhal go out to deceiue the people, which are in the foure quarters of the earth: euē Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battel, whoſe number is, as the ſand of the ſea.

9 And they went vp into the plaine of the earth, w^h compaſſed the tents of the Saintes about, and the beloued citie: but fyre came downe from God out of heauen, & deuoured them.

10 And the deuil that deceiued them, was caſt into a lake of fyre & brimſtone, where the beaſt and the falſe prophet ſhal be tormented euen day and night for euermore.

11 And I ſawe a great white throne, and oⁿe that ſate on it, from whoſe face ſhed away bothe the earth and heauen, & their place was no more founde.

12 And I ſawe the dead, bothe the great & ſmal ſtand before God: and the^r bo^{ok}es were opened, & * another boke was opened, which is the bo^{ok}e of life, and the dead were iudged of thoſe things, which were written in the bo^{ok}es, according to their workes.

13 And the ſea gaue vp her dead, which were in her, and death and hell deliuered vp the dead, which were in them: & they were iudged euerie mā according to their workes.

14 And death and hell were caſt into the lake of fyre: this is the ſeconde death.

15 And whoſoever was not founde written in the boke of life, was caſt into the lake of fyre.

3.24. The bleſſed ſtate of the godlie, 3.27 And the miſerable condition of the wicked. 11 The deſcription of the heauenlie Ierufalem, and of the wife of the Lambes.

1 And I ſawe * a new heauen, & a new earth: for^t the firſt heauen, and the firſt earth were^h paſſed away, & there was no more ſea.

2 And I Iohn ſawe the^e holie citie newe Ierufalem come^d downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her houſband.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, ſaying, Beholde, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he wil dwell with them: & they ſhal be his people, and God him ſelf ſhal be their God with them.

4 * And God ſhal wipe^e away all teares from their eyes: & there ſhal be no more death, nether ſorowe, nether crying, nether ſhal there be anie more paine: for y^e firſt things are paſſed.

5 And he that ſate vpon the throne, ſaid, * Beholde, I make all things new: and he ſaid vnto me, Write: for theſe wordes are faithful and true.

6 And he ſaid vnto me, * It is done, I am and and, the beginning and the end. I wil giue to him that is a thirſt, of the^t well of the water of life frely.

7 He that ouercometh, ſhal inherit all things, and I wil be his God, & he ſhal be my ſonne.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The riuer of the water of life. 2 The frutesfullnes & light of the citie of God. 3 The Lord giueth euer his seruants warning of things to come. 4 The Angel wil not be worshipped. 5 To the worde of God may nothing be added nor diminished therefrom.

- 1 And he shewed me a pure riuer of water of life, cleare as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.
- 2 In the middes of the strete of it, and of ether side of the riuer, was the tre of life, which bare twelue maner of frutes, & gaue frute euerie moneth: & the leaues of the tre serued to heale the nations with.
- 3 And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God & of the Lambe shall be in it, and his seruants shall serue him.
- 4 And they shall see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheades.
- 5 *And there shall be no night there, and they nede no candle, nether light of the sun

- ne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.
- 6 And he said vnto me, These wordes are faithful and true: & the Lord God of the holie Prophetes sent his Angel to shewe vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.
- 7 Beholde, I come shortly. Blessed is he which kepeth the wordes of the prophecie of this boke.
- 8 And I am Iohn, which sawe and heard these things: and when I had heard & seene, * I fell downe to worship before the fete of the Angel, which shewed me these things.
- 9 But he said vnto me, Se thou do it not: for I am thy fellowe seruant, & of thy brethre the Prophetes, and of them which kepe the wordes of this boke: worship God.
- 10 And he said vnto me, Seale not the wordes of the prophecie of this boke: for the time is at hand.
- 11 He that is vniust, let him be vniust stil: & he which is filthy, let him be filthy stil: and he which is righteous, let him be righteous stil: & he which is holie, let him be holie stil.
- 12 And beholde, I come shortly, & my reward is with me, * to giue euerie man according as his worke shall be.
- 13 I am * a and * the beginning & the end, the first and the last.
- 14 Blessed are they, that do his commandments, that their right may be in the tre of life, & may entre in through the gates into the citie.
- 15 For without shall be dogges & enchâters, & whoremongers, & murtherers, & idolaters, & whosoever loueth or maketh lyes.
- 16 I Iesus haue sent mine Angel, to testify vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the roote & the generaciõ of Dauid, and the bright morning starre.
- 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come: & let him which is athirst, come: & let whosoever wil, take of the water of life frely.
- 18 For I protest vnto euerie man that heareth the wordes of the prophecie of this boke, * if any man shall adde vnto these things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues, that are written in this boke.
- 19 And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of this boke of this prophecie, God shall take away his parte out of the Boke of life, and out of the holie citie, and from those things which are written in this boke.
- 20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely, I come quickly. Amen. Euen so come, Lord Iesus.
- 21 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

which are chiefly founde in the olde Testamēt, wherein the first number signifieth the chapter: the seconde the verse.

W Here as the wickednes of time, and the blindnes of the former age hath bene such that all things altogether haue bene abused and corrupted, so that the very right names of diuers of the holie men named in the Scriptures haue bene forgotten, and now some strange vnto vs, and the names of infants that shulde euer haue some godlie aduertisements in them, and shulde be memorials and markes of the children of God receiued into his householde, hath bene hereby also changed and made the signes and badges of idolatrie and heathenish impietie, we haue now set forth this table of the names that be most vsed in the olde Testament with their interpretations, as the Ebrewe importeth, partly to call backe the godlie frō that abuse, when they shal know the true names of the godlie fathers, & what they signifie, that their children now named after them may haue testimonies by their very names, that they are within that faithful familie that in all their doings had euer God before their eyes, and that they are bounde by these their names to serue God from their infancie & haue occasion to praise him for his workes wrought in them & their fathers: but chiefly to restore the names to their integritie, whereby many places of the Scriptures and secret mysteries of the holie Ghost shal better be vnderstand. We haue medled rarely with the Greke names, because their interpretation is vncerteine, & many of the are corrupted from their original, as we may also see these Ebrewe names set in the margent of this table, which haue bene corrupted by the Grecians. Now for the other Ebrewe names that are not here interpretate, let not the diligent reader be careful: for he shal finde them in places moste cōuenient amongst the annotations: at least so many as may seme to make for any edification, and vnderstanding of the Scriptures.

The summe of the yerres of the first age

From Adam vnto Noes flood are yerres 1656.
For when Adam was a 130 yere olde, he begate Seth.
Seth being 105 yerres, begate Enos.
Enos being 90 yerres, begate Cainan.
Cainan being 70 yerres, begate Ma-halaleel.
Mahalaleel being 65 yerres, begate Iared.
Iared at the age of a 162 yerres, begate Enoch.
Enoch being 65 yerres, begate Ma-thufelah.
Mathufelah at the age of 187 yerres, begate Lamech.
Lamech beīg 182 yerres, begate Noe.
Noe at the comming of the flood was 600 yerres olde, as appeareth in the seuenth of Genesis.
The whole summe of the yerres are 1656.
From the said flood of Noe vnto Adrahams departing from Chalde were 363 yerres, and ten dayes.
For the said flood continued one whole yere and ten dayes.

Sem (which was Noes sonne) begate Arphaxat two yerres after that.
Arphaxat begate Salah whē he was 35 yerres olde.
Salah being 30 yerres olde, begate Heber.
Heber at his age of 34 begate Phalech.
Phalech beīg 30 yerres, begate Regu.
Regu being 32 yerres, begate Saruch.
Saruch being 30 yerres, begate Nahor.
Nahor beīg 29 yerres, begate Thare.
Thare being 70 yerres, begate Abraham.
And Abrahā departed from Chalde when he was 70 yerres olde.
These said yerres accounted are 363 yerres, & ten dayes.
From Abrahams departing frō Vr in Chalde vnto the departing of the children of Israel frō Egypt are 430 yerres, gathered as followeth.
Abrahā was in Charran five yerres, and departed in the 75 yere.
He begate Isaac when he was 100 yerres olde, and in the 25 yere of his departing.

Isaac begate Iakob when he was 60
yerres olde.
Iakob went into Egypt with all his familie, whē he was 130 yere olde.
Israel was in Egypt 220 yerres, which remaine from that time.
Then rebate 80 yerres from this: for so olde was Moses when he cōducted the Israelites from Egypt.
So the reste of the yerres, that is to say 130, are deuided betwixt Am-ram and Chath.
Then Chath begate Amram at his age of 67 yerres.
Amram being 65 yerres, begate Moses, who in the 80 yere of his age departed with the Israelites from Egypt.
So this supputation is the 430
yerres mencioned in the 12. of Exod. & the 3.
to the Galatians.
From the going of the Israelites from Egypt vnto the first buylding of the Temple are 480 yeres, after this supputation and accounte.
Moses remained in ŷ desert or wil-LL. iii.

dernes 40 yeres.
 Iosue & Othoniel ruled 40 yeres.
 Aioth 70 yeres.
 Debora 40 yeres.
 Gedeon 40 yeres.
 Abimelech 3 yeres.
 Thela 23 yeres.
 Iair 22 yeres.
 Then were they without a captaine vnto the 18 yere of Iepthe.
 Iepthe 6 yeres.
 Abissam 7 yeres.
 Elom 10 yeres.
 Abacon 8 yeres.
 Sampson 20 yeres.
 Heli Iudge and Priest 44 yeres.
 Samuel & Saul reigned 40 yeres.
 Daud was King 40 yeres.
 Salomon in the 4 yere of his reigne began the buylding of the Temple.
 These are the 480 yeres mencioned in the first of the Kings, & the 6 chap.
From the first buylding of the Temple vnto the captiuitie of Babylon are 419 yeres & an halfe.
 Salomon reigned yet 36 yeres.
 Roboam 17 yeres.
 Abia 3 yeres.
 Afa 41 yeres.
 Iosaphat 25 yeres.
 Ioram 8 yeres.

Ochafias one yere.
 Athalia the Queene 7 yeres.
 Ioas 40 yeres.
 Amafias 29 yeres.
 Ozias 52 yeres.
 Ioathan 16 yeres.
 Achas 16 yeres.
 Ezechias 29 yeres.
 Manaffes 55 yeres.
 Amon 2 yeres.
 Iofias 31 yeres.
 Ioachas 3 moneths.
 Eliacim 11 yeres.
 Ioachim, Iechonias 3 moneths.
 And here beginneth the captiuitie of Babylon.

The summe of these yeres are 419 yeres.

Ierusalem was reedified & buyl-ded againe after the captiuitie of Babylon 143 yeres.

The captiuitie continued 70 yeres.
The children of Israel were deliue-red and restored to their fredome in the first yere of Cyrus.

The Temple was begonne to be buylded in the 2 yere of the said Cyrus, & finished in the 46 yere, which was the 6 yere of Darius.
After that Darius had reigned 20 yere, Nehemias was restored to libertie, and went to buylde the citie, which was finished in the year 222/1224 yere of the said Darius.

All the yeres from the buylding of the Temple againe are 16 yeres.

The whole summe of yeres amount to 143 yeres.

From the reedifying of the ci-tie vnto the coming of Christ, are 483 yeres, after this supputatio or nombring.

It is mencioned in the 9 of Daniel that Ierusalem shulde be buylt vp againe, and that from that time vnto the coming of Christ are 67 weekes, & euerie weeke is reckoned for seuen yeres. So 67 weekes amount to 483 yeres. For from the 32 yere of Darius vnto the 42 yere of Augustus, in the which yere our Saviour Christ was borne, are iust and complet so many yeres, whereupon we reckon, that from Adam vnto Christ are 3974
yeres, six moneths and ten dayes, and from the byrth of Christ vnto this present yere, is 1560.
Then the whole summe and nomber of yeres from the beginning of the worlde vnto this present yere of our Lord God 1560 are iust 534, 6 moneths, and the said odde ten dayes.

The End.
